[Copyright Secured. All Rights Reserved.]

Or, JUST A CAMPIN'.

ET C. C. POST. PUBLISHED BY PERMISSION OF J. E. DOWNEY & CO., PUBLISHERS, CHICAGO.

CHAPTER XXII - CONTINUES.

With his arms about her, telling her over and over again how dear she was to him, and how it was because he thought she could not love him as he wished that he had gone away, the two neight have stood there until the sun ready for a copaney. had hidden itself from sight behind the mountains and the night had come up from the valley below, but that the room lorse, in his efforts to nibble at hard upon the bridle which Erastus held aron his arm as to bring them

Then they started slowly homeward of ramy en ons sons had looked many times in the dir - tion from which they came, and in yet awards. when she knew Lucy and started in search of the me hoping to see her coming I wally, a little worried at her logs a sence, she suggested to ber bus-Is not that he go up the mountain a litthe way and call, and he, quick to trice the marm, was on the point of so it no when he saw the lovers anpronounced the roan horse following the level had his bridle rein behind. For a lattle space John Parsons stood

In doubt, then raised his hand to his 1 certain chilt an instant he stood so, and then breezing his ica ai down upon his thigh with a slap, he eyela med:

"I knowed it! I knowed Tay could Rus, and he am' Lucy her mode up.

CHAPTER XXIII. THE CHITAGE AT THE SLOT OH.

A very manpy little group it was that sat under the new porch of the shauty and I lone after the stars came out that was ten o'clock before they once to work. thought of the time, and still they talked on for mother hour before retirlog the family to their beds and Eras- ents. tus to a bank on the toor.

The young man remained three days wite them, and during that time they talked over all matters relating to famile a tare must, or sent and future.

Mrs. and Mr. Parsons of course gladiy gave their consent to the ensuccement of the young people, but it was necessary to postpone the wedding until Elastus could get his place irrigated and in shape to produce a living. It seemed very part to part again so soon, but sine he could not take Lucy with him, every day spent away from his own ranch delayed their marracce that much the longer.

and then there would be the pleasure of writing and receiving letters, which, of course, they would do every week at the farthest.

The project of selling the mountain ranch and a Leon z to the Slough to live was talked of, and Mr. and Mrs. Larsons acreed that when Frastus got his place is regated and was ready to marra. If he was satisfied with the country and the prospect, they would sell their own home and buy again as near him as possible, and if not they would both sell and go elsewhere and lan together. And thus all were comforted by the thought that Lucy's marriage, when it should be as would, instead of separating her from her parents, reunite fore, them all with Fradus, and it is probable that for these o'ree days the inmates of the shanty toon the mountain side were as happy as it often falls Lo the lot of people to be.

Certainiv John P. rsons was happy Lucy and Erastus wandered about the place, and through the gulch and up the mountain side together.

Together they went for the cows, as Lucy had done alone the night Erastus Erastus helped Mr. Parsons sprout the grape-vines, and Lucy helped Erastos; and if occasionally, as they worked together at a vine, their hands met and their fingers intertwined it was no more than the tender tendrils of the vine they were trimming did.

If, as they walked hand in hand over the mountain, or sat to rest in some quiet nook, his lips sought hers and drank deep of love's nectar, they only followed the example of the birds that near them billed and cooed, and talked of where their next year's nest should

And have not you, dear reader, done the same? Then have you not known the sweetest and the best thing that life has to give? I will not describe the parting, when at last the day and the hour came, and the roan horse stood ready to be

It was noon when Erastus started on his return; it was night on the fourth day when he led the roan into his stall at the Slough and ate supper with Mr. and Mrs. Johnson, to whom he frankly told the purpose and result of his visit. and from whom he received hearly congratulations. The next morning he went back to work on the ditch, and if his companions were ready with their jokes, he was in far too good a humor with the world and all things in it to be odended at what he knew was kindly meant.

For months he worked early and late at the ditch, and when it had been completed, and the water, in its slow seeping through the soil, had rendered his team and work a month for the Erastus' coming. a little party, com- FOR OUR YOUNG READERS. rancher was had pastured his colt- dur- posed of neighbors and their families ing two dry seasons: and thus, instead gathered to witness the marriage of the of spending what little he had obtain young couple who laid plighted their enough more to enable him to get the faith two years before, standing in the material to begin building with. When this was done he procured the without them. assistance of a neighbor who had a few carpenters' tools and some knowledge have graced a fashionable church in a of the trade, and together they framed great city. Not one among them all, and sided up the cottage.

Then he worked at night to finish it. in a righty furnished parlor of a brown-Often when thus engaged, after a stone front in New York or Chicago. hard day's work in the field, would be ! They were common country peopletake from his pocket one of Lucy's husbands and wives who gained their present with him in reality.

lenger, and wider, and higher. the grass by the road-ide, 'erked so over the front door-not long or broad, soft, white hands. back to a knowledge of their surround- a dwelling without any projection robe of pure white was of finer material, cupingard, and posed his nose time and always his

glong the by-road that woun i around front in a few years, when his ranch | ful dark hair, stood up with Erastus the rock-, and over the stones, and in should be fully irrigated and in cul iva- and gave the responses that made them and out of gollys washed by centuries from and so reproduce the cottage in husband and wife as they were prothe footh lis in accordance with the pounded by the grav-hared minister So lo ly in fact did they go on that plans he had had the night he slept whose services had been secured for the in two of Mother Sprague's fine linen a third attack of seckness; and felt sudthe cows, law as they were, had got under the stars on his hastily made occasion. home and been milked, and Mrs. Par. visit the time he won Lucy's consent to | The kisses and congratulations over, paughty, naughty little mouse, and he But this time, when he said he felt betbe his wife; but for this he must wait and the tears which would come a spite quite gioried in the mischief he did. | ter and wanted to get up, his mother > and courage, and ronning over with all sat down to a meal at which there him as his bride, he took a long look about the cottage, and going out, care- and the most beautiful bread.

ing of pride and satisfaction.

That which three years before had ever as if to gather more of the faling been a bit of desert was now a farm. with an orchard and vineyard and ferthe helds: none of them very large, it is and tears in the eyes of all, and fervent upon him, away would scamper the lit- "Yes you do," said Mrs. May. "Take true, but everything there was the work of his own bands, the result of his own energy and economy, and it was some- in the wagon, over which a canvas with a look in his snarp leady intle | Ben coled, and tried to beg off; take a hint! That's him, Marty, that's thing of which he might well be proud. cover had been stretched and into which black eyes which seemed to say: "There! his mother made him take the bitter

Don't we see! he's a-holdin' of her tage and the green fields and the young which formed her dowry had been you see you are not half as sharp as you nice to take the taste out of his mouth.

He was to start early the next morn- ing at the Slongs. So many changes had taken place: ing, and was to drive his own team; there was so much to talk about that it the colts now fully grown and hardened that for seven whole bright October cented lattle mouse, as well as a most that he was good for sick boys ferring by letter with Lucy and her par- in the wagon at night!

as much as possible of the furniture dren came back to them as they all their movements. They might as the morning and get well when it is distance after them at the other end of bors and friends! the route.

which to talk of their love and lay plans | fields, with what pride Erastus pointed | was wedd no tour. Lucy decided.

by a pair of bay horses, whose driver was fast turning the desert into a gar- open. was a dust-covered young man with a den. groom had come to claim his bride since Erastus had seen it two years be-mother had planted had grown as all tered and tended by loving hands.

side great hollwhock bashes, with pur- cozy and nice. ple and white and vellow blossoms. stood "thick as people in a street," and mingled their soft, green leaves with the were to spend the night they all grew.

mounted at the door.

There is enough of sadness and suffer ng in this true story without dwelling upon the parting of those loving hearts.

In rows, together with the richnes of their foliage, formed at set ground that brought out the coloring of as preity a picture of simple home life is one may hope to see in a long drive in the mount.

San more beautiful and productive the top solution and productive the main all their lives.

And it suspected to remain an all their lives.

CHAPTER XXIV.

THE THERE XXIV.

THE THERE XXIV. ans or foot-hills; and it is in the mount-ains and the foot-hills that beautiful happy one to the young couple, workpictures are to be sought for.

seeping through the soil, had rendered it capable of sustaining vegetable life, he began planting trees and vines. and been at will through the orchard, down into the stubble, or seemed assured beyond any possibility of failure.

He had intended going again to visit Lucy and her parents at this time, but his place still hacked a dwelling, and the began this place still hacked a dwelling, and the began that the bar into the bars bit of rath near the little it would cost to make the journey would aid just that may be towards buying the material towards.

Then, too, a branch of one of the little it would cost to make the journey would aid just that may be towards buying the material towards. The cologne of the food thrown to their by some member of the food thrown to their by some member of the food thrown to their by some member of the food thrown to their by some member of the food thrown to their by some member of the food thrown to their by some member of the family dween by within the vince-wreathed cottage.

And herr, one moral to a week after the picture of comissined by the certainty of an abundant sturkeys wanded the tra n moved is shed by the certainty of an abundant stuply of water from the river through the orchard, down into the stubble, of failure.

BEN'S SICKNESS.

BEN'S SICKNESS.

BEN'S SICKNESS.

A Day Spent in Bed and a Little Bitter Medicine Effect a Radical Cure.

Then, too, a branch of one of the beading railroads was being built near the kitchen door to receive their portion of the food thrown to their by some member of the family dween by within the virial possibility of failure.

Then, too, a branch of one of the leading railroads was being built near them, and would be completed, and furnish means of transportation for every thing they raised, by the time would not let him stay at home so often, that at last his mother said she with a slam and the stood there the picture of comical despart. By and he a leaf and a Little Bitter Medicine Effect a Radical Cure.

Little Ben May was getting the Lafe's giad morning con not cast, And the moments, satisf retreated, Warn us that twell seem by past.

There will come a sure declining. And I would in a to you say While the sun is to got y a main z. Lean & forget the rating it sy.

perhaps, but would have felt ill at ease letters, and sitting upon the work- living as John and Martha Parsons bench or a saw-horse, re-read the lines gained theirs by the tillage of the soil he already knew by heart, or lose him- and the raising of fruits, and grain, self in dreams which those I nes gave and poultry. Young men and maidens, rise to: then, rousing himself, take up the sons and daughters of these people his tools and work far into the night, in the common walks of life, dressedthat the cottage might be the sooner the girls in cheap, light-colored lawns. completed and the face and form which with may be a bit of bright ribbon at the he now saw only in dreams be ever throat or about the waist; the young men in suits of linea or some other At last the cottage was finished and light and not costly fabric, and all of them with hands and faces tanned by A plain cot age it was: not unlike the the sun, but with hearts that throbbed one on the mountain side, only a little as quickly at whisperings of love, or canable of feeling as keenly the stings There were two rooms below and of unjust criticism, as if they were robed indeed, and had his home in the wall of one above, and there was a little porch in velvet, with d amonds sparkling upon a farmer's kitchen.

road while the cows went lazily home

It was not an assembly such as would but tufficient to shade the room from | Before these friends and neighbors, the sun a little and give relief from the Lucy, dressed much as the other bare and inhospitable lock which mailens were dressed only that her He meant to add a larger structure in roses upon her breast and in her beauti- great pieces out of the new cheese, and . The pest time he says be is sick, keep

o her dete minution not to let them And so, with a heart filled with hope | dried upon the cheek of the bride, they > coming to the place, by the hands that danger and death were there. here and there among the foliage.

"God bless von's.

When he had taken it all in the cot- the little store of household goods Twe cheated you this time, old mouser! stuff, and would not give him anything or hard and vineyard-as a picture packed. Then her husband climbed up thought you were."

days: traveling by easy stages during conning one. days; traveling by easy stages during cunning one.

He had dec'ded upon this after contine day, and camping out, and sleeping. Very often he would task to himself and dress, but would not let him run

Mr. and Mrs. Parsons des'red to give across the plains when they were chil- wise a little mouse not to see the ough much better. Boys who are sick in speedly reformed or summarily des velvet and a still red feather, necessary to start the young folks in watched the camp-fire smoldering in well save themselves the trouble of set- too late for shool, can always be cared the favor of this court these prayers housekeeping, and they could do this the darkness and the twinkling of the tags for all the good all by a dose of litter medicine and a "day shall be speedly answered by signal to some extent out of what still re- stars overhead; and what beautful se- do em. I wonder if they ready think in bed." - School and Home. mained of that I rought from the old crets they disclosed to each other as I am silly enough to poke my nose and home in the foot hells and it was just proofs of their mutual love and confi- one of those holes just to get a nibble as cheap and a good deal nicer, these dence! And when, on the evening of at that scrap of cheese, and be chosed lovers thought, to make the journey this the last day's journey, they drove up to death for my pains, when I can graw way, in the rown conveyance, with to the Johnson shanty, what a hearty my way into the cupboard and eat as their household goods packed in the greeting Mrs. and Mr. Johnson gave to much of that whole time cheese as I wagon, tean to less transport them lift the voong bride who had come to make want, without any danger to myself teen miles to Phiposburg, ship them glad the home of her husband and to No, indeed. It is all too plain that I by boat and cars, and then go a long be a neighbor and friend among neigh- am too cunning for them, too wire a

And when, af er a hearty meal of the a trap."

The place had changed considerably placed! They would have a carpet on hearth.

early hours of the day were sprinkled Erastus to unload the few heavy arti- it looks. What a feast I am going to by to where the skin of the bg one lay. thick with beautiful, bell-shaped flowers. cles and place them in the cottage, and have, to be sure! and such a laugh to and, picking it up in his mouth, hopped In front were long beds of pin s, and then they went away, and together the myself over the sour looks of the away several feet. The big toad looked verbena an Mar .- spurs, and great crim- young couple put down the extreet and servant-grl in the morning, who was, after the purloiner of his cast of clothson-hearted dealies, that lefted up their arrange i the forn ture, returning to no doubt, saving this delicious morsel ing, and gave two or three appealing know but very little in regard to the tor-fid you get that whicky and quie faces and bloomed and no ided in the breeze; bent low in the insiste i that they should do. So saying, grance of the negocial that looked Indeed, she would have had them reup from the borders of the beds in which main with herself and husband for a and who bragged to houself continually deliberately set to work to don the skin look at the round main with herself and husband for a hey all grew. week, 'until they got rested from their in consequence, poked his sharp little he had taken. It took him some time. The grape-vines upon the sloping journey," as she said, but to this they nose through the half-opened shell of to do it, but he finally accomplished tied, their symmetrical arrangement still more beautiful and productive the ing away upon their claim at the

THE RAINY DAY.

Boys, our youth too last is feeting,

Sunsaine can not lest locever. Storms wid come, and winds wage strife. And as sure will dark clouds gather

On the horizon of life. Let us, then, in youth semember Life is not one long, bright May: Sure will come the drear December.

Sure will come the rainy day, As the bues bee doth gather In bright dass her winter store. So should we for life's block weather Garner ere the summer s o ar-Yes, ere bite a localit spring data leave us.

-cooling Days. A WISE LITTLE MOUSE. In Spite of His Brag and Country, He Soule-Bing that may shelter give us.

warea sual come the rainy day.

Let ue strike ande lo lay

Was Caught at Last, He was a very curious little mouse mischief this little mouse did. He had one week, his mother told his father gnawed holes through the doors of the about it. Mr May said "it seems to and without ornament except some again into the cream bowl, and eaten so that he can stay at home to play, knocked over a beautiful glass preserve him in bed all day, and I will have worst of all, he had mibbled great holes | want you to give him table cloths. Oh, he was, indeed, a dealy better when nine o'clock came.

him, but without avail, for he was a had to stay in hed. affection for her who was to return with was a bride's cake, of course, and a cold neost cunning little mouse, and some. In a little white, Joe came to the roast turkey, and great mealy potatoes, how kept clear of them all. Even the gate and began to whistle for Ben. But delatious smell of cheese had failed to Mrs. May took no notice of him. He fully closed the door behind him that it. There was truit also; the first borne entire him within those cover-looking, then came to the door and asked to see might not become unfastened during by the tre's and vines planted, since little wires. He know well enough that Ben but Mrs. May said that Ben was Standing in front of his cottage, he sought out and plucked these, the oc- Miss Puss, too, with all her cunning. She was now sure that Ben had been east his eyes over his ranch with a feel- casional first offerings found scattered was unable to catch the trasky hittle deceiving her; so she not the bad medmouse. She had tried time and again, feine and went to his bed. "Sit up a And a terwards there were kisses and by strategy as well as open warrare, minute, Ben and take this medicine." hand-shakes again, and foldings of the but each alike had faled. Just when I am well now, maxima, I don't bride to the lo om of father and mother. she thought she had her sharp claws need any medicine. ti- mouse, stopping just long enough this, and you will not have this sick And then Lucy was helped to a seat to glance defaulty back at airss Pass, feeling another morning which he could hold in his memory un-til he returned, and could de-cribe to kerchiefs and more "God bliss you's."

In short, they had set so many traps the farmer, bed, and wanted to go to school, but Lucy and Uncle John and Aunt Martha they drove down the lane and out upon his wife and the servant girl, by which his mother would not let him. She and Johnny, be turned and walked rap- the road which led away over the to catch the intle mouse, and had never sent up his dinner of bread and meat; which road which led away over the to catch the intle mouse, and had never sent up his dinner of bread and meat; idly away in the direction of Mr. John- mountain and the foot hills towards the vet succeeded, that he was in high glee and when Hen heard that they had pie, new cottage which awaited their com- over their repeated fadistes, and so well he sent down the girl to ask if he could duty of this court to let fall upon you coils, a whole straw bonnet transact pleased with himself in consequence, not have a piece. The girl came up the that for seven whole bright October certed little mouse, as well as a most that he was good for sik hove.

after this manner: "They will never out and play, What memories of the longer journey catch me, this is certain. I am too After that day, Ben's health was

Besides, in thus going acro's the best that could be found in the house, However, something happened one country they would have a whole week | they went to take a look at their own day that proved the little mouse was to spend in each other's company; in home, walking hand in hand across the not nearly so wise as he thought he kitchen, or in pleasant weather, out of close beside the oyster, and then be something much more singular than the Back of the cottage and on either doors, and so keep the best room always peered in through the half-open shell swallowing incident or curred. As I those of the morning glories, that in the On the morrow Mr. Johnson helped am sure it must taste even better than Suddenly the small toad hope ed quick-although yet unable to stand erect with- their own house, that they might to- whispered: "Be very careful, little Mr. ments exactly like a clown in a out the supports to which they were gether take up the work of making Mouse, for, with all your cunning and deadly work.

chewing their cuds benefit a scraggy, ert, would be van quished in a few years low-branched oas.

afraid there are some of you just like had been comical, that of the little skin anything for ma? Aft r some search this wise (2) After some some of you just like had been comical, that of the little skin anything for ma? After some search this wise (2) After some some of you just like had been comical, that of the little skin anything for ma? After some search this wise (2) After some some of you just like had been comical, that of the little skin anything for ma? After some search this wise (2) After some some of you just like had been comical, that of the little skin anything for ma? After some search this wise (2) After some some of you just like had been comical, that of the little skin anything for ma? After some search this wise (2) After some search this wise (3) After some search this wise (4) After some search this wise (5) After some search this wise (6) After some search this wise (7) After some search this wise (8) After some search that the search this wise (8) After some search this wise (8) After some search that the search this wise (8) After some search that the sea

Now Sen had a friend, who did not in 1600, was first eaten as a sweetment, persons die every year in Germany by You'd be s'prised, yer would "-Texas delivines tremens.

ious to have flen stav at home, so that they could play together.

These two little boys, when they found that Hen's mother would not let him stay at home, put their heads together to deceive her. Just think of

After awhile, Joe said "Fil tell you what to do. Ben. Sav you are sick. of the Eighth Judicial District of lowa, when you get up in the morning, and when it is nine o'clock, you can say you feel better, and then we can fly my new Next morning, when Ben's manima came to wake him up, he said: "Ch, known to the law which are punishable a book of political and military remi-His mamma said right off -Lie still, Ben. I guess you had better stay at home to day." So this had little boy did not get up; but had his breakfast in bed. When he heard the clock strike nine, be said. "I feel better now, mamma. I guess I had better get no." His mother full giad that he was not going to be sick so she helped him to dress, and he was soon out helping Joe ily his kite. The next week, he thought be would play sick again. So be again told his mother he was sick and staved in bed till nine o'clock. Now I can't begin to tell you all the Now that Hen had been wick twice in me, Bou vate a pretty good supper for a sick boy. I believe he is playing sick. dish and shivered it to atoms; but, some bit or medicine fixed up, which I

Not very long after this talk, Ben had They had set traps time and a win for | would not let him; but to d him that bed was the place for sick boys. So Ben sick in bed, and could not see him.

so that he tasted it all morning.

In the afternoon she let him get up

TOADS DO FUNNY THINGS.

The Story of a Veracious Pennsylvania Correspondent. toads will do," said a leading citizen of Christian community if you persist this village. "On a recent cloudy day, in this way, your ruin is certain, and printe as it would seem at first thush, hitle mouse by far, ever to be caught in latter a hard rain, there was a cool You will receive, as you deserve, the breze blowing. I was looking over my garden when I heard a pocular sound. garden when I heard a peculiar sound. harsh and unjustly severe, but the court said Miss Birtle McConnis to a newly-Looking in the direction from which it assure, you that, compared with your arrived stranger in Austin to whom came, I saw two toads in an open space ecimes and the desolation you have alout the boundaries of his own claim; to Some fresh oysters were brought into in the garden. One was quite large, ready brought upon the community, it but why do you ask replied the It would be almost as good as a real the vineyard, and orchard, and fields, the kitchen. In preparing them for and the other was at least a third is mild in the extreme " made fruitful by the water that, coming suppor the girl happened to oversook sm lber. They were both at n ling on And so one afternoon the dwellers on through the open ditches cut by his one of them, and it was left lying in a their hand feet facing each other. The the mountain side saw a wagon drawn own hands and those of his neighbors, corner of the hearth with its sacriparity large food had its fore feet on each side A Broken-Hearted Wife Whose Plusband of the smaller total's shoulders. The Has Become Like on Entamed Beast. That night, when every one had small tond had his left fore foot on the Not many years ago a loung man prevent its bursting. We have a friend sun-faunced face and sandy mustache, And the cottage; how pleased Lucy gone to bed, and all was short in of the highest promise and bearing an Up to this time he has devoted all him wearing a wide-frimmed traw hat, professed to be really was with its the k-tchen, this cautious little moure that was they utter d strange guttural honored name, his profession being boring energies to us, and we would be coming up the by-road which ended at sppearance and conveniences! What thought be might venture forth on a sounds, as if they were discussing some ther gate, and knew that the bride- pleasure they took in deciding just raid. Very soon be came to where the subject between themselves. Suddenly that of a lawyer, united in marriage glad to see him try if on the rest of the where each pic e of furniture should be oyster was lying so still upon the the small tood thrust its right forefoot, with one of the lovellest of her sex, surth - flusion Field placed! They would have a carpet on the larger down stairs room, and the "Ha." said he, cantiously approach such a said the next instant the larger down stairs room, and the "Ha." said he, cantiously approach such and the next instant the latter remarked: "What a 'r librat future." bureau and the best chairs should go in ing it, and bend ug his sharp hitle eyes threw the former to the ground, and Nothing seemed wanting to complete consequence was that he was frequent-The addition to the shorty had been that; and the small table, with a few near it, so as to take a good look at it, a lively wrestle was going on Turing his worldly bliss. But, alast intermedy overshooked. One day his father and ere ted, and with the little porch in books, should stand near the center of what is this, now? Another trap, the struggle on the ground the skins perance came like a thef in the night of our means and the skins perance came like a thef in the night of our means and the skins perance came like a thef in the night of our means and the skins and the skins perance came like a thef in the night of our means and the skins and the skins perance came like a thef in the night of our means and the skins and the skins perance came like a thef in the night of our means and the skins and the skins are the ski wall with Erastus' flageolet, and just as like one. There is nothing suspicious back, and i supposed I was about to tret; and robbed him of his honor, his and he milded with a wigh "There The rose bushes which Lucy and her soon as they could they would get a few looking about it, it is true, and state elequence, and gradually transformed hasn't been anything put on it yet."pictures to belo make the room still is best to be cautious, therefore I'll ing oil the rold coats, rolling them up him into a fiend, and his beautiful Texas Siftings. things do grow in that cimate and soil:

that clambered all over the porch and would put up stairs, and, until they take a closer view of it."

So the little mouse bent down his naturalists say ther do. I did witness and waited for the coming of her just were in full bloom, having been wa- could build larger, would eat in the head till his fittle twinkling eyes were the treess of shedding the sain, but The oyster lay very quiet within, and said, the day was quite raw and cold. And so, still planning for the future, looked so nice and cool and fresa that and after the toads had rubbed their vet perfectly happy in the present, they it quite set the little mouse frantic with skins in a comical way toward their ever the low windows, and reaching returned as they came, hand in hand the desire to feast upon the new danty. beads until they had both pulled themeless up to the caves. Madeira vines across lots to Mr. Johnson's, where whiskers, "how nice it smells! and I shiver very percentibly with the cold. croaks, but made no attempt to recept-So saying, this wise little mouse, who are the stolen goods. When the small week, 'until they got rested from their in consequence, poked his sharp latter he had taken. It took him some time wearing the flushed check. Notice, ground above the house had added two years of growth to their stems; and.

They were both anxious to get into

They were both anxious to get into if into a turnes text some of them appear in. The Statistics show that the amount of - You don't seem to have the elightlittle fellow seemed to enjoy the mortality among persons of intemper- est knowledge of natural philosophy." And it was just as you have doubtless novelis of the situation, and hopped ate habits is ten times greater than that growled a man, as the sessman left a suspected—the or sier was alrest and no around the large tend in the most tansomer had the little mouse poked his talking manner. The big toad was nose into the opening than it closed shivering like a person chilled through to be heard. Come, boys, let us take his eye, the dispenser of frigid water with a sudden spring, and lot the little and through, and by and by picked up monse was caught at last!

Now I dare say, it he had been given the time to think over it all, his one the time to think over it all, his one the said one, but after several to be heard "Come, boys, let us take his eye, the dispenser of frigid water a drink." Ah' young man, paute in retorted: "Yes, I do." Then what your downwarf course. Emand Extended to recognize the heard "Come, boys, let us take his eye, the dispenser of frigid water a drink." Ah' young man, paute in retorted: "Yes, I do." Then what your downwarf course. Emand Extended to recognize the heard come, but after several to be heard to one, but after several to be heard to one. It is to be heard to one, but a drink to be heard to one. Then what your downwarf course. Emand the dispenser of frigid water a drink to be heard to one. The process the time to think over it all, his one that the said to be heard to one. The process the time to think over it all, his one that the said to be heard to one. The process the said through the said to be heard to one. The said through the said to be heard to one. The said through the said th Outside of the inclosure and a little further up the mountain, the cows which Lucy had driven forced to live very economically, but blissful evening two years before, when Era tus had told her off is love, were the further up the mountain, the cows which Lucy had driven forced to live very economically, but blissful evening two years before, when Era tus had told her off is love, were the further up the mountain, the cows which Lucy had driven forced to live very economically, but blissful evening two years before, when Era tus had told her off is love, were the further up the mountain the common at the Slongia.

True, they were poor, and were forced to live very economically, but wast was poverty when they had love, and health, and the assurance that povered to live very economically but the time to think over it all, ins one thought would have been that he was not such a very wise little mouse after thought would have been that he was not such a very wise little mouse after the time to think over it all, ins one thought would have been that he was not such a very wise little mouse after the time to think over it all, ins one thought would have been that he was not such a very wise little mouse after the time to think over it all, ins one thought would have been that he was not such a very wise little mouse after the time to think over it all, ins one thought would have been that he was not such a very wise little mouse after the time to think over it all, ins one thought would have been that he was not such a very wise little mouse after the time to think over it all, ins one the time to think over it all, ins one the time to think over it all, ins one the time to think over it all, ins one the time to think over it all, ins one the time to think over it all, ins one it is the time to think over it all, ins one the time to think over it all, ins one the time to think over it all, ins one the time to think over it all, ins one the time to think over it all, ins one the time to the time to think over it all, in

TEMPERANCE.

AN IOWA JUDGE'S REBUKE. What He Said When Passing Sentence

Upon Visiators of the Laws of the State. Hon. F. M. Hubbard, District Judge shawl for his wife. in passing sentence upon some liquor dealers for violation of the Prohibitory laws of the State, said with great severity, there are none niscences. which involve more of those qualities -John C. Fremont, now seventytaking of human life so instantaneous was a house at either place. all and yet we look upon the man who shatty little body, fail of reminiscences takes human life quite as surely, but of her husband and his times, is still horror. You who sland before the less years. manslaughter; for the law sers that a cook for Captain Waterial, of Genwhoever accelerates the death of a hu- eral Washington's stall, sturing the men being unlawfully is guilty of the revolution. that you now accelerating death, but eas. Mass Kudalph is a nece of Mrs. that you are inducing men to commit Garded - Concord Lender. still greater or mes than took own. You still maintain the appearance of reare indicting upon this community delare as from the housetone that you are living in idleness and eating the nead of or hans watered with widows. ears, you are stealthily killing your victims, and murdering the peace and industry of the community, and thereby converting happy, industrious was, during his life, at aca life months, iomes into misers, poverty, and rags. Attaious wives and mothers watch and orny in tears nightly, with devolute hearts, for the coming home of your bounds of whalebons, and he was cietinis, whom you are luring with the aight de suchery. Niagara, nor of the terrible fury and songstiess demanded a valury of five grandeur of a sterm in mid-ocean until thousand ducate, "Far too much," know the utier degradation and total that is more than I pay my field mardeprayity to which his species can be shalk " " Then let coor field marshale brought until he looks moon the desc. *ng for you, was the swift rejoinded late rum caused by your hellish traffic, of the singer. stroved. By the providence of tood and and exact sisting for your crimes. And to desist from your or minal vagabend deserving of sympathy - Lowell Cittraffic and botake vourselves to some trev. honest calling for a livelihood, that you may yet become virtuods, useful "No one knows the fount things entirens and entitled to the respect of a time (for he was a secret drinker at jettice. Take mine, pa it's clean, loved one, striving by every skillful device many pable to shield him from the unfeeling world. Only a few days ago, I received a letter two were schoolmates) written by her own hand, and despair haunt me "My friend, my heart is broken. My once kind husband is no longer a man of feeling. His actions remind me of an untamed beast in our little povertystricken home. What shall I do; oh!

INTEMPERANCE.

what shall I do?" Ah! Men in their daily walks of life an my wife is as had as iver, or. Dogworst features of intemperance. It is time I prescribed? Patient Yis, sort the poor wife who must witness its hore but it did no good at all, at all, Doc-

Look at the young men of to day, cording to instructions, I suppostoo, their nervous, unsteady hand and his wife are one. Doctor What has this wise (?) Ade mouse. Oh yes, you on the big toad was much more so among boxes and france the baggagelelow, brown in the fiction field from so ich the grain had been harvested, and where the horses were munching at hier feed.

Beyond the cottage is the young orchard of peach, and over all the cloudless blue of California.

It is keed less than two years of the time they would have almost as the Young to the result of the grain had been harvested, and where the horses were munching at hier feed.

Beyond the cottage is the young of the cottage is the young orchard of peach, and over all the cloudless blue.

It is keed less than two years of the time two years of the steep on the cost, so to speak, only came indicate the food only came indicate the food only came indicated the plant of the from the cost, so to speak, only came indicated the plant of the from the proper of the transmitted of the grain and the legs of the transmitted on the cost, so to speak, the serves on the cost, so to speak, only came indicated only asked the wet transmitted on the cost, so to speak, the serves on the cost. So to speak, the serves on the cost, so to speak, the serves on the cost, so to speak, the serves on the cost, so to speak, the serves on the cost. So to speak, the serves on the cost, so to speak, the serves on the cost. So to speak, the serves on the cost, so to speak, the serves on the cost. So to speak, the first serves on the cost. So to speak, the serves of the transmitters of the transmitters of the from serves on the cost. So to speak, the serves on the cost. So to speak, the firs and he stood there the picture of comi- shut with a slam and the train moved toned, nevertheless.

> stretched the tight apparel, for he was FRANCE is waking up to the Tem- asked Mrs. Peterby, indignantly. lowed the small toad into the bustes in made paupers at altogether too rapid on week-days." rious exchange of clothing was I never five people throughout the country .- seen wid sich a bandy-legged, goggle-

-The potato, introduced in England THE Cologne Gazette says that 10,000 | keeps company wid on Sundays.

PERSONAL AND LITERARY.

-The room in which Patti was diforced was that wherein she was married in 1863. -Victor Hugo spent his first earnings as an autnor in buying a cashmere

-Mrs. Langiry, the actress is said to pay her husband a monthly salary for keeping away from her.

-General S. W. Crawford, one of the three surviving officers of the gar-"While there are greater crimes rison at Fort Sumpter has completed known as despicable meanness and two, says that he camped where Chiandacity than the selling of intoxicatorago is, where Moneapolis is, and ing liquids. There is something in the waters Salt Lake City is, before there that it shocks and terrifies the minds of ... Santa Anna's widow, a bright and by a slow, lingering process, if not living in the city of Mexico. She was without condemnation, at least with my married to him at the early age of thircourt for sentence are in every meral. ... Jennis White, whose death at the sense murderers, and you are within age of one hundred and twenty two is the spirt if not the letter, guilty of announced from St. Joseph: Mo. was rame. Your biouted victims upon the ... Miss Adelade Rudolph, of Clevewitness stand, and who undoubtedly land. O, has been selected by the committed per mry to serven you if in it and of Regents as the Latin prothe law, not only abundantly test for fewor at the State University of Kam-

-Dr. R. J. tailing, of Hartford who invented the famous Gather our is a spectability, out how morally leprons stout man with a chubby face and a and scredulous you are inwardle. The stable gray beard. He eyes are small oun, poverty and idleness which you and squinty, requiring the use of strong lenses to aid them. The dorlor a am enthusiast on the solvect of building upthe defenses of America - Barsford

-Captain Bi hard G. Luce, who died at Vineyard Haven, Mass, recently, or nearly (wenty-sex years. He landed in New Bellior t is too barrely of whale pri, 8.500 of sporm oil, and 181,000 called the champ-on of the whale fich-wiles and smales of the devil into mid- ery. - Radion Journal. - It is told of Gabrielli that when she "The can have meade mate, concept, visited Russia in 1.68 in the me wished ion of a estaract until he has seen to engage her services, for which the e has witnessed one so to one can said the Empress, amaged "Why,

You are persistent, deficint law-break. - Olive Login saw the Princess of ers, and shamelessly beast that in deli- Wales with her three daughters driving community you will continue at your the ladies what Alexandra wore: A therefore, now become the imperative tightly to the figure, liven collar and so heavily the arm of the law that with brack velvet ribbon, a cluster of fortunes or wicked prosperity. You monds, no jewelry of any sort. The have become a stench to the three girls were dressed allke in mave nostrils of the community, and all blue exchange, with red souts round good men are praying that you be hats of whitestraw, trammed with black

- ---HUMOROUS.

- The Governor of the State Prison finally, let me entreat you, if you are ought to be paned, for a men with six not lost to every sent ment of humanity. or eight hundred felous on his hand is > -A man in Long Wood, Fix. recently exchanged a weekly paner for a made. This trade was not so importo-They are both relevators of the burnan--"Are you superstitions, my dear "."

she had become engaged. "Not a bit, youth. "Nothing, except you are that thirteenth young gentleman to whom I have been engaged." - Treat Suffence. -A man claiming to be a selected wants some one to hove the earth to

-A little boy was told that he must It was not road manners to do so. The Bees c, a bit of a blue eyed girl. was about to go with her aunt to dine at a friend's house. Then I forcet your monners. Bessie," said her motioer. "He supe to say yes, sir 'mo, sir," and 'ves, ma'am' and 'no ma'am' when her words of intense suffering and any one speaks to you." At the table the first quest on asked for was: "Feesie, will you have some sono?" "Yes, sir no. s.r. yes, hea am: no. ma am burst out laugh ng. - Gebien Dage, - Doctor - Have you got the better of the ague vet? Patient-No, sor. Mafor That is strange! You took it ac-Patient Yie, sor, to know a man and which is slowly but surely doing its the whishy and gave Hiddy the quinine.

said Bessie, faintly, while everybody

"Who was that horrid-looking negro-I saw prowling about the back yard?" "Dat's a feller I keeps company wid

"On week-days?" "Yes, mum; yer don't s'pose I'd be eved moke like him on Sundays, does yer? Yer orter see de culiud gemman Ser tenga