

THE RED CLOUD CHIEF

A. C. WORMER, Proprietor
FRIDAY, MAY 1, 1885.

OWLES.

Farmers are planting corn. Gentle Annie and the school girls are gathering prairie flowers. Our carpenters and painters are having plenty of work. Mrs. C. W. Fuller and her daughter Grace, are visiting with relatives and friends in Iowa. Dr. Schenck was on the sick list last week, but we are glad to know that he is as well as ever again. G. T. Clark has been sick a few days, but we hope to see him around again soon.

WHEATLAND.

While unloading ties one day last week, T. A. Waggoner did not remove his hand quite soon enough, and as a consequence Dr. Schenck had to dress two mangled fingers for him.

CATHERTON.

Health good. Farmers look for a large crop of wheat and corn. Catherton can now boast of a notary public, in person G. P. Cather. He is well qualified to fill the office. Jacob Cure is devoting his time to raising an ash grove.

WAGGONER.

By Burt sold the largest steer in this part of the county. Age, three years, weight 1700. Look at Nell Bartlett's new buggy. Eddie Britten received a painful wound in his arm accidentally from a knife. Wm. Britten and Mr. McDonald are drawing their hogs to Red Cloud to market.

THE JAMES.

The James have engaged a minister from Hastings, of the Lutheran Church. He preaches every first and fourth Sabbath at Cather school house. The directors of the Plainview cemetery have purchased the fencing for the grounds. We now have an enclosure for the dead. I want a wife, WILD JAKE.

GUIDE ROCK.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Garber have returned from Hot Springs, Ark. A good many strangers are visiting their different friends in this place. J. M. Marsh has retired from the firm of Marsh Bros. E. M. Phillips has gone to north-west Kansas to live. A. M. Talbot will commence making brick this week.

THE NURSERYMAN.

The nurseryman from Red Cloud was here one day last week. Mr. Kelsey, who lives south of town, had three cows killed by lightning last Monday night. Editor Newmeyer's little girl has been quite sick, also a baby boy has arrived at the same place. Jim Hubble's smiling face was seen on our streets Monday morning. TRIXIE.

INAVAL.

The April breezes are gently sighing around our heads, and the April mud around our feet. The cheerful song of the locust will soon be heard, and also the mournful chirp of the lark. All combined with the buzz of THE CHIEF correspondent tends to make life miserable. Quite an exodus from here on last Monday. S. J. Melton and family, N. D. Brooks and family, and H. S. Bailey and family started for Hayes county, Neb. there to make their future home. They take with them a drove of 150 cattle and a large bunch of fine horses and colts.

MR. FERRY.

Mr. Ferry, a cheese maker from Pennsylvania, has arrived and will take charge of the cheese making in the factory this summer. A brother of A. J. Worthington arrived from California last Saturday. He will visit here a short time. Another dance last week, at which everybody was in attendance. One gentleman of mature years was seen hopping around like a youth, and was heard to say afterwards "first dance I've been to in eighteen years." The proceeds of the dance went to the poor orphan.

G. W. KNIGHT.

G. W. Knight is fencing a fine pasture. N. E. Harvey has returned from his trip to the west. Whether he liked it we have not learned. Anthony Schaeffer, the gardener, is way ahead with his garden fruit. He has onions as large as hen eggs, and other stuff in proportion. His watermelons will soon be ripe (it is fondly hoped).

L. GRAY.

L. Gray has moved into the new building owned by Mr. Vance. He will soon commence the erection of a large and commodious house. Frank Holcomb, brother of Harmon and an old resident of this vicinity, has arrived with his family and a car load of goods, among which are two very fine horses. Frank will try farming this summer.

THE REV. McMEekin.

The Rev. McMeekin, of Red Cloud, was up visiting parishioners last Saturday. P. B. McGuire and lady, of Guide Rock, were visiting friends in this place last Sunday. Mrs. Anthony Armon is quite sick. Dr. Hall, of Red Cloud, is attending her with good success.

A BIRTHDAY PARTY.

A birthday party a short time since was the finest event of Aristocracy Hill. Several leading characters from abroad were present, among whom were two young ladies from Red Cloud and some parties from Riverton. All the gentlemen were future senators, representatives and presidents. Legislators, postmasters and other minor government officers were not there. GAD.

THE OLD FAIR GROUNDS AT AUCTION.

The Webster County Agricultural Society have determined to sell the old fair grounds lying east of the city, embracing some 40 acres, at public auction on May 23. This will certainly be a bonanza for some man to get a good piece of land on easy terms. Don't get the date, May 23. 3844

FOR THE MEN AND BOYS.

I have the Walker boots and shoes and will give you warranty on every pair you buy. Try them. A. S. MARSH.

STILLWATER.

As you have an "occasional" correspondent from here I thought you would not object to me filling up the space left by him. The past week we had an abundance of rain. Our soil here is such that if we have sufficient rainfall we are sure of a good crop if only planted in proper shape.

The Presbyterians are making an effort to build a church here, and so far have been successful in getting subscriptions. Mr. Hugh McIntyre has been circulating a subscription paper on which he had between four and five hundred dollars several days ago. Hope he may be successful in getting all that is needed. Rev. Fulton is pastor of the R. P. Church, and is an excellent preacher, and preaches every other Sabbath.

In last week's paper "Occasional" asks what is to be thought of a justice of the peace who will allow profanity in a public meeting. It has been generally understood that it is the duty of the moderator to keep order in school meetings. If there was profanity it must have been in a very mild tone of voice. Did "Occasional" do his duty by keeping silence, and not calling the attention of the moderator to it at the time. Probably in his next article he will tell us what the profanity was. CITIZEN.

All Hail! The farming public will be gratified to know that the Continental Insurance Company of New York, has embarked in the Insurance of growing crops against loss or damage from hail. The Continental does the largest farm insurance business in America.

Its popularity is the result of years of honorable treatment of its patrons. Its past record is the best evidence of its future course. With nearly Five Million dollars of gross assets the indemnity offered is unquestionable. The loss to farmers in the west last year by hail was enormous, the danger this year from the same cause is imminent. A word to the wise is sufficient. Delays are dangerous. Insure at once against Hail in this old and reliable Company. For particulars call at THE CHIEF office. C. E. WOOD, Agent.
