

CASTORIA

Infants and Children

What gives our children such health? What makes them so happy and contented? When babies fret and cry for nothing? What causes their coughs, colds, croup, whooping cough, and all the ailments of childhood? What quickly cures Constipation, Eruptions, Colic, Indigestion, Eczema, Scabies, and all the skin diseases of infancy? Followed them to Mother's Knee, Castoria is the answer. Castoria is the only medicine that is so gentle and so effective.

"Castoria is so well adapted to children that I recommend it as a household remedy to all mothers."—H. A. HARRIS, M.D., 215 St. James St., Brooklyn, N. Y.

—The epistle communication between London and New York will be a great convenience. When a Fifth Avenue man finds it to be getting late, the habit of using his pocket watch, he goes to the telephone, and a dial and gets into the city. —Philadelphia Call

—Mr. Glavin lays down the rule that we must give twenty two blows to every mouthful of meat. How would this rule work at an American railway station? A man coming out of a dining car at a station, and a young man, he doesn't get anything to eat there, any more than he does.

—"Linger—What will you do to drive me home?" "I will do as you say." "Who are you?" "Linger—Who am I? What do I care? I am that in case." "Linger—Well, if you are an ordinary man, I will do as you say, but if you are an American, I will do as you say." "Linger—Well, if you are an ordinary man, I will do as you say, but if you are an American, I will do as you say." —Chicago Herald

—A correspondent of a family magazine wants to know how to boil cabbage without the disagreeable odor of cooking filling nearly every room in the house. The plan is very simple and effective. Place a piece of 12 rubber sheet on the stove when the cabbage is boiling, the steam of the rubber kills the odor of the cabbage, and you will probably want to kill the person who suggested the plan, after you have tried it. —Northwestern Herald

—When fair summer's done and gone, Young lady in dry goods store, she has just returned from the country, "I would like to look at some dress goods." Clerk, who has just returned from the country also and who sees young lady under quite different circumstances. "Ah, yes. Pleased to meet you again, Miss Sam." Young lady—"Oh! Clerk." "Ah! Recently returned from Sara." Young lady—"Sir!" Clerk—"Ah—er—I have the pleasure of meeting you." Young lady—"Oh! Clerk." "Ah! dress goods. Yes, madam, step this way, please." —N. Y. Sun
