In view of the dead lock between Senators Paddock and Saunders over the U. S. Marshalship, the Nebraskan suggests the name of Hon. Jas. W. Dawes, for that position, and we cordially second A TTORNEYS AT LAW & REAL ESTATE the suggestion. Mr. Dawes is & good republican, and deserving of recognition by the officials of the party. He was one of those to whose energy and zeal Senator Saunders chiefly ower his present position. And Senator Paddock would at all wants do himself no barm by uniting with Saunders to secure this appointment for the chairman of the republican organization in this state. If James will take the position the CRIEF will talk loudly in his lator.

OUR WASHINGTON LETTER.

WASHINGTON, D. C. April 30th, 1880. Mr. EDITOR:-The democrats have been greatly excitd over the State Convention in New Work and its results. For the "old man" who was to decline the candidacy and who could not control the "claus" it was a substantial boom and leaves little doubt that he is sure of the nomination. The party might almost postpone its hegira to that Mecca of great distileries &c. and by common consent fling to the breeze their banners flaunting the name of S. J.
