Sweeney of Blue Hill Neb., easy terms

Farmers complain that they cannot get as good price for their hogs in

We are not sure but the pauper business of this county needs looking into, and the CHIEF will probably give the matter some attention at an early day.

Rev. C. Q. Todd, will preach at the Congregational church next Sabbath morning and evening. A lecture may be expected Saturday at 3 o'clock p. m., and communion on Sabbath after the close of the Sunday school.

The town council has passed an ordinance prohibiting the throwing of old paper on the streets. It is a good ordinance and should be rigidly enforced. Many a bad accident is caused by horses scaring at paper blowing about on the street.

The ladies Mission Society of the

A Delightful Novelty.
Ladies prefer Florentine Cologne because they find this lasting combination of exquisite perfume a delightful novelty.

Wish Remembering.
Now that good times are again upon us, it is worth remembering that no one can enjoy the pleasures surrounding life in-hand health. There are hundreds of miserable people going about to-day with diseased stomach, liver or kidneys, when a bottle of Parker's Ginger Tonic would do them more good than all the medicine they have ever tried.

Strawberries are getting cheaper in the market.
Rev. E. Middleton has gone to Pennsylvania to reside.

Mr. McPherson purchased the three old school houses for $399.
C. H. Potter will go to Burr Oak, Iowa, next Monday to visit relatives.

Mrs. W. H. Ludlow has the thanks of the CHIEF outfit for a nice bouquet left on our table last week.

Albright & Strohm have leased their livery barn to a Mr. McPherson, who will put in a good livery stock.

Mr. Watkins, the Hercules of Blue Hill, and editor of the Times at that place, was a caller at the CHIEF office last Monday.

The ladies aid society will meet at the Parsonage on Friday the 16th.
All the ladies are desired to be present as there is business to be done.
Ass't. Sec.

T. M. Gray, the brakeman who had his hand cut off while coupling cars some time ago, has been given a position as watchman in the R. & M. yards at Denver, and left for that place the first of this week.

The editor of the Argus offers to donate the county $25 to help carry on a law suit. This strikes us as being rather a "thin" offer, considering the circumstances. Had we received $500 of the county funds, as a gift, we would care to offer the pitiful sum of $25. Make it a hundred, can't you then you will have a clean $400 left.

Ed. CHIEF—Please allow me through your columns to give brief and simple expression to the heart-felt gratitude, words can never fully express, for the gift of a token of esteem from my deceased husband, presented Decoration Day, and alluded to in the last issue of your paper. God must I never adequately can reward the contributors. ELIZABETH KALEY.

We see by our exchanges that Wm.
F. Cody "Buffalo Bill" of North Platte, was robbed in Denver last week of $8,000 in money and jewelry because he did not securely lock his room door. From what we know of the gentleman we should judge that he was robbed because, in the mysterious ways of providence and the rulings of "Hoyle," four of a kind beats a full hand.

W. A. McKeighan addressed a large audience of farmers at Reve's school house in Stillwater precinct, June 3d.
The subject handled was monopoly and the farmer's rights, and the address was well received by the audience. A resolution was unanimously passed in reference to the two Red Cloud papers, which was so flattering to the CHIEF that modesty forbids our publishing it.

Maple Grove Farm.
WEBSTER CO., NEB.
MR. ED.—A few lines from Lino precinct may interest some of the readers of your valuable CHIEF.
The rainy weather and the past few warm days have brought out the farmers and cultivators in mass, and plowing corn is now the order of the day. Crops of every kind are looking fine and there never was a more flattering prospect than at present, our flax looks exceedingly well and promises 15 bushel to the acre. The farmers are well pleased with the prospect.
In behalf of the farmers alliance, I would say (as a few farmers are a little prejudiced against the movement,) as we members of the farmers alliance ask nothing but what is just, right and lawful, and all we wish to do by uniting is to put such men into our legislatures as will make laws that will give the farmer equal rights with other classes, and to force monopolies, railroads and corporate bodies to do as the law directs. We wish it distinctly understood that we are not opposed to railroads, bankers, merchants and mechanics (as has been reported), but believe we could not very well get along without either, and on the other hand they could not get along without the farmer. But we don't want to pay dividends on watered stock that amount to 17 per cent. on investment to any R. R. Co., or monopoly while the farmer receives but 3 per cent. on investment.

A word to the half-witted blatherskite of the Argus. He has said a great deal about the damage done by the Alliance. Keep on old "stubb and twist" you have done us no harm yet, but a great deal of good, as there has been 12 Alliance's organized in this county since you began to "toot your horn," and still they come. The Argus man spoke about the CHIEF man wanting office. There is one thing certain, if the Argus man don't get an office before the fall campaign is over there will be a third class federal in Red Cloud, sure. Try and give him an office, if only clerk of election or assistant master of the dog pound.

We extend a hand of welcome to all farmers to join us in a movement that is bound to win and put the farmers on equal footing with other classes.
We are drifting into centralization as fast as the wheels of time can carry us.
Look where Ireland is to-day, how far will we be behind her in five more years, if we follow the dictates of either of the old parties. Cut loose from old party lines and vote for such men as will assist you and make laws to benefit the farmer as well as the monopolists.

All those wishing information regarding Alliance, please address J.
Barrow, Sec., State Alliance, Melroy,
Iowa, or to David Wardwood, Sec., National Alliance, 155 & 157, Dearborn Street, Chicago, Ills. With best wishes.
F. B. McNEIL, Sec.

F. B. McNEIL, please let me know the membership of each sub-divine Alliance in Webster county, Red Cloud, P. O. box 167.

List of Land Patents.
BLOOMINGTON NEB., June 12, 1882.
Patents as follows for lands in Webster County, have been filed this day: John Q. Hollbrook, Joseph Polnick, Christian T. Bakke, Chas. E. Arnold, Hans Lohfson, William Arnold, Joseph W. Acree, Adolphus C. Bon, Margaret Morrow, Egbert Taylor, Frans Barta, George Tinnell.
S. W. SWITZER, Register.

Light Wanted.
ED. CHIEF—I see in the CHIEF of the 8th inst., that "Subscriber" wants more light on the Farmers' Alliance subject. I think if he would open his eyes a little he would get more light on the subject, it is just as easy as falling off a log. In the first place the Farmers' Alliance is not a secret society, it costs only 10 cts. to become a member, they want a better price for their produce, they want cheaper freight, they want to elect officers that will not sell out, they want officers that will stand to the rack hay or no hay, their motto, the greatest good to the greatest number. They want fair play.

I agree with "Subscriber" on the license as far as he goes. I would ask the people of Webster county if they want their children educated by money got by giving license to sell poison to their neighbors. If it is a crime to sell poison to your neighbors, it is a crime to give license to sell it.
Now this is pretty plain talk, but my opinion is they are stubborn facts.

If "Subscriber" wants more light, he can subscribe for some anti-monopoly paper. You can get the Omaha Bee the rest of the year for 50 cts., or The People's Advocate at Hebron, Neb., eight weeks for ten cents. C. C. C.

Plain View Items.
ED. CHIEF.—It would do you good to ride up in this country and see the fine prospects for crops.

Corn is a little backward, but the prospect for wheat, rye and oats was never better. There are some chinch bugs but if this weather continues a little longer we don't anticipate any damage.

The city dads of Wells met on last Saturday and perfected plans for a grand celebration the Fourth, to be held in the grove near by.

Plain View Sunday school is better than ever this summer. Mr. Hansen has agreed to bring his organ every Sunday which is a great benefit to singing.

Two large gray wolves have been proving around in this vicinity the past few weeks, can't Ex-Gen. Kenney come up and vanquish them?

We can just beat D. S. Helvern's sec. 32 all over, up this way. Here is a sample, sec. 29 town 4 range 11.
The NW owned by Joseph Graves, has on the following crops: Rye 52 acres; Corn, 35; Flax, 22; Broomcorn; 30; Barley 5; Millet 3; Sorghum 54. On the NE J. Howard has in 35 acres of corn, Spring wheat 35, Fall wheat 10, Potatoes 4, Millet 5. On the SE C.
Beckow has 35 acres of Fall wheat 10 Corn 40. On the SW Charley Rollison has in corn 40 acres, Spring wheat 40, Oats 8. There are other sections here with more acres in crops but not quite such a variety.

Light frosts here on the morning of the 3d and 4th, but done no damage.

Mr. Butler is all right again, we think that does would make anybody sick. The sight is enough for us.

Householder says he will show girls with any one in the county; the fifth one arrived last week and was taken in and kindly cared for, it weighed 94 pounds.

Miss Della Eck who came here in April, from New Jersey, started back last Monday to the bedside of her sick mother, she was well pleased with Nebraska, and thinks she will be back again.
RESTIC.

PLAIN VIEW, NEB., June 12, 1882.
ED. CHIEF.—As our letter did not get there in time last week, we send in the following.
We are glad to hear J. C. A. has got over his busy spell and is able again for news, hope he will not be so busy again, for we are really getting behind the times.

John McCallum makes room at his table for another plate, its a ten pound boy.

The livery and feed stable at Wells, burned down last Wednesday. Cause, pipe and tobacco. No insurance.

The grumblers said first, the chinch bugs were going to take the wheat, now the rust. What next?

Everybody is busy plowing corn, but J. C. A., who is looking up items for his next.

Joe Graves' rye measures six feet five inches. How can he beat it?

Miss Sarah Moore is going to visit her father in Leadville.

The Sunday school superintendent at Wells, is Mr. J. M. West, Mrs.
Allard, assistant.

More rain Friday and Saturday, warm and cloudy to day. The potato crop is an assured fact.

Everybody was disappointed because "Rustic's" letter did not appear last week.

All the rage at Wells now is base ball; five full nines, First, Second, Jennett's, Clod-hoppers and Ereka's.

J. C. Ruet has the nicest laid out grounds around his residence, in the county.

Plain View district last year raised over 14,000 bushels of wheat, besides other crops.

There is talk of a wedding in high life here soon—high up in years.
John Eck and Don Dyer are going to Washington Territory this fall on a vacationing tour.

Corn is booming, wheat almost ready to head.
RUSTIC.

the courtesy of one and one-fourth cents for the round trip to all attending the convention, but the system of selling return tickets upon presentation of certificate of attendance obtained at the convention as heretofore practiced has been discontinued, and to secure the reduction of fare it is now necessary to procure the certificate of person for whom certificate desired and the name of the station at which they are to purchase tickets to attend the convention. Let all applications be made by June 10
