CURRENT COMMENT.

A NEW WILMINGTON, Pa., magistrate and jury decided that a wire fence is not a legal fence.

A STROKE of lightning split open a hollow tree, at Shasta, Cal., revealing a skeleton and clearing up a murder mystery.

THERE has been less amateur coaching in England this year than formerly. Only two coaches are now running out of London.

THE army and navy of England furnish their full pro rata of that country's convicts, and a due proportion were officers, too.

THE will of a sensitive musician in Wisconsin contained an injunction that the village brass band should not play at the funeral.

AN English bicycle rider has traveled from Land's End to John o' Groats, eight hundred miles, with considerable baggage, in eight days and a half.

AN attendant in the Treasury Department who can count 4,000 new notes an hour for seven hours a day is considered unusually dexterous.

THE banking firm of Rothschild in London employs women exclusively as coupon counters, and experience shows that they are far more reliable and intelligent than male employees.

THE newspapers of British India commonly speak of Englishmen as fiends, demons, robbers, and scoundrels, and are endeavoring, apparently, to incite the natives to rebellion.

BOSTON has been greatly disturbed over the land in front of Trinity Church, called Trinity Triangle. It was rumored that it was built up, but now the owner offers to sell it to the city for $18,000.

THE burrshuts, a carnivorous fly heretofore confined to South America, has made its appearance in Florida. Its bite, though not poisonous, is painful, and the loss of blood is comparatively great.

ON the occasion of the festivities of Courbaïram in Turkey, the Sultan ordered that a number of sheep killed in sacrifice at Yildiz should be sent to the different seminaries of Stamboul for the use of the poor students living on the premises.

TWO Highland tourists lost their lives not long ago in Fingal's Cave. While they were standing on a ledge overlooking the water a wave of unusual volume swept over the slight rim railing running around it, and carried them into the sea.

AS a preventive of petroleum fires it is now proposed to place a bottle of ammonia in each barrel of the oil. On ignition, by accident or otherwise, the bottle would break, and the effect of the ammoniacal vapors would be to extinguish the flames.

ONE of the first couples which took advantage of the new French divorce law bore the name of Granville. The woman, who married at sixteen, obtained a separation fifteen days after the wedding, and had been awaiting her divorce fifty years.

THE chief object of interest in Alameda County, California, is the huge line cellar being built by John Gallegos, near San Jose Mission. Nearly one hundred bricklayers are at work upon the foundation and walls, and the accommodations of the town are taxed to their utmost. The cellar will cost $50,000.

THE old question of a speedier means of official killing than the blade or the noose is again being discussed in England. The Lancet not only thinks that decapitation does not cause instant death, and that hanging is torturing slow, but that neither prussic acid nor electricity would be quick enough in fatal effect.

THOMAS SCOTT narrowly escaped being killed in Midland, O., a few days since by a black stallion known as the "man eater." The horse threw Scott down and was gnawing him when Charles Oscar's bulldog Syke came to the rescue, and getting hold of the horse's nostrils, compelled him to release his hold.

BISHOP COXE, of Western New York, says that during his twenty years of observation in that field there have been some improvements in religion and morality, but the increase of impiety and infidelity is, on the whole, appalling. "The most blasphemous publications are circulated, frightful atheism is uttered, and gross licentiousness abounds."

A DUTCHMAN lately bought a kitchen stove in Paris at an enormous price. When the stove had to be fixed, after a long journey to Rotterdam, the manufacturer who was entrusted with that task declared the stove to be one that had been made in his own factory. The Dutchman, nothing daunted, pointed to the French trade mark, but was undeceived when, after removing the little iron mask, the metal trade mark of the Dutch manufacturer appeared.
