—Two young Thoreau girls had a row, which came near ending in a fight last week.

LOST

Between M. Wilson's (Covered) post office and G. W. Shantz's two miles north of Red Cloud, on the old Red Cloud and Hastings road, a buckskin purse containing about $50.00, two fives, two tens and a twenty in paper and about $3.00 in silver. Any one returning the same to this office will be liberally rewarded.

—Died Dec. 5th, 1878, near Wells P. O. Greenwood, Pawnee, Council, youngest son of J. C. & B. Adlum, age 18 months, died of Diphtheria after a sickness of one week.

And in remembrance of the little sister Addie, age 3 years, who departed Nov. 27th a week previous to her name disease.

The bereaved parents have the sympathy of the whole community in this time of their affliction. May the God of love who tempers the winds to the storm clouds enable them to bear with fortitude this deep affliction which he in his inscrutable providence has seen fit to inflict.

J. M.—Judge Wilcox has made an addition to his residence north of town.

—Don't forget the Teachers' Institute, Saturday.

Lace, ribbons, etc., at Mrs. McBrine's.

—Mr. Pope has purchased Mr. Benington's house on the west side of town.

—Friend Sherman, the "Sweet Singer of Nebraska" dropped in Saturday.

—Mr. Bufford has fitted up the newest drug store in this western country. He is a new stand.

—Howard Springer of Stillwater, formerly of Indianapolis, Ind., is working at the depot.

Mr. Fred Stewart, son of the merchant, is in town making arrangements for the reception of the large stock of goods which are arriving.

—Plain sewing and dress-making done in the best style, first door south of the Argus Office.

—The bakers spoke of last week have put up a neat frame building north of the furniture store, and will soon open an extensive bakery.

—Hill & Ondreos have put up a new blacksmith shop on the lot occupied by the Red Cloud Lumber Yard.

—Mr. Moore has built an addition to his house now occupied by Mr. Pope and he intends putting it in Mr. Jury.

Apples, Apples, and still more we seem to MIXER Bros.

—Mr. Reed goes to Chicago soon to purchase a stock of furniture, with which he purposed to fill his store.

P. LOWELL G. F. Agt.

"Brouns" warranted long Havana cigar.

—Callist Hope's Jewelry store and examine the splendid assortment of silver plated ware and you will be astonished at the low prices at which he sells good goods, every article warranted Standard Triple Plate.

—Dr. Morris called and made us a pleasant visit Tuesday. He will commence taking an invoice of the Red Cloud Drug Store on Monday next. He expects a gentleman from the east to carry it on for him.

Go and ask Miner Bros. what kind of a thing "Boucette" is.

—We dropped in to see the Nine Society, Tuesday evening. Sociability reigns. Promenading, music, etc., made the hours fly swiftly by. We suggest that some of our young couples learn to keep step and not be knocking against each other's shoulders. The object of the society is to raise funds to purchase an organ for the church.

Billy Marble and his theatrical troupe are here this week. They play at "Driven From Home," on Friday evening to a full house. "The Hidden Hand" was advertised for Tuesday, but Mrs. Ella Marble was taken sick and at present writing, she is unable to appear on the stage. The band furnished some excellent music for the Nine Society that evening.

—They ALL Want it

Because it is a family newspaper of pure sound reading for old and young, and it contains a reliable and comprehensive summary of all the important news.

THE NEW YORK OBSERVER

The Best Family Newspaper

Publishes both the religious and secular news that is desired in any family, while all that is likely to injure is shut out. It devotes four pages to religious news, and four to secular.

The New York Observer was first published in 1823, and it is believed to be the only instance of a Religious Newspaper continuing its even course for fifty-six years, without a change of name, doctrine, intent, purpose, or pledge from the date of its birth.

The 5th Volume will contain all the important news that can interest or instruct, so that any one who reads it will be thoroughly posted.

We do not run a benevolent institution, and we do not ask for the support of charity.

We propose to make the Best News paper that is published, and we propose to sell it as cheaply as it can be afforded. Let those who want pure sound reading subscribe for it, and let them induce others to do the same.

We are now publishing in the One SERVER the Story of

JOAN THE MAID,

by Mrs. Charles, author of "Chronicles of the Schonberg-Cotta Family."

We send no Premium. Will send you the NEW YORK OBSERVER one year post paid, for $1.15, any one sending with his own subscription the names of new subscribers, shall have commission allowed in proportion to the number sent. For particular terms in the Observer.
