The best evidence that railway men are now, as a class, temperate men, is the fact that discharges for intoxication on the great railways are almost rare. In the "offense record" for September of the Grand Trunk Railroad, which employs probably fifteen thousand men or more, out of eighty-four offenses specified, only one is given as "intemperance," this being in the case of a porter, who was consequently dismissed.

Mrs. M. E. Kenworthy, who has been prominent in the woman suffrage movement in Washington Territory, has also taken part in political matters generally, and has been especially conspicuous in public meetings in Tacoma to agitate the Chinese expulsion question. Mrs. Kenworthy is now very much surprised at being included in the indictments against persons charged with being connected with the destruction of houses in Tacoma.

Tests made of the elevated railroad structures of the Brooklyn Bridge cables show that they are all magnetized. Induced magnetism from the earth is supposed to have been fixed by the jarring to which these structures have been subjected while under magnetic influence. The bottom parts of all pieces of iron thus magnetized show north polarity, and the cables of the bridge are said to be magnetized in the direction of their diameter, the upper surface of the cables throughout their length being of south polarity and lower surface north.

A RECENT dispatch from Atoka, I. T., says: The Cherokees are having an exciting session at their council meeting. The Governor, Chief Bushyhead, and party are charged with grave misdemeanor in securing three hundred thousand dollars some year or so ago from the United States Government as per capita payment. It is charged that to secure this sum, a considerable percentage of which went into the pockets of leading parties in the transaction, the claim of the Cherokees to the neutral land strip, northwest of the Cherokee Nation adjacent to Kansas, was heavily compromised, and it is now doubtful if the Nation can justly and legally prevent the United States from obtaining a clear title to these lands. The Bushyhead party denies that such a compromise was made, and that they are true and loyal to the interests of the Cherokees and entitled to the gratitude of the people in securing three hundred thousand dollars from the United States Government to enable their people to buy provisions at a time of great scarcity and distress.

THE HOSTILES

Nebraska Work in Arizona—The Settlers

DEMEING, N. M., December 3.—Two men were killed by Indians last night near Solomonville, Ariz. Their bodies were found by a stage driver on his way to Fort Thomas this morning. Ben Crawford, Sheriff of Graham County, Ariz., and two others are also reported killed, but this is not confirmed. Today hostiles were in the neighborhood of Duncan. They attacked some section men at work on the railroad, but the men escaped. Two Englishmen are reported to have been killed near Duncan yesterday. Militia from Clifton and a party of citizens from Duncan are in pursuit. Militia from Clifton, N. M., started out last night. The hostiles are now prevalent. The Indians are headed for the Chiricahua Mountains.

Later dispatches state that the two men who were killed by the Indians near Solomonville were the Wright brothers, pioneers of Arizona, living near San Jose, on the Gila river, and the dispatch from Clifton confirms the killing of Sheriff Ben Crawford and Graham County by Apaches. The Indians are divided into bands of fifteen to twenty. The killing of Sheriff Crawford has created the wildest excitement. Men, women and children are fleeing in all directions and couriers are being sent out to warn the settlers. The bodies of the two Wright brothers were horribly mangled. The Indians passed on to the Chiricahua range on the 2nd of this morning. They killed two cattlemen—one named Dick Mays. The name of the other is unknown.

On the 1st of December 3.—It is reported that fifty Indians are off their reservation and are heading for Santa Rita. The settlers in the valley and the soldiers in the Harshaw Mountains have been notified. Hostiles visited the reservation and attempted to get the balance of the Indians to join them, but the attempt resulted in a fight in which two reservation Indians and one hostile were killed. Lieutenant General Sheridan and staff left for the West yesterday. Official news from E. A. Lower says that a party of Indians under the leadership of Josiah, brother of the late General Sherman, are on the march for Fort Apache November 23. The next day one of their number was killed in an attack upon the camp of the White Mountain Indians. The following day they attacked another camp of White Mountain Indians ten miles south of Apache. In these two attacks they killed eleven women, four children and one boy.

WASHINGTON, December 3.—Commissioner Atkins has received no official reports touching the reported murder of Senator Edmunds. He is expected to return to his home in the State of New York on the 10th of this month. He had no doubt the outrage had been perpetrated by members of Geronimo's band. The White Mountain Indians had rendered excellent service to the Government and had killed many of Geronimo's band, who attempted to retaliate upon them by killing their spouses and children.

RAILROAD DISASTERS. A Wreck on the Erie Road—Frightful Collision in Pennsylvania. WELLSVILLE, N. Y., December 3, 1893.—The Erie road, which is operated by the Erie road, bound East, was wrecked at Scio about two o'clock this morning. Engineer Henry Allen was killed. The passengers were more or less shaken up, but none were seriously hurt. The train took fire and the baggage and smoking cars were burned. The accident was caused by a misplaced switch.

PITTSBURGH, Pa., December 3.—A Washington, Pa., special says: One of the most horrible railroad casualties ever witnessed in this vicinity happened yesterday afternoon on the Erie road, near Scio, Pa. A private letter received from Don Cameron says he is for General Logan. Don Cameron is the chairman of the Republican caucus.

A Spiritual Seance Conducted by Skeptics. Who Surprised the Medium in Some Way. A Very Attractive, Impersonating a Spirit and Break Up the Show—The Medium Arrested.

STANBERRY POINT, Va., December 3.—L. C. E. Wyman, the spiritualist medium, has been held in custody at the house of W. R. Field for a couple of weeks past, the attendance being large each evening, the medium not forgetting to collect one dollar from each person in attendance. Quite a number of citizens have been worked up to a high pitch, several of them on the verge of insanity, over the medium's manner in which he brought up the "so-called spirits" of their departed friends. Several skeptical young men attended the seances, Saturday night with the determination of exposing what they considered a palpal fraud. Accordingly one of them managed to secure a seat near the cabinet from which the spirits materialized. The clothing of the medium was found to be covered with a chair in the cabinet, the circle formed and the light turned down. Soon the spirit of the father of one of the company materialized and reached out to the young man, who was sitting in the chair. The young man near the cabinet grasped with the messenger from the other world and threw him to the floor. The believers immediately hurried themselves upon the chair, and the other skeptics took a hand in the affair, and for a while pandemonium reigned with the spirit believers and unbelievers rolling on the floor in a deadly lighted way. The lights were at length turned up when, to the amazement of the unbelieving circle, the materialized spirit proved to be the medium in an exceedingly airy attire, with the exception of a chair in the cabinet, the circle formed and the light turned down. Several skeptical young men attended the seances, Saturday night with the determination of exposing what they considered a palpal fraud. Accordingly one of them managed to secure a seat near the cabinet from which the spirits materialized. The clothing of the medium was found to be covered with a chair in the cabinet, the circle formed and the light turned down. Soon the spirit of the father of one of the company materialized and reached out to the young man, who was sitting in the chair. The young man near the cabinet grasped with the messenger from the other world and threw him to the floor. The believers immediately hurried themselves upon the chair, and the other skeptics took a hand in the affair, and for a while pandemonium reigned with the spirit believers and unbelievers rolling on the floor in a deadly lighted way.

NEW YORK, November 1.—An explosion, supposed to be from escaping gas, occurred in West Washington Market at four o'clock yesterday morning. While Patrick Gurry, of Forty-second street, was opening the door in the ice-saw of Mr. Longman's shop, for the purpose of showing a Mr. Meyer some meat, the explosion occurred, knocking the two men down and setting fire to the saw. The flames were soon extinguished, and the men taken to the Chambers Street Hospital, where their injuries were found to be slight.
