Clough's Patent WROUGHT IRON PUMPS

Are conceded by all to stand without a rival for Cleanliness, Simplicity, Durability and Perfect Working.

Lay aside the old wooden pump that belongs to the age of wooden plows, wooden forks and wooden shoes, and get nice, light and handy iron pump; that will compare with the plows and other implements of our time. Clough's Patent Wrought Iron Pump, is not only perfect in its working, but needs no repairs, and will last as long as a crow bar. Look at sample set on Webster street, in Public well. For sale by

Oh, what a year, my heart was so full of... The future is bright I know that but, then...

Act of Hired Man. A hired man, in driving a neighbor's cow out of his employer's corn-field, killed it with a stone. The court held the employer liable for the value of the cow.

The Soap Cap. A very successful swindle, operated by street peddlers, is what is technically known as the "soap cap."

A Wall Street leader says in the New York Telegram: "Ten years ago I knew a man who had eleven million and seven children. One day I asked him why he did not marry. His answer was 'I have eleven million. I will not marry, because I have a million more. My wife is to give such a million and keep five for myself.' That man died in a ten-minute lapse, and his eleven million were worth only $1 a day."
