P. B. RICHMOND,
E. B. WARNER.

Political Notes.
THE senatorial convention takes place tomorrow at two p. m., the outcome of which is hard to foreshadow. THE CHIEF believes that the result will be satisfactory to the people. So far, we have a good ticket in the field, from president down to commissioner, and by the first of next week we will have a complement of officers, National, State, and county, nominated on the republican ticket, and then the campaign will begin to move right along, and James G. Blaine and John A. Logan will begin their complete walk-around to the White House. The hands are in, and the work is on, and we are sure of the downfall of the democratic party in November. There never has been such enthusiasm for years in the good old republican party, and "scores of honest democrats" are turning over to republicanism and right. "While the lamp holds out to burn," etc. there is a chance for our country. Friends, do not renounce the errors of your race, but for forsaking the democratic party for a safer one—the republican party. We feel revived, and if we are not much mistaken the entire republican element in the whole country is in the same condition, and ready for the fray that is to lead them to victory in November.

ELM CREEK.
Fine corn weather. We expect large crops of corn and good prices.
T. J. WARD, of Cowles, was around buying hogs. He paid fair prices for all he got, and all seemed to be pretty well pleased with the way their hogs weighed.
MR. BRICE FRANCE is building a fine residence on his farm in Elm Creek.
HARVEY CHAMBERS has bought the farm that belonged to Mrs. Mary of Blue Hill. Harvey has the cage, and now can't some bird fly into it for shelter.
MR. ARNOLD is improving his new house by adding a porch.
PEAK and Latta, of Cowles, bought and shipped a fine lot of potatoes and expect to continue to buy.
C. HAZEN has noted his sheep ranch to Mr. Hill, who has taken charge of the sheep. He expects to see after the sheep and farm on a large scale.
NOTWITHSTANDING the large amount of good farmers we have, we see some of the corn fields bounded on the north, east, south, and west by beautiful sandflowers.
THREE cheers for Blaine and Logan!
ESAU'S DREAMS.
GARFIELD.
 I sent from your last week's paper that "Susan Jane" speaks from Hicks. Josiah Bradley thinks he ought to speak and run for some office, but Miranda and the twins think I ought not, because my linen pants are torn and she has not time to patch them. I might divide the republican party, and then you would be the poorer. The people may join the anti-monopolists, democrats or St. Johns, and this will never do at this time. The fellows down on Hicks and on fellows way up on Hicks Creek have united, and those fellows half way down are beat. You know we caused our delegation to let the St. John liquor question alone. We will fix that when we beat the democrats and elect Mark for assessor.
OUR farmers have good crops and it would not do to tamper with politics to muck this year.
IF Capt. Houchin thinks that the anti-monopoly will carry everything before them, he is off his base.
WE gave Jim twelve votes when he ran in opposition to Moore and give him twelve more if he did speak and vote for Fitz-John Porter. The anti-monopolists have divided. Some are for St. John, few for Cleveland, and quite a number for Butler. If things work up to our plan we will elect Jim for congress and Mark for assessor.
JOSHUA knows that the democrats use money and whisky, and we republicans must do the same to hold the power, so I will not run this fall.
JOSHUA BADER.

ELM CREEK.
Very pleasant weather.
OUR neighborhood is fastening upon melons.
MISS CLARK is visiting friends here.
THE young men and boys with their guns and dogs are making so many raids upon the enemies of our poultry that it does not seem proper for me to name each battle.
WE wish to correct a mistake made in our last article. We should have said Prof. V. M. Noble, president of Gould College at Harlan, Kansas, instead of Prof. M. V. Noble, teacher of the college at Harlan.
DR. SUTTON'S health is still failing.
WE are glad that we kept silent on the milk and water question until we knew the truth concerning the man in our neighborhood. And why, vain mortal did you think that you could tear from the Savior's fold one of his lambs. Think you not that the Christian's prey trials only bring him to the one who died to save, and think you still that God comes not down to fight the battle for his own beloved? Brother Cayton is not guilty of the low level and laid to his charge. For shame you who falsely accuse.
ANDREW J. FINNEMORE has rented the farm of C. P. Rinker for the coming year.

SURVEYORS are surveying on Jacob Gall's farm.
DEGOLF has purchased the farm owned by Vanpatten, who will go to the eastern part of the state the first of October.
JOSEPH Haney has just arrived from Weeping Water. He will stay with us about a month, when he expects to return to that place, but will come back in the spring and make his home among us.
HEUR Crawford's little boy is very sick with sore throat. Dr. Spicklemier of Blue Hill is attending him.
MONT Arnold, his father-in-law, and several friends from Michigan, started for Frontier county last Monday.
MR. URAY is building a sodhouse on his farm. He has a good farm, well under cultivation, with 100 acres of corn, which is the most beautiful piece of corn we have ever seen. He also has 50 acres of oats which he will thresh soon.
JACOB Gall is building a fine house and barn on his new farm, which he will move into soon. Jake is a good farmer and we wish him prosperity in all his undertakings.
SAMUEL Chambers has the cellar dug for his new residence, which we understand will be built soon.
PLUMS are ripe, and every ten year old boy seems to be shouting for Blaine and Logan.
A large number of hogs were taken to Cowles from this part of the county last week.
THERE will be a Sunday-school picnic on the 6th of September. There will be swings, croquet, and a basket dinner. A grand time is expected and all are invited.
IF this appears in the next issue you will again hear from ROVELL.

These affairs are highly appreciated by the old vets, who think the Relief Corps indispensable to the happiness of the members of the Post.
AT a meeting of the anti-monopoly central committee, the following named persons were appointed as an executive committee, and authorized to present the names of persons for the various offices to the mass county convention: F. That Convention.
ON Saturday last, the 41st representative convention met at the court house in this city and organized by electing J. H. Shugart as chairman and F. R. Gump as secretary. The credentials were referred to a committee, which reported favorably, and the convention proceeded to business. F. R. Gump, in a few well chosen words put in nomination J. L. Kaley, which was seconded, and on motion was elected by acclamation. Mr. Kaley being called for stepped forward, and thanked the delegates for the honor conferred upon him, after which Mr. Skinner, of Nucleolls, and E. C. Hawly made brief speeches. After which the convention selected the following central committee, to be composed of three members:
G. W. Knight, Inavale.
C. A. VanCamp, Franklin.
F. R. Gump, Red Cloud.
On motion the convention adjourned.

TUESDAY, August 5, was a day long to be remembered in Wall street. Runners were flying around about Jay Gould. He was the man that day; if he had failed then, thousands of others all over the country would fail. During the most intense excitement that day a reporter called on Mr. Gould, and found him quietly reading the New York Weekly. Gould reads a good thing when he sees it.
