LUCKY DAYS.

When May with apple blossoms
Her loving-cu is brewing.
With beams and dews and winds that get
The honey from the violet,
With bopes on which the heart is set,
Oh, then's the time for wooing,
For wooing, and for suing.
Dear lad, the time for wooing!

When August calls the locust
To sound the year's undoing,
And, like some aitar dressed of old
In drapery of cloth of gold,
High pastures thick with broom unfold,
Oh, then's the time for wooing,
For wooing, and for suing,
Dear lad, the time for wooing!

When brown October pauses,
The ripened woodland viewing,
And all the sumny forests spread
Their fallen leaves, as heart's blood red,
A carpet fit for brides to tread,
Oh, then's the time for wooing,

Oh, listen, happy lover,
Your happy tate pursuing:
When fields are green, when woods ar agree,
When storms are white, when stars we car, On each sweet day of each sweet year,
Oh, then's the time for wooing,
For wooing, and for suing,
Dear lad, the time for wooing.
