BRO. BURROWS, of the Riverton Enterprise, made this office a pleasant call on Wednesday.

THE stoves in the M. E. church have been removed from the basement to the audience room.

Geo. O. YEISER & Co. offer some attractive tracts of land for sale in our columns this week.

Mrs. SMITH, of Fairfield, Neb., and Miss Spencer, are visiting friends in Red Cloud this week.

Miss BROXNER will sell her millinery goods at public sale on January 26. See her advertisement.

OUR thanks are extended to D. G. Harvey for a copy of the Albuquerque, N. M., Morning Journal.

ABOUT one dozen Turks, in Oriental costume, passed through Red Cloud on Monday, enroute for California.

QUITE a serious surgical operation was performed on Mr. Brill's little boy's arm on Monday afternoon.

THERE will be a special meeting of Calantha Lodge, Knights of Pythias, Tuesday evening, January 22, in their castle hall.

W. H. GOODALL, our enterprising abstractor and real estate agent will move his office into Mr. Gardner's old stand, south of McFarlan's grocery store.

We have been enjoying very fine weather for the last two weeks. Puts a fellow in mind of spring weather. The weather has been clear, dry and warm.

THE Blue Hill Times, issued a boom edition last week, which was a credit in every respect to the proprietors of that paper. It was a good send-off for that part of our county.

OUR old friend, W. R. Kelly, one of prominent attorneys, of Lincoln, Neb., was elected to the office of first vice-president of the state bar association at their recent meeting held at Lincoln.

A NEW feature of the Golden Eagle clothing store will be that anyone wishing a suit of clothes made to order can, after this week, leave their order and save money. They guarantee fits.

C. WIENER will return the money to any one who is not satisfied after taking home what they have purchased. Goods warranted as represented. This is only done at the Golden Eagle clothing store.

THE Beatrice Express one of the solid papers of Nebraska will shortly start a daily in that wide awake city. We bespeak a magnanimous support of the new daily by the business men of that place. Here is our editorial "brothers, for your success.

MR. WM. BROWN is about to build two new houses. Carpenter Potter is also erecting one, and several more are under contemplation. The carpenters anticipate a boom in the house building line on the opening of spring. They count on from 50 to 60 being erected in the next twelve months.

If there is anything that makes a city or town look nice, it is an abundance of trees both shade and ornamental. Therefore we would suggest to the people of Red Cloud that whenever the opportunity affords itself that they should put out trees, this is said to be a good time of the year to set out trees.

THE following officers were installed at Red Cloud Lodge, No. 64, I. O. O. F., on Saturday evening, January 12, 1884, for the ensuing term:

G. W. Dow, N. G.

T. W. Hatfield, V. G.

E. A. Young, R. S.

J. A. Talley, P. S.

D. C. Metcalf, Treasurer.

SAFETY coal oil, pure water white, at Lindley's drug store.

THERE is some hog cholera in this county among porkers.

W. J. VANCE, of Inavale, left for New York State, Monday.

READ THE CHIEF's correspondence from different parts of the county.

Ely's Cream Balm is the best known remedy for catarrh, at Lindley's drug store.

MR. JOSEPH FOGLE one of our Kansas subscribers, made THE CHIEF a pleasant call Saturday.

Ed. Cook and Roy Hutcherson, took a big hunt for jack rabbits last week. They report lots of fun.

BROWN's Camphorated Dentifrice, and Van Burskirk's Sozodent for the teeth, at Lindley's drug store.

POSTMASTER KNIGHT, Inavale, called on THE CHIEF Saturday. He reports Inavale in a prosperous condition.

REV. STUART CROCKETT, rector of Grace church in this city, occupied the pulpit in St. Mark's church in Hastings last Sunday.

ON Saturday, Mr. D. E. Dexter, will hold a public sale in Red Cloud. He intends going to New York on an extended visit soon.

THE Red Cloud CHIEF has changed from a folio to a six column quarto. A style lately adopted by a number of our exchanges.—Oxford Register.

ERSY's Fragrant Cream, for chapped hands or rough skin. Not sticky or greasy. Kid gloves can be worn immediately after using it. At Lindley's drug store.

The Red Cloud CHIEF began the new year by enlarging to a six-column quarto, and making other improvements. This would indicate prosperity, both of the paper and town.—Beatrice Express.

THE Red Cloud CHIEF has been enlarged to a six column paper, and otherwise given a new dress. Mr. Hosmer is giving Red Cloud a No. 1 local paper. We wish it continued prosperity.—Blue Hill Times.

THE Red Cloud CHIEF has recently been enlarged to a six column paper, and otherwise improved. It is No. 1 local paper, of more than ordinary editorial ability. We wish it continued and increasing prosperity, it so richly merits.—Gazette Journal.

THE location for the coming state fair is now agitating Lincoln and Omaha. Both towns want it, and want it badly, and are putting up considerable money to secure its location. We would suggest that it be placed permanently at Lincoln as the best place in the state at present for it.

THE Indians who were camped, for nearly a week in the suburbs of the city, quietly packed their wardrobes in their vest pockets Sunday, and departed down the river. They were quite a curiosity to the rising generation, although it has not been over fifteen years since they inhabited Webster county.

THE following officers were installed at the Faith Rebecca Degree Lodge, No. 19, I. O. O. F., January 8, 1884, for the ensuing term:

Mrs. Emma Parks, N. G.

Mrs. O. Metcalf, V. G.

Mrs. M. Metcalf, Secretary.

Mrs. S. Hutchinson, Treasurer.

Mrs. L. M. Smith, Conductor.

LET the young men of this county stand together; work in unison, and help each other. The old heads do not need encouragement so much as the young man just starting in life, without capital, and friends to make. The young men of this age must have the real grit if they succeed. Onward, then, for a long pull and a strong pull, and a pull altogether. Nothing tells like hard work; dogged, persistent, determined effort.

THE Masonic fraternity of Guide Rock, gave an entertainment and banquet to their friends last Friday evening. The affair was very enjoyable, and the visitors present from this city pronounced it one of the most pleasant social events that they ever attended. The following guests were present from this city. Gus. Zimmerman, G. S. Albright, L. H. Wallace, W. H. Strohm, and wife, John Garber and wife, Geo. Garber, Charley Platt, J. R. Wilcox, and wife, Ira Sleeper and wife, and R. L. Tinker, and wife. On returning home, the bar on the drive wheel broke and delayed the train for some time. No one hurt.

MADE AN ASSIGNMENT.—On last Tuesday morning the announcement on the streets that A. S. Marsh had made an assignment for the benefit of his creditors, caused a ripple of excitement in our city. Mr. Marsh was one of our foremost business men, and commanded a large and extensive business, but owing to the slackness of the winter trade, was compelled to take the steps to save his creditors. However, we hope that arrangements can be made so that he will be able to resume his business in a few days. We could not learn his liabilities, but presume that his assets will more than cover losses.

CATTLE AN HORSES FOR SALE

About 50 head of cattle, some of them thorough-bred and some high grades. Also six horses.

n233 H. STEVENSON, Inavale, Neb.

COMPROMISED.—In July, 1882, G. S. McDaniels, living in Red Cloud, was accidentally killed by a train on the Burlington and Missouri River railway. For some time an effort has been made to compromise the matter, but no satisfactory arrangements could be consummated until this week, when Mr. McDaniels, father of the man killed, concluded to accept a certain offer tendered by the B. & M. Co., and this week received the agreed amount. Thus ends what might have been a series of lawsuits in the various courts of this State. The B. & M. generally do what is fair in such cases.

A NEW CHEESE FACTORY.—In a recent issue of THE CHIEF we announced the fact that a new cheese factory was being talked of in this county, and that the same would be located on Henry C. Scott's farm near this city. We learn this week, from reliable sources, that the projectors of this enterprise have fully decided to go ahead with the factory, having secured the requisite number of cows necessary to furnish the milk to operate the factory, which we were also informed, would be put in operation as soon as practicable, and probably not later than sometime in March. Mr. J. O. Chamberlin of the Inavale factory will be manager. It will keep him busy, attending to both the Inavale and new factory.

A telegram was received in this city on Wednesday morning announcing the death of Miss Clarrie Clark at Oberlin the night previous. Miss Carrie was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clark, residing on Dudley street. The bereaved parents have the sympathy of the community. Miss Clarrie was a young lady of fine qualities and her sudden and unexpected death has cast a gloom over the faces of her younger associates in this city, whose affections she had won to keep.—South Toledo News Era.

The young lady mentioned in the above paragraph was a niece of the editor of THE CHIEF. Her death was a crushing blow to her parents and friends. Being a lady of more than the average type, she won for herself hosts of friends, and was respected and beloved by all of her acquaintances. Although death has overtaken her, while yet in the morning of her life, her memory will be cherished and kept ever green in the sacred recesses of our heart.

And Her Remains beneath the sod,
Tell us she has gone home to God.

OUR business men, and in fact every and all persons using the U. S. mail should be careful and address their letters and packages properly in every instance, the department require that the name of the state, that a letter is designed for should be included in the address. A letter to "John Jones, Chicago" is not properly addressed, it should be "John Jones, Chicago Illinois and in accordance with a recent order from the postal service all route agents are required to take up letters not addressed properly, and forward them to the general superintendent of the service at Chicago. No difference how well the city is known, the name of it alone, without the state, is not sufficient. Therefore be careful, and you will save a great deal of trouble to yourselves and postal service. A large number of letters annually go to the dead letter office by the carelessness of the sender in addressing the same. A good plan is always to incorporate the name of the county in the address, this is a great aid to route agents in locating towns that are not well known and insure safe delivery in nearly every instance.

WALNUT CREEK.

Walnut Creek has a new post office located on Grandpa Worman's homestead, near the head of the creek. Its name is Worman, Smith county, Kansas. Eld. Joseph Cheatham, the worthy, P. M., preaches, keeps a store, and peddles, and is good at each. Success to him.

The new school house in the vicinity has just been furnished with a complete set of patent desks. Sunday school is held every Sabbath morning at 11 o'clock, but no preaching. Here is an opening, and a golden opportunity for some self-sacrificing minister to do good. Do not all speak at once.

An oyster supper was held at the school house on Christmas evening, and on New Years night a ball, for the benefit of the day school, realizing a profit of $24. "And Satan appeared also." We would respectfully suggest the propriety of organizing a temperance society in this place.

Mr. Charles Green has received from Uncle Sam the title for the claim so long in contest between him and Mr. Wm. McAvoy.

The cattle and horses on Upper Walnut are all honest. If turned into their neighbor's corn they will only pick up the blades and husks, which are of course not very valuable; at least so their owners think. If the owners of the corn think so to, it will be all right, and the lawyers and officers will have to look elsewhere for fees.

Mrs. G. W. Hummel has returned from Iowa.

S. W. CORSEB.

GARFIELD.

The Alliance met last Saturday night and elected F. Houchin and C. C. Coon as delegates to the State Alliance.

Farmers in this precinct have generally got their corn husked.

Mark Warner, Frank Smith, and J. B. Stanser are putting up ice.

Mr. John Street is ailing with neuralgia.

Geo. Coon probably raised the most corn in this precinct.

There are a good many wolves in this neighborhood. Farmers should organize an exterminate them.

Our people should organize and make fire guards to avoid being burnt out again. It is important. BENZINE.

DIAMONDS are a good deal like me. Much depends on their setting.—Philadelpia Call.

I FOUND it a sure cure. I have been troubled with Catarrhal deafness for eight years with a roaring noise in my head. I bought medicine in 13 States nothing helped me till I procured a box of Ely's Cream Balm. In four days I can hear as well as ever. I am cured of Catarrh as well. I consider Ely's Cream Balm the best medicine ever made.—G. BRET WIDRICK, Hastings, New York.

MATTHEW ARNOLD calls a cow a "co." He has a curious style of pronunciation.—Norristown Herald.

I HAVE taken Swift's Specific (S.S.S.) Creamery are putting up ice. Well, I think they will be well paid for their trouble, as the creamery wagon runs winter and summer.

The son of J. H. Williams met with an accident on last Wednesday while herding cattle. His horse fell and fractured his leg and used him up generally.

A. T. RAVELER.

AMBOY.

School commenced the 7th. Miss Walker, of Red Cloud, is teacher.

The people of Amboy are not complaining of the weather this week.

The county superintendent visited at the school this week.

The sportsmen seem to enjoy themselves here.

Mr. John Weigle, from Kansas, killed some thirty odd ducks last week in one day.

There is considerable talk of a wedding at Amboy, but the would be bride will not consent to go on horseback as the horse will not carry double.

H. Frase froze his face very badly while going to Cowles last week. The summer season did not last long enough for him.

Mr. Fred Weigle, of Kansas, is visiting in Amboy.

Sunday school was organized on last Sunday, January 6th., by J. T. Stewart, of Hastings, and was well attended.

Mrs. J. W. Polly, of Amboy, will soon start on a lecturing tour through this State, in opposition to Miss Susan B. Anthony.

There is a good bridge over the river at Amboy now, and the people on the south side can go to mill without going by Red Cloud.

Preaching at Amboy on the 20th. All are invited.

WIND.

INAVALE.

The weather is fine and news is scarce, but as your good looking correspondent, Mose, has moseyed off we take up the pen to chronicle the events which occur from time to time in our thriving neighborhood.

To appease the wrath and disappointment of those who predicted the cheese factory a failure, J. O. Channing will enlarge the factory to double its present capacity and build one or two branch factories in the spring.

The general prosperity under which this precinct is rejoicing at present is seen in the large number of new residences and buildings lately constructed.

A lyceum was organized in the early part of the winter at Mount Hope school house. Among its members may be found men of culture and intellectual power. The questions they discuss are mostly political, and the manner in which they handle some of the most intricate questions would grace the halls of congress. Who knows but in the dim and misty future some of these men may awe senators by their powers of eloquence.

A literary society was recently organized at West Inavale school house, which is a success beyond all expectations. The questions discussed are mostly of a religious character, and we know of no place more in need of religious refreshment.

For profitable hog raising the Argus correspondent takes the cake and cook-shop, together with the pig pen connected with the establishment. Said correspondent is also said to be afflicted with that dread disease spoken of in the Bible, which caused the death of Ananias.

A social hop at the residence of Mr. Anthony Arnison was largely attended and very much enjoyed, we understand, but as dancing is contrary to the first principle taught us by our mother, your correspondent did not attend.

But I will now close with the startling information that the Hon. W. J. Vance has departed for the East with dire intentions of committing matrimony.

Hoping that Miss Courtwright will come this way before long, we remain yours truly,

X. X. APOLLO.

ON THE ROAD.

South of the river. M. H. Warner's child is improving.

Frank Smith is putting up ice, so that he will be better prepared to handle his milk the coming summer. He says he is bound to patronize the Red Cloud Creamery.

James Beacham is still on the mend. His hand is improving as fast as could be expected.

There has been a new post-office established at the residence of J. B. Stanser. The office is known by the name of Hick's. J. B. Stanser is the lucky postmaster.

I see that by the looks of the corn cribs that Nebraska need not complain of her crops this season, especially Webster county. Now, if you would like to see some nice cribs of corn call on Mr. Harris and Mr. DeWitt. In fact you can see well filled cribs on every hand. Charles Munger says he feels fine over the crops that have been raised on his farm the past season.

Plenty of grain and good prices. Every body on the south side of the river appear to be well satisfied with Nebraska.

All the patrons of the Red Cloud Creamery are putting up ice. Well, I think they will be well paid for their trouble, as the creamery wagon runs winter and summer.

The son of J. H. Williams met with an accident on last Wednesday while herding cattle. His horse fell and fractured his leg and used him up generally.

GUIDE ROCK.

The weather is so cold, or has been, that items are literally frozen out.

There is one consolation, and it is that Nebraska, especially the southern part, can turn out more nice days in the 365 than any other state in this little government. I make this as an assertion.

The great boom now is gill edged butter making. There is a man from Ohio, who is actually churning seven pounds of butter from one gallon of cream.

Mr. F. Shular expects to make $2200 worth of butter from his new churn and cows. We say, hurrah for the revolution in butter making.

Mr. Odell Moshang is herding his fine young herd of cattle. He informed us that he has finest lot of swine that he ever raised. He is one of the lucky men who obtained the right to make seven pounds of butter from one gallon of cream.

C. P. Norris purchased the great butter right.

Mr. Wm. Norris has enclosed his fine farm with posts and wire. He says he will not stand out in the cold and herd his stock any longer.

Wm. Guey fenced his home farm this winter.

Mr. Jackson feels a little sore over his new churn.

Mr. Inavale, now please haul down your cheese factory, since we can discount you, as we can raise our calves on oats.

Recently the streets of Guide Rock were so crowded that all the weigh masters were about eight hours behind, and A. Garber had some six or eight clerks busily at work all the time.

W. H. Barcus fenced in 140 acres of fine pasture land for his herd of cattle. Another boy made happy on account of herding in the pasture.

Our district schools are prospering: Albert Horn is still on the move, keeping fires in his new $1500 house and playing on his new organ.

Live hogs are rolling into Guide Rock by the car loads, and corn is seeing the heaviest trade we have ever known at this season of the year.

Real estate is increasing in price so rapidly that a man is not safe in valuing his land unless he wishes to move.

HARLAN, KANSAS.

A protracted meeting is now in progress under the control of Rev. Estep, pastor at this place.

There seems to be a good interest worked up among the citizens as well as students.

The winter term is in full blast, the enrollment at present is 61 active students. It appears that each one is striving to see how much knowledge he can obtain this term. They are all working in harmony and every thing seems pleasant. The advanced grammar, the commercial department and other branches are under the control of Prof. Noble.

Grammar B. and arithmetic B. is being taught by P. M. Herrick, from Edgar, Neb. The classes are doing good work.

The higher mathematic, Greek, Latin, and philosophy, is being taught by Prof. Shannon, who is thorough in every branch.

The music class which numbers twenty is again being taught by Mrs. John Schuyler, her work is thorough and cannot be excelled.

Her book of instruction is Karl Merz, for recitations she uses Goldbeck's Musical Science Primer. We fear we will meet with the disappointment of not having her with us the spring term.

It seems that the Harlan Chief is trying to pick flaws with the correspondent of the Red Cloud CHIEF, we think the gent might profitably exchanged some lip for better apprehension. also give definition of "Monkeying" and tell where he discovered it.

SPECIAL MEETING.

There will be a meeting of the Farmers' Alliance in Garfield precinct, at school house in district No. 76, on January 26, 1884, at 7 o'clock p. m., for the purpose of electing officers of the White Stone Alliance. It is hoped that all the members will be present for the business is important to be transacted. C. C. Coon, President.

F. HOUCHIN, Secretary.

"EVERY-DAY Cyclopaedia of useful knowledge" is the title of a standard work issued by the Sun Publishing Company, of St. Louis, Mo. It contains a vast amount of accurate and reliable information, for Merchants, Farmers, Mechanic, Tradesmen and Housewife. It embraces the care and management, diseases and remedies, of horses, cattle, sheep, swine and poultry; besides these it contains 10,000 useful recipes upon various subjects of daily reference. How so much valuable matter, so conveniently arranged can be crowded into one book, is a mystery, and yet it is all made clear in the "Every-Day Cyclopaedia of useful knowledge." Agents wanted for this valuable book. We call attention to advertisement in another column.
