G. W. HOLDRIE, W. M. IAYING, Ass't. Supt.

- Cold gain.
- Monday was warm.
- Tuesday was not.
- Red Edie's looks.
- When will the station be located at Inavale?

-Mr. Patterson the station agent called at this office on Tuesday.

-Remember that Prof. Thompson will be in attendance at the Teachers' Association.

-Mr. Mosher bought a fine beef for the other day that tips the beam at 1325 pounds.

-Eat of those delicious Caramels at the Post Office store and be glad.

-Rev. Bent will preach at the schoolhouse, morning and evening on the 3rd Sabbath of this month.

-J. F. Zediker visited our office in our absence on Monday. He is the assistant clerk in the House.

-See the card of Banks & Braze on first page. They are young lawyers to be trusted with any case.

-Last day evening Rev. Chas. Reilly, fell on the ice near the church steps, and injured himself very badly.

-Mr. J. H. Hill who has been sick for several weeks in our streets is again. We are glad to see him out again.

-Rev. Mr. Guild is giving temperance lectures in Franklin County and was advertised to speak at Inavale last night.

-We have a paper in our state that claims your attention, teachers "Literary and Educational Notes." Send $2.25 to the Chief for both papers.

-Read the instructions to pensioners, and remember that the department recognizes no middle men. The instructions are very plain and every person who is eligible to a pension can secure it for himself.

-The railroad is now nearly completed to Bloomington and the grading is going on toward Napoleon. From that point it is difficult to tell just what the move will be.

-Harlan County is to have an old settler reunion on the 13th, and Judge Lucas and Thos. Harlan are to tell what has been and what will be in that section of the Republican valley.

-He came. Inquired for the foreman. Seeing the proprietor he inquired for a piece of paper, and let the result was, "Please give or lend me 25cts. I shall have money to night." This he handed to us with the request for some work. We told him to go right to the cases. We not until after dinner. Well commenced then. All right.

-The last man of our Mr. Pleasant camp he was going through a minor door, but he has not dashed our door since.

-The wrong perpetrated upon laborers on the railroad calls for legislation of some kind to protect men in their rights as laborers. It is said that Mr. Fitzgerald pays his bills according to contract but that contractors cheat their men out of their rightful earnings, thus making many of our people, great sufferers in consequence. Something should be done to prevent such outrages.
