

THE RED CLOUD CHIEF.

A. C. HOSMER, Publisher.

RED CLOUD, NEBRASKA.

A WEEK'S NEWS.

Gleaned by Telegraph and Mail

WASHINGTON NOTES.

In a late case where duty had been collected upon a cask imported from Canada into Maine, the owner, a Catholic priest, made application to have the amount refunded, on the ground that the article was used for religious purposes.

The Director of the Mint estimates that between $5,000,000 and $6,000,000 trade dollars are out, and in the hands of traders and the people generally, instead of in the possession of speculators.

An important decision was recently rendered by the Court of Claims at Washington, in a test case, fixing the status of litigants under the Bowman bill, passed by the last Congress.

The Treasury recently purchased 445,000 ounces of silver for the Philadelphia and New Orleans mints. Coinage at mints in December, $5,480,041, of which $2,351,170 were standard dollars.

The National Board of Health has information, communicated by the State Department, of the continuance of cholera in Alexandria.

The Attorney General has decided that a postmaster in order to be entitled to receive the compensation provided by the revised statutes for issuing and paying money orders must personally perform the services required in the money order business in his office.

A passenger train on the Illinois Central struck a broken rail between Manson and Barnum, Iowa, the other morning. A sleeper and two passenger coaches were thrown down a fifteen-foot embankment.

THE TOWN TALK. In Washington the other day was the discovery of the alleged forgeries and flight of Clarence M. Barton, formerly managing editor of the National Republican.

THE TERRIBLE CROUCH FAMILY MURDER near Jackson, Mich., some weeks since, was supplemented recently by the suicide of Mrs. Dan Holcomb, daughter of the murdered man.

JAMES WILLIAMS, alias O'Brien, confined in jail at Ottumwa, Ia., recently escaped after shooting dead the turnkey. How the prisoner obtained a pistol was a mystery.

JUDGE LUKER, of the Circuit Court of St. Louis, lately decided the long-standing case of James Andrews against the St. Louis Tunnel Railroad Company.

THE EAST. C. S. BANHAM, who was reported as having absconded from New York owing $20,000 to members of the Mining Stock Exchange, was recently in San Francisco on a tour with his bride.

JAMES BRIDG, a prominent citizen of Dorchester, Mass., was recently shot and killed at his house by Daniel P. Reynolds, of New York.

FRANK FABR, a postal clerk between New York and Fort Jervis, was recently arrested for robbing the mails.

H. H. KOSSE, exchange clerk for Sperry & Barnes, of New York, American agents for the large Liverpool commission house of Bamford Bros., absconded after forging and converting to his own use $100,000 in exchange.

He and a friend named Vansdale, went to Chicago where they commenced a fast life. Both were subsequently arrested. Kobb was taken to New York the same day of his arrest, and took the detective to the upper part of New York where they recovered from a dry cistern, encased in a hermetically sealed drain pipe and wrapped in oiled silk.

SHINITSZ & Co.'s cotton warehouse at Atlanta, Ga., burned recently. Loss on cotton, $150,000; on warehouse, $20,000; insurance, $145,000.

JAMES A. WALLACE, Cashier of the Bank of Hopkinsville (Ky.) is missing with a reported shortage of $40,000.

A GAMBLER NAMED Burns killed the night watchman at the end of the track on the Mexican Central Road the other night, and was hanged to a box car by a mob.

THE excess in value of exports over imports of merchandise for the month ending November 30 was $23,474,784.

THE town of Breckinridge, Minn., was nearly destroyed by fire the other evening, including the county offices and records.

THE bursting of a mill dam at Houghton, Mich., recently, resulted in the death of Charles B. Raymond, teller of the First National Bank of Houghton, his son and servant girl and Howay Raymond, wife and son.

THE iron manufacturers of the country generally reduced the wages of their men on January 1.

PABLO QUINTANA, Mayor of New Laredo, Mexico, arrested recently on the charge of complicity in the train robbery on the Mexican Central Railroad, was later sent to Monterey, in Irons, to stand trial before the Judge of the Federal Court.

JOHN J. MCBRIDE, who, in special, is made to threaten dire disaster to Canada, and the capture and death of Lord Lansdowne in consequence of the hanging of O'Donnell, is known at Buffalo, N. Y., as having no connection with, or to be acknowledged by any reputable Irish organization of that or any other city.

THE business failures in the United States during 1888 numbered 9,189, against 6,733 in 1887, an increase of 2,456. The liabilities for 1888 were $172,000,000, against $101,000,000 for 1887. The failures of last year were greater than those of any year since 1878, when they reached to 10,475, with liabilities $224,000,000.

A COLLISION between a freight train and a special containing laborers, near Toronto, Canada, recently, resulted in the killing of twenty-seven men and injuring of many others, some of whom will die.

THE scene at the morgue being a description of the Southern Pacific train robbers were recently captured in Arizona. One was a negro.

TWO Russian officers were recently assassinated by nihilists at St. Petersburg. The murders created great consternation, and it was suggested that the Imperial family should remove secretly to the palace at Peterhof.

THE Mexican Government has declared forfeited the concession made General Grant for a submarine cable connecting Mexico, the United States and Central America, no work having been done within the prescribed time.

THE report has been confirmed that the Black Flag massacred the French prisoners captured before Sonday. Admiral Courbet decided to take active measures for redress.

THE other morning when an extra freight train on the Missouri Pacific Railroad, consisting of eleven cars of mules, took the side track at Independence, Mo., to be the east-bound passenger train by, an examination was made of the cars, and showed that between eighty and one hundred head had perished from cold and starvation.

THE Park Theater, at Cleveland, O., supposed to be fire proof, was burned on the night of the 5th. It was valued at $200,000. Adams' Humpty Dumpty Company lost $8,000 or $9,000 worth of property.

THE west-bound express on the Wabash Road struck a wagon containing five young men near Napoleon, O., the other night, killing Frank Long and William Rhores and badly injuring George Arps. Long left a wife.

SEVERAL weeks ago the body of a lady was found in the graveyard at Sycamore, Ill. Later three men were arrested at Chicago, charged with the crime. It was claimed that they belonged to an organized gang of body-snatchers.

THE thermometer ranged from thirty to thirty-five degrees below in Minnesota and Dakota during the late cold snap.

STANLEY GRIFFITH was recently arrested at Salem, O., upon the confession of having murdered his father.

T. H. WEATHERS, Sheriff of Madison County, Miss., died recently of hydrophobia. He was bitten by a mad dog two months ago.

THE Ahilene (Tex.) stage was halted the other night near the Colorado River by two masked men with drawn revolvers and nine passengers, comprising a variety troupe, were robbed of $400.

AT Yazoo City, La., the other night about two hundred armed men proceeded to the jail and demanded entrance. W. L. Foote resisted and was shot dead in his cell; Robert Swazey, Micajah Parker and Richard Gibbes were lynched. The four men were charged with being principals in the murder of the Posey brothers and Jasper Nichols.

TWO negroes were recently lynched at Brooksville, La., for murder.

THE other Sunday at a point fifty miles from Fort Smith, Ark., in the Choctaw Nation, while Rev. Samuel Andrews was on his way to fill a religious appointment, he was shot and killed by unknown parties. It was supposed to be the result of an old grudge.

HENRY HANE, a well-to-do German, of San Antonio, Tex., in a drunken jealous frenzy the other night attempted to kill his wife, and after exacting a promise from her to keep the matter a secret, cut his own throat.

W. IRVING DANFELL, said to be from Philadelphia, died at Lexington, Ky., the other night from hunger and exposure.

A RECENT fire at Covington, Ga., destroyed the court-house and other property to the value of $30,000. The records were saved.

JAMES A. WALLACE, Cashier of the Bank of Hopkinsville (Ky.) is missing with a reported shortage of $40,000.

A GAMBLER NAMED Burns killed the night watchman at the end of the track on the Mexican Central Road the other night, and was hanged to a box car by a mob.

THE excess in value of exports over imports of merchandise for the month ending November 30 was $23,474,784.

THE town of Breckinridge, Minn., was nearly destroyed by fire the other evening, including the county offices and records.

THE bursting of a mill dam at Houghton, Mich., recently, resulted in the death of Charles B. Raymond, teller of the First National Bank of Houghton, his son and servant girl and Howay Raymond, wife and son.

THE iron manufacturers of the country generally reduced the wages of their men on January 1.

PABLO QUINTANA, Mayor of New Laredo, Mexico, arrested recently on the charge of complicity in the train robbery on the Mexican Central Railroad, was later sent to Monterey, in Irons, to stand trial before the Judge of the Federal Court.

JOHN J. MCBRIDE, who, in special, is made to threaten dire disaster to Canada, and the capture and death of Lord Lansdowne in consequence of the hanging of O'Donnell, is known at Buffalo, N. Y., as having no connection with, or to be acknowledged by any reputable Irish organization of that or any other city.

THE business failures in the United States during 1888 numbered 9,189, against 6,733 in 1887, an increase of 2,456. The liabilities for 1888 were $172,000,000, against $101,000,000 for 1887. The failures of last year were greater than those of any year since 1878, when they reached to 10,475, with liabilities $224,000,000.

A COLLISION between a freight train and a special containing laborers, near Toronto, Canada, recently, resulted in the killing of twenty-seven men and injuring of many others, some of whom will die.

THE scene at the morgue being a description of the Southern Pacific train robbers were recently captured in Arizona. One was a negro.

TWO Russian officers were recently assassinated by nihilists at St. Petersburg. The murders created great consternation, and it was suggested that the Imperial family should remove secretly to the palace at Peterhof.

THE Mexican Government has declared forfeited the concession made General Grant for a submarine cable connecting Mexico, the United States and Central America, no work having been done within the prescribed time.

THE report has been confirmed that the Black Flag massacred the French prisoners captured before Sonday. Admiral Courbet decided to take active measures for redress.

THE other morning when an extra freight train on the Missouri Pacific Railroad, consisting of eleven cars of mules, took the side track at Independence, Mo., to be the east-bound passenger train by, an examination was made of the cars, and showed that between eighty and one hundred head had perished from cold and starvation.

THE Park Theater, at Cleveland, O., supposed to be fire proof, was burned on the night of the 5th. It was valued at $200,000. Adams' Humpty Dumpty Company lost $8,000 or $9,000 worth of property.

THE west-bound express on the Wabash Road struck a wagon containing five young men near Napoleon, O., the other night, killing Frank Long and William Rhores and badly injuring George Arps. Long left a wife.

SEVERAL weeks ago the body of a lady was found in the graveyard at Sycamore, Ill. Later three men were arrested at Chicago, charged with the crime. It was claimed that they belonged to an organized gang of body-snatchers.

THE thermometer ranged from thirty to thirty-five degrees below in Minnesota and Dakota during the late cold snap.

STANLEY GRIFFITH was recently arrested at Salem, O., upon the confession of having murdered his father.

T. H. WEATHERS, Sheriff of Madison County, Miss., died recently of hydrophobia. He was bitten by a mad dog two months ago.

THE Ahilene (Tex.) stage was halted the other night near the Colorado River by two masked men with drawn revolvers and nine passengers, comprising a variety troupe, were robbed of $400.

AT Yazoo City, La., the other night about two hundred armed men proceeded to the jail and demanded entrance. W. L. Foote resisted and was shot dead in his cell; Robert Swazey, Micajah Parker and Richard Gibbes were lynched. The four men were charged with being principals in the murder of the Posey brothers and Jasper Nichols.

TWO negroes were recently lynched at Brooksville, La., for murder.

THE other Sunday at a point fifty miles from Fort Smith, Ark., in the Choctaw Nation, while Rev. Samuel Andrews was on his way to fill a religious appointment, he was shot and killed by unknown parties. It was supposed to be the result of an old grudge.

HENRY HANE, a well-to-do German, of San Antonio, Tex., in a drunken jealous frenzy the other night attempted to kill his wife, and after exacting a promise from her to keep the matter a secret, cut his own throat.

W. IRVING DANFELL, said to be from Philadelphia, died at Lexington, Ky., the other night from hunger and exposure.

A RECENT fire at Covington, Ga., destroyed the court-house and other property to the value of $30,000. The records were saved.

JAMES A. WALLACE, Cashier of the Bank of Hopkinsville (Ky.) is missing with a reported shortage of $40,000.

A GAMBLER NAMED Burns killed the night watchman at the end of the track on the Mexican Central Road the other night, and was hanged to a box car by a mob.

THE excess in value of exports over imports of merchandise for the month ending November 30 was $23,474,784.

THE town of Breckinridge, Minn., was nearly destroyed by fire the other evening, including the county offices and records.

THE bursting of a mill dam at Houghton, Mich., recently, resulted in the death of Charles B. Raymond, teller of the First National Bank of Houghton, his son and servant girl and Howay Raymond, wife and son.

THE iron manufacturers of the country generally reduced the wages of their men on January 1.

PABLO QUINTANA, Mayor of New Laredo, Mexico, arrested recently on the charge of complicity in the train robbery on the Mexican Central Railroad, was later sent to Monterey, in Irons, to stand trial before the Judge of the Federal Court.

JOHN J. MCBRIDE, who, in special, is made to threaten dire disaster to Canada, and the capture and death of Lord Lansdowne in consequence of the hanging of O'Donnell, is known at Buffalo, N. Y., as having no connection with, or to be acknowledged by any reputable Irish organization of that or any other city.

THE business failures in the United States during 1888 numbered 9,189, against 6,733 in 1887, an increase of 2,456. The liabilities for 1888 were $172,000,000, against $101,000,000 for 1887. The failures of last year were greater than those of any year since 1878, when they reached to 10,475, with liabilities $224,000,000.

A COLLISION between a freight train and a special containing laborers, near Toronto, Canada, recently, resulted in the killing of twenty-seven men and injuring of many others, some of whom will die.

THE scene at the morgue being a description of the Southern Pacific train robbers were recently captured in Arizona. One was a negro.

TWO Russian officers were recently assassinated by nihilists at St. Petersburg. The murders created great consternation, and it was suggested that the Imperial family should remove secretly to the palace at Peterhof.

THE Mexican Government has declared forfeited the concession made General Grant for a submarine cable connecting Mexico, the United States and Central America, no work having been done within the prescribed time.

THE report has been confirmed that the Black Flag massacred the French prisoners captured before Sonday. Admiral Courbet decided to take active measures for redress.

THE other morning when an extra freight train on the Missouri Pacific Railroad, consisting of eleven cars of mules, took the side track at Independence, Mo., to be the east-bound passenger train by, an examination was made of the cars, and showed that between eighty and one hundred head had perished from cold and starvation.

THE Park Theater, at Cleveland, O., supposed to be fire proof, was burned on the night of the 5th. It was valued at $200,000. Adams' Humpty Dumpty Company lost $8,000 or $9,000 worth of property.

THE west-bound express on the Wabash Road struck a wagon containing five young men near Napoleon, O., the other night, killing Frank Long and William Rhores and badly injuring George Arps. Long left a wife.

SEVERAL weeks ago the body of a lady was found in the graveyard at Sycamore, Ill. Later three men were arrested at Chicago, charged with the crime. It was claimed that they belonged to an organized gang of body-snatchers.

THE thermometer ranged from thirty to thirty-five degrees below in Minnesota and Dakota during the late cold snap.

STANLEY GRIFFITH was recently arrested at Salem, O., upon the confession of having murdered his father.

T. H. WEATHERS, Sheriff of Madison County, Miss., died recently of hydrophobia. He was bitten by a mad dog two months ago.

THE Ahilene (Tex.) stage was halted the other night near the Colorado River by two masked men with drawn revolvers and nine passengers, comprising a variety troupe, were robbed of $400.

AT Yazoo City, La., the other night about two hundred armed men proceeded to the jail and demanded entrance. W. L. Foote resisted and was shot dead in his cell; Robert Swazey, Micajah Parker and Richard Gibbes were lynched. The four men were charged with being principals in the murder of the Posey brothers and Jasper Nichols.

TWO negroes were recently lynched at Brooksville, La., for murder.

THE other Sunday at a point fifty miles from Fort Smith, Ark., in the Choctaw Nation, while Rev. Samuel Andrews was on his way to fill a religious appointment, he was shot and killed by unknown parties. It was supposed to be the result of an old grudge.

HENRY HANE, a well-to-do German, of San Antonio, Tex., in a drunken jealous frenzy the other night attempted to kill his wife, and after exacting a promise from her to keep the matter a secret, cut his own throat.

W. IRVING DANFELL, said to be from Philadelphia, died at Lexington, Ky., the other night from hunger and exposure.

A RECENT fire at Covington, Ga., destroyed the court-house and other property to the value of $30,000. The records were saved.

JAMES A. WALLACE, Cashier of the Bank of Hopkinsville (Ky.) is missing with a reported shortage of $40,000.

A GAMBLER NAMED Burns killed the night watchman at the end of the track on the Mexican Central Road the other night, and was hanged to a box car by a mob.

THE excess in value of exports over imports of merchandise for the month ending November 30 was $23,474,784.

THE town of Breckinridge, Minn., was nearly destroyed by fire the other evening, including the county offices and records.

THE bursting of a mill dam at Houghton, Mich., recently, resulted in the death of Charles B. Raymond, teller of the First National Bank of Houghton, his son and servant girl and Howay Raymond, wife and son.

THE iron manufacturers of the country generally reduced the wages of their men on January 1.

PABLO QUINTANA, Mayor of New Laredo, Mexico, arrested recently on the charge of complicity in the train robbery on the Mexican Central Railroad, was later sent to Monterey, in Irons, to stand trial before the Judge of the Federal Court.

JOHN J. MCBRIDE, who, in special, is made to threaten dire disaster to Canada, and the capture and death of Lord Lansdowne in consequence of the hanging of O'Donnell, is known at Buffalo, N. Y., as having no connection with, or to be acknowledged by any reputable Irish organization of that or any other city.

THE business failures in the United States during 1888 numbered 9,189, against 6,733 in 1887, an increase of 2,456. The liabilities for 1888 were $172,000,000, against $101,000,000 for 1887. The failures of last year were greater than those of any year since 1878, when they reached to 10,475, with liabilities $224,000,000.

A COLLISION between a freight train and a special containing laborers, near Toronto, Canada, recently, resulted in the killing of twenty-seven men and injuring of many others, some of whom will die.

THE scene at the morgue being a description of the Southern Pacific train robbers were recently captured in Arizona. One was a negro.

TWO Russian officers were recently assassinated by nihilists at St. Petersburg. The murders created great consternation, and it was suggested that the Imperial family should remove secretly to the palace at Peterhof.

THE Mexican Government has declared forfeited the concession made General Grant for a submarine cable connecting Mexico, the United States and Central America, no work having been done within the prescribed time.

THE report has been confirmed that the Black Flag massacred the French prisoners captured before Sonday. Admiral Courbet decided to take active measures for redress.

THE other morning when an extra freight train on the Missouri Pacific Railroad, consisting of eleven cars of mules, took the side track at Independence, Mo., to be the east-bound passenger train by, an examination was made of the cars, and showed that between eighty and one hundred head had perished from cold and starvation.

THE Park Theater, at Cleveland, O., supposed to be fire proof, was burned on the night of the 5th. It was valued at $200,000. Adams' Humpty Dumpty Company lost $8,000 or $9,000 worth of property.

THE west-bound express on the Wabash Road struck a wagon containing five young men near Napoleon, O., the other night, killing Frank Long and William Rhores and badly injuring George Arps. Long left a wife.

SEVERAL weeks ago the body of a lady was found in the graveyard at Sycamore, Ill. Later three men were arrested at Chicago, charged with the crime. It was claimed that they belonged to an organized gang of body-snatchers.

THE thermometer ranged from thirty to thirty-five degrees below in Minnesota and Dakota during the late cold snap.

STANLEY GRIFFITH was recently arrested at Salem, O., upon the confession of having murdered his father.

T. H. WEATHERS, Sheriff of Madison County, Miss., died recently of hydrophobia. He was bitten by a mad dog two months ago.

THE Ahilene (Tex.) stage was halted the other night near the Colorado River by two masked men with drawn revolvers and nine passengers, comprising a variety troupe, were robbed of $400.

AT Yazoo City, La., the other night about two hundred armed men proceeded to the jail and demanded entrance. W. L. Foote resisted and was shot dead in his cell; Robert Swazey, Micajah Parker and Richard Gibbes were lynched. The four men were charged with being principals in the murder of the Posey brothers and Jasper Nichols.

TWO negroes were recently lynched at Brooksville, La., for murder.

THE other Sunday at a point fifty miles from Fort Smith, Ark., in the Choctaw Nation, while Rev. Samuel Andrews was on his way to fill a religious appointment, he was shot and killed by unknown parties. It was supposed to be the result of an old grudge.

HENRY HANE, a well-to-do German, of San Antonio, Tex., in a drunken jealous frenzy the other night attempted to kill his wife, and after exacting a promise from her to keep the matter a secret, cut his own throat.

W. IRVING DANFELL, said to be from Philadelphia, died at Lexington, Ky., the other night from hunger and exposure.

A RECENT fire at Covington, Ga., destroyed the court-house and other property to the value of $30,000. The records were saved.

JAMES A. WALLACE, Cashier of the Bank of Hopkinsville (Ky.) is missing with a reported shortage of $40,000.

A GAMBLER NAMED Burns killed the night watchman at the end of the track on the Mexican Central Road the other night, and was hanged to a box car by a mob.

THE excess in value of exports over imports of merchandise for the month ending November 30 was $23,474,784.

THE town of Breckinridge, Minn., was nearly destroyed by fire the other evening, including the county offices and records.

THE bursting of a mill dam at Houghton, Mich., recently, resulted in the death of Charles B. Raymond, teller of the First National Bank of Houghton, his son and servant girl and Howay Raymond, wife and son.

THE iron manufacturers of the country generally reduced the wages of their men on January 1.

PABLO QUINTANA, Mayor of New Laredo, Mexico, arrested recently on the charge of complicity in the train robbery on the Mexican Central Railroad, was later sent to Monterey, in Irons, to stand trial before the Judge of the Federal Court.

JOHN J. MCBRIDE, who, in special, is made to threaten dire disaster to Canada, and the capture and death of Lord Lansdowne in consequence of the hanging of O'Donnell, is known at Buffalo, N. Y., as having no connection with, or to be acknowledged by any reputable Irish organization of that or any other city.

THE business failures in the United States during 1888 numbered 9,189, against 6,733 in 1887, an increase of 2,456. The liabilities for 1888 were $172,000,000, against $101,000,000 for 1887. The failures of last year were greater than those of any year since 1878, when they reached to 10,475, with liabilities $224,000,000.

A COLLISION between a freight train and a special containing laborers, near Toronto, Canada, recently, resulted in the killing of twenty-seven men and injuring of many others, some of whom will die.

THE scene at the morgue being a description of the Southern Pacific train robbers were recently captured in Arizona. One was a negro.

TWO Russian officers were recently assassinated by nihilists at St. Petersburg. The murders created great consternation, and it was suggested that the Imperial family should remove secretly to the palace at Peterhof.

THE Mexican Government has declared forfeited the concession made General Grant for a submarine cable connecting Mexico, the United States and Central America, no work having been done within the prescribed time.

THE report has been confirmed that the Black Flag massacred the French prisoners captured before Sonday. Admiral Courbet decided to take active measures for redress.

THE other morning when an extra freight train on the Missouri Pacific Railroad, consisting of eleven cars of mules, took the side track at Independence, Mo., to be the east-bound passenger train by, an examination was made of the cars, and showed that between eighty and one hundred head had perished from cold and starvation.

THE Park Theater, at Cleveland, O., supposed to be fire proof, was burned on the night of the 5th. It was valued at $200,000. Adams' Humpty Dumpty Company lost $8,000 or $9,000 worth of property.

THE west-bound express on the Wabash Road struck a wagon containing five young men near Napoleon, O., the other night, killing Frank Long and William Rhores and badly injuring George Arps. Long left a wife.

SEVERAL weeks ago the body of a lady was found in the graveyard at Sycamore, Ill. Later three men were arrested at Chicago, charged with the crime. It was claimed that they belonged to an organized gang of body-snatchers.

THE thermometer ranged from thirty to thirty-five degrees below in Minnesota and Dakota during the late cold snap.

STANLEY GRIFFITH was recently arrested at Salem, O., upon the confession of having murdered his father.

T. H. WEATHERS, Sheriff of Madison County, Miss., died recently of hydrophobia. He was bitten by a mad dog two months ago.

THE Ahilene (Tex.) stage was halted the other night near the Colorado River by two masked men with drawn revolvers and nine passengers, comprising a variety troupe, were robbed of $400.

AT Yazoo City, La., the other night about two hundred armed men proceeded to the jail and demanded entrance. W. L. Foote resisted and was shot dead in his cell; Robert Swazey, Micajah Parker and Richard Gibbes were lynched. The four men were charged with being principals in the murder of the Posey brothers and Jasper Nichols.

TWO negroes were recently lynched at Brooksville, La., for murder.

THE other Sunday at a point fifty miles from Fort Smith, Ark., in the Choctaw Nation, while Rev. Samuel Andrews was on his way to fill a religious appointment, he was shot and killed by unknown parties. It was supposed to be the result of an old grudge.

HENRY HANE, a well-to-do German, of San Antonio, Tex., in a drunken jealous frenzy the other night attempted to kill his wife, and after exacting a promise from

A FEARFUL WRECK.