

THE RED CLOUD CHIEF

A. C. HOMER, - - Proprietor

FRIDAY, DEC. 5 1884

HIGHLAND TWP. KANSAS.

Nice weather once more.
Fall wheat looking splendid.
We are sorry to say that Mr. Vincent Williams has been suffering considerably of late, caused by a gathering in his head.
Husking corn is the order of the day. Last week we had a general turn out in this neighborhood, burning fire guards.
School commenced in this district last Monday, Miss Wood teacher.
JAY HAWKER.

Never Design and Sedition Die.
Editor Chief: In your issue of last week you intimate that under existing laws I have the democratic party down for three years. I wish to say in reply it is not my desire to impose myself on any party or people. I have repeatedly stated my position on what should constitute the "tenure" of my official position, and that is that when the patrons of this office are not satisfied with my services I do not wish to nor will I serve longer. As to what the "civil service" policy of the Democratic administration will be I cannot, and I presume the oldest inhabitant is unable to tell. It has been said that government employees never resign and seldom die in compliance with that saying I shall not resign as long as my democratic friends desire me to serve them in the capacity of postmaster.
M. B. McNIFF.

SOUTH SIDE ITEMS.
Corn husking all the go.
Thermometer down to zero.
Literary and debating society organized at Turner Creek. School closed there last week. Miss Bessie Walker taught three months and was well liked. Carl Stephens is on the sick list. He had a big pile of corn husked.
School commenced at Pleasant Dale on Monday, Lora McBride, teacher.
H. Simons traded his Kansas farm for three or four hundred fine Merino ewes last week.
As the passed D. S. Helver's sheep-rand a few days ago we noticed some fine ewes which were getting in good shape for the shorners. D. S. has some very fine Japanese which averaged 35 bushel to the acre.
Henry Steffen lost three head of fat-curing steers.
Geo Slatts has shedded his thrasher in Stevens' cornfield.
Will Kushn shakes his head and says no man supervisor or pathmaster for him.
G. U. ESSAOMIN.

JUDSON
Corn gathering is nearly done and the farmers are well pleased with their crops which is turning out about 15 bushels to the acre and wheat from 25 and 35 yet farmers are dissatisfied with the low price they get for their grain.
There was a party at Mr. Mountford on Wednesday night, there were about thirty young folks there, Mr. Williams played the violin, Miss A. Helver played the organ.
Mr. Mahlers house was burnt down last week with all the furniture. Cause unknown.
Dance at E. Walners Friday night. Had a good time.
Mr. T. Johnson's team run away on Friday and threw Mr. Johnson on the ground and hurt him severely.
There will be a meeting at the school house in District No 90 known as Johnson's school house on Tuesday night, Dec. 19, to arrange for the Christmas tree.
T. H. Kear is on the sick list again. Sid.

SCOTT
C. P. Rinker, who is agent for Mason and Hamlin's organs is doing a successful business.
W. D. McKinney and family have moved to Kansas.
Corn husking has begun. The crop is great.
The members of the M E church are making arrangements to build a church near Scott.
I will now comply with the wish of Mrs. Sarah V. Corner and write about the party at Deacon Harris Noble's. Three young ladies of the Noble tribe made an entertainment for their cousins and friends. We had molasses candy, pop corn, apples and lunch.
Mrs. Hollman, who lately moved to Reamsville, Kansas was our surprise guest.
Dear Mrs. Corner, I thank you for your interest concerning my health. I kept my mittens on my hand all the time while going home, hence took no cold. I intend to keep my mittens till spring. Now would you have me give any friend other than a mittened hand on such a cold night as Oct. 17th.
BECA.

COWLES.
Mr. Wright and family, of Cleveland Ohio, relatives of M. P. Hurd, arrived here last week with the view of locating in this vicinity.
L. C. Bennett, of Iowa, has arrived with a car load of horses, implements, and household goods, and has taken possession of his farm a mile and a half south-east of town.
Chas. E. Wright and family, formerly of this place, now of Hitchcock county have returned to spend a few weeks with relatives here.
Mr. Peyton has opened a shoe store in our town, and is prepared to do all kinds of work in his line.
Among the improvements talked of is a skating rink, a store house, bank building, and several dwellings.
The lumber trade continues lively.
Mr. French has his buildings almost ready for occupation.
Ed. Gillford has just received sixty barrels of apples.
G. A. Latta shipped a car load of onions on Tuesday last.
Mrs. A. A. Peak and Mrs. J. T. Latta, are this week visiting relatives in Franklin county.
Mrs. C. E. White is visiting her parents here this week.
Our new drug store, grocery store, dry goods, and hardware stores all seem to be doing well.
LITTLE HATCHET.

GUIDE ROCK
Dr. Moranville seems to be growing worse of his illness and grave fears are entertained that he may not recover.
Dr. Brown has gone to Michigan to attend his youngest brother, whose life is slowly fading away under the destroying, yet subtle effects of consumption.
Messrs. Alexander and Cathkane, of Superior were in town the other day looking after their live stock interests. They report times rather dull, prices low, and like the rest of us do not think the change in the administration will produce any marked change for the financial situation.
The other night the young bloods got out on a rampage, and for some lining better as a means of amusement, carried away a platform from the front of one of the business houses, hung a large doll over the door, threw a bushel of rotten apples at the proprietor and raised Cain generally. This morning the whole crew were as mild as the best Sunday school boy of the period.
Your correspondent would be only too happy to be able to report something real entertaining to your host of intelligent readers, but how can he do so just at this quiet season, with every thing and everybody so serene? Why, the fact is he can't chase up the account of a fight, foot race, elopement or common country wedding. But do not be discouraged dear brave old Chief, for the hours is gathering and ere you are aware of the fact there will be some of the (as Jesh Billings would say) startleing matter to chronicle from this desy town.
ROCKET.

WM. LETSON has The pride of Blue Hill.
The pride of Blue Hill flour is taking the best wherever introduced.

Ask your grocer for The pride of Blue Hill flour. If he don't keep it you can get it of Wm. Letson, S. V. Ludlow or W. R. Pursell. 11-11
