

RED CLOUD CHIEF.

R. V. R. Time Table.

CITY AND COUNTRY.

How did you like the circus? Ladies' suits at Mrs. Lutz's. At present writing, rain is needed badly.

The Osborne Harvester received the first premium at the state fair last fall. We are preparing a series of illustrations (wood cuts) Excellent campaign "documents."

H. S. Kaley has erected a telephone from his office to his residence, a distance of a half mile. Seward Garber went to Lincoln last Friday to attend the commencement exercises at the University.

Friedrich Magee, he of the "boss" lumber yard, has laid the brick foundation for a dwelling he proposes to erect soon. Buy your farm machinery of dealers who advertise in the CHIEF, they will sell you honest goods at the lowest price.

Anderson & Co's circus was blown to pieces by the storm Tuesday night, at Superior, and some of the animals are at large. We have made arrangements to enlarge the paper, and until it can be done, we hope our readers will excuse the small amount of home matter.

The local editor of the Lincoln Journal in a recent article regarding blooded stock, speaks of the "Short horn pigs and Berkshire cattle." Drank as usual. We regret that we could not be present at the Masquerade sociable given by the ladies at the court house last Friday night. It is supposed to have been immense.

Mr. Dean of Ashland paid our city a visit last week. He was looking up a desirable location to establish a lumber yard, and we understand has located at Gaylord, Kansas. Is a little matter of personal spite of more than two years standing, a sufficient excuse for the injudicious expenditure of the public money belonging to the people of this county?

S. E. Moore, of Newark Ohio, and brother-in-law to Mr. Jury, arrived with his family last Friday. He will doubtless become a permanent resident of Red Cloud, and engage in business here. Our advertising patrons have confided so much of our space that we are compelled to cut down on the quantity of reading matter; we will, however, have room to accommodate all, in a few weeks.

Miner Bros., requested us to not forget them this week. Oh, no, we'll not forget them, and their hundreds of customers do not seem to forget them either, judging from the way they flock to their store every time they come to town. Last Saturday was a disagreeable, windy, dry, dusty day. The street sprinkler with four mules attached drove at a trot through the streets, back and forth, back and forth, still the dust flew in clouds and rendered out door exercise anything but pleasant.

We would remind the county commissioners that the money it costs to pay for publishing notices etc., belongs to the people of this county, and when the money is spent it should be done in a way that would be satisfactory to a majority of the people who foot the bill. We are informed that freight is handled in a more careless and rough manner on the R. V. road than on any other road in the state, which we have reason to believe. Brakemen will stand in the car and throw packages that are light enough to admit of it, clear across the platform into the depot.

We feel flattered, at times, by the words of encouragement and praise that are bestowed on us in behalf of the CHIEF. Thanks, gentlemen, if our humble efforts have been partially successful in improving the paper, we are glad, and feel encouraged to redouble our labors in that direction with a hope that in a few more months we will be able to present our readers with a paper that will be second to none in southern Nebraska. Last Monday a man from the country filled up with bonine and let his team run away with him; the team dashed down street to Fern's saloon where it stopped, supposing that the driver wanted another drink. The driver however had not made calculation on stopping, and when the vehicle came to a sudden halt he was forwarded some dozen feet in advance, lighting on his muddled cap and cutting a hole or two in the same which had the effect of sobering him off somewhat.

THE STORM KING!

Last Tuesday evening this section was visited by one of the most destructive wind and rain storms that ever passed over this country since its settlement by the whites. About seven o'clock a heavy black cloud rose in the north-west and the wind increased to a gale, clouds of dust filled the air, people who were out sought shelter, and by 8 o'clock the storm in all its fury burst upon us, lasting about three quarters of an hour. A number of houses in Red Cloud were blown down and a number of persons injured.

The following is as complete a list as we are able to get, up to the time of going to press: Henry Hart, hand badly hurt, and otherwise injured; "Dutch" Frank, hurt in the side; Mother in law of F. C. Smith, supposed to be fatally injured; Mrs. Rieinson, badly burned by lamp exploding; Mr. and Mrs. Parsons, both severely injured; Mr. and Mrs. Bright, badly injured; Mrs. C. W. Springer and child slightly hurt; Mother and father of J. S. Gilham both more or less bruised; Mr. Cooper, arm broken; F. C. Smith, arm badly injured; Mrs. Gibbs, slightly hurt.

The following buildings were wholly or partially demolished: M. E. church in Red Cloud leveled to the ground; Mrs. Briggs' house blown away; Joe Warner's lively stable entirely demolished; roof of the Red Cloud hotel carried away; front of Sherers store gone; front of Putnam's store blown out and the building badly wrecked; front and roof of Jew clothing store gone; Boys Home barn unroofed; windows broke out of the front of Argus office; front of J. G. Potter's store torn out; Gibbs house blown away; Smith's carpenter shop gone; C. W. Springer's house demolished; CHIEF office shaken up, windows broken and a few hundred pounds of type badly "pied;" roof of Miner's residence; Sherer's house off foundation; Seaman's house off foundation; F. C. Smith's house demolished; windows broke out of Keed's furniture store; Sleeper's paint shop blown down; part of the roof taken off Boy's Home; roof partly off Joe Car's billiard hall; Mr. Beckman's house demolished; Perins house off foundation; Jackson's house gone; Joe Garbers house badly damaged; front out of McFarlands store; plow factory blown down; Parson's house demolished; the lively stable down by the depot and a number of houses were blown down; Dr. Tulleys houses, graneries etc., suffered severely; Brook's family escaped uninjured; Brook's house was lifted from the foundation and moved some distance. Chimneys were blown off of houses and minor damage done to a number that we have not mentioned and some persons may have been hurt whose names we have been unable to get. Reports from different points of the county indicate that the storm spent its fury in the immediate vicinity of Red Cloud, as we have not yet heard of any damage to speak of throughout the county. The rain northeast of here was accompanied by hail which did a little damage to crops.

Yesterday morning, after the storm, dawned bright and clear, and after surveying the wreck for a few moments everybody went to work to repair as far as possible, the damage, and in a few days the effects of the storm, so far as buildings are concerned will not be noticed.

COWLES AND BLUE HILL. We propose publishing a history of the settlement, development and natural advantages together with a business directory of the above named towns. The Cowles article will appear next week, and that of Blue Hill, the week following, perhaps. All who wish extra copies will please send in their orders as early as possible. Joe Warner's little boy was supposed to have been lost last Friday evening, as he could not be found when night came on. The parents were naturally very anxious, and as the report that the child was lost, spread very rapidly, the men gathered for the purpose of instituting a search, but the little fellow came home at this juncture, which put a stop to further proceedings in that direction. He had accompanied a larger boy in search of a cow on the prairies.

Anderson's circus has come and gone, and after a day of amusement the people have gone back to the old routine of business. The circus was as good as they will average, but the concert in the evening was, to use a common expression, rather thin. The distribution of silverware by chance, at the close of the concert, was like everything else in the lottery line, a fraud; a few minor articles were distributed among the ticket holders, while the articles of real value were disposed of according to previous arrangement. N. G. Liddy, the enterprising grocery man sets forth in his advertisement elsewhere in this paper, the advantages to be derived from purchasing goods at his establishment. He believes in advertising as a means of securing a large trade, and purchasers will always find that they can do better by buying their goods of merchants who make a liberal use of printers ink. Consult the columns of the CHIEF and buy only of those who are represented therein, and our word for it you will get better bargains and better treatment than you will elsewhere. Last Thursday morning a man by the name of Benson Slack who was in the employ of Mr. Gibb, in the capacity of hostler, concluded that he would depart for greener pastures, and take with him the horse belonging to his employer. He proceeded as far as inland the first station on the B. & M. east of Hastings, where he was arrested on suspicion of being a horse thief, and brought back to Hastings. Sheriff Warren went up and brought him down on last Friday and held him in custody until Tuesday last, when he was brought up for trial and bound over to appear at the next term of the District Court, in the sum of $5000, in default of which he was remanded to jail.

A. A. Pope, Red Cloud, Neb. Yours recovered; in reply would say you can rely on the Osborne Self-binding Harvester being the best machine in the market. I cut 100 acres with mine in 1878 at a cost of 25 to 30 cents per acre for wire; never had any trouble whatsoever. It will bind every time either tight or loose, large or small just as you want. The bands do not interfere with threshing in any way. Yours truly, W. E. Thorpe.

We have for sale the following tracts of land near Red Cloud: 320 acres of good tillable land, 200 acres of which is under cultivation. Running water on the land, also a little timber, house, stables, etc. Price $2,500. 80 acres of fine land, 30 acres under cultivation, about 6 miles from Red Cloud. Price $900. A bargain. Address, M. L. Thomas, Red Cloud, Neb.

Also one dark cream mare colt with star in forehead, both branded on neck under mane. The owner is notified to call, prove property, pay charges and take away. G. W. FRANCIS.

NOTICE. In the matter of the application of Henry Jennings and Elizabeth Jennings his wife, to adopt as their own Sarah Rowland and four years minor child of Thomas Rowland and Mary Rowland, now residing in the County of Webster, State of Nebraska, on the 9th day of June, A. D. 1879, he set apart for the hearing of said matter. All persons interested are hereby notified of said hearing, that they may attend said hearing. Witness my hand and seal of said County Court of Red Cloud, this 14th day of May, 1879. JOHN R. WILCOX, County Judge.

Mitchell & Morhart are agents for the sale of the "Peck Patent Chimney" which is much cheaper than chimneys made of brick, and are absolutely safe. These chimneys are made of galvanized iron. No soot will collect in these chimneys, consequently the danger to buildings from burning out of flues is obviated. Mitchell & Morhart, Red Cloud.

To Farmers. Farmer's who have good wheat for sale, will do well to take it to the Red Cloud Mills, as Messrs Potter & Frisbie will pay the highest market price for good clean wheat. 29th

PETERSON'S MAGAZINE for July, which has just come to hand, has the opening chapters of a new novel by that brilliant writer, Mrs. Frances Hodgson Burnett, author of "The Little Lord Lowrie," "The Little Princess," etc. etc. If we may judge from these chapters, the tale will be one of the very best ever published, even in "Peterson's Magazine." It would be worth while subscribing merely to get this charming love-story. There are also original tales by Rebecca Harding Davis, Frank Leo Benedict, the author of "Jonah Allen's Wife," etc. etc. Mrs. Anna S. Stephens also contributes some powerful chapters to her thrilling novel, "The Tragedy of Freylin." The steel engraving, and the colored fashion plates are rarely beautiful. There are also five new patterns, printed in colors, for embroidering towels, rugs, etc. It is a standing wonder how so splendid a magazine can be furnished so low, for the price is only two dollars a year, or one dollar for six months, with great deductions to clubs. Specimens, too, are sent gratis, to persons wishing to get up clubs, showing that the magazine is not only a pleasure, but a business proposition. If you are not already a subscriber, we advise you, at least, to send a dollar for six months, and test this for yourselves. Or, better still, get up a club, and earn a goodly sum, as premium. Address GEORGE W. KEMPER, 325 Chestnut Street, Philadelphia. The CHIEF and "Peterson's" one year to our subscribers for $3.00. GEO. W. KEMPER, RED CLOUD.

Auditor Leitke has received notice from the pension bureau, that his regular pension allowance of $7.50 per month would be increased to $15. The disabilities for which the Captain receives his pension is on account of a gunshot wound through the right hip and abdomen, which he received at the battle of Gettysburg.

At the Winnebago agency, where two white men have been murdered lately, and for which an Indian is in jail at Dakota City, the noble red men are getting up on their high beaded dignity and propose to make an onslaught on the whites. If they can't murder a few pale faces for amusement, they are going to know the reason why.

From the organization of Nebraska, in 1869, to the first day of January, 1879, there have been twenty-five convicts sentenced to the Penitentiary for life. At the close of January, 1879, there were just ten left in the prison serving out their sentence. The average time served is about three years and nine months.

The Manhattan Bank Robbery. Special Dispatch to The Bee. NEW YORK, June 2d, 5 A. M.—The secret of the robbery of the Manhattan Bank is fully disclosed at last. The thieves had a pal in the person of the day watchman, and with his aid the plan of the robbery was conceived and finally carried out.

The Spanish Cortes. Special Dispatch to The Bee. MADRID, June 2d, 5 A. M.—King Alfonso opened the Cortes Saturday. In his speech he declared the government will submit measures to alleviate the effects of the ten years war in Cuba, and endeavor to assimilate the position of that colony to that of a province of Spain and hasten measures for the complete abolition of slavery.
