THE FUTURE LIFE.

Which, if true - and he has no reason to doubt that he is right - is a rational man that those who have "shuffled off this mortal coil" do not only still live, but have the power of appearing to their loved ones.

Having been acquainted and associated with these gentlemen, politically and socially, during life, he naturally feels implicitly confident of his ability to recognize them.

At London, correspondents say of the Queen Victoria wedding at Berlin that "Queen Victoria had arranged 12 months ago to be present on the occasion, but in consequence of the extraordinary indisposition with which the Empress Augusta was treated during her recent visit to Windsor, it was plainly intimated that the visit was not desired by the Kaiser or his family."

THE TILE CLUB'S VACATION.

Making a Leisurely Voyage to the Hudson in a Canal Boat - The Yacht Company that has been organized for the purpose of visiting the White House - Cruise for Pleasure, Health and Profit.

The pier at the foot of West Tenth Street, yesterday, presented a novel spectacle. Alongside of the dock lay a handsome black and white boat, painted white, with the American colors flying at her stern.

There are some mistakes which amateur writers for the press usually make, but the following are those which are most likely to occur. One is to write that an editor wants that or the other, and that is in the selection of their subjects. As a general rule they choose some abstract theme which can only be made interesting by the position of the charm and perfection of its treatment.
