REPUBLICAN PROGRESSION.

How the Anticipated Growth of the South Is to Be Retarded by Supporting a Niggardly Policy. Some impatience is evident among the Southern people at the expressed intention of the Democratic party...

AN ASSAY OFFICE.

New Gold-Dust Is Made Into Valuable Brick. A visit to the United States Assay Office here is very interesting. Being ushered into the receiving office I found a clerk opening several packages of gold dust that had been brought from the post-office...

AN OLD SALT'S LAMENT.

His Views Upon the Accomplishments of Modern Yachting. "Goin' to sea is not what it used to be, by a long shot, and the sailor of to-day can lead a gentleman's life if he chooses."

THE SILVER QUESTION.

The President Furnishes the Severe Some Information on the Subject. WASHINGTON, January 8.—The President yesterday, in answer to a resolution adopted by the Senate December 18, transmitted copies of documents showing the action taken by him to ascertain the sentiments of foreign Governments in regard to the establishment of an international ratio between gold and silver.

DISCHARGED AT LAST.

My release was made the occasion of a demonstration on the part of the citizens, that is a part of the demonstration, the President's own son, and together I was bound very well. What will become of me I don't see. It's a cold world.

REPUBLICAN PROGRESSION.

It ought to be evident to the South by this time that if it wishes to keep step with the march of progress in this last quarter of the century, it has taken the right line of fighting under the banner of Thomas Jefferson and join the party which makes progress its watchword.

AN ASSAY OFFICE.

The Government buys all the gold presented for sale, but a depositor may have his dust refined and made into a bar upon the payment of a small fee. A short time ago a deposit valued at $25,000 was brought in by a man, which was refined in bulk about 100 pounds.

AN OLD SALT'S LAMENT.

"Six feet in his boots" exclaimed old Mr. Beeswax, "nonsense! Why, they might as well tell me the man had six heads in his hat!"

LEPAGE'S LIQUID GLUE. CATARRH. HAY-FEVER. A list of various ailments and their treatments.

THE SILVER QUESTION.

It is not a question of the kind of money we want, but of the kind of money we can get. The President's action in regard to the silver question is a matter of great importance.
