THE Inavale and Farmers Creek base ball clubs played a match game of ball last Saturday, on the farmers' grounds. Considerable good playing was shown on both sides. The result was nearly two to one in favor of the Inavale club.

AFTER July 1, the Red Cloud post-office will pay $1500 per year. In order to do this the office must earn $3,500 per year, which it has done for the last twelve months. Our worthy friend McNitt is happy over the anticipation of the raise during the coming quarter.

ON June 26, Gov. Garber was in Lincoln, and attended a sale of short-horn cattle. As a consequence the Governor purchased "The Duke of Fairview," a one year old bull, and as fine an animal as we remember of ever having seen. It is a beauty, and a genuine thorough-bred. Its cost was about $100.

WE hope our correspondents will not forget us. Send in the news. If you only have one item, send that in. It is better than no any. THE CHIEF returns its thanks to the correspondents for their able assistance, and hopes they will continue to favor us with the latest events in their respective neighborhoods.

THE B. & M. officials have ordered express agent and others to report at Plattsmouth and make through runs to Denver, instead from this point. The Minden cut-off will be finished this week and trains will be running over that line in a few days. This will necessitate the removal of some of our railroad men from Red Cloud.

THE farmers in Nebraska have much to be thankful for, and every reason to be happy for this year. So far the crops are coming forward with rapid strides, and if everything goes along nicely Webster county will be way ahead. Crops are looking grand. The large fields of golden grain, the green fields of corn, etc. are reasons enough to make the farmers happy.

ONLY a short time and we shall know who the democratic brethren will have placed upon their ticket for the National candidates for president and vice-president. All over the country the cry goes up in the party for Cleveland. But alas! their hopes of victory with their best man are all in vain, as the final "round up" in November will show. Blaine and Logan are the men who will get there. The people have so set their heads.

MR. ASHBY HUNY, for a number of years connected with Smith Bros' banking house, in this city, and for last eighteen months with the First National Bank of Red Cloud, has been promoted by the directors of the First National to the position of assistant cashier. This is a worthy promotion and THE CHIEF is pleased to see the young man coming to the front. Anson has been a faithful clerk, and we are glad to see him promoted.

THE fancy skating at the rink on Saturday night for a prize pair of skates, to be awarded to the most graceful lady skater of Webster county, was of a most interesting nature, and drew forth a large crowd to witness it. The contestants were: Mrs. H. Feight, Miss Belle Spanogle, Miss Minnie Smith, and Miss Wilkinson. After skating for a space of 20 minutes the judges decided that Mrs. Feight was the winner. In fact, all four of the ladies were excellent skaters and it was somewhat difficult for the judges to decide the case.

MR. VANATKEN is the happy father of a bouncing baby boy which made its advent into the family last Monday.

JIM HUBBEL will go to Chicago next week to help nominate Tilden for president. "Jeems" is an old standby of Sammy's.

OUR business men should close up their stores on the afternoon of the fourth, and give the clerks a chance to celebrate.

WHAT's the matter with a certain insurance agent and writer being fired out of a house in this city at the end of a revolver?

IN Red Cloud the grain market for the week is as follows: Oats, 20c; rye, 35c; wheat, 60c; corn in ear, 28c; corn shelled, 30c.

REV. Q. C. TODD and family were pleasantly surprised by their friends on Tuesday night. They will leave the city this week.

THE Red Cloud Creamery made 850 pounds of butter one day last week. They are constantly increasing the amount made.

A STALLION belonging to Mr. H. Smith who lives at the narrows, died here last night from congestion of the lungs, which was valued at $800.

OUR young friend Watson, of the Blue Hill Times, gave us a pleasant call the first of the week. He reports the Times in a flourishing condition.

THIS week Morhart & Fulton will put a stock of hardware at Wells. They are now shipping their goods in for that point. This will fill a long felt want at Wells.

WE understand that Mr. Kingsbury will start a notion store in Red Cloud as soon as he can erect a new building on the lot south of this office, which he purchased last week.

ORANGE have been issued by the B. & M. railway, that their employees must not frequent saloons or drink liquors on or off duty. If they do so they forfeit their positions.

Mrs. Cox, wife to the man sent to the penitentiary from Blue Hill, recently paid a visit to her husband yesterday before leaving for the home of relatives and friends in the east. - Journal.

OUR farmers should prepare for the Webster county fair. Now is a good time, while they have an opportunity to save some of the magnificent grain that is everywhere to be seen in the county.

R. E. HARRIS went to Kansas Sunday and returned in time to meet the rain storm about two miles out of town. He got wet. He emptied his boots in the Republican, and the river began to raise at once.

ON Tuesday night a huge running race took place in the city. The program was one to start and two to go but Fisk and Jackson could not get there fast enough to catch Charley Platt. The race was about ten miles.

OUR farmers are getting up a collection of cereals for the cotton exposition which takes place in New Orleans. This shows enterprise on their part, and we feel assured that Webster county can lead every other county in the state.

W. A. LAKE, of Vinmer Grove, Arkansas, was in Red Cloud this week looking up a location to farm. He thinks Nebraska is a great state. He shares the opinion of all who come here and see the fertile lands, the prosperity and thrift on every hand.

LAST of letters remaining unmentioned in the post-office at Red Cloud, Webster county, Neb., for the week ending June 30, 1884: Wm. Boyce, Mrs. Delphia Cox, Miss Satic Cooper, Mrs. Mary M. Edgar, Adam Freeze, Isaac Friddle, Edward Furst, A. W. Huntley, W. H. Krohm, J. E. Lafontaine, C. N. Sprecklen, J. C. Sprecklen, L. N. Wells, M. D. Charles M. Whitney. These letters will be sent to the dead letter office July 28, 1884, if not delivered before. In calling for above please say "advertised" giving date of list. M. B. MCNITT, P. M.

Go to Mrs. McBride's for laces, ribbons, and fans.

THE Hon. James Laird will probably be his own successor for the next congress. He seems to be the choice of the people in the west end of the district, and we understand will receive a hearty support in the east end of the district.

L. H. FORT, of Brownville, Neb., has been selected by County Clerk Dayla as his deputy. Mr. Fort comes to our town highly recommended, and we feel confident that he will make a good deputy. He will soon move his family to this city.

GOV. GARBER has one of the most pleasant and commodious residences in Western Nebraska. He has a five acre grove of cottonwood trees on two sides, and the place is luxuriant with blue grass, and red and white clover. It is a handsome place.

THE habeas corpus case in the matter of the custody of Stella Jones, was before his Honor Judge Yeiser for adjudication on Saturday and Monday. It was decided that the girl should be turned over to the custody of Mr. Atkinson. The charge was ill-treatment we believe.

THE Red Cloud Creamery made 1000 pounds of butter on Wednesday, and paid out $120 for cream. They shipped 4200 pounds on Monday, to Omaha. During twelve months from 1881 to 1885, the creamery will make about forty tons of butter. What creamery can make a better showing?

GO to Mrs. McBride's for hoop skirts.

ON Monday night the wind and hail storm which passed over the vicinity of Oxford, blew some box cars off of the side track on to the main line, and was propelling them along, when the construction train bound for Oxford run into them, causing a wreck which killed one man and injured two or three others.

ON Sunday evening last a flat car that had been left on the siding at Oxford, without having the brakes properly set, was blown out on the main track by the wind storm and collided with the construction train, Ed Dolan conductor. One man was killed outright and three others injured they were laborers on the construction train. We were unable to learn their names.

MR. FORESTER has severed his connection with the Wells, Fargo express company, and will go into business in this city, he having bargained for the furniture store of R. E. Haresnue. THE CHIEF welcomes Mr. Forrester into the business circles of the city, and wishes him prosperity in his new undertaking. Mr. F. has made an able officer for the express company, and the place made vacant by his resignation will be hard to fill.

NEWS comes from Hamilton county that Mr. Rosencrans, of this city, was arrested in that county, at the instance of his wife, who lives in this city for living with another woman unlawfully. Rosencrans is now in jail in that county, waiting the convening of the district court in October. It seems that Rosencrans became enamored of the woman, and left the family to go with her. When arrested he and his paramour were enclosed in a tent near Phillips, we believe, and were about ready to move out of the state. The woman is said to be well-known in this city also, and recently received some money from the B. & M. railway as damages on account of an accident which killed her husband, as is alleged.

Wigner's Drawing.

FOR a number of weeks past Mr. C. Wiener the clothing man in the Red Cloud National Bank block, has been advertising a drawing of prizes to parties purchasing in goods $20, $10, and $5. On last Tuesday night the drawing took place at the rink, and the following parties were the lucky winners of prizes: W. H. Fuller held ticket No. 602, which drew the $20 prize; E. B. Smith, of this city, held No. 337, which drew $10; P. J. Post, held No. 227, which drew him a prize of $5. Quite a large crowd was present and the drawing satisfactory to all. The winners were lucky and will get fine prizes in clothing.

A NEW FIRM. - On Saturday last Mr. J. S. Gilham, a prominent member of the Webster county bar, and a well known citizen of Red Cloud for many years, and Mr. J. N. Rickards, formerly of the Gage county bar, and now of this city, a prosperous and talented young lawyer, formed a co-partnership under the name of Gilham & Rickards, for the practice of law. The new firm will follow their profession exclusively, and will endeavor to gain a share of the public patronage. Mr. Gilham is well known as an able lawyer to all of our citizens, and needs no recommendation from us. Mr. Rickards has been prominently before the people of Webster county for the last year, as manager of Smith Bros' loan agency, and during that time has succeeded in making hosts of warm friends in this city and county. THE CHIEF extends cordial greeting to the new firm, and wishes them prosperity and success.
