Consult the advertising columns of the CHIEF when you want to buy goods. Liberal advertisers are liberal business men, as a rule, and you can buy more goods of them, and of a bet-you can at firms that are too close fast-ed to advertise.

Cowles and Vicinity.
Mr. Editor—Not seeing anything of much importance in your valuable paper concerning Cowles since your political correspondent gave up the hope of an office, I thought I would send you a few items.
The B. & M. have just completed a water tank and wind mill. The tank has a capacity of 45,728 gallons of water.
Our band is in tuning order. O what delicious strains float o'er the Plains.
The organ (which we all were so jubilant over) has sunk in insignificance.
School will close in about four weeks. Mr. Hamill, the teacher, has given good satisfaction. He talks of taking a trip to California for the benefit of his health.
Marsh Hurd keeps the livery barn, has a good stock of horses, also fancy sleighs and buggies, also runs the express.

Mrs. J. Ward has opened a fancy store, she is doing quite a lively business while Jeff attends to the elevator and numerous other duties.
Harry Hopkins is fixing up, looks rather like they would get married pretty soon.
David Orr still keeps the Pauper House, but we notice that it is not a charitable institution or an incumbrance on the county.
Mr. James, the section foreman, has made a visit to Lincoln, found his wife no better. They have given up all hopes of her recovery.

We have a new ticket agent—our friend the doctor. This is such a healthy part of the country that Doctor has to resort to other means to make a living, so he has taken a position on the railroad, hope some other doctor will come to Cowles to keep up appearance.

We have had no preaching this year Sunday school died. Still we are good people.
Mrs. O. Fisher is making a protracted visit here.
Mack has got around again, he is helping the depot agent attend to his many new and arduous duties.
Miss Lonie Fisher is busy nursing one of John's pets.
Now Mr. Editor, if your promised correspondents don't write up the items of Cowles, not Amboy, or some foreign port, drop them.

There was a ball at Dr. Callender's were there. Had a splendid time, by appointed county physician for said county for one (1) year for a consideration of $200.00 per year to date from the first day of Jan 1883.

On application of Chas. Buschow Co.
Treas. to fix the fees of the Co. Treas.
and for the allowance of an assistant in the Treas. office, also to fix the fees of the assistant, the county commissioners took action as follows, to wit: The fees of the treasurer shall be two thousand ($2000) dollars per year but should the fees of the office at any time be less than two thousand ($2000) dollars the fees of the county treasurer shall not exceed the fees of the office.
Upon examination of the work required to be done in the county treasurer's office we find that the services of an assistant is necessary in said office. It is therefore ordered that the county treasurer be authorized to employ an assistant to date from Jan 1st 1883 and to retain an amount of fees not to exceed seven hundred (700) dol-
