The Association was a success.

Over 60 teachers were present at the Association last Saturday.

In the case of Clark vs. Clark a divorce was decreed by the Court.

Valentine's day tomorrow. Look out for your picture.

Frank Birin says he bought those posts, and he will sell them cheap.

The mud dries on our streets nearly as fast as the snow leaves.

"Mack" and "Betsey" are on hand with their spidy looks this week.

Monday was a busy day among the lawyers and clients getting ready for the court.

T. J. Ward called the other day. Look out for a big "ad" in a short time; Jeff, is going into business.

Teams on good improved farms negotiated on favorable terms by L. B. Freeman.

The jury found no indictment against Elias Wilcox for assaulting Felix Killough with intent to kill.

The new Chandelier in the court house adds greatly to the fine appearance of the room, and was lighted for the first time last Sabbath evening.

The Grand Jury failed to find a bill against Pat Gibson and his comrade for assault with intent to kill Smith. They have been in jail since their preliminary examination, but now are free.

Mr. Cox, one of the best farmers in our county, called on us last Tuesday. Mr. Cox is deeply interested in what pertains to the agricultural pursuits in our county. He among many others wishes to know whether the Agricultural Society is to live or die. What is to be done with it, is what several anxious ones desire to know. We were informed by one of the directors that at the last meeting of the Board only himself and one other was present. No notice of the meeting was published in the press, so one knows outside of a few what the standing of the society is, whether it had enough to know them. These and kindred questions the farmers would like to know, and our columns are open for such information.

The National Journal of Education is now published at Chicago, and is as its name implies, national in its aims and views. Send your contributions to Klein & Kimball, Room 79, Metropolitan Block, LaSalle and Randolph Sts., Chicago Ill. Teachers give up their subscriptions next Saturday to this Journal.

We received a letter from Rev. H. A. Guild stating that he will be here on Friday and remain here in the country the most of next week. He desires to lecture on temperance Friday evening and give a free lecture on the Order of the Eastern Star on Saturday evening, preach on Sunday and bid for a temperance offering in the evening. Owing to the need of covering expenses now, we are not succeeded in making arrangements which he shall be enabled to lecture in the Blue Ribbon money on Friday evening and arrange for the other meetings after he arrives. We will inquire at other points in the country our work and expense Good brother Leavenworth whenever they are here.

—We have a new library in the basement of the First Presbyterian Church, which is open every evening from 7 to 9 o'clock. It contains over 1,000 volumes, and is well arranged.

D. S. BELVERE.

AGENT — Prof. Brinsford of Boston recently from Connecticut, attended the Association last Saturday. Having been under the weakening influence of severe illness and remained at hotel choosing to do so rather than accept the invitations of several who intended to him their hospitality to be association he delivered several addresses one upon Geography, the other Grammar. His descriptions of the manners in which these studies were taken up fifteen or twenty years ago are quite humorous, and his arguments in regard to teaching Geography were good, but rather in an inverted order. He remained here over Sabbath, and returned to Hastings on Monday morning.

On Saturday a resolution was agreed upon in the Baptist Church to organize a Sabbath School. According to after service Sabbath morning a school was organized with Mr. J. A. Day as Superintendent, and Miss Anna A. Dixson Secretary.

The School, numbering over 60, was divided into classes and A. B. Pierce, Miss Pierce, Mrs. Jury and the pastor of the Baptist and Congregational churches were chosen teachers.

The school started out with fair prospect of success. It has received a supply of singing books, the "Piano Gold," "Schools," and the papers, cards etc. will be here in a few days. We speak for the school a period of prosperity, and all should strive to bring one more with them each Sabbath.
