G. W. HODDRIDGE, WM. IRVING,
Asst. Agent. Sup't.

Congress commenced last Monday.

—Miner keeps the neatest apples in town.

—Board and lodging for two more at Springer's.

—Twenty new subscribers this week.

—Several cases before the police court, this week.

—I come put the old lady in the calaboose.

—A negro minstrel troupe was in town one night last week.

—Ladies and children under were at Mrs. McBride's.

—A new store is to be built north of Mitchell & Marth's store.

—A new blacksmith shop is to be put up soon.

—Messrs. Louisa Brown and Whitefield will start a bakery in a few days.

Mr. Lewis N. Cook we know from various observations.

—Mr. Land of Superior will ship 25 car loads of cattle to day also Mr. Clegg 125 boxes. The cars come in yesterday.

—Billy Morris next week, Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday evening.

—Waukon, Iowa is just now giving us a rest, and Sherman-ah is pouring into our midst some lively business men.

—MINER Bros. have a very fine assortment of Ladies' Cloaks which they are offering, as usual at lower prices than any other house in the valley. Come and see them.

—The Literary Note, published at Kearney is a model of neatness, and we commend it to the notice of our teachers in this county.

—Sam C. Nobe from Shenandoah handled the "wick and role," for us last week pretty nicely. He is east bound with the country here, and no doubt will remain with us.

—Geo. C. West from Shenandoah is engaged at the depot as night operator and assistant agent. He goes on duty at 10 p. m. and remains on till 10 the next morning.

—Mr. Stewart also of that place will arrive in town with his family this week. He proposes to stock up his store with a good assortment of goods, and make a citizen with us.

—Mr. S. B. Buffield the proprietor of the new drug store, has received his goods, even before his building was in readiness, he had it all of goods. His wife is daughter of Mr. Stewart who is mentioned in another place.

Mr. Thompson, J. G. Potter's father in law, is building a neat residence just north of Carson's. Mr. Thompson is in love with the climate and proposes to make his earthly rest here.

—Beautiful Christmas Goods just ordered by Mrs. McBride.

—We strolled down to see the train come in last Monday night, and were surprised to see the amount of work that is being done there. A ton and a half heavily loaded cart rolled into the depot, and a baggage and passenger car.

We found Messrs. Patterson, West "Charley" and Mrs. Patterson all busy making up the returns for the day and getting ready for another day.

The back men from town vied with each other for the passengers and all got a few. The business increases every day and Red Cloud need not be ashamed of its record.

—Ladies beautiful lace sets at Mrs. McBride's

—I am against the rules to put advertisements on the bridge, just as much as ever was?

—A Wagoner had an exchanged team and wagon to me over winter.

—Lead creeps out. Please find another column on front page.

—WANTED. Four fine dark brindle cows, for which I will pay liberally.

J. S. BRENTZEN

—Go to Fords for that Plated ware, books, etc., and especially for his book that you will not be promptly executed.

NEW MEAT MARKET

Kerr & Son have opened a meat market just south of Mitchell & Marth's, where you can find articles of meat in the best style. Every thing meat and poultry.

Hicks, Poultry, Game bought at the highest market price. Come and see us.

—MINER Bros. are now selling the celebrated No. 1 White Sewing machine for $25. This low price puts the best machine in the market with a right eye, about eighteen years old.

The owner will give credit and pay charges and claim property.

17-56 Daniel Norris.

Mrs. Dixie of Red Cloud with Miss Oliphant from the East, have opened a full line of Millinery and Fancy Goods. Just door south of Fords office. Give them a call.

—Pie for Christmas should be made of that excluded meat or meat at the City or at market.

at Mrs. M. Barnes.

—Owing to causes over which we had no control, the express containing our barrel of paper, which had several extra splices in it, went back Monday, and we could not get it in time for this week. Some more on part of old paper with nearly five quires of half sheets. Home-felt we hope to keep enough paper on hand.

—Dr. Morris from Michigan has settled among us, and is looking of buying out the Red Cloud Drug Store. The Dr. is a genial man in conversation and no doubt will succeed in our midst.

—Mrs. Ada Van Pelt, the G. W. C. T. of the Grand Lodge of Nebraska was in town last Friday evening, and looked in at the festival. Mrs. U. is doing a good work throughout our state in the cause of temperance.

—She will deliver a lecture here Friday evening Dec. 6th, tomorrow evening. Let every one turn out.

—The proprietor of the Cass Co Chronicle and a hooligan in our country has this to say of one of our towns.

The town of Cowles, on the B. & M. branch from Hastings, is said to be building up, and will, no doubt, be one of the principal trading points in that section of the country, as the natural advantages are good, and it is located almost exactly in the geographical centre of Webster County.

—Geo. C. West from Shenandoah is engaged at the depot as night operator and assistant agent. He goes on duty at 10 p. m. and remains on till 10 the next morning.

—Mr. Stewart also of that place will arrive in town with his family this week. He proposes to stock up his store with a good assortment of goods, and make a citizen with us.

FRANK BOBIN, Mortgagor.

The system adopted by Fitter does not, for the purpose of young birds, interfere with the Condition, etc. etc. etc. A large party of friends at Red Cloud's new store building recently enjoyed themselves greatly. The owner of the saloon, however, Mr. August Lissner, said all he could to the entire gathering.

We cannot express our thanks too strongly to those who so ably guided and assisted in making the meeting a success, also to the Red Cloud's Free gift of 1000 dollars for the purpose. The entire receipts 1000 dollars go to the Red Cloud Orphan Asylum.

When you are depressed and you are disengaged from home, take a walk. You may find pleasure in the quiet scenes of nature, or health in the quiet scenes of society.

—The Red Cloud Hotel was opened last Monday by Mr. John.

Mr. S. E. Sargent, formerly of Jewell County, has moved out of the Hastings hotel house, probably to the city of Omaha. We hope to see him again.
