

RED CLOUD CHIEF

CITY AND COUNTRY.

—Did you get a valentine?
—The Chief has moved into a building of its own.
—They want another paper over in Smith county Kansas.

—The Blue Ribbon Society is in a flourishing condition.
—The revival held in the M. E. church, on the corner of sixth avenue and Second St., is reported to be in a prosperous condition.

—The state fair for this year has been located at Lincoln.
—Red Cloud is sadly in need of a few good street crossings.
—Mitchell & Morhart do a "fine" business in the hardware line.

—We have a skating rink in front of our office, if it would stay froze up.
—The Chief has the largest circulation of any paper in western Nebraska.
—Have you noticed the glistening star on the manly breast of our new city marshal.

—A girl about twelve years old was seen smoking a clay pipe, on the street last week.
—Mr. Adams of Hastings is looking over the ground, preparatory to erecting a harness shop in our town.

—The breakdown up on Elm Creek last week interfered somewhat with regularity of the mails for a few days.
—The place to buy cheap and good goods, is at John G. Potter's. He has a large and complete stock of goods in his line.

The Infante dinner of George B. Leeds the 19th inst. was a great feast for our ex-"Devil," Alf likes good "chuck" as well as anybody.
Eighty pupils in the primary department of our school, and room to seat thirty comfortably. The higher department is equally crowded.

—The editor has gone east for his family, leaving the paper at the mercy of "the boys" this week. Any shortcomings may be charged up to the "Devil."
—The Stillwater Lodge of Good Templars started out with quite a number of members—twenty-six charter members. Mr. Guild organized the Lodge.

—Mr. R. L. McCune who has been confined to his house by sickness for some time past, is able to be out, we are glad to say, and called on the Chief last Saturday.
—The Chief must have a regular correspondent in every township in the county. Those who write as often as once in two weeks will receive the Chief free of charge.

MAVARD ITEM.

I went to the debate again last Friday night. I said I could go, if I could do something to help it along. I must either speak on the question, sing a song or read a select article. I chose the latter. I find that the debate is improving; the boys in the majority, and everything all taken to gather it makes quite an interesting entertainment. Such gatherings as this are fashionable, or we hear of them in almost every school district.

A message has appeared on Farmers' Creek, in the house of Nate Ayers, it is a small stem of candy man food.
The teachers' Association met here on Saturday, and we had an interesting time; though we were rather disappointed in the character and size of some of the attendance from Red Cloud, but they did the best they could. All were pleased with the singing and the music, as well as other exercises.

Weather is moderating and people are fixing their farming implements preparatory to farming when the time comes.
Wood business has been indefinitely suspended.
We have one of the most interesting Literary Societies in the county, so we think, and we flatter ourselves as being Judges.

if our communication does not find its way into your waste basket you may hear again from

NEGUNDY, Feb. 8th 1879.
El. Chief:—Thinking that a few of the itemized transactions of our district would be acceptable to you I will attempt to chronicle them in their order.

The Negunda Lodge I. O. G. T. at their "quarterly" last Saturday evening, installed (after a strong session) the following officers:
Mr. A. Wiley W. C. T. A. Runney W. G. G. Mrs. A. Wiley W. V. F. N. Jones W. O. G. Mr. R. Land W. S. Mrs. T. Boyd W. L. S. Mr. A. King W. R. S. Mrs. R. Jones W. R. S. Miss Millie Jones W. T. Mr. L. Fuller W. C. Mr. R. Jones R. W. C. T. Mr. Jas. Laird W. M. Miss Lizzie Laeth A. W. M. Miss Alma Cason W. A. S.

Next in order comes the spelling school which was held at the school house on Friday night. The average Negundside it seems from the manifestations shown last evening, is a walking dictionary, for never in our remembrance, we saw such proficiencies performed in the line of spelling, Miss King coming off victorious.
Numerous miscellaneous exercises helped to while away the hours prominent among which were—Select Reading by Miss Norton, Declarations by Wm. Bacon, the Curry Bros, and others. Comic and Sentimental songs by Mr. Neesham, Miss Luella Shoats and others.

More anon from yours very truly,

SURPRISE PARTY.—Between the hours of eight and nine o'clock p. m., on Friday evening last, quite a number of the "bon tons" succeeded in effecting one of the most successful surprise parties of the season at the residence of W. H. Strohm.
A gentle rapping at the door, which was promptly responded to by Miss Albright who surprisingly beheld the assembled party, numbering some twenty. Of course all were invited in and soon began the plays. The most prominent features of the evening were initiations, supper and music. At eleven the party dispersed and each retired to their several homes, expressing themselves well satisfied with the amusements of the evening.
