D CLOUD. · · THE THREE-CENT STAMP.

Good-hye, old stamp, it's masty luck Good-bye, old stamp, friendship so.
That ends of friendship so.
When others you gamely stuck,
But now post to go.
So here's a flood of monest tears,
And here's an honest sigh—
Good-bye, old friend of many yours—
Good-bye, old stump, good bye!

Your life has been a varied one,
With curious phases fraught—
Sometimes a check, sometimes a dun,
Your daily coming brought:
Smiles to a waiting lover's face,
Tears to a mother's eye,
Or joy or pain to every place—
Good-bye, old stamp, good bye!

expected charge.

engineers.

marked:

alout it?"

"How was it, Bob, you happened to Dan was here he'd say so, too.

won't be here for an hour yet."

You bravely toiled, and better men
Will youch for what I say:
Although you have been licked, 'twas w'
Your face turned t'other way;
"Twas often in a box you got (As you will not days."

(As you will not deny — For going through the mails, I wot— Good bye, old stamp, good bye! Ah, in your last expiring breath! The tale of years is heard— The sound of voices hushed in death, A mother's dying word, A maiden's answer, soft and sweet, A wife's regretful sigh. The patter of a baby's feet-Good-bye, old stamp, good-bye. "Them fellers, says I to myself, feel throwin the rails of the main line into What wonder, then, that at this time their steam pretty well. I don't sup- the siding!

trestie.

the careful of that Fankenstein,

When you and I must part,
I should aspire to speak in rhyme
The promptings of my heart.
Go. bide with all those mem'ries dear
That live when others die pose they'd look at an engineer. You've nobly served your purpose here Good-bye, old stamp, good-bye!
-Eugene J. Field, in Chicago News. Mountains.

that tardy pace peculiar to railroad me for being a fool, and I don't blame stein. I dreamed I was on the engine green and bitten and unfit for use. The of the bootblack, a four-and-three-quartime-pieces when one is waiting for a be- yer, for we was a-goin' along all right, with you somewhere and we was a goin' The conductor who was to take cylinders was a workin' in good time, I saw what seemed to be a big gulf, and charge of the express came in to warm and I knew that it was only my imagin- you thought by gettin' good headway his hands by the little stove, and soon ation, but, to tell the truth, I began to you could jump it. I knew, of course, fell uneasy. I had been an engineer you couldn't, so when you started to the party was increased by the eagibeer, whose machine could be dumly for ten years, and had been through open the throttle I said: "Not that one, some pretty tough scrapes without the brate! then I woke up." seen far down the track ready for its blowin for grapes, and the boys all Bad night, Bob," said the conductor. "Better come in and warm up. She

The engineer made some reply, and joined the circle around the stove. He nothin'! You've no business to be su- than most people think, for, leastwise, was a man of slight build, drooping perstitious at your time of life. Brace minding my feelings saved my neck shoulders, and perhaps not up to the average height. Rather effeminate at hev' stood up in court and sworn that first sight, until one noticed the square there was a kink somewhere. Well, Courier. firm chin, the quick, steady eyes, and meanwhile we was sliding along, and the lines about the mouth, which showed that beneath that caim face and pretty soon reached North Conway. The Weed Among the Boers and Chi- changed to grape sugar, the tuber be- strong tide. The passport would have to retailate, partially because they have quiet manner lay the will both to do where we was to give the machine a and dare. He had been selected es- drink. 'Dan,' says I to my firepecially to run this night express on ac- man, 'there's somethin' out of the count of the danger of the position, for way with this machine, and I don't the down train was fre mently late, and know what it is.' "'What makes you think so?' said the lost time must be made up before reaching the end of the road in order to Dan. meet connections. Time and again "I can't tell,' I replied, she works nothing but the coolness and judgment all right; but I feel it in my bones." of the engineer had brought this train " Guess your thinkin' of your wife, to its destination in safety, and Bob returned Dan,' with a laugh. Jennings, as he was called, had been "But while we were gettin' in the remarkably fortunate, and had never water I took a lantern and went round met with a serious accident. The run- the engine. Looked at every part of ning of the two trains up to L- and her, rapped the bars, knocked the back to the city constituted his day's wheels, tried her at every point, and work. The position was a responsible couldn't find nothin'. "And I tried to think no more about one, the remuneration good, and the "job,." as the boys termed it, was it, but the feeling was there all the looked upon with envy by Bob's fellow same, and do the best I could I wasn't a pretty good distance in the mountains, After some minutes passed in conversation between the engineer and and with that light load 49' didn't conductor, the latter suddenly re- make nothin' of the up grades. "Perhaps, gentlemen, you have never been through the hills in winter. It's get this express? The Superintendent some different from summer, I can tell of the Portland & Ogdensburg helped ver. The mountains loom up dark and you to it, didn't he, on account of that solemn, and with their snow-covered affair up in the mountains? Tell us sides they seem kinder like big, ghostly giants that have been turned to stone standing guard over the valley. The had overheard the conversation. "Let silence and desolation sorter awes one. and it don't seem right to go shricking

"Yes, yes," spoke up several who "Well, boys," said Bob, as he bit off and screaming along their sides in the a generous chew, and deposited the dead o' night. This time it was worse quid lovingly in his cheek, "it ain't than ever. The storm had let loose all much of a yarn, and it'll make you laugh, the evil spirits in the air. The wind for you'll think me spooky like. How- swept down the valley with a roar that somever, it's as true as Gospel, and if could be heard above the rush of the train. It whistled and yelled at the "Twas when I was running 49 on cab windows, and blew the rain and sleet so bard agin the winder frame I the P. & O. Road which hadn't been agoin' more'n a couple of years. You could scarcely see the short distance lit may perhaps be acquainted with the line. She runs through the White rocked to and fro and seemed to hold Mountain Notch, and is built right on out their arms in warning. It was a the side of the hills. How they ever solemn place for any one, and I felt it had the spunk to start such a road beats particularly as I had this awful weight hopeless to get around some of them agrowin' stronger and stronger each short curves, to say nothing of the big minute. up-grades. Near 'Crawford's is that "Well, we had passed Bartlett's

She is my wife, and we was as happy as | bridge? could be. The only draw-back was "Nonsense, says I, 'I'm a natural- bark is removed, and the inner is then but it's goin to be fell go, of course; bed night on the sphof the mountain was the landmark white showed me that we was accoming to the straight piece which led across the back to our little cottage to open the valve, when—

"So I went back to our little cottage to open the valve, when—

"So I went back to our little cottage to open the valve, when—

"So I went back to our little cottage to open the valve, when—

"So I went back to our little cottage to open the valve, when—

"So I went back to our little cottage to open the valve, when—

"So I went back to our little cottage to open the valve, when—

"So I went back to our little cottage to open the valve, when—

"So I went back to our little cottage to open the valve, when—

"So I went back to our little cottage to open the valve, when—

"So I went back to our little cottage to open the valve, when—

"So I went back to our little cottage to open the valve, when—

"So I went back to our little cottage to open the valve, when—

"So I went back to our little cottage to open the valve, when—

"So I went back to our little cottage to open the valve, when—

"So I went back to our little cottage to open the valve, when—

"So I went back to our little cottage to open the valve, when—

"So I went back to our little cottage to open the valve, when—

"So I went back to our little cottage to open the valve, when—

"So I went back to our little cottage to open the valve, when—

"So I went back to our little cottage to open the valve, when—

"So I went back to our little cottage to open the valve, when—

"So I went back to our little cottage to open the valve, when—

"So I went back to our little cottage to open the valve, when—

"So I went back to our little cottage to open the valve, when—

"So I went back to our little cottage to open the valve, when—

"So I went back to our little cottage to open the valve, when—

"So I went back to our little cottage to open the valve, when—

"So I went back to our little cottage to open the valve, when—

"So I went back to our littl told Nell as how I'd got to go. She standin' here, my wife's value whi restold Bell as how I'd got to go. She standin' here, my mile of the control of t pever acted like that before:

"It gave me such a star that before the can't they send some one else? I don't like to have you go."

"Newscase, " navy to "the storm won't hurt me, and I'll be back again to-morrow. The Super's promised to do the square thing, and it will come out all right."

"She seemed a little reassured, and I "She seemed a little reassured, and I got out my great coat and muffler, and out of place, every rail secure, and the bridge was as sound as when first put and then back again. Not a thing was in 'em I prepared to start out.

"Well, Bob,' says my wife 'if you up! must go, why you must, but, she "Idiot!" cried I, so much for your added, thoughtfully, and there was foolish nonsense. This freak will cost the queerest look passed over her face you your job." "I could see the lights of the conductor and brakeman, who had with a "I scarcely heard what she said, but number of passengers come out to see bidding her good-bye was soon on my what was the matter. How the boys way to the round-house. It was a wild would laugh, I thought. I should nevnight and no mistake: seems to me I er hear the last of it. I was speakin have never seen it blow harder or snow back to the cab, when I came to the faster. Once or twice I had to turn my back to the blast to keep from blowin over. Well, I was soon on board my warn't a very long track, not more than machine, and backing into the station, a hundred odd feet, and ended within a hitched on to two cars which were to make up the train. As ten o'clock approached the directors began to arrive, lantern and found a large tree that had pompous looking men, with plenty of just blown down and fallen against the money and feeling all their importance. switch rod, breakin' the fastening and

"Dan Smith, my fireman, was on the stand on end. In two minutes that watch for the conductor's signal, and whole train and thent directors would a when the clock struck ten we got the gone off that cliff, and not a one would everything from the water-gauge to the at a frightful rate. Way in the distance

"I told her then the whole story, and said as how I had a good deal of pluck. gentlemen whenever I hear a similar Now I began to lose all confidence. yarn, and I've heard a number of 'em, "Bob, said I to myself, this won't I don't turn up my nose and say nondo. You're gettin' nervous, and all for sense! There's more in one's feelings that night on the Frankenstein trestle. "Twan't no use, however. I could There comes the express; good-night." -Edward H. Crosby, in Boston

Equally odious is the ordinary tobacco of the Chinese. The Boer stuff smells odor that suggests opium in the composition. The South African leaf when same, and do the best I could I wasn't garden-rubbish and the sweepings of a potatoes in pits is nearly abandoned, able to throw it off. "Well, we had got conservatory added. It is full of twigs though it may still be practiced in new ter, and is of a general greenish-gra-tint. The Chinese, on the other hand, is so dry and vagrant; but the other satisfactory now. pads down into the pipe close and firm, and the bowl has to be filled as lightly as possible in order to obtain any draught at all. To smoke a pipe of the go about all day with the taste of Tur- the floor, but this is not generally the key rhubarb in your mouth; to venture case, and it is usually best to construct on the latter is to enjoy a cool, highly bins whose floor is raised somewhat aromatic pipe, with the subsequent pen-alty of giddiness and sick-headache, as tions may be used to separate varieties: after a blundering administration of there is much less danger of rot in this turn to Chinese a second time you must turn Chinaman. In singular contrast to both these disagreeable herbs is the tobacco of she red Indian, which is me, for at first sight it seems next to of anxiety on my mind that had been both light and fragrant—even when and it commences to grow at a temperature spider-like Frankenstein trestle, you've heard so much about, where the track spans a chasm eighty feet wide, and one hundred feet deep. Strong enough, I suppose, but it makes a man feel skittish to go over it for the first time. Well, my good luck is all owing to that trestle. We lived in Portland then, Nell and I. She is my wife and we was as hanny as the first time was a shanny as the first time was the into lengths of about two feet; the outer | "The Gentleman That Pays the Rent."

AL TARE AND -Meav farmers forget that an in stone jars. - Chicago Journal. -Salt fish are quickest and reshears in making it sour mill placed out of doors in the soil raight. — Exchange. —A good garden and small orchard, well taken care of, pay more than say acre on the farm, besides the tuxury, benefit, pleasure and health it gives his

-Galled and sore shoulders in borses are often ordined by the mane working under the collar while pulling. This can be avoided by plaiting the mane and tying it up in such a manner, that it can not touch the collar. It not colly injures the shoulder but the mane also, which is one of the beauties of the born.

N. Y. Polt.

-An able author says: "Pickles are execedingly unbenithy as articles of preserved with salt and vinegar are next to impossible of digestion.

full add two well-beaten eggs, a table-spoonful of butter, three tablespoonfuls

As a rule, we do not believe in allow dying of the stalk indicates that the ter-cent stamp. N. Y. Star. tubers are ready for the harvest, and they should be dug when the soil is dry; they are then clean and bright and ready either for the market or to be put away under cover. It dug in rainy weather, or when the soil is very heavy, the dirt will a here to them, they are much more liable to rot and not nearly as marketable. Go into the vegetable market, and you will notice that the without which you may be turned tack smooth, dry and clean potatoes will alby any little mandarin's representative ways be selected first.

Dug in fair weather, potatoes will soon become dry, and when they are so, they can not be gathered up and put into the shade too quickly. Exposure to owing to the kindly care of Mr. P. G. the sunlight very soon produces a Hughes, the much-esteemed English chemical change which renders the Consul came just in time to allow me tuber unfit for use. The starch is to avail myself of a fair wind and a good comes green, looses its crispness, made a first class sheet for a bed, both and when cooked is neither mealy nor in point of size and in toughness of ma-The Boers grow and manufacture a agreeable to the taste. If dug early, it terial, What it sad I shall never know. and other public employes in this country tobacco of their own which is of such a may not be best to store them in the detestable odor to civilized man that I cellar at once, lest they gather moisture remember during the Zulu war we used and rot. They may be spread in a cool decipher. Suffice it to say that it conto tip the Kaffir or Atrikander drivers shed or barn, and covered with straw tained upward of 400 large Chine-e of mail-carts not to smoke except dur- until the weather becomes cool enough ing the halts at stages, and then always to put them in the cellar with safety. to leeward. It was no use to offer The shrinkage of potatoes between the them our superior article, for the time of digging and the following dreadful Dutchmen scorned it as trash. spring amounts to from ten to twenty per cent., and this should be taken into account in marketing them. rank and green and aerid; but the Ce- Freshly dug potatoes are three-fourths lestial has a heavy, clinging, clogging water, but evaporation slowly takes place during the winter and spring, reducing the watery portion, and renderready for consumption looks like ing the tuber of greater relative value crumbled bay, with miscellaneous dead as food. The old method of storing though it may still be practiced in newand knots and threads of vegetable mat- ly-settled portions of the country. We hole" was an institution on potato is curiously soft; it lifts up in silky skeins every farm, and it was regarded as a is curiously soft; it lifts up in silky skeins of exquisitely fine hair-like strands, and is of a deep chicory-color, and resembles some vegetable fiber strend in jaggery rather than tobacco leaf. The Boer tobacco blows out of the pipe—it is so dry and vagrant; but the other satisfactory now.

every farm, and it was regarded as a good method of keeping them through the winter. If well stored, they always came out nice in the spring, but that was before the days of the potato rot, and the system might not prove as spur and voice, and that an actual stop. from balkiness or any other cause,

A good potato cellar should be dry. capable of being made perfectly dark ner occupied ten minutes in going a and of being quickly and thoroughly mile, and was nearly three rods beventilated. If the cellar is thoroughly hind his closest competitor.—St. Louis former is to scorch the tongue and to dry, the tubers might be stored upon Post. chloroform. It requires only an ef- arrangement, and a greater opportunity fort of the stomach to return to is given to pick them over in case rot Boer tobacco a second time; to re- ting should begin. Temperature is one there is no tobacco in it. For the sav- ature above fifty degrees. Then a celage can not always obtain the precious lar that could be kept within this range, leaf; and very often when he can, econ-

She is my wife, and we was as happy as could be. The only draw-back was that every other night I had to take the late express up to Fabyan's and come me back next day on the accommodation. Nell used to be afrait to have me go, particularly as the road was new and accidents would happen spite of all all we could do. I kept telling her it was safe enough. And the pay was, good, so I do I kept telling her it was safe enough. And the pay was, good, so I do I kept telling her it was safe enough. And the pay was, good, so I do I kept telling her it was safe enough. And the pay was, good, so I do I kept telling her it was safe enough, and the pay was, good, so I do I kept telling her it was safe enough. And the pay was, good, so I do I kept telling her it was safe enough. And the pay was, good, so I do I kept telling her it was safe enough. And the pay was, good, so I do I kept telling her it was safe enough. And the pay was, good, so I do I kept telling her it was safe enough. And the pay was, good, so I do I kept telling her it was safe enough. And the pay was, good, so I do I kept telling her it was safe enough. And the pay was, good, so I do I kept telling her it was safe through, to tell the truit, I did it ilke the route, 'twas so awfu gloomy like. No big towns tog through, only now and then a little village, and they was the was so awfu gloomy like. No big towns tog through, only now and then a little village, and they was the was awful. Well, one night in Janjary, when it was my turn to stay in Portand, the Superintendent sent for me and said:

"Bob, there's a party of directors as wants to get through the mountain so, hight, and they're going to start abon, ten of your light, and they're going to start abon, ten of your light, and they're going to start abon, ten of your light, and they was provided to the pay the start of -Removing tan: A wash to remove tan is made of sliced cucumbers soaked in milk, applied nightly to the hands and face and left to dry on. — The House-hald.

rirate Wiggram has feet form t chirol in Chiaconatry Boat Dr. Schaubt. respecting the present deplorable con-dition of the Jewish refugee colony at it will be seen that, the assistance they cordingly be began the difficult and dan-had been led to expect from the central gerous task, and asseconded in bringing his Roumanian committee of Galaiz is no. The man who accomplished this task longer forthcoming. The whole ques- was Mr. Thomas Curtin, the present Superfood, and often cause acute dyspepsia.

Young ladies addicted to their free use may be a sured that they must certainly part with their favorite dainty or bid farewell to good digestion. Cucumber: late. I still hope that on attention being drawn to the subject the matter were, he possesses a courage, combined may be taken in hard. It will be a with marked physical powers, that make thousand pites if this movement, which of law abiding citizens. For people can -An appetizing entree is made by thousand pities if this movement, which of law aloding citizens. Few people can taking cold boiled cabbage; chop if bids fair to exercise a regenerating in realise, however, the trials, exposures, and fine; for a medium-sized pudding dish duence on the Jews of Polestine, so many of whose have hitherto bed lives of sloth and mendicancy, be allowed to newspaper of the period, of a time when your physical trouble. In relating his exinternal revenue provisions were more perience to a representative of this paper, complicated and more burdensome than they now are: Internal Pevenue decis-ions.—The following are not vouched of energy. My appetite was also uncertain, for as official: The latest decisions of the cover the following points: Parties suffering from malaria. I tried to throw using paper collars must use them from off the feeling, but it would not go. I the original package; that is, from the thought I might overcome it, but found I box in which they have been purchased; attached to each one when put on. When the collar becomes soiled, and is turned with the clean side out, it must receive another three-cent stimp and must also be conspicuously stamped with the Word "Turned." Boxes when emptied can not be used a second time, but must be destroyed in the room where emptied, and the assessor furout in the coal-scuttle or wash-tub, such boxes will be subject to export duty. Bootblacks are requested to use their blacking just as they find it when to box is opened, adding nothing to it whatever. The act of spitting in the box and smearing the contents with the box and smearing the bootblack a mixer others in my proposition, who may possibly others in my proposition, who may possibly others in my proposition. or rectifier, or manufacturer of blacking. bear of it. I began the use of a popular and he must pay the ordinary manufac-

A Life-Like Reminder.

A Chinese Passport.

If you intend to proceed to the interior of that country by river you must get a "house-boat" a sort of monster gondola built in junk fashion you must engage a cook and interpreter, and you must finally obtain a passport. who may choose to challenge you. The house-boat and cook were found for me The man who inscribed it will carry his dead secret to the grave for all I could characters, two alone covering nearly gentleman of my acquaintance it was pronounced "Welly can do," - Cor. Loudon Telegraph.

-A crank named Gustavus L. Kern. of San Francisco, has arrived in Washington, baving walked across the continent carrying a small United States flag. He claims that he mentitled to $15,000 pension money, having "fit into" four wars, namely, the Mexican, Rebellion, Texas war, and several Indian skirmishes. He does not state what connection his flag-carrying scheme has —teh life claim. — Washington Star.

should distance the stopper. The win-

Advance Step In Destistry. HAVANA, CUBA. - The most popular dentist of this city, Dr. D. Francisco Garcia, member of the Royal University, states that in all cases of troublesome neuralgia, arising from the teeth, his patrons are recemmended to use St. Jacobs Oil, and the most satisfactory cures have followed. It is a specific for toothache, earache, bodily pains, and proof against bousehold acci A good prescription: "Fresh air, plain food, early hours and plenty of exercise," says Mrs. Ramsbotham," are worth all the doctors rostrums in the world."—London Punch.

No change is made for the suggestion that the paper car-wheel men ought to use nothing but South American newspapers tional irregularities, disorders and weakin their business. These papers are so thoroughly familiar with revolutions as to require no preparation in converting into a first-class wheel.—Pittsburgh Telegraph. A LOCOMOTIVE reminds one of the old man's boot, because it makes the sparks fly.-The Judge.

man asked another. "Drive what?" "Drive a horse, of course." "Drive a horse! why, man, she can not drive a mail."- Somer

A social pellosopher, in one of the mag-azines bemoans American extravagance in dress, and insists that if it continues "the less it will be bankruptcy save for the fallor and milliner." A survival of the fit tist, as one may say.—Rochester Post-Ez-

Miss Aven, the heiress of the patent medicine and pill man, is worth $2,000,000) and is so far heart free. The wretch who would steal her affections would, of course, be a pill-fer-her.—Pittsburgh Telegraph.

A connectionnext wants to know "how "Limburgher cheese is made." Well, it is made strong enough to knock out the olfactory organ of the average man the first round and that is all we know about such dition of the Jewish refugee colony at Birthough in Palestine. The telegram for that he chieves at Zimmarin are literally deling at hunger; they are all ill, and for the last four months nothing has been sent them from Galatz. They implore againstance. Our informant says that a similar telegram reached him about three weeks ago from the colony of Roch Pinat, and he proceeded to point out the dangers which have there are the properties of both from the proceeded to prove the properties of both from colonies. The point out the plangers which have there are of Hosh Pinath has the fact that a fair may will be seen out the properties of both from colonies. The man is a plane, and according to the thought and fair may will be developed to be the found of the properties of the colonies of importance on head. Subdemness of importance on head the windows, that is not may appear and according to the colories of the man, proposed to show an appearance of the man, proposed to show an appearance of the man, proposed to show the fair reached the will be we killed, but now of the number of the was a color to the dark that if he was killed, but now of the number of the man, proposed to show an appearance of the man, proposed to show an appearance of the man, proposed to the tout and the will be we killed, but now of the number of the was a color of the same of the number of the sumber of the start to the fair proposed to the fair proposed to the fair tout in the different on the time of the man of the number of the man appearance of the man proposed to the fair tout in the different on the fair tout in the different on the time the dark tout in the different on the time the dark tout in the different on the time tout in the different on the time tout in the dark tout in the different on the time tout in the dark tout in the different on the time tout in the dark tout in the da even privations, to which the members of every municipal police and fire depart-ment are exposed. Compelled to be on buty at uncertain hours, subjected to the most incisment weather, and often never situled by the nature of their delies to protracted undertakings, they endure a nervour and physical strain that is terrible. Such was the experience of Mr. Curtis in former days; and it is not surprising that he fogu i himself suffering from a my steri-

"At times when I was on duty I would not fully understand these troubles, but supbadly of that it was almost impossible to attend formy duties. I have known any number of men in the police and fire departments of this country who have been afflicted as I was, and I doubt not there are to-day hundreds similarly troubled rho, like myself, did not know the cause, or really want affed theen."

Your present apprarance, Mr. Curtie, does not indicate much physical debility." and the interviewer as he looked at the 220 pounds of bone and muscle standing nearly ive feet eleven inches in height before him. "O, no; that is altogether a thing of the past, and I am happy to say that for more han a year I have enjoyed almost perfect health, although I now realize that I was on the road to certain death by Bright's disease of the kidneys and traveling at a number of friends in this city, and found am perfectly well-and wholly through the that is no case whatever will it fall to eme if instrumentality of Warner's Safe Cure, the directions are strictly followed and carried for policemen, firemen, railroad men or any other class of people exposed to danger or a change of weather, ever discovered. Since my recovery I have recomcase where it failed either to cure or benefit. I would not be without it under any consideration, and I am positive it is a wonderfully valuable and at the same time entirely harmless remedy. Indeed, I see will not require any aid to keep the bowels in that Dr. Gunn, dean of the United States good order. Should the patient, however, re-Medical College of New York, inderses it in the highest terms."

"So you experience little difficulty in the execution of your duties now, Mr. Curtin, None whatever. Our department was never in better condition than at pres-

"And do you never have any fear of some of the desperadoes whom you have been the means of bringing to justice?" not the courage, but oftener because they respect an officer who does his duty. The policemen, firemen, letter-carriers have a particularly trying life. When therefore, a simple and pure remedy that can restore and sustain the health of all such men is found, it should be cause fo great congratulation, especially when characters, two alone covering nearly recommended by such men as Superintend-six square inches, and that by a Chinese ent Thomas Curtin, of huffalo.

SOMNAMBULISM is believed to be an i conscious trance-action. - Somerville Jour Young and middle aged men suffering ess of memory, and kindred symptoms, should semi three stamps for Part VII of pamphlets issued by World's Dispensary Medical Association, Buffalo, N. Y. To an really fashionable the lady who ewns a pug dog should wear a pug nose.-

from nervous debility, premature old age. PIARONDS

Swipr's Specific (S. S. S.) has relieved me of an obstinate case of Dry Tetter, which had troubled me for twenty-five years, and had baffled all sorts of treatment. REV. I. R. BRANHAM, Macon, Ga.

Satisme Tony which should run full time-Inguest County, N. C.—The Ex Sherror Mr. W. F. Wasson, says: "Brown's Iron Bitters has improved my digestion and general health."

FASHION hints to ladies-To make your tummer bonnet pass through the fall tors it out of the third story window. - Boston

I CAN SAFELY recommend Ely's Cream Balm for the cure of Catarrh, Cold in the Read, etc. Before I have used the first times I could scarcely smell anything and had a headache most of the time. HENRY LILLY, Agent for the American Express Co., Grand Haven, Mich.

THE hotel cook should be given a wide range.-N. Y. Picagune.

Arren long Mercury and Potash treat-ment, I found myself a cripple from Mer-curial Rheumatism. Tried Hot Springs two years without relief, and was finally cured sound and well by the use of Swift' CHAS. BERG, Hot Springs, Ark. Specific (S. S. S.)

newes that are perfectly cured by follow-ing the suggestions given in an illustrated treatise (with colored plates) sent for three letter postage stamps. Address World's DISPENSARY MEDICAL A'TION, Buffalo, N. Y.

As enricher of the blood and parifier of the system; cures lassitude and lack of en-ergy; such is Brown's Iron Bitters.

A GOLD pen-A coin vault. - Boston Star Me. buys a pair of Lyon's Patent Reel Stiffen-ers and make a boot or shoe last twice as long.

WHEE'S Agle Grease never gums.

THE GREAT GERMAN REMEDY For Pain RHEUMATISM. Neuralgia, BACKACER INSY, SWELLING TO CHEST A SOUTHLE

9

Corums, "Breen's Breaches Tre

ALL recussed Wise's Asie Green

A WIPE'S THOUGHE.

Personalized years no wife has been t on waster to compare. Loss Christian de tracked a very screen will, and a diregard condi-tion kidney's became manifest, which projected ment promitted, for seller for ag entered, monthly of a bear; brick fruit selliners. Afterirying manufamentics without relact, I pro-commond taking, and before these date had passed peared. Fine Sections and programs reporting Noneman Core. May 1 1800

GRATIFTING RESELTS.

Pader date of Mar 14 Mr. E. A. Thomason, the wellkapen great and provinces desire, of 3 Green sourt, how Haven, Green, wrone follows: "Secured contactions I wan taken very III with hidden divingers. and an accommend of my mine elected a very time come of a discussed state of my stone. The passing of artis: was accommissed with severe pater in the email of my back and lates, followed by a become are sation, and efter having much sends to the these, the abovered a very branty droundled a neglige of all har to ground terica chant, and in short, I formal than I was in such a discussed condition as an empaire taken. in specifical revolutional, and in I was necessarie educate product resolvent, and on I was nonloss to obtain the first circuits. Power W costs to said east specify executy it maked and business designation. Eigh furnitiones, Propagaperfects, and became statistical that Boar's Benedit was an article of combines more, and therefore I seecladed to give at a trial, and communicated raking it, and before I had taking our bestle I franch such a great has processing that I decided to muchine its use, and its eiting only two faculties the result has been most graditying in girling for restored heatin. where, and shall towns for have it for use, as I township

FOR THE CURE OF FEVER and ACUE Or CHILLS and FEVER.

DR. JOHN BULL'S

AND ALL MALARIAL DISEASES. The proprietor of this celebrated medicine notivelaims for it a onperiority over all remiles ever offered to the public for the BAFE, CERTAIN SPEEDY and PERMANENT cure of Ague and Fever, or Chille and Fever, whether of chart er long standing. He refers to the him testimony to the truth of the assertion out. In a great many cases a single door has been sufficient for a cure, and whole families have been cured by a single bottle, with a per-fect restoration of the general health. It is, however, prudent, and in every case more cerdoses for a week or two after the disease has been checked, more especially in difficult and long-standing cases. Usually this medicine DEDPATH'S WEEK! quire a cathartic medicine, after having taken three or four doves of the Tonic, a single dos of BULL'S VEGETABLE FABILY PILLS will be eufficient. DR. JOHN BULL'S SMITH'S TONIC SYRUP.

BULL'S SARSAPARILLA. BULL'S WORM DESTROYER. The Popular Remedies of the Day.

Principal Office, SEI Holo St., LOUISVILLE, KT. BOSS Books and BinLES for AGENTS Send for Circulars and EIFER LINKERS

LEARN TELEGRAPHY A. R. Agents backers. BRYANT & STRATTON'S Business and Tringraph College St. Louis, No. 100 students yearly. Graduales sourcesful in getting employment. MEND FOR CIRCULAN.

S72 A WEEK Strader at home castly

Cady Agents:

HAY-FEVER

$1,000 HEW ARD-

What Dyspepsia Does. It causes grievous pains by day and frightful oreams by night.

It destroys the pleasure of a good dinner. It sours the disposition and makes its victim cross and petulant, It makes the breath bad, the eyes leaden, and the skin sallow, It makes the appetite capricious and unreasonable. It causes constant grumbling and complaining.

It invigorates the Venta's Iron Bitters" Doos. It promotes the enjoyment of a hearty menables it to digest
It cariches the blood, improves the liver, and charge up our
It purifies the breath, clears the eyesight, and makes the skin natur
It brings a regular and healthy desire for foodial proper times.

Your DRUGGIST sells BROWN'S IRON BIFTERS.

PREMIUMS FREE, FREE.

STONE CASH. Side CASH. Formula is the advertisement. Of R 64 NSY 804 To page the state of the st

LIST OF DISEASES ALWAYS CURABLE ST UNISC MEXICAN

MUSTANG LINIMENT OF STRAS PLANE.

at Bot, Boal A

of cream, with pepper and sait ad libs be crushed for want of a little timely turn. Butter the pudding dish, put the cabbage in and bake until brown. This may be eaten cold, but it is much bet.

A Life-Like Reminder. swing of the lantern and off we started. have lived to tell about it." "I've seen some pretty bad nights, ". What's the row, Bob?" says the but that one was the worst I ever re- conductor. THE ENGINEER'S STORY. member. The storm to-night is hard "Row enough,' says I, 'look at that enough, but it don't begin to blow as it switch. I reckon I pulled her up just in with roast pork or pork chops. N. Y. Midnight Experience in Here is a life-like reminder, from a did then. Why, every now and then time.' It had been snowing steadily all day we would get a blast that would make "Great Heavens," exclaimed a fat dilong, not in a boisterous, tempestuous the whole machine tremble, and as the rector who was standing by. Where -Cream Candy: "Place a large cupway, but quietly and persistently, as if country round Portland is pretty level, does that track lead to?" ful of white sugar, granulated is the the feathery flakes which were rapidly we took the fall force of the wind. As ". To the other world, says I, and best, in a porceiain kettle, with three piling themselves one upon the other we got further inland, it wasn't so bad, we came almighty near makin' the tablespoonfuls of water, and let it dison the frozen ground had come for a and by the time we were forty miles trip! solve at the back of the stove, then set it forward, and let boil until it will Commissioner of Internal Revenue long stay. Towards night the wind out, it had turned to a summer's gale "Well, you never see a more grate began to rise, and when the darkness and was pouring torrents. erisp in water. Stir in a tenspoonful cover the following points: Parties ful set of men. They made up a purse settled down a moderate winter's storm was raging. We were waiting in the of the story. We had the right of when we got to Fabyan's they tele of rose or vanilla extract, and half a teaspoonful of cream of tarter, pour it little station at L- for the down way, and our dispatcher was to keep graphed the Super as how I was to stay into a buttered pan or platter, and train, telegraphed an hour and a half behind time, and were endeavoring to keep warm around the small air-tight stove which served as the only heating to stop only at stove which served as the only heating to stop only at stove which served as the only heating to stop only at stove which served as the only heating the way, and our dispatcher was to keep graphed the Super as how I was to stay with them during the excursion, and I went to all the sights in Montreal with white, cut it is little square way to dry. + Erchange.

Beefsteak Pickled: Let a pudding dish, with slice and the sight of the sid when cool work it until it is perfectly and a three-cent revenue stamp must be white, cut it in little squares and set it -Beefsteak Pickled: Lav a steak medium in the low-studded apartment. at a good rate of speed, making, per- they gave me an elegant gold watch and a pudding dish, with slices of onions, L - is a place of little importance ex- haps, thirty or thirty-five miles an chain, the President of the road, who a few cloves, whole pepper, sali, and cept as a railroad center, for here two hour. As we went whistling through happened to be among em, making a trunk lines cross each other, and it is also Sebago Lake station I had a kind of neat speech. I tell you a peep into the bay leaf a sprig of thyme, one of marjoram, and some parsley, add oil and the point where locomotives were feeling come over me that there was jaws of death will put rich and poor changed on the different trains. With tarragon vinegar in equal parts, just to come up to the steak, and let it steep in this for about twelve hours, turning it mished with a certificate of the fact. If the exception of the bustle and excite- first, but every now and then it would to take the bigness out of them. occasionally; then either broil it or fry thrown out of the window or carried ment incident to a junction station, come back to me that all was not as it "Well, the boys all made a lion of it in butter, and serve with mashed pothere was but little to attract a tourist, should be, yet I couldn't think of any- me when I got back to Portland, and and the few natural charms the place thing that wasn't right. I allers ex-possessed at this time were hidden betatoes. It may also be slightle ied butter, and then stewed with a little common stock, and served with piquante | blacking just as they find it when the neath the soft covering of snow. So her a good oilin', look well to the bolts me, for the Super gave me a good show sauce. - Boston Post. the weary waiters were forced by dearth and parallel rods, try the levers and and finally I got this job. I never told of amusement, as well as the storm, to such, and so I knew when we left Port- the boys why I stopped the train, for I Digging and Storing Potatoes. while away the time as best they could land old '49' was in perfect workin' knew they would laugh at me, and I in the dingy depot. The different time. Irim. Yet the feelin' grew on me un- don't know as I told my wife for a long tables were perused, the flaming adver- til it was a steady thing. I tried to time. One day, however, she came to ing potatoes to remain in the ground tisements scrutinized, all to no purpose, shake it off, but 'twan't no use. I felt for the hands of the monotonous-ticking elock crept around the dial with ing clock crept around the dial with ing