I am sure that I shall sever lose the memory of that day.

Job was coming to Thanksgiv ng-so he wrote us in the Fall; He was Ezra's oldest brother, and his favor to We'd been keeping house since April, but I couldn't always tell
When my pie-crust would be flaky, or the poultry masked well; So I feit a little worried-if the truth must be At the thought of Ezra's brother coming as our household guest,

Just a week before Tranksgiving Ezra rode one day to town,

As I needed things for cooking—flour and sugar, white and brown;

And I worked like any beaver, all the time he Making mines and stewing apples for the coming holiday.
I was bot, and tired, and nervous, when be gal-All that day my work had plagued me, nothing seemed to go just right.

"Here's the flour, Lucindy," said he; "it's the best there is in town; I forgot the other sugar, but I've brought enough of brown." "You're a fool!" I cried in fury, and the tears away as the piazza door opened and began to fall;

John had caffed out: began to fall;
- Eide ten miles to do an errand, and forget it I was cross and clean discouraged, as I thought be ought to know; But he turned as white as marble when he heard me speaking so. Not a word he said in answer, but he startel the road once more. Then I nearly cried my eyes out, what grief and fear and shame:

Just behind him came four o'hers, with a burden slowly brought;
As I stood and dumbly watched them you can guess of all I thought! Oh, the days and nights that followed! Ezra lived, but that was all; And with tearless eyes I waited for the worst that might befall. Wandering in a wild delirium, broken phrases plate to her father to be helped. now and then Dropped from fevered lips, and told me what up at first for dead,"

Such a broken-hear, ed woman for the bride he of a word we spoke together in that hushell and shalowed room, Where we waited for the twifight darkening down to deeper gloors; For the doctor said that morning: "There is nothing more to do; If he lives till after sunset, I, perhaps, can pull

Just as five o'clock was striking, Ezra woke and feebly stirred;
"Did you get the sugar, darling?" were the words I faintly heard. hear him speak. Or to see his look of wonder as I bent to kiss ing up the walk— But. I've hed a purpose in it; 'twasn't just for Don't you think, my dear, you'd better make your quarrei up with Gray?

It may save a world of trouble, and it's near Thanksgiving Day.—Christian Union.

A STRANGER AT THE BOARD. A Thanksgiving Story.

It snowed the night before Thanksthere was a half-defined mist in the gray a'r that seemed like the all pervading chilliness taking form, and everybody who was going away, or who was to have company (and that took in nearly all of New England), went to bed with a dim foreboding of disappointment on the morrow. There is four inches of snow, at least," said Farmer Draper on Thanksgiving morning, as he came in from the big barn, stamping his feet vigorously upon the stone floor of the back porch. Four inches, at least, and that isn't the worst of it, it is covered with a crust as thin and sharp, almost, as window glass. I declare here is a hole in one of my rubber boots a ready." "I don't know what to do about cooking the turkey," said Mother Draper, setting a large platter of steam-ing stewed chicken upon the breakfasttable "I don't see how Aunt Catherine and the girls are to get down here to day; or Frank and his wife, or the boys, either, for that matter." "It is a bad morning for horses to travel, to be sure," said William, coming in from the barn just then, "but Thanksgiving is never postponed on account of the weather, so I will tell you what I propose to do: I will tackle up the steers, all four yoke, and hitch them to the long wood-sled and go for the company. It will be great fun, besides showing my good disposition by sides showing my good disposition by track for my neighbors. The confuctor. It would be a good deed for Thanksgiving Day. "It will be pretty cold," said her ### mother.

" And that ain't the worst of it," put in her father, "I expect she will needed he e about the chicken fixens." "Mother will get along until Aunt Catherine gets here; she is a whole team and a horse to let. So put on your water-proof, old maid, and come down and help me ta kle. You need not be afra'd of your beau getting here before you return. for certainly, if he has to walk, he can't make great headway this morning."

Jennie, a bright, handsome, trim

little body, being the oldest of the Draper children, was always teasingly called "the old maid" by her four brothers, who delighted in joking her about an expected lover who never came. "Jennie's beau" was a sort of mythical scape goat in the family to whom all imaginable, absurd blunders and mishans were attributed.

This is but another name for a telegram sent from all parts of the system, directly and indirectly, announcing the company went back through the pretty and mishans were attributed.

This is but another name for a telegram sent from all parts of the system, directly and indirectly, announcing the company went back through the pretty fact, more or less alarming, that the forth its fruits. Now, frequent raking the sew brand, "Spring Tenace." and mishaps were attributed. So now she made some laughing re-sponse, and when her brother marshaled storm had cast over every thing," "Canadar," replied Dick, imitating William said. But at every house it was the traveler's pronunciation.

Aunt Catherine's lovely daughters helped their pretty cousin Jenny to set the table, of course, and they managed allyly to have one plate and one chair too many, and by a great deal of macuving in seating the company, this plate and chair were left builde Jennie for the long-e posted beau.

The plate how it happened, though 'R's and Last year at a con ention where there were assembled in Christian fellowship people from all p ris of the world, a free light hand that is not the world and that is not the world and that is not the world and the same times think it's curious that I can need to see the long affection at lately happened stip across the table at his daughter as he bowed his head to sek the blessing.

"I believe he is coming now, uncle; I experience. I landed in New York Aunt Catherine's lovely daughters they talked over that snowy Thanksgiv-out the window they saw a stoutly-built through carelessness of officials I was you g man bravely breasting the storm, sent to l'edford, Mass. I found my misyet showing a certain weariness as he take there and was started for my propwalked along the slippery way.

this time, and the air was full of great lute I determined not to be discouraged feathery flakes, as if all the feathers of but to make my way on foot. It was all the fowls that graced that day's din- late in the fall. I had no trouble in obner in New England had been cast to taining food and shelter at night and the four winds.

the young man, who was evidently a vited to enter. At last, when simost stranger, looked again at the polished wearied out, I reached a house that was make the most satisfactory flowers for the house-dog, in a decidedly equivocal welcome, especially when taking into little children and ladies in bright consideration his huge proportions and dresses. I was welcome and a plate savage air, and the stranger was turning waited for me. After the feast I was "Down, Pinchers, down? Come in come in, sir, out of the storm!" "I tanks yer, said the stranger, giving his hat and coat a hake, thus divesting them of their burden of snow, and following John directly into the diningfor the door, And in less than half a minute galloped down room, and, with a graceful bow to the company, seating himself by the fire. "We were expecting you," said and preservers, as I may call them. I John. We have the table set for you, knew nothing of it at all no more than

With the daylight came a neighbor; "Ezra has been hurt," he said;
"Fout d beside the road unconscious; taken up at first forder."

Louise, but that isn't the worst of it, strings of oxen are driven about the streets carrying guests from house to house, and where it is the custom to so up at first forder." treat Jennie's long-expected beau with that happens to come in on that day? due cordiality, pushed back the vacant chair, and Jennie, not to be out-done, glanced up and seeing a comely, neatly- content and plenty as the Lord led me. dressed young man at her elbow, gave to look upon that afternoon. All these him one of her sweet smiles, motioned years I have carried those people near him to the seat beside her and passed his my heart and prayers that the Lord The stranger evidently understood very little of all the merry talk going feast," said the lady, and she entered so Thanksgiving dawned upon us. Job came in the proffered chair, bowed his head surprise and del ght of the now well-tofor a moment as if invoking a silent do, intelligent, demonstrative French blessing, and then proceeded with his gentleman.

the worst of it-we don't want to. This But Jennie don't know a word of his was expostulating: "Oh, goodness, fath- now he can do all his scolding in French er, why must you tell him that! Why and she can take it all for love sall es. don't you make him believe that this is -Mrs. Annie A. Preston, in Springfield only a picked-up d nner?" The young people all joined in alaugh at this, but the stranger repeated: "Thanksgiving? Thank you! Thank God? I see! I know. I hear about giving that year. Through the evening I call I find good smells, like Christmas some crude notions about even-handed hearty relish.

that we used to read about in the Mother Goose book."

turkey, "I understand, I think, this be Yankee Christmas."

-Christmas is yet to come."

now tr Canada and find my friends, my brother. Now how many miles?" "Too many for a fellow to walk this slippery traveling." said John. in the case, he "I say, Dick, old boy," to his broth- for a new trial. to; we will start right away after break- tion to-morrow morning, if I don't go through, and he will be in the 'Do- ready for the question?" minion' before he knows it."

> "Put him up a lunch, mother, enough to last him out of the country, and save your tears. Jen, he will undoubtedly return when he gets a better use of our language. It would be love-mak ng under difficulties at present." Jennie looked indignant, but the intelligent young stranger, although ob-servant and alert was entirely oblivious of all personal allusions.

Mother Draper packed a strong, good-sized paper bag with lunch, saying, with tears: "There was never such good-hearted boys as my boys," and Aunt Catherine, who had a boy of her own somewhere in the far West, gave the stranger a dollar as she bade him escort in the way of a steer team wait- supplies of food are needed to supply the land back to a smooth surface, ing in every door-yard, so that by the this waste, without which the body where nothing grows well, and on that "I believe he is coming now, uncle; I experience. I landed in New York really do," exclaimed Louise the moment the good farmer had re-opened his smattering of English. I wanted to go eyes, and sure enough, as they looked to my friends in Be ford, (anada, but er destination, but my money gave out, The weather had changed again by and being young and strong and reso pushed on bravely until a snow storm "He is coming in!" "No, he is going overtook me. Oh, what a day that was! by!" "Yes, he has decided to call!" as I called at many doors but was not in- ing clothes drawn by oxen to the station. Other similar teams joined ours in the long.

was sent to my friends free of charge. When I recovered from my fatigue and wanted to write and thank my friends. I knew not the town, the State nor the names even of my entertainers He was good and kind and patient; I was all the one to blame.

And the hours wore on till midnight, and my heart seemed turned to stone.

As I listened for his coming while I sat there of course, but that isn't the worst of it, strings of oxen are driven about the of course, but that isn't the worst of it, strings of oxen are driven about the of course, but that isn't the worst of it, strings of oxen are driven about the of course, but that isn't the worst of it, strings of oxen are driven about the of course, but that isn't the worst of it, strings of oxen are driven about the other course. wish I could know, for I never have seen such a picture of happiness. would lead me again in the r midst." "I was one of the girls at that notable wide country street. They escorted me to the station and into the cars and I

"You haf large family," he said pres- he met this niece in a rallway train. ently to the farmer, carefully studying "Yes. Louise, that young tramp, as we his words, 'and you haf much meat," called him, you know, turned out to be looking around with evident astonish- our own little old maid's beau after all. ment at the groaning table, for Mother Things do happen strangely sometime.

Draper and Aunt Catherine held to the You mustn't fail to come to the wedding old fashion that everything belonging Thanksgiving. He has furnished satisto the Thanksgiving dinner must be on factory credentials, and Dick has taken the table before the family were seated. a run up to Montreal where he is in

Well. I've told a long, long story—Ezra's coming up the walk—
All this to the disgust of William, who worst of it—I shouldn't want to, for (Mass.) Republican.

Idaho Jurispradence.

Justice O'Sniffin, up at Blackfoot, tried it. I not knew it to-day. Every door his first case last week. He has

"Goose! Goose!" cried the stranger, and provided and against the peace aforesaid. Defendant's counsel then in the case, he would make a motion

"Gentlemen." said Judge O'Spiffin to the bystanders, "you have a motion, rake in gardens. There is another reado I hear a second?" An eccentric horse-thief on the back seat seconded the motion. "Gentlemen," resumed his Honor, vou have heard the mot on. Are you

"Question! "The motion has been made and seconded that the defendant Centipede be given a new trial. All those in favor will say 'aye.'"

Big chorus of aves. "Those opposed will say 'no.'" "It's a vote. The prisoner will be granted a new trial."
The West is full of self-made men who are not very familiar with Estee's Pleading and High on Injunction, but if you think they are not familiar with parliamentary usages, you do not know them. - Detroit Free Press.

Hunger.

of straw in the center of the huge sled.
"There, sis," said William, taking his The stranger asked a great many not as when one so far does injustice to kitchea.

Dinter was to be early, so that the two Draper boys who were employed upon the railroad that cut in twain the broad acres of their fa'her's farm could be back at the station at rain time in the street and told him to shove him through into the Dominion and not let the custom-house officers at St. Armand collect duty on the fragments of mother's turkey and mince pie."

Thanksgivings came and went, and every year at the Draper homestead the country will be inevitable.—

Essex," said Dick, "and I turned him over the beat and told him to shove him through into the Dominion and not let the custom-house officers at St. Armand collect duty on the fragments of in America. Just which keeps the weeds from growing.

—A vague but herrible ramor is being handed around with blanched lips the air and meintage in a most pleasing looking countries. Just when the dromedary's back and the war with the dromedary's back and the war with the mother country will be inevitable.—

Essex," said Dick, "and I turned him over to Ben Leet and told him to shove the ing handed around with blanched lips that Occar White will marry and mitter in America. Just when the dromedary's back and the war with the mother country will be inevitable.—

Essex," said Dick, "and I turned him over to Ben Leet and told him to shove the ing handed around with blanched lips that Occar White will marry and mitter to be in America. Just we will be inevitable.—

Thanksgivings came and went, and every year at the Draper homestead every year at the Draper homestead every will be inevitable.—

Essex," said Dick, "and I turned him over the beauty that the dromedary is beauty the inevitable are the weeds from growing.

A vague but herrible ramor in the ing handed around with blanched lips that the air and meintage in a most pleasing to be in a most pleasing to be a surface in a most pleasing to be a most pleasing to be in a most pleasing to be in a most pleasing

BONE, PARM AND GARDEN.

-Do use put place articles that have beid milk into bot mater on this causes the mild to penetrate the glass, and it can never be removed. Chicago Next. Often breaking up a sorface keeps a soil in bes'th: for when it lies in a hard-bound condition enriching raine run off and the salubrious air cannot enter. -Plain Rusks: One cup of yeast, one cup of sugar, one cup of water, one egg, a little salt, a large spoonful of lard; mix together; let them rise twice and bake. This go Times.

-When mildew appears on the lower side of grape leaves it should be the ked at once by dusting with flower of sulphur, applied with a pair of bellows. This is said to be effective. - Chi-

-The hardy varieties of geranium windows that even on the outside gave to me like an entrance into Heaven. I winter-house gardening. They are cona hint of warmth and good cheer within, pinched myself to see if I was still in stant and profuse bloomers, and will

-In cooking ham or corned beef. it should be put into boiling water when taken with all the guests on a huge sled put on to cook, and when it is done should reman in the pot until cold: This is the whole secret of baving haru or corned beef julcy and full-flavored. The Household -In fee ling sweet milk to pigs, trials made at the Wisconsin Experiment Farm showed that on an average four Farm showed that on an average four reach of the girls. The girls meanwhile pounds of corn-meal were equal to sit on the fashionable hotel porticos twenty pounds of sweet skim milk, or one pound of meal equal to five o milk, if fed separately. - Chicago Herald, -Southern Corn Bread: To one pint have asked others; do you know aught of corn meal partly scalded, take half a who makes no more display than is conof such a country festival, where long pint of sour milk, one teaspoonful of sistent with gracefulness, beauty, and > have oven hot; bake in shallow tin. -Cincinnali Times. -A very small proportion of the ter be a nice spinster than an unloved quince trees planted ever arrive at a wife, married for money or show. - Philfruiting age, generally dying from neg- adelphia Times, lect soon after planting. They require a deep, good soil, a comparatively moist. Humanity of an Auglo-Indian Judge. still and clavey one being best, pravided it be well cultivated. For the first three or four years they demand careful at while going home from court, saw a

The Rake in the Garden.

South Australian Gardeners. Society Saheb, observing that to him humanity held at Adelaide, by Mr. A. McDonald. did not seem to be different here from It contains suggestions valuable to gar- what it is at home. He then came back deners everywhere. It also raises the and took the woman up in his own car-"We don't live like this right along." business. and there seems to be no question whether the harrow may not explained the farmer, "and that isn't reason why they shouldn't be ma ried. sometimes be employed to a disadvanthere. We trust and hope long residence in India will not chill the fervor An old garden laborer said to me some years ago when I was busy raking a flower border, and trying to make, as I thought then, a nice job: "Angus, you would soon impoverish ground." I don't think that I ever had a better lesson in gardening than that. It has been printing firm, Resenthal & Roesch, 538 Califorin my mind ever since, and I never use | nia street, that city, said to one of their rea rake myself, or see any one else using one, but I think of it. That raking does impoverish ground is plain enough to me now. In raking ground in gardens is suffering with the umatism, bruise or sprain. at home. No one say 'come in.' Here dog say 'Walk in.' You say 'Welcome,'" and the young man looked gratefully at John's smiling fa e, and then went on with his dinner with a the largest of the largest hen went on with his dinner with a the larceny of one sorrel mule, the to a rubbish heap, which heap is very earty relish.

"Gracious! See him lay in for supvalued at $75, at the county and Terriof some creek or river, and gets washed ner, of Shirrell's Ford, N. C., in the Ravenspl'es," said John, passing the onions. tory aforesaid and on the 10th day of away to the sea, where it is not wanted. | wood (W. Va.) News. Don't inflict such a stow-away upon October. 1882, and that on said Now, this sort of thing going on must drive away the mule aforesaid, contrary to the statutes in such case made and provided and against the peace and dignity of the Territory of Idaho.

The against the peace and by no means sifted: and I have the statute and by no means sifted: and I have the statute and by no means sifted: and I have the statute and by no means sifted: and I have the statute and I have the statute and I have the statute and I have the soil lumpy and open.

The against the peace and by no means sifted: and I have the statute and I have the st us, Jennie. I verily believe it is the day the said Don Quixote Centi-impoverish the ground, as these little Robin to bobbin, the big-bellied Ben, pede did take, steal and ride away and clods as a rule contain a good deal of nodding toward the skeleton of the and dignity of the Territory of Idaho. and by no means sifted; and I have no-The case was tried, and defendant having been found guilty, the Justice roots seem to cling to and run round was about to sentence him to the penilittle lumps of earth such as the rake "Something of that sort," said the was about to sentence him to the 1 cni-farmer, "but that isn't the worst of it tentiary for life, when the counsel takes off the ground. If it is good to Christmas is yet to come."

Called the attention of the Court to the have them in pots where you want bers in chorus. "Am der any member in dis "Where are you going?" asked one fact that, as an examining magistrate, to grow good plants with a little hall to-night who knows how to be a private to grow good plants with a little hall to-night who knows how to be a private to grow good plants with a little hall to-night who knows how to be a private to grow good plants with a little hall to-night who knows how to be a private to grow good plants with a little hall to-night who knows how to be a private to grow good plants with a little hall to-night who knows how to be a private to grow good plants. of the boys, and after the question had been frame in various ways, he said:
"To Canada. There has I friends.
A mistake I made. I come to the wrong town you call it? I write letters. I spend all my moneys. I go walking spend all my moneys. I go walking to the money in the control of the District Court. Judge to leave them on the ground, and not waste time and do harm by raking them together and carrying them away.

The small stones which the rake generally collects along with the clods the money better left as they aforesaid. Defendant's counsel then would be much better left, as they, rose and stated that owing to certain worked into the ground, do a great deal irregularities and peculiarities developed more good than harm. Now, I hold it is no part of a gardener's art to im-poverish ground, and that is one reason why I would discourage the use of the Ground often raked over soon sets and gets a sort of crust on it, which is bad, as it prevents the air from getting down into the soil, which is highly beneficial. It also prevents the rain from passing into the ground so freely as it ought, and that is certainly bad, and especially so in a country like this, where the rainfall is so scant and where not a drop of that element should be lost if possible: it is of the utmost importance that that should be understood by all gardeners. agriculturists, and all who have to do with land. I have in my experience in this country seen a hare patch of ground washed smooth with the rain and baked with the sun till act any Paster and Dector, Lawyer and Editor, all thing grew on it summer or winter. I have seen that same patch trenched and left rough. Nothing more was done to it, and in two years the regention growing on it was quite luxuriant, which shows that the land itself distinct a his team, consisting of alternate yokes of red and white steers, two yokes of each, she took her place upon a bundle of straw in the center of the huge sled.

"There, sis," said William, taking his time they reached the little village about the railway station the Draper turn-out headed a decidedly unique procession.

The stranger asked a great many not this waste, without which waste, without which waste, without which waste, without which the business of straw in the center of the huge sled.

The stranger asked a great many not the stranger asked a great many no of straw in the cenier of the huge sied.

"There, sis." said William, taking his seat month the neap of the sled and branchishing his long with, "you look like the genius of Thanksgiving going round on a tour of inspection among the brick owns, and your team is almost as fanciul as the reindeers of St. Nicholas."

It grew more and more fanciful momentarily, for it soon began to rain, and as the tine pelting drops froze as they fell, the whole turn-out was trains formed into an eshibition of ice newly frozen for the eccasion from the Arctic region. After having been round the smilling John, while all the bors, who were dancing around. Managing frozen for the eccasion from the Arctic region. After having been round the smilling John, while all the bors, who were dancing around. managing frozen for the eccasion from the Arctic region. After having been round the smilling John, while all the bors, who were dancing around. managing frozen for the eccasion from the Arctic region. After having been round the smilling John, while all the bors, so the smilling John, while all the bors who were dancing around. managing frozen for the eccasion from the Arctic region. After having been round the smilling John, while all the bors while and the first period of the township they retraced blood in the township they retraced blood in the township they retraced blood in the township they retraced their steps, stopping at nearly every house for a merry interchange of greet-instructions.

What you do with me? the stranger asked a great many not content to an eshibition of ice newly frozen for the eccasion from the Arctic region. After having been round the smilling John, while all the bors while and the first period. After having been round the smilling John, while all the bors of the managing the half-broken steers, united in a hearty follow their appearance of walks. You want the given began and picked up all the prise of the first period of the smilling John, while all the bors of the managing the half-broken steers, united in ing article, the most virulent poisons—so far as a vitiated taste is concerned—an artificial appetite can never be

[It is a tool that can not be dispensed] sirable for Thanksgiving day as breaking steers.

The merriment of the morning was kept up through the day by the young people, while Mother Draper and Aunt Catherine moved mysteriously about and compared notes over drippingpans, sauce-pans and pipkins in the kitchea.

Dinfeer was to be early, so that the two Draper boys who will be the two Draper boys who who who who who be the trusted. If the stock intention to the trusted it is worse than

The Utri Fishing for a Husband. The assess's husband federy at the mer records is generally failure. One reason why the fishery fulled was that the balt was too gurgeous. White it compelled admiration, it dearled those who admired it. Its gütter was beautiful, but a glance at it was endigif to drive the poor fellows away with thankfulness for their escape. While plainer and less expensive girls.

meet their mates, the elegantly over-dressed lady remains solitary. If the gistwhe is fishing for a bushand makes say mistake it is that of thinking that the young man who is looking for a to attack the discare, both insecurity, through wife wants a costly piece of goods for show. Some young men want this, but there are few who can afford it, and even those who can are in many in--So p your dirtiest clothes and soak them in warm water over night. Use hard soap to wash your clothes, and soft to wash your floors. Soft soap is so sippery that it wastes a good deal in washing clothes. stances afraid to roke themselves to it. practice for years, with the greatest square, these young men know enough to reflect that riches sometimes take wings and go out of sight. They stop and consider that if there be wealth and whims, when the wealth flies away and leaves nothing "Bow-wow-wow!" barked Pinchers, the body. There was warmth and a stand either cold or heat best of any but the whims the residue is an exceedhe house-dog, in a decidedly equivocal feast and laughter and jest and song and flowering house plant ingly undesirable piece of finery. Every ingly undesirable piece of finery. Every summer there is a complaint of the lack | we sail. It should be by right, for no other of young men at the watering places. melicine has such specific action on the liver, This year the complaint is louder than ever. One of the reasons is that the exgravagant display made by some of the our young man coming to " Coming to see girls frightens them away. They can ourgins, of course, "Change Tribuse. not afford such expensive luxuries as these girls appear to be. They go fishing or boating or hunting by themselves, or take long pedestrian tours out of with their papas and mammas, and isment and wonder. The girl who lets nature take its course; who avoids putting herself on exhibition as if for sale; soda, two eggs, a desert-spoonful of good common sense, is reasonably sure melted lard, add a little salt; if the batter is too stiff, and a little more milk; make a delightful wife for some sensible and worthy man; or else she will turn out a happy and lovely old maid. Bet-

> The other day Mr. Justice Norris tent on, after which time that ordinari. Saheb ranklessly driving and running ly given to other fruit trees will stated, over an old native woman. His lord-They should be pruned yearly and all ship immediately got out of the carriage, weak or dead wood removed and too fran after and stopped the Saheb, and forward shoots headed back. Firmon; tooked him to take the woman to a hoshe should not have driven so furiously.
>
> The Sineb, a genuine Anglo-Indian, replied that Sahebs in this country do The following brief but instructive not care to take weople to the adspared. paper was read at a meeting of the Mr. Justice Norris cried shame to the

Has the largest sale of any cough med cine. Pixe's toothacke drops cure in a minute. Tire man who sciseors off coupons is the genuine revende cutter. of this genuine spirit .- Brahma Public Perfectly Amazed. In the San Francisco Evening Bulletin, we observe that Mr. Rosenthal, of the well-known porters: "We all know of St. Jacobs Oll, and are perfectly amazed at the suddenness of the relie it affords. If you know of any one who Opinion.

CERTAINLY an elegant remedy for all aches

THE Rev. Penstock arose in his usual graceorganizishun have we de right man for a Kurnel I' asked the President. "I-I-that is-well, I specks I know sunthin' bout de Kurnel bziness," stammered Peastock.
"An' so do I!" added thirteen other nemfor the next thirty seconds could have been knockel down by a crowbar. 'De subjeck am postponed." continued Brother Gardner. 'Six or seven hundred Kurnels an' no rank an' file won do't be 'cordin' to either Har lee r Hoyle. In kase de kentry am placed peril we'll ent substitutes."-Detroit Free

Anxiety and Care. It may not be generally known that anxiety nd care will break down even a strong cotitution in a very short time, yet such is the fact. However, the pernicious effect of de-bility resulting from these causes can be easi-ly counteracted by a timely use of Dr. Guy-sott's Yellow Dock and Sarsaparilla. Its re-freshing effect on mind and body is truly won-derful. It exhibitances without intoxicating.

Lars to life George Washington rode in his own carriage, but in his earlier years he took a hack at the cherry tree. Worcester Geselle. The man who had the temerity to spring this relie of antiquity upon the public forgot to mention how George's father took a haise after the young man, and was about ready to sleigh him, when George attempted to saidle the blame on some one else as the

That a remedy made of such common, simple plants as Hops, Buchu, Mandrake, Dandelton, testily to having been cured by them, we must believe and doubt no longer. See other column.-Post. The R-yptian embles of a taske with its fail in its mouth was the carliest sign of the "availor-tail."—Detroit Post.

"West, Huber, I hear you have been at where nothing grows well, and on that ground the rake is objectionable.

Another use the rake is beet toin gardens is in keeping gravel walks. The

----The starch companies have combined, and days: In the fall of 1870, I was taken with restored or 1870s Indeed by a great entire and first, and was confined to per bid. In 1877 I was about to the Hospital. The doctors and I had a look to confine the doctors and I had a look to confine the confine th report were strong that I am deal. I gave to home, but a friend told ole of Dr. Wezais w

Ca. when to it age too I continement to feel better, and to-day I feel better than for three Pears past Warr's Boston young lady wishes to et press that she has her "there," she simply remarks: "I have sure distingue."

Dr. Brunes's Skin Cure is fully the criticle the bland, and externally, through the absertionts, and is the only reliable and rational mode of treatment. These propers. tions are only put up for peneral me after having teen used by the Deceme in his private shoke of his lethar it, - Seeles Transmitted own cause." The perme of Kidney-Wort. comes from the mouths of those was have been made strong and builties by it. Listen: It is curing everybody," writes a drugglet Ax exchange wants to ken v: "What ere That wonderful catholicon known as Lydis E. Pinkham's Vegetable Com cound has given the lade a world wide regulation for doing good. It is like a living string to the vital constitution. Her Blood Purties will do more to cleanse the channels of the circulation and parify the life of the budy thin all the asnitary devices of the Board of Mastal. CHERRYNAN and the Conversional Bourd are coming. We could probably ware along without Christmas. - Norralons Herold. Make your old things look like new by using the Diamond Drei, and von will be happy. Any of the fushiounble colors for life.

An unequal match: Thut which sirtless mly on the box. - The Judge. SHINNE MEN. "Wells' Health Economer" restores health and vigor, cures Dyspensia. $1. True forger in locked up simply for writing

For THICK HEADS, bravy stomachs, billionaters, "Wells' May Apple Pills," cathartic bland like AMINADAS save a dig's lungs are the sent its p ats - Marathon Independent Bost Tur as Even Users .- Send for circuldre, Blastic Truss Co., 744 Broadway, New York. Tun first care of black mole-Ham.

Panyens teamsters, don't experiment, but use Frager Axie Grease. It is the best.

Personal: THE VOLTAR BELT Co., Marshall, Mich., will send Dr. Dye's Celebrated Electro-Yoltaie Belts and Electric Appliances on trial for thirty days to men (young or old) who are aflicted with pervous debility, lost vitality and kindred troubles, guaranteeing speedy and complete restoration of health and manly vigor. Address as above. N. B. - No risk is incurred, as thirty day's trial is allowed.

Neuralgia, Scietica, Lumbago,

Backache, Soreness of the Chest, Gout, Quinsy, Sore Throat, Swellings and Sprains, Burns and Scalds, General Bodily Pains. Tooth, Ear and Headache, Frosted

Foot and Ears, and all other Pains and Aches. He Preparation on earth equals fit. James of as a safe, sure, simple and theop Eater. Remody A trial certails but the comparative triffing outlay of 50 Centa, and every one author with pain can have cheap and positive proof of

SOLD BY ALL DRUGGISTS AND DEALERS IN MEDICINE A. VOGELER & CO. Old fashionable medica are rapidly giving ground between conquering specific.

A GENTE WANTED for the Best and Parties A or (ting Pictorial Books and Bridge. Priora reduces per cell. National Publishers Co., St. Louis, M.

Address J. A. Bronnen, Detruit Hill

Lat L & M. Child. In Pant In . See Total

Sawing Made Easy. Beiters MEETVING BAW

CEST CATE Exemply vacua and in some, now absent its palls, somes and separate of overy fewerige to incat can be of service. Niege quite. No state

BING PARTON OIL REFINING CO. SUMMIT STOVE-PIPE SHELF. ACENTS WANTED.

Demorest's Illustrated Monthly. Sold by all Newstrators and Postmasters. or the Editor of this paper will take your subscription. Soul twenty contains a speed mescapy to W. JENNINGS DE MORPEY

J. E. SHEPARD & CO.

This M.Y. Singer, $20

Line of Wall Elder The

FOR THE PERMAMENT CURE O CONSTIPATION. ned St. USE

Little Corporal TOY PISTOL ALPEP L. SWELL, Papieter, Chies

I MINUS OF PLANSASTINGS. Engineering and Railroad Nowa Published at 15 Residence, New York Publisher, 17 East 14th Services, See Your ACENTS Little of Gall 22

LEARN

RUSSELL PUBLISHING CO., Bestes, I

WELLS, BY HERPLIN A IMPROVED NEW DISCOVERY Will that Color Inp Buttered Cheapest Color Made,

Bolshezzer at 182 4 Property

LADI BALLILY COM OLIVER DITION & CO. Belle.