PERSONAL AND IMPERSONAL.

-The combined salaries of Mr. Henry Villard, President of the Northern Pacific Railroad, amount to over $80,000

General G. W. Getty, who has been in command of the Artillery School at Fortress Monroe, has been placed on the retired list.

-John A. Logan's son Manning has shed his name at West Point and will be known hereafter as John A. Logan, Jr.—Chicago News.

-A wealthy miser named Dr. Phillip L. Jones was found dead in the bathroom of his house in Brooklyn a few days ago. He left over $1,000,000.—N.

—An old lady now living in Lebanon,
Ia., is the mother of six sons, nine daughters, and has forty grandchildren.
There is not an idiot, cripple drunkard,
or gambler in all the family.—Philadelphia Press.

-At a reception lately given in New-port by Miss Catharine L. Wolfe, whose income is said to be $4,000 a day, the dining-room walls were covered with wild grapevines, to which hot house grapes were cunningly secured.—Prov-

-A singular suit was brought before, the United States Circuit Court, in session in Nashville, Tenn. It was nothing less than the effort of Alice Marguerite King to defend her beauty against the assault of the Daily American. Miss King has figured as an actress, and the American said that she was a small woman with a pug nose, and ugly. She claimed $50,000 damages, but her suit was dismissed.

-Hanlan is said to have accumulated a comfortable fortune by his oars. He lives well, but is no spendthrift, and never drinks a drop of alcohol. He works very hard. "I have traveled thirty miles to-day," he is quoted as saying, "and all with my own wind and muscle. I went about twenty of it in my boat, and the rest on my legs. O, no; that is not exceptional. I do as much as that every day, from early in the spring until late in the fall. You see my races are rather frequent, and it is necessary that I should keep myself constantly in perfect condition. I am, therefore, in training all the time. My diet is always as carefully regulated as though I was to pull a race next day."

—The number of wealthy members of Congress increases. Col. Lyman, of Massachusetts, is one of the new members who will entertain elaborately next winter. He inherited great wealth. Washborn, of Minnesota, has rented Don Cameron's house, and will give lavish receptions. Bowen, of Colorado is a mining lord. Sabin, of Minnesota, went from Connecticut twenty years ago, and is now very rich. Dolph, of Oregon, is a thrifty corporation attorney. Colquitt is one of the best-to-do men in Georgia, and Gibson, of Louisiana, inberited wealth. There are not many poor men left in the Senate. Count out Blair, Frye, Kenna, Jones, of Florida, and Riddleberger, and the rest are accounted rich .- Chiengo Tribune.

"A LITTLE NONSENSE."

-There are 1,400,000,000 people apon the earth at present, according to the latest statistics," said Mrs. Smith, looking up from the paper. "Only think of it! and we haven't had a caller for two days!"-Buffalo Express.

-"I wish I had a pug dog," said an ap-town youth recently. "What in the world do you want one of the critters for?" asked a friend. I know where I could sell him for fifteen dollars!" was the earnest reply .- N. Y. Commercial.

"Johnnie, what part of speech is adieu?" "A verb, ma'am." "Aha! Something new, I suppose. Let me hear how you would decline it?" "Present, adien; past, a dude." "Johnnie, that will do; it will now be my dudey to send you home."—Boston Post.

-The Christian at Work has an article entitled "How to Make a Wife Insane." We have not read it, presuming the method given to be, of course, either to come into the house with mud on your boots or to forget to bring home your wife's bonnet from the milliner's on Saturday night.-Lowell Citizen.

-In answer to his remark that she had ventured away from home on a bad day, she said, "It does look like rain. but I brought my gossipper with me, and I ordered John to meet me at the station with the phantom. By the way, have you seen my silver-mountain harness that I bought last week?"-Chicago Inter Ocean.

-A few short weeks ago and the pitcher of a base-ball club wouldn't walk down the street without having a brass band and a crowd of admiring citizens chasing after him, begging for his auto-graph. And now he gets jostled on the sidewalk, people trample on his toes on the opera-house stairs, and if he complains he is called "Oscar" and told to go out on the prairie and back his feet around. So goes the vanity of this world.—Burlington Hawkeye.

-They met, kissed and parted .-They met, kissed and parted.—
They met and kissed and parted
(He didn't please her dad,
Nor she his ma, and all the world
Cried out, "How very sad!"
But thus to part 'twas better
Thau too late to wish they had,
for she'd a temper of her own,
And he'd one just as bad.
Ind so that they should marry
And kindfy fate forbade;
For think how dreadful 'twould have been
When both of them got mad!
Ah! lucky spooney maiden,
Ah! lucky spooney lad,
To meet and kiss and part before
Too late to wish you had!

—A tough old debtor in a tou

-A tough old debtor in a town ecross the Hudson entered a grocery the other morning, and stood for a long time looking at an exhibition of plug tobacco. The grocer felt certain that the old man wanted credit, and he de-termined to head him off. He therefore observed, "I have to sell that tobacco for eash down." "You do, eh?" "Yes, sir. Tobacco is cash on the nail."
"How's sugar?" "That's cash." "Tea and coffee?" "Cash—all cash. Soap, molasses, candies, kerosene, butter, potatoes, flour, rice, hams, starch-all spot cash." The old man stood and looked over the stock for five minutes. and then heaved a long sigh and replied; "Well, Mr. Waters, that don't hit me worth a cent. I want to get trusted for three dozen clothespins!"—Wall Street

Acme"Pulverizer

How rarely coes does a farmer contemplate a newly frarrowed field with satisfaction? He walks over it and sees here and there leed unconversel; here a furrow silee intouched because the surface was not quite level, and there a busch of stubble drawn into a heap having dragged the soil and seed before it for y ards. He shakes his head sadly and wishes ther; was a harrow that would do the work perfectly; leveling the rough places; breaking up the clods, and not only pulverizing the soil, out turning it over the seed seed so that this is all covered to an even depth and without waste. But the farmer who uses the "Acme" Pulverizing Harrow, Clod crusher and leveler has none of the sadness and disappointment, for his fields are leveled and mellowed and smoothed and the seed properly covered. Fall plowed ground especially needs this perfect work which is done quickly and without the need of any spring plowing. This also is a good entityator until the corn is above twelve inches in heighth. For sale by
