

THE RED CLOUD CHIEF

A. C. HOSMER, Publisher.

RED CLOUD, - - NEBRASKA.

CURRENT COMMENT.

The Bank of New York recently celebrated its one hundredth anniversary.

The shaft of General Sutter's old mill at Coloma, Cal., where gold was first discovered by Marshall, in 1848, has just been placed in a museum in San Francisco.

A GEORGIA man took an ingenious way of draining a swamp. He bored an artesian well hole through it to a depth of eighty feet, the last fifty being through rock, until a fault and continuous opening were found.

On the 12th of February 223 slaves were freed in Brazil, at a cost of $37,600, by the emancipation fund.

The Attorney-General of South Carolina has given his opinion adverse to the $500 reward offered for "the apprehension and conviction" of Boggan Cash.

MISS LILLIAN TAYLOR, daughter of Bayard Taylor, has delighted her friends by evincing an artistic talent closely akin to genius.

An opera company organized in London about a year ago to make a tour of India, Australia and Java, stranded recently in the latter place.

The late Peter P. Brigham, in 1877, gave by will $30,000 to the town of Bakersfield, in Vermont, to constitute the Brigham School Fund for educational purposes.

SOME out-of-the-way data respecting the great canals of the world are published. The Imperial canal of China is over 1,000 miles long.

The Erie canal is 350 1/2 miles long; the Ohio canal, Cleveland to Portsmouth, 332; the Miami and Erie, Cincinnati to Toledo, 291; the Wahash and Erie, Evansville to the Ohio line, 374.

WASHINGTON has never appeared to greater advantage than it has during the late spring, and the many strangers who have been there have gone away delighted with the Federal city.

SOME unknown person entered a barn at the corner of Carter avenue and Taylor street, Chicago, recently, with a lighted candle and ignited the hay.

THE Goshen Woolen Mill Company, of Elkhart, Ind., purchased seven hundred pounds of wool the other day.

THE WORLD'S DOINGS

A Summary of the Daily News.

PROCEEDINGS OF CONGRESS.

The Senate, on the 9th, insisted upon its amendments to the Labor Statistics bill and appointed a Committee of Conference.

THE House, on the 10th, insisted upon its amendments to the Labor Statistics bill and appointed a Committee of Conference.

THE Senate, on the 11th, went into secret legislative session on the item in the Consular and Diplomatic Appropriation bill.

THE House, on the 11th, went into secret legislative session on the item in the Consular and Diplomatic Appropriation bill.

THE Senate, on the 12th, took a final vote on the Consular and Diplomatic Appropriation bill.

THE House, on the 12th, took a final vote on the Consular and Diplomatic Appropriation bill.

THE Senate, on the 13th, Mr. Brown obtained unanimous consent to take up the bill to require the payment in cash to the State of Georgia of $5,555, appropriated for that State by act of Congress, passed March 3d, 1874.

THE House, on the 13th, Mr. Brown obtained unanimous consent to take up the bill to require the payment in cash to the State of Georgia of $5,555, appropriated for that State by act of Congress, passed March 3d, 1874.

HENRY G. VENDOR, the weather prophet, died in Montreal on the 8th, aged forty-four years.

THE remains of ex-Justice Noah H. Swayne, of the United States Supreme Court, arrived at Washington from New York recently on a special car, and were interred in Oak Hill Cemetery.

SAMUEL J. DIXON has written a letter definitely declining his proposed nomination as the Democratic candidate for the Presidency.

JOHN PATTERSON, one of the trustees of the Wehankens, N. Y., school, entered the school room recently and brutally assaulted the principal, Joseph G. Cleveland.

breaking the latter's jaw and otherwise maltreating him. The reason given for the assault was that Cleveland had detained the eleven-year-old son of Patterson during the dinner hour without cause.

THE National Bank of Commerce, of Minneapolis, Minn., has been authorized to begin business with a capital of $400,000.

THE Washington Star says: Late disclosures show that the failure of the banking house of Middleton & Co. was not only disgraceful, but one of the most disastrous on record.

THE business portion of the village of Schuyler was almost totally destroyed by fire the other night, causing a loss of nearly $80,000.

THE dead body of a young man, whose widowed mother lives at Bardonia, Ky., was found in Salt River, near Santa Fe, Monroe County, Mo., a day or two ago.

THREE dynamite cartridges exploded at Genoa, Italy, recently—two in front of the Church of the Conception, the other in close proximity to the Church of San Lorenzo.

THE steamer Pearl mistook the lights at White Rock, Lake Huron, the other night and ran on the rocks, where she was lying in a perilous condition.

AN explosion at Loomis' Mill, three miles north of Little Rock, Ark., destroyed most of the structure; killed Anderson Carpenter, the engineer, and Elias Lee, badly wounding two others.

THE Pope has instructed Monsignor Rinaldini at Brussels to negotiate for the restoration of diplomatic relations between the Vatican and Belgium.

AT a recent game of lacrosse at Belfast, between the American and United Kingdom teams, the score was: United Kingdom, 5 goals; American, 3 goals.

EGYPTIAN advisers say there was an Arab at Korosko who claims to be the sole survivor of the Berber garrison.

THE Pope has instructed Monsignor Rinaldini at Brussels to negotiate for the restoration of diplomatic relations between the Vatican and Belgium.

NEBRASKA STATE NEWS.

AN unknown man was killed by the cars at Gibbon recently. The body was cut in two.

It is said that by July 1st the Burlington will have completed the Concordia Branch, which runs from Odell, Neb., to Concordia, Kas., crossing the St. Joe & Western at Hanover, the Central Branch Union Pacific at Washington, and striking the Kansas Pacific at Concordia.

THE returns of the Assessor show that Norfolk made a gain of 405 in population during the past year.

POST-OFFICE changes in Nebraska during the week ended May 31, 1884: Established—Elgin, Antelope County, William M. Eggleston, postmaster.

THE Universists Conference closed its annual session at Lincoln recently. The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: Rev. M. J. DeLong, of Tecumseh, President.

LEZZIE LANG, a young woman eighteen years of age, who for some time had been an inmate of the Home for the Friendless at Lincoln, was recently adjudged insane and sent to the asylum.

THE State Board of Equalization has completed the assessment of the railroads of the State for 1884.

AN action was begun in the District Court at Omaha the other day by the Union Pacific Railroad, against the Wahash, St. Louis & Pacific to recover $28,728.

MR. and MRS. R. D. PRIBONNET recently celebrated their golden wedding at Omaha. They were married in Tioga County, N. Y., in 1834, and are aged respectively seventy-four and seventy-two years.

RAILWAY conductors from the various roads centering in Omaha met in council in that city recently for the purpose of forming a division or lodge.

A CIRCULAR issued from the Union Pacific Company's office at Omaha announces that Mr. T. S. McMurray, having tendered his resignation as Tax Agent, M. T. B. Evans is appointed his successor.

FIFTH is improving rapidly. POST-OFFICE changes in Nebraska during the week ended June 7, 1884: Established—Lathin, Brown County, William H. Lathin, postmaster.

A FATAL COLLISION.

A Train Containing an Excursion Party Comes in Collision With a Freight With Fatal Results.

PHILADELPHIA, June 14.—By a collision with an excursion train on the Camden road this morning, Engineers Palmer and Baxter and Conductor Smith, Baggage Master Vaughn, Mail Agent Wylie and Fireman Barber were killed.

PHILADELPHIA, June 15.—Conductor Glenn, who was injured in a collision on the Camden & Atlantic Railroad, was sent to his home at Atlantic City immediately after the collision.

A Chicago Man Jumps Into the Lake, Upsetting His Companion Also Into the Water.

CHICAGO, June 14.—As Policeman Mullick was passing the lake at the foot of Belmont avenue he saw two men struggling with the waves.

THE Garrison and Two Thousand of the Inhabitants Massacred.

LONDON, June 16.—Egyptian advisers say there is an Arab at Korosko who claims to be the sole survivor of the Berber garrison.

THE State Board of Equalization has completed the assessment of the railroads of the State for 1884.

AN action was begun in the District Court at Omaha the other day by the Union Pacific Railroad, against the Wahash, St. Louis & Pacific to recover $28,728.

MR. and MRS. R. D. PRIBONNET recently celebrated their golden wedding at Omaha. They were married in Tioga County, N. Y., in 1834, and are aged respectively seventy-four and seventy-two years.

RAILWAY conductors from the various roads centering in Omaha met in council in that city recently for the purpose of forming a division or lodge.

A CIRCULAR issued from the Union Pacific Company's office at Omaha announces that Mr. T. S. McMurray, having tendered his resignation as Tax Agent, M. T. B. Evans is appointed his successor.

SAC RESULTS OF A SPREE.

Fatal Death of a Southern Lady Through the Effects of Her Husband's Frivolity.

AUGUSTA, Ga., June 15.—Mrs. W. J. Fairchild, once a beautiful and accomplished lady of Savannah, has just died a miserable death in one of Atlanta's haunts of sin.

PHILADELPHIA, June 15.—Conductor Glenn, who was injured in a collision on the Camden & Atlantic Railroad, was sent to his home at Atlantic City immediately after the collision.

A Chicago Man Jumps Into the Lake, Upsetting His Companion Also Into the Water.

CHICAGO, June 14.—As Policeman Mullick was passing the lake at the foot of Belmont avenue he saw two men struggling with the waves.

THE Garrison and Two Thousand of the Inhabitants Massacred.

LONDON, June 16.—Egyptian advisers say there is an Arab at Korosko who claims to be the sole survivor of the Berber garrison.

THE State Board of Equalization has completed the assessment of the railroads of the State for 1884.

AN action was begun in the District Court at Omaha the other day by the Union Pacific Railroad, against the Wahash, St. Louis & Pacific to recover $28,728.

MR. and MRS. R. D. PRIBONNET recently celebrated their golden wedding at Omaha. They were married in Tioga County, N. Y., in 1834, and are aged respectively seventy-four and seventy-two years.

RAILWAY conductors from the various roads centering in Omaha met in council in that city recently for the purpose of forming a division or lodge.

A CIRCULAR issued from the Union Pacific Company's office at Omaha announces that Mr. T. S. McMurray, having tendered his resignation as Tax Agent, M. T. B. Evans is appointed his successor.