LOVE IN ALL. NAME the leaves on all the trees, e the waves on all the sens, All the flow'rs by rill that blow, All the myriad tints that glow, Winds that wander through the grove, And you name the name of Love: Love there is in summer sky, As in light of maiden's eye.

Listen to the countiess sounds In the wind that gayly bounds.
O'er the meads, where, on the wing,
Bright bees hum and linnets sing.
Pat of rain-drop, chat of stream—
Of their song sweet love's the theme:
Love there is where zephyr skips,
As in breath of maiden's lips.

In the west mild evening glows; Angel fingers fold the rose; Rilvery dews begin to fall; Crimson shades to shadow all; Holy Nature vells her face; Earth is lost in Heaven's embrace; Love is in an hour like this, As in guileless maiden's kis

Go where, through the voiceless night, Trips fair Luna's silver light; Hear of Nature's pulse the beat, Like the tread of unseen feet; See from out the lambent north mering arrows shooting forth: Love is in a meteor's start, As in throb of maiden's heart.

Love's the essence of all things: 'Tis from love that beauty springs; Twas by love creation first Into glorious being burst: Veiled in maiden's form so fair, do worship thee in her, Spirit sweet—all else above: Love is God, since God is love.

DEAR BOY.

FATHER had gone over to the next . township to a committee meeting, and had taken mother with him, so Dorcas and I had the whole care of Mabel, a was asleep in the kitchen, and we rash. looked out but could see nothing.

the door.

"Bring the light, Susan!"

we said, and moaned and cried as if in difficulty.

rags and sickness; he was so thin that from head to foot every morning in out his human sacrifice. his bones actually seemed worn cold or tepid water. Nothing does It is an old story. To see a lad of in her small bird-like voice.

When father and mother came home water at least twice a day.

and murder."

er, in alarm. "Oh, girls! how could you? ing instead of lessening the strain on the know full well you cannot; and yet you and thought unspeakable things. Said Just think of Mabel!" "Should we have left him out there to die?" asked Dorcas. "Tain't nothing but a cold," said old fetch him 'round all right. better; as Susan would say, "Nothin' a bowl of bread and milk, or at least a matter to you that another man seems -N. Y. Evening Post. but starvin' did it;" but he had starved cup of milk, on first waking in the to be able to endure five nights in a sert herself, and "Boy," as we all called between their rising and the regular he seems to come freshly to the bank-him, could not take hold again of the breakfast. They can be taught to like desk at your side; that carousal, late "It ain't in him," said old Susan, ciently early. Oatmeal porridge is an to shake his nerves. You, at least, are of prices for winter work: "'pears like he gets whiter and whiter excellent article of diet; it may be every day."

Leant till film, said old Susan, cientily early. Outment porriage is an excellent article of diet; it may be beginning to cripple under these abuses. For blacking cook-stoves, and makes, twenty-five cents. At first, while he seemed like a sick of white or yellow Indian meal, etc. | tigues, fits of despondency, dullness of boy-tramp, we all kept away from him, soft-boiled eggs are also good. Tender, except mother, who took the best of juicy, broiled beefsteak and roast beef ers. Stop the leak. The truth is, color or previous condition. care of him; then one by one we drift- or roast mutton are better than lamb or nearly all your friends can see that to ed in to see how he was getting along, veal, as they contain more nutriment. and at last the little corner bed-room Well-made soups and broths and fresh | serve your lassitude, the pallor and flush was our general rendezvous, and Boy vegetables are never out of place. Simsitting up, white and wasted, its center ple puddings should be substituted for of attraction. We knew from the first pastry, which children never should be he would never get well, and we tried allowed to touch. The supper should to find his friends, but he seemed to be consist of bread and milk, or bread and alone in the world. This much we butter, with a slice of plain cake. Tea could see for ourselves, he was of gentle blood, and had been used to home care, but he spoke a foreign tongue and but little of that. All day he would sit seen in a healthy nervous system. Ripe with Mabel's toys, and when we found to by a child who is perfectly well. The his sickness was not contagious we used earlier in the day it is taken the better. to put our darling on the little bed. As little sugar and cream as possible where she would sit and talk to him in should be used with it. It is needless her baby lingo by the hour. She is to say that the consumption of candy is such a happy child, it seemed as if she charmed pain away with her cooing ba-observance. by fondness. The first thing in the morning it was "boy" or "pitty boy" and the last hour of her bedtime when she would kneel with his thin hand in her soft curls and say her little make- from her children's bill of fare their would lisp "dear boy."

But there came a night when Boy seemed loth to have her go and clung to the little dimpled hand, and kissed it with pale, cold lips, and then she threw both little arms about his neck, and in her pretty, beseeching tone, said, "By-by, dear boy." It was her first whole sentence, and we were so proud, and she was to say It again to him the first thing in the St. Paul while asking a girl to marry him. everything by prayer and supplication | punishable.

morning, but when we took her in to see "dear boy,"

"He had gone home at evening And found it morning there." Poor Mabel! she did not know (do to mother and she thinks everything of We hear young girls in conversation in all the world, is K. D. B., and it is Poor Mabel! she'did not know (do we any of us know?) what had it. I can't see anything wonderful about changed her little smiling friend, who always reached out glad hands to her, and kick. It hasn't half the sense of ble," "gorgeous," and "sublime." for a moment, before entering upon K. always reached out glad hands to her, into that death-white marble, and she looked at it wonderingly, with unrecognizing eyes, but when we took him away she looked on sadly, and no about the bay and saying "ain't it away she looked on sadly, and no about the bay and saying "ain't it and the sense of ble," "gorgeous," and "sublime." When one has abused her mother tongue by such misapplication of grand to the bouse, but they are always going words, what words are left to apply to things and deeds that deserve them? The sease of the sense of the sense of the sense of the sense of the sease. The sease of the sense of the sens sweeter hymn was sung for him than perfectly sweet?"
her softly-murmured By-by, dear The worst thing boy." as she watched them bear him away. no age, only this:

" By-by. Dear Boy."

I have taken Mabel up there several times, but she only played with the children! they so soon forget. I wrote all this a year ago. Oh, can it be "only one year, one little year," and now there is another grave by that of "dear boy's," a little grave, only half as long.

"You'd scarcely think so small a thing Could leave a loss so large. Oh, Mabel! Mabel! by-by, darling. Just before she went to sleep she lifted her heavy eyes-those sweet violet eyes we all loved so much and murmured something we could not hear. I bent down chose; close, for oh, I knew then our darling was going, and heard her say, as if to herself, "Dear boy," but in such a glad voice as if she saw him. And we thought she had forgot-

The Care of Young Children.

wares .- Detroit Free Press.

ten! We had entertained angels una-

FASHION, that stern task-mistress, pleasure that did not often fall to us, that Moloch to whom so many children She was sitting in her little rocker, with have been sacrificed in bygone days, for the white kitten in her lap and one lit- once asserted her influence on the side tle red cheek pressed against my knee, of common sense when she decreed as she looked in my face while I read. that their necks, arms and legs should Dorcas was sewing as usual, but more be pretected by proper clothing. A interested in the reading than Mabel, few years ago it was not an uncommo who could not understand a word, sight to see a mother warmly dressed. Dorcas was twelve, and had never read in thick woolen, fur-trimmed garments, Jane Eyre, and I was tired of telling leading by the hand a child daintily arher the story in snatches. We were rayed in a short frock with a least two half through the book, and as I read inches of its poor little less uncovered to the passage where she comes to St. between the edge of its drawers and John's door. Doreas laid her work the top of its tiny white socks; or indown to listen. I had reached the cli- doors to see plump necks and rounded max where the old servant closes the arms exposed to an atmosphere which door upon her, and St. John appears adults could meet only when swathed on the scene and speaks as one having to neck and wrists. Happily this absurd custom is a thing of the past, and At this supreme moment there came one can only trust it never may be rea sudden, loud and peculiar knock at vived. The error now is rather in the the door, so close to me that I involund other extreme. While children should tarily caught Mabel, while Dorcas be warmly dressed, particularly when seized a chair and stood in a pugilistic going into the open air, care should be taken not to overload them with cloth-I was the first to rally-I am nineteen ing. The sweat glands are very active -for I felt that the home was left in in youth, and if over-stimulated by my care, so I roused up old Susan, who heat, become inflamed, producing heat asked cautiously through the panels | Light woolen materials should be who was there, but received no answer used in winter and colors selected that but a low moan, and I felt sure it was will wash when necessary. The garsome one in distress, so I opened the ments should be so made as not to imdoor, a little bit at a time, and at last pede the freest use of the limbs. Healthy children require a great deal of "Who or what speaks?" I asked, ter- exercise, and should be encouraged to rified at the unexpected sound, and play vigorously and shout lustily for incapable now of deriving from any some time every morning in the open occurrence a hope of aid. A form was air. They will be much more ready to near-what form, the pitch-dark night play quietly in the nursery during the and my enfeebled vision prevented remainder of the day than if they had me from distinguishing. With a loud, been taken for a decorous wall, which long knock the new-comer appealed to is simply useless as exercise for the young muscles that need strengthening whirled the dead leaves in and developing. If perfectly well they great hears and sifted them over the should be sent out in all weather, exloor.step; there was a mound of them | cept when it is absolutely raining. Then lying there, and under it something they should have on part of their out-stirred. My heart gave a great bound. door clothing, be sent into a room Old Susan brought the light, shading to play tag, puss-in-the-corner, or any River Tunnel a few weeks since, un-

It with her hand. I stooped, trembling active indoor game, for half an hour or willingly leaving a score of comrades to all over, and touched something; it more. Nothing is so fatal to children a terrible death, reported that the leak It was only a boy, after all; a poor, windows should invariably be open at | stop it, but it was too late. These leaks sick, wasted, small boy, that seemed to night; if there is any fear of a draught were common enough, indeed, were be starving. We carried him into the a light frame made to fit the window every day occurrences. Two workmen house, and tried to make him talk, but with flannel tacked on each side of it were always detailed to watch for the he did not seem to understand what will admit fresh air and obviate the well-known tell-tale hiss, which death through, and his great black eyesstared more to promote a healthy action of the ten or a dozen years beginning to smoke be done by a defenseless, weak and unfrightfully; he was too sick to hold his hearing, which is adapted only to a cerhead up, and Susan carried him into the little corner and belief to cry, "stop the hearing, which is adapted only to a cerhead up, and Susan carried him into the hearing, which is adapted only to a cerhead woman when left alone to hearing, which is adapted only to a cerhead up, and Susan carried him into the hearing, which is adapted only to a cerhead up, and Susan carried him into the hearing, which is adapted only to a cerhead up, and Susan carried him into the hearing, which is adapted only to a cerhead up, and Susan carried him into the hearing, which is adapted only to a cerhead up, and Susan carried him into the hearing, which is adapted only to a cerhead up, and Susan carried him into the hearing of sounds; and this range of sounds; and the corner when the hearing of the hearing of sounds; and the corner when the hearing of sounds; and this range of sounds; and this range of sounds; and the corner when the hearing of the h the little corner room and undressed The greatest attention should be paid smokers; they would not heed us. But It was in Booth's Theater last Saturday him as she would a baby, while Mabel to the care of the teeth. Until a child if the boy knew how vitality is being afternoon. A woman entered with know that some other persons hear stood by the door and said "pitty boy," is old enough to use a brush they should sapped, how muscle, and nerve, and seven companions, and took possession sounds that are imperceptible to us.

we met them at the door, and Dorcas The hair should be well brushed with surely wasting the energies needed for came along. There was a comparison and I both tried to tell the story at the a soft brush and never touched with a growth and development of a manly of tickets, and it was found that the fine comb, which, as well as a stiff brush, estate, he might conclude to stop the party in possession held tickets for the "Well," said father, sternly, "as I causes disease of the scalp. It should leak. It is a fact, we believe, that matinee of the preceding Wednesday. understand it you have taken in a lazy be cleansed by washing in warm water | ninety per cent. of smokers are forced, | Explanation was followed by expostulatramp, who, when we are all fast asleep, to which a little borax has been added, sooner or later, to break off their habit. tion, and this in turn by denunciation. will get up and let his friends in to rob with plenty of white soap, and thor- They must choose between the weed All in vain. The manager was sent for. oughly rinsing with clear water. The and the ear, or eye, or stomach, or "Madam," said he, "you must relin-Mother had disappeared in the bed- hair grows from the head, so cutting the throat, or some noble nerve threatened quish these seats. Your tickets are room. Now she came out and said: ends can do no possible good. If it with paralysis. But to stop when one valueless." "That is no fault of mine. "He is very ill, indeed, Jephtha. It splits at the ends it is owing to a de- has the custom of a score of years! Oh, I paid for them, and mean to keep would not surprise me if he died be- ficiency of natural oil, and may be rem- misery, torture! Why should not these them." "Madam, I insist." fore morning. He is burning up with edied by using a little sweet oil. It is growing boys spare themselves the enemy said nothing, but sat still. The a popular fallacy that the extreme struggle, which is often then simply manager argued, appealed, implored, "Small-pox, most likely," observed growth of hair tends to weaken the territic. system. If it is cut nature will produce A given article of diet always injures offered compromise on any terms, while "Maybe its diphtheria," cried moth- fresh hair more quickly, thus increas-

productive powers.

a little too long. Nature did not reas- morning, if any length of time elapses | week with only four hours' sleep; that lstered up, and play with wan fingers fruit may always be eaten with impuni-

This may seem diet of more than Spartan simplicity to many an indulgent mother; but if she will banish hot bread, fried meat, tea, coffee and pastry believe prayer that we taught her, she rosy cheeks, firm limbs and perfect digestions will give her no cause to regret her decision. —Miss E. R. Scovil, in Christian Union.

> It has been decided in England to thrash young culprits instead of send-ing them to work houses.

A roung man died of heart disease at

Our Baby.

I NEVER could see the use of babies. We have one at our house that belongs

The worst thing about a baby is that you're expected to take care of him. and then you get scolde! afterward. had done differently.

Last Saturday mother and Sue went out to make calls and told me to stay home and take care of the baby. There was a base-ball match, but what did they care? They didn't want to go to word. it, and so it made no difference whether I went to it or not. They said they would be gone only a little while, and that if the baby waked up I was to play with it and keep it from crying and be sure you don't let it swallow any pins. Of course, I had to do it. The baby was sound as eep when they went out, so I left it just for a few minutes while I went to see if there was any pie in the pantry. If I was a woman I wouldn't be so dreadfully suspicious as to keep everything locked up. When I got back up stairs again the baby was awake and was howling like he was full of pins. So I gave him the first thing that came sponge in it on the end of a wire that Sue uses to black her shoes, because ing-brush. The baby stopped crying as soon as I seen how that baby shined! The polish next time. - N. Y. Weekly. dried just as soon as it was put on, and I had just time to get the baby dressed again when mother and Sue came in.

and unfeeling world .- "Jimmy Brown,"

in Harper's Young People. Stop the Leak,

THE handful of men that escaped where the windows are open, and made through the air-lock at the Hudson as bad ventilation. Their bed-room was known, and they did their best to was kind enough to give by way of No garment that has been worn dur- warning. Taken in time the escaping "What shall we do with him?" I ing the day should be suffered to re- vital air could be checked, the dreadful asked, in despair. "I do wish father main on during the night. A cotton flood prevented. But some one blunwould come, he will have to stay all night-dress is all that is necessary in dered, and then, handfuls of mud, garnight now, so you may as well put him summer. In winter, or if the child has ments whipped from off their toiling in the little room, Susan, and make him a delicate chest, or is subject to croup, comfortable, poor little fellow!" a scarlet flannel jacket may be added. man, were sucked up all in vain, and He was such a pretty boy, even in | Children should be thoroughly bathed | the monster could not be appeased withers, and strong drink do not seem fairs reported the following new scale which you seem so blind. They obof a feyered spendthrift, wasting na-ture's splendid patrimony of youth, the heavy tread instead of that nameless ease of carriage and elasticity with which young creatures begin life's journey. Friends would like to warn you, but they dare not. You, at least, must stop this expense or die, whateverother men may do. "What has gone wrong?" asks the watchful wife at evening. "Nothing. You are constantly repeating that question of late." "Yes, and with good reason. A man may work never so hard, go his daily rounds never so faithfully, knit up his resolution and wear a fireside smile which he whips out like a mask from a pocket of the coat he lays off in the front hall; but worry is a leak which soon begins to tell its tale. You are worrying, worrying about something these three months. Can you let me into the secret? Can a wife's hand back. This mistress thought it was unmake your requests unto God." And Some Very Useful Advice to a Young we thanked the woman for her gentle

The habit of exaggeration is a leak. In the Yo Semite the poor child would everything will go along nicely and that seventeen, with honor, which has clung be bankrupt; for to say "perfectly your marriage will be as pleasant as pos- to him ever since. splendid" of El Capatan, when one has sible. And now for the perplexity. been using the phrase of a new hat or "When a young lady becomes en-We buried him in our own lot in the Folks say "Here Jimmy! just hold the the airs of a young gentleman, seems gaged," writes K. D. B. - and we can cemetery - selfish kindness - because baby a minute, that's a good boy," and absurd. But the worst effect of this see the pretty thing blushing like a ga-Mabel loved him so, and over his grave then as soon as you have got it they say silly habit is the moral blunting of the | zelle as she makes this timid, indirect we raised a simple memorial; no name, "Don't do that my goodness gracious perception of truth. Swollen state- confession that she is engaged - when the boy will kill the child hold it up ments betoken careless observation and a young lady becomes engaged and restraight you good-for-nothing little unreliability. She knows people discretes of congratulation from his wretch." It is pretty hard to do your count her testimony; and this consciousbest and then be scolded for it, but ness reacts upon the speaker's self-re- tenderness there is in this simple use of dead rustling leaves, and she never that's the way boys are treated. Per- spect. If you know the family habitu- the pronoun!) is she bound according seems to think of him now. Happy haps after I'm dead folks will wish they ally disbelieve one half you say, you to etiquette to reply? And if she is will very easily care as little yourself bound, in what form ought she to reabout one half you say. After a time ply?" And then she winds up by tellthere must be a heroic effort at reform, | ing us that "by answering" we will or you will be known as a confirmed "confer a favor on 'K. D. B." It is liar, if we may write down the real proud and happy that we are, "K. D.

> surprised to notice how blind people "his" wayward youth certainly does painting since his school-boy years. handy to keep him quiet. It happened were, how many chances there were not require an answer; while on the conto be a bottle of French polish with a to escape detection. He had always trary a congratulatory letter from "his" thought, too, that the way of a maiden aunt, from whom "he" has extransgressor was hard, that the pectations, demands an answer of the but surely, like a house built upon the ignore the kind utterances of "his" gave him the bottle and I sat down to sand, a life-time, a month, a week, with rich bachelor uncle would be a sinful read the Young People. The next time a bad clay at the foundation, would rudeness of which no right-minded K. I looked at him he'd got out the sponge | most certainly crumble down. But in- D. B. should even dream of being guilty: and about half his face was jet black. stead of this he seemed to be as highly but to answer the letter of the other This was a nice fix, for I knew nothing valued at the store as ever, and was pro- uncle-the clerical uncle up the councould get the black of his face, and moted within a month. All this widen- try who has a doubtful salary of $500 a when mother came home she would say ed the leak. The boy's moral nature year and eleven children-would be a the baby was spoiled and I had done it. was disintegrating. A theif will lie. serious indiscretion. As to the peppery Now I think an all-black baby is ever Stolen money goes for bad ends. Whoso letter from the young woman to whom so much more stylish than an all-white has stolen a dollar will soon find need "he" was previously engaged, it is baby, and when I saw the baby was part to steal a hundred of them. The wrong probable that your own fine natural inblack I made up my mind that if I comes to light. In the prison it was stincts will advise you, and so render adblacked it all over it would be worth pitiful to see him. It was then too late vice from us unnecessary. But you see, more than it ever had been, and per- to stop the leak, for he still believed dear K. D. B., that our advice upon any haps mother would be ever so much his detection was an accident, angrily part of the perplexity is not of much pleased. So I hurried up and gave it a accused this one and that one, and value because you have only partially

Russia's Deplorable Condition.

I wouldn't lower myself to repeat THE Minister of the United States at their unkind language. When you've St. Petersburg, in a dispatch to the Debeen cailed a murdering little villain partment of State, draws a gloomy pictand an unnatural son it will wrinkle in ure of the present economic and social said to me I didn't even seem to mind the past season, he says, has proved a about father, but went up stairs with failure, and American wheat is importhim almost as if I was going to church ed now even at St. Petersburg. It is or something that wouldn't hurt much. also entering at Odessa and other Rus-The baby is beautiful and shiny, sian ports. But a large market for this though the doctor says it will wear off American cereal cannot be predicted, gratitude for all the trouble I took, and is used in Russia; the mass of the peocan tell you it isn't easy to black a ple must have a cheaper and coarser baby without getting it into his eyes article, such as rye or Indian corn. The and hair. I sometimes think that it is scarcity of grain in the Empire is so hardly worth while to live in this cold great that it was currently reported and generally believed that the Impropriety of prohibiting the exportation of rye. There will be much suffering among the poor classes. Minister Foster quotes from the Golos, of St. Petersburg, as follows: "From all sides comes news of the harvest being below the average, of want and hunger, from which will spring disease and very likely death. Beetles, worms and locusts are eating up the corn; the diminution of cattle surpasses all belief; diphtheria is taking off the coming generation: breadstuffs have already reached five kopeks per pound. Every one feels that Russia does not subsist by the produce of its own land, but is wasting its capital in cutting wood, selling surplus cattle, pulling straw from its thatched roofs, and depriving itself of its very clothes and shoes."

Weak Woman vs. Tyrant Man.

HERE is an illustration of what can be washed with a soft rag dipped in cool | brain, and soul are being injured at this of eight orchestra chairs. Presently offered other seats, offered a stage-box, on. Others can drink coffee; you the rightful owners of the seats looked are repeatedly, if not habitually, in- the garrison: "Tell you what I'll do; give Children require plenty of healthful, dulging in the forbidden thing, to the me two season tickets for Bernhardt in besides, you hain't no need to fear. and muscle every day. An infant them; if you know the practices and declined to continue the conversa-Some yarb tea and a night's rest'ill should have food at first once in two through which health and strength al- tion. Then he retired in exceedingly hours during the day and four at night. | ways ebb away, leaving you miserable, | bad order. He did not get the seats, He had the "yarb" tea and many a When older, once in four hours will be begin in time to stanch the flow. Say but did issue another set of free admis-

Art Progress in the Limekiln Club. THE Committee on International Af-

For blacking cook-stoves, all sizes For blacking parlor-stoves, twenty

For whitewashing ceilings, a general charge of forty cents, with extra for cornices. Landscapes will be laid on at the same old price, if the old design of a red cow standing under a persimmon tree be used against a background of a range of green hills. The new winter design lately procured by the club represents a scene in the Alps. By rubbing the snow off the tops of the on the Hudson. By removing the fat grizzly bear, it can be made to represent wild life in the West. By removing the bear and substituting a schoolhouse, the scene is changed to New England. This unique design is the invention of the Hon. Snowdrop Bluffem, of Troy, and all his right, title and interest has been purchased by the

into the secret? Can a wife's hand help? Shall we economize, move into a less expensive house, dress more plain-ly or give up the horses? At all events stop this waste. Nothing kills like use-less anxiety. Having done your best, trust God. Remember the holy words that, at least, are above a woman's reathat, at least, are above a woman's reathat least l

Lady Just Engaged.

SHE is one of the sweetest little bodies B.," to be in a position to confer a The first decided infringement of the favor upon you; and we fully apprecilaw of conscience, say upon some major | ate the honor that you are doing us in dictate like that against theft, is a asking our advice instead of "his." dreadful leak. We knew a messenger But an answer, dear child, must depend Tribune for more than twenty years, boy who was overpaid at the bank win- just a little on some of the circumstances | died recently at Jacksonville, Florida. dow. He kept the paltry sum of a dol- which-in your pretty, careless waylar. The devil bought him very cheap, you have neglected to mention. The Being out of a good home, with pious general rule may be easily enough laid entitled "Me won-i-toc." rearing, he could not use and forget as down that letters of this nature do not a matter of course. He thought of it by demand answers; but the very minute fatal thing about it all was that he ob- making exceptions to it is evident. A that no man prospered doing wrong, that can be known or mentioned. To good coat of black. You should have thought he would be more shrewd the taken us into your confidence. After all, little one, perhaps the best thing that you can do is to consult "him."-

---The Heart of a Fish.

THE heart of a fish is a simple chain of chambers, instead of the complex your heart for ages. After what they condition of Russia. The grain crop of said to me I didn't even seem to mind the past season, he says, has proved a the blood of a quadruped; yet it performs the same office, and performs it sufficiently well for the fish's needs. In the same way, the organ of hearing of a fish is simple, but it contains all that is absolutely essential for hearing, viz., in a few years. Nobody shows any as very little bread made from wheat an auditory sacculus, full of fluid, and containing small bones, or "oboliths" (usually two in number, and comparatively large), and three large semi-circular canals. All vertebrates above fishes have oboliths and three semi-circular canals, but higher animals add perial Government was considering the thereto a spiral cochlea, a tympanum argument against the ability of a fish to is meant by a pressure of business. hear, based on the simplicity of the than ours, or are built on a slightly mean at this stage of the proceedings!" different plan. Sure of the presence -Cumberland (Md.) Civilian. of an organ of hearing, sure also of certain special adaptations of that insufficient premises. The microphone Hamburg edging." has gone far toward proving what philosophers had previously become convinced of by deductive reasoning, that there is no motion without sound, and therefore that sound is present in numberless instances not evident to our senses. For our perception of sound we are dependent upon our sense of differs in human individuals, for we all Still more is this true of other animals; unripe period of life; knew that he is eight other claimants of the same seats | they may hear what we cannot, yet be deaf to sounds audible to us. Strict experiments upon the hearing of fishes have vet to be made. Most of the obfrom the standpoint of his own senses.

A Pretty, but Practical, American Girl

MRS. EMILY ROELOFSON, a Cincinnati widow, was young and pretty, and possessed the additional attraction of a substantial, nourishing food; they not peril of headaches and heart-flutters. a good part of the house, and I will sur- the love which is there commonly beonly have to repair the daily waste of If you know the articles of food which render. The manager gasped, utter- stowed on American heiresses. Juan train on its way to Leicester. The re-Susan. "He's only starved to death; the system but also to create new bone are always your friends, patronize ed a blessing beneath his breath, bowed Narcisse de Francisco Martin, connected with one of the foreign diplomatic corps, was the successful suitor. They were married last summer. But the bride, mindful of the fact that the law long night's rest, but he never was any sufficient. Young children should have no, once and forever. It ought not to sions to pacify the original proprietors. in France does not give the wife exclubridegroom to sign, and he did it. The said Juan Narcisse de Francisco Martin doth covenant and sgree to and with the said Emily Roelofson, that from and after the celebration of such marriage she shall continue to hold, manage, control and enjoy her said property as her own sole and separate mountains, it can be changed to a scene on the Hudson. By removing the fat man in it and replacing him with a mountains of the premises, with the said Juan Narcisse and accordingly the elephant-trainer brought two of the sixteen elephants of the hadn't the spirit to answer a word.

"The conveniently would have been required. The premises, with the said Juan Narcisse and accordingly the elephant-trainer brought two of the sixteen elephants of the hadn't the spirit to answer a word.

"The conveniently would have been required. The premises, with the said Juan Narcisse and accordingly the elephant-trainer brought two of the sixteen elephants of the hadn't the spirit to answer a word. The premises are the hadn't the spirit to answer a word brought two of the sixteen elephants of the hadn't the spirit to answer a word. The hadn't the spirit to answer a word brought two of the sixteen elephants of the hadn't the spirit to answer a word brought two of the sixteen elephants of the hadn't the spirit to answer a word. The hadn't the spirit to answer a word brought two of the sixteen elephants of the hadn't the spirit to answer a word brought two of the sixteen elephants of the hadn't the spirit to answer a word. The hadn't the spirit to answer a word brought two of the sixteen elephants of the hadn't the spirit to answer a word. The hadn't the spirit to answer a word brought two of the sixteen elephants of the hadn't the spirit to answer a word. The hadn't the spirit to answer a word brought two of the sixteen elephants of the hadn't the spirit to answer a word. The hadn't the spirit to answer a word brought two of the sixteen elephants of the hadn't the spirit to answer a word. The hadn't the spirit to answer a word brought two of the sixteen elephants of the hadn't the spirit to answer a word. The hadn't the spirit to answer a word brought two of the sixteen elephants of the hadn't the spirit to answer a word brought two of the sixteen elephants of the hadn't the spirit to answer a word brought two of the sixteen eleph of her decease, leaving him her survivor.
he shall be entitled to receive during all the rest of his natural life, the income vehicles out of the ruts, and after carry-pension, has had to return to do duty. | prisonment for the fellow.

PERSONAL AND LITERARY. SAN FRANCISCO has newspapers printed in ten foreign languages, including

Mr. Lowers save he learned Italian

ABOUT two hundred German authors met in Congress at the "Goethe Haus," Weimar, a few weeks since. The graves of Goethe and Schiller were wreathed Mg. THOMAS HUGHES is said to have told a friend in Boston that his Tom Brown was intended as a portrait of Dean Stanley, and that a gentleman, now a distinguished officer in the East Indies, and the best shot in the British army, was the original of East. Sonox Robinson, a well-known authority on agricultural matters, who

Mr. Robinson was the author of "Hot Corn," "How to Live" and a romance MONSTEUR JEAN LEON GEROME is one of the handsomest men in France. The much enthusiasm. day and dreamed of it by night. The that the rule is stated the necessity for lines of his face are wonderfully strong "For I tell you, sir," said he to Elsie, and refined and he has an unmistaka- "it isn't every boy who'll get a chance served the possibility of sin going un- congratulatory letter from, for instance, ble expression of power. His manners to be in that procession to-night, sir. discovered and hence apparently un- the foreman of the fire company with are quiet and courteous. M. Gerome There II be a thousand torches, and punished. He afterward said he was which "he" has been connected in is now nearly fifty-seven and has been speeches, and fire-works; and the train

Joseph Skipsey, a Northumberland miner, author of several lyric poems hand, Juc, you and Jack Stone, and and now residing at Backworth Colliery. near Newcastle, England, has received girls are too lazy to use a regular black- great God would see to it most instantaneous and effusive sort an intimation from one of Mr. Glad- of the flag, and wear white rubber stone's private secretaries that in consid- capes, and carry a torch apiece if you eration of his literary services an annual pension has been awarded him.

CHARLES DUDLEY WARNER, having much newspaper work to do, devotes only his Saturdays to magazine and book-writing. He was born in Massachusetts, and is fifty-one years old. He practiced law in Philadelphia and in Chicago, meanwhile doing considerable literary work, until about the beginning of the war, when he became an editor in Hartford. His thick hair and beard are gray, but he appears young. He is of medium height, and grave, thoughtful and refined. ---

HUMOROUS.

WHEN a noted trotter dies a shaft should be raised to its memory. -Lowell mother had gone to visit a sick neigh- public "lock-up. THE Scotch should be a stable people, tea.

right pitch, he sticks to it .- N. O. Pic- why wasn't I born a bor?"

"What does a woman want to put on gloves in hot weather for?" asks a open, and in bounced Master Joe.

WHEN the shopman seizes you warmwith its chain of bones to communicate ly by the hand as you enter his estab- crimson with excitement. vibrations, and an external ear. Any lishment, you readily understand what used to prove that a fish cannot breathe, said: "At this stage of the game," this big cape-come!"

Two Ladies went to see Clara Morris. In one of the most affecting passorgan in some groups of fishes, we ages of the play, when the whole nouse man's inability to reason correctly from trimming on her dress is nothing but were quickly pinned up and covered by going across the city to the Eastern

THE Albany Argus prints the following: "A false friend resembles a shadow. When the sun shines and you have plenty of money the shadow and the friend are both close to your heels; but when it comes to be dark, where is the shadow? and when your money is where is the friend?" He is not at other man. - N. O. Picayune.

A New Risk for Railway Travelers. WE record one of the most extraorservations yet made are faulty, either leave St. Pancras in the evening-one Joe and she tucked themselves away on because, first, the observer has sup- at 8:30, the other at 9:15. The latter a back seat. posed that the fish ought, if it can hear, is the Scotch Express, and passes the to notice the sound he makes for the former at Leicester. On Saturday of humor, so were the "Philtrick Piopurpose; or, second, he has argued, night the driver of the Scotch Express neers," who, gorgeous in their Zouave reversed his engine at a place called regimentals, came crowding into the that if a fish hears, the range of its hear- Great Glen, a few miles on the London car at the next station, to crack jokes ing must be nearly the same as his side of Leicester, in order that the and talk politics. Pretty soon the train Receiving a signal to the effect that out in a twinkling. the line was clear, he again started; but he started backward. He had forlarge fortune. She went to live in Paris several years ago, and could not escape the love which is there commonly besult of the collision was that a bogey ping briskly along, and grasping her carriage in the express was telescoped. as the phrase is, through the four ad- If one hundred torches were "fun." joining compartments. Happily no one what could be said when they reached in France does not give the wife exclu-gers were injured, and one is in a dan-sive control of her property, had an sive control of her property, had an has been made it would be unfair to-important agreement drawn up for the ward the driver of the passenger train horses were prancing; some one set fire She only clasped Elsie tighter and tight document has just been recorded in the to speculate on the cause or causes for to a sort of powder, and lot the whole er, while the tears streamed down her County Clerk's office at Cincinnati. The his strange conduct. It may be hoped street was rosy red. that there was some exceptional ele- Now everything was ready and the But Joel-oh, Joe did tal ment in the case. Otherwise a new and march began. Whole blocks on each for all. The lofty sentiments that ment in the case. Otherwise a new and horrible risk will have been added to horrible risk will have been added to Chinese lanterns; candles twinkled in youth were truly refreshing. If is own don News.

Utilizing Elephant Power.

ALMOST all the vehicles and other estate as fully as if she were unmarried; property of the London Circus, which that her said estate shall be in no way liable for the debts of the said Juan have been housed. One feature of the Nobody could understand half he said.

Althor and separate property as her own sole and separate property of the London Circus, which house. Somebody was making a speech. Nobody could understand half he said. any such conduct as would impair his said | was novel and interesting. Some of the wife's rights and prevent her from duly chariots are very heavy, weighing sev- trotted gaily on. controlling and enjoying her said prop-erty. And the said Emily doth cov-erty. And the said Emily doth covenant and agree, in consideration of the conveniently would have been required. rah!" part of the principal of her said invest-ed estate without the written consent beast did what was required of them, in one of her feet. of her said husband, and that in case and to observe their tremendous from one equal half part of the invested | ing them into the building, shifted them estate belonging to her at her decease, and that she will, immediately after the chariots, which they picked up with celebration of such contemplated marriage, execute her last will and testa- wavs easy for them to take hold of their ment in such manner and form as to load so that it balanced well between secure such income to him." The fortune consists of $271,000 in stock and after a while in getting everything adbonds, and a large amount of real esjusted - New Haven Palladium.

son and a woman's wit, inspired with her hair without her consent and more than a woman's love. 'Be careful --overanxious --for nothing, but in cided that it was an assault which was

Our Young Readers.

WAITING FOR YOU.

Tun world is waiting for you, young man, Miss Clara Louise Kerloug has been highly successful in Vienna this season. The New Freis Presse speaks of her performance as "colossal."

Mr. Bancroff, the historian, en-

There are treasures of ensuntain and treasu And harvest of valley and plate. That Industry, Knowinder and Skill

While Ignorance wishes in value in order to study Dante. The best way. he thinks, to learn a language is to take "a great book" and a dictionary, and The world is waiting for you.

Of idle and besisions the world has enough-Who can what they never have sarmed; Who have the pure stream. From the forestain of truth.
And window and knowledge have spermed.

But patience and purpose which know no de-And genders, like geoms bright and true, Will bless all marshind with their love, life and The world is waiting for you.

Then swake, O, young man, from the stuper of death.

And propore for the buttle of life;
Be the fire of the forge, or he anvit or sinday.
But sets, or go down in the street.
Can you steek though the world into rel should rock? Can you conquer with many or few? Then the world is walling for you, young man, The second is tricking for som!
-Prof. S. S. Calvino, in Vising Police Revol.

---ELSIE IN THE PROCESSION.

Easte Baken was sitting on a log in the wood-shed, gloomily listening to her brother Joe, who was talking with leaves Porter's Corner at six o'clock; and Mr. Hill says to me, 'You be on you may go to Portland along of the proached, and Elsie caught the given "Continentals" and march each side the season, and -" "I can't go," burst in Elsie, "Just because I'm a girl I can never go anywhere or see anything."

"Of course not," assented Joe, cheerfully, "Girls never can. I go because father's in Ohio, and I'm the man of the family. I declare I shouldn't wonder if half the people in Portland should think Jack and I could vote when they see us percessing. Three cheers for Hantield!" Hanfield? Hanfield? That did not sound quite right. Joe meditated Hanfield? Well, never mind. There was no time to waste over names. If THE man who seldom uses it should a President of the United States he walk, he picked her up and tramped off have a clean conscience. - Boston Trans must be off and away for Jack Stone, down in town with his burden. Where or the two would miss the train.

bor, and would not even be at home for what her brother does, and have some which her new friend gave her, then, She sat close to the andirons in front coat.

of the wood fire, and more and more But, in the morning, waking in a male subscriber. Why to keep her the arm, "here's your chance. You can cape with its red collar.

Joe hurried on. "Jack Stone's sick. Earache-both ears onions on em-swim nor digest, because the organs it then, suddenly choking himself off, he Elsie was beside herself. "Mother possesses for these purposes are simpler said to the Court: "I beg pardon, I wouldn't let me," she half gasped. "Did she ever say you mustn't?" ar- tremblingly approaching a man who gued Joe. "Like as not we'll be back was pushing round some trunks. before she is. Don't be a goose. You won't get such another chance."

the rubber cape. With her unlighted Depot. Come with me, and I'll take torch over her shoulder, who would not have thought her a sturdy younger brother of the boy who held her tightly by the hand, and exhorted her not to lot the grass grow under her feet.

Down the road they flew, and reached the station just as the "Continentals" came marching up with fife and drum. "Here we are, Mr. Hill," said Joe. presenting himself and his companion. "All right," said Mr. Hill, too busy home. He is out borrowing from some to pay much attention. "Keep with the rest of the men. How are you, Jack,

There was no time for the makebelieve "Jack, my boy," to answer. dinary calamities that ever occurred. The engine was puffing and panting. even on a railway. Two express trains Elsie was swung on the train, where my boy?"

other train might have time to shunt. stopped with a jerk, and everybody was There were shouts of command. The "Continentals" and "Pioneers" fell into gotten that the points of his engine line. Torches were lit. A host of boys were reversed, and, incredible as it set up shrill yells. Joe and Eisle were "Isn't it fun?" thought Elsie, step-torch with both hands.

was killed on the spot, but five passen. Market Square, where the grand proevery pane; all the gas burners did share in last night's adventures had their best; Roman candles shot out colored stars; rockets went up with a fizz.

share in last night's adventures had quite slipped his mind. He felt called upon, as "the man of the family," to exhort his sister at length in regard to work of getting the effects under cover was novel and interesting. Some of the rah!" Elsie shouted with the rest, and you'll remember this the next time you so much the pain in one particular spot | the statement. The Kussians, however was in high spirits, and apparently as fresh as ever. Elsie limped bravely on. Across an open space the procession wheeled, and haited again to drink lemonade out of big tubs on the sidewalk. Elsie ventured to complain to Joe. seen them put through their movem the eyes. Once more she struggled on ... It seemed as if she had been marchin. for years and years ered since she was a baby. She could not drag here cheer she crept up a flight of stone and sank down. "I'll wait a few mimetes, and then res fast, and catch Jos again," thought she The next moment, as it seemed, and beard two voices pear her

"The party must be hard up that her to take habiter like this to help so the cause," said one. "Poor little fellow?" answered the other-a lady "He's dropped down torch and all, and gone to sleen Eleie started and looked around her Where was the procession? Where was Joe! Too terrified to say a word ... the street she rushed, gazing wildy this side and on that. No doe that the see, no procession either. It was t have been quite dark but for the street interps. I must stop somewhere. I must say some one for Joe." At a letter smaller than the other she paused, and rang the bell The was a confused sound of talk and with "Don't you open that door as you some one, in shrill tones, alone! This time of sight! It's tran-Then Phobe Maria called the key-hole, "Go right away i show let you in if you stop there till a late.

Do-part! I think if the word "de part" had me sounded so very penderous, him was have called back that she was an trans-As it was, she run blindly on "Mother! mother" she will wringing ber little cold hands for one answered. A clock near by too nine, ten, eleven. Two drops of and fell. The wind rustled dreamly amthe tree-tops. Steps sounded near. A tall man an of brase buttons. What are you doing hero, bedemanded the newcomer, in a great bass voice. like.' It's to be the biggest show of

"I'm not a boy," cried Elein. " never was a boy in all my life I'm Elsie Baker. I want to go hesme She quite broke down, and went all county. "Holty-tolty?" exclaimed the ma who was one of the police. "Where is your home F' "Out at Porter's Corner !brought me to the percession. I was he hadn't, I wish - Oh dear, dear use "

"Now here's a pretty mess! said the policeman. "There's nothing for but to take charge o' you to-might an'. see how we can manage to-marrow You come along with me. Joe would help toward the election of Finding the child too exhausted to

And Elsie? Poor little Elsie was left | To tell the truth there seemed to be forlors. She was quite alone, for her no other place, and he took her to the Elsie was too worn and spent to mire too hungry was she not to devour eagersy considering that their country is the land "Oh, why shouldn't a girl do just the bit of salt fish and hard cracker WHEN the leader of a choir gets the fun?' thought Elsie, bitterly. "Or else forgetting her woes, she fell askess once mere, safely wrapped in his warm over find no trace of man in the monkey, but dismal did she grow. She had nearly strange place, all the terror of last night finds abundant traces of the monkey in come to wondering whether it was real came upon her once more. Through ly worth while to live if one had to be an open door she darted like a staronly a girl, when the front door burst hare, and when No. 11 came, an hare, and in bounced Master Joe. later, to find her, no child was visible "Elsie," cried he, grasping her by All that was left was the small rubbe.

"I must find some cars," thought "Go? go?" repeated Elsie, flushing Elsie. "I can't get home unless I fine some cars. It must have been her guardian angel who led the little girl, for, as she walked As an attorney was speaking on a here's his cap - who'll know you're not hastily along, right in front of her organ of hearing, might equally well be case at the Court-House yesterday he a boy? -tuck up your skirts on with loomed up a big building, in and out of which locomotives were running. "Would you please point out the train for Porter's Corner?" said Elsie. There's no time to talk. Hurry! hurry! tion for that, sissy or bubby, which are you be," said the man, glancing free may be certain that such conclusions as was hushed in stillness, one lady who Her eyes flashing, her brain in a the giri's dress to the boy's cap. "But those commented on are not due to the had been using her opera glass attentive. whirl, Elsie pulled the blue cap over there," added he, as the brown eyes fish's want of hearing so much as ly remarked to the other: "Pooh! the her short curls. Her little perticoats filled with tears, "a gravel train's just > you there." Down the track Elsie rode, perchal on a heap of gravel. "I cal fate you've got a ticket for Porter's Corner?" said her companion Here was fresh trouble. No ticket had she, and, what was worse, not a penny to buy one. "You don't mean to say you're going to steal a ride!" exclaimed the man. Very likely this was meant for a jokbut Elsie took it for sober earnest. Si had been called a "tramp" last night; now she was taken for a thief. It was too dreadful. She looked here and there, if perchance there might be some way of escape from all this misery, and suddenly-why!-what? that boy on the platform of the Eastern Depot-could it be? "Joe! Joe!" shricked Elsie. It was Joe; a very wretched Joe, a Joe who had not slept a wink all night, though he had gone home in a vain hope he might and the missing sister

He saw Eiste. He sprang toward her He clambered on the car almost before it stopped. He hugged her, he kixsed her. Boy though he was, he went great tears over her. Then he took her by both shoulders and shook her. "Oh, you had girl! Where have you been? You've frightened mother meet to death. Elsie, Elsie, what made you come to Portland pty "You brought me, Joe," said Elsie, humbly. Home they went, those two. At the Porter's Corner Station they found every man and woman of the village, and cheeks.

want to tag on when I'm going any-

And Elsie was actually so tired that

Some Russian officers in north Chica "It's my new boots," said she to a very needless state of alarm. A ru-But somehow she was not easy. Up plained to Comman ler Schu eldt, who one street, down another. It was not indignantly denied the truthfulness of now as the general ache, not only in assert d that they had seen through a her foot, but in her whole body.

field glass American officers drilling "I'm afraid I'm growing tired."

Chinese on one of the United States men-of-war, and this disc'osure enabled half the distance now."

"Most half the distance!" Why, in Broadway, N. Y., with $20,000 in her pocket-book, offers one-fourth of the roll to the finder. A Laby who went shopping the other