All communications for this paper should be accompanied by the name of the author; not necessarily for publication, but as an evidence of good faith on the part of the writer. Write only on one side of the paper. Be particularly careful in giving names and dates to have the letters and fig-

BY THE GATE OF THE SEA

By David Christie Murray,

ACTHOR OF "A MODEL PATHER, "A LIFE'S ATONEMENT," ETC.

CHAPTER IX .- CONTINUED. "And you think," he said, after this pause, "that we had better send it to Lorrimer?"

"Certainly. With the stipulation that we depend not upon his judgment, but upon that of Miss Churchill. I have written a good deal for Lorrimer. and I respect his judgment on my own wares. He has a rare palate for a murder, but the flavors of this work are too delicate for him. I shall tell him so."

"If she will but undertake the part." cried the poet, "what a creation she will make of it!"

"She is a great actress," said the other, "and her style grows riper. But have you noticed, Marsh? I meet her here and there on Sunday evenings. She is successful, but she is not satisfied. She is not a happy woman. Her sorrows are not querulous, but resigned."

"I have noticed it," said Marsh. only see her upon the stage."

"Do you know," said the writer of melodrama, "I admire her infinitely. Her blameless private life, her charity -she has an ill word for nobody, not even for the fools who pester her because she is an actress. I have felt once or twice an electric sensation in the right foot, indicative, as I believe, of a desire to boot a noble swell or two who hover in her train. But to give way to that desire would only create a scandal, and the snobs must be allowed to flutter until she meets some good fellow who will marry her and take her away from the theater." "That would be a loss to the theater," said Marsh. "And a gain to her," returned his companion. "No woman can live in art and be happy. Her place is by the Mearth. She must have a man to waste her affections on and children to suffer for before she can really be at peace." "Shall I send on the play to Lorrimer, or will you?" asked the poet, after a minute's pause. "I will," said the playwright. "It is so much more your work than mine that I can praise it with the better Ince.

"And I shall hear the verdiet from

"Just so. Are you going? Lorrimer shall have it at once. Good-bye." "I am going down into Berkshire, said the poet, shaking hands and taking up his sombrero; "but my letters will be forwarded. Good-bye." William John Smith, being left alone, lit a pige and took a tumbled heap of papers from a drawer. Then he seected pen, sat down at the table with the minbled papers before him and triga to think about work. But the day x. as languid and he was lazy, and in a minute or two he threw down the pen and resigned himself to his fancies.

Rocald Marsh came uppermost. - William John," said the idler, staring abstractedly out of the window, "you have done that young man a powtr of good. The sentiments you so eloquently express in conversation and so consistently ignore in private life are telling on him. And he wanted that hiding from the reviewers. It did him agod, and helped to drive out of him the paost intolerable puppyism with which any man of my time has been afflicted. There are the makings of a good fellow in him, and they will not be wasted."

Unconscious of this criticism, the poet went down to Berkshire, leaving the dusky whirl of London fashion be-Aind him, and awaited (with what patience he could find) Miss Churchill's judgment on the poetical comedy. It fell upon a day that he sat out, longcloaked, long-haired and sombreroed, for a country walk, and being athirst and weary, stepped into an inviting little roadside inn and asked for sherry and soda. The room in which he sat was comfortably shaded and prettily dappled by a few stray flecks of sunlight. There were roses at the diamonded casement, the window was open, birds twitted about the fields outside, a hostler in the vard to the right made a soothing noise of hissing and splashing as he washed the legs of a farmer's cob, and it was difficult to believe that there were griefs, or heartwhich owned so peaceful and quiet a haven of rest as this. "Hostler!" said a voice outside, "see that there hoddity in the cloak and wideawake goin' in just now?" "I see him, sir," replied the hostler. "It's my lady's brother-in-law down Grom London, sir." "My eye!" said the first speaker. "he's a caution, ain't he? What's he wear his hair that long for? Like a gell's, san bit?" "Well, you see, sir," said the hostler, in a philosophic and reflective tone, stared at all." "That's a rare good by-word, bost-a pint for that, anyway." pleasant to have overheard this conversation, and it would have been still more disagreeable to have it known that he had overheard it. He tried to dismiss it from his mind, as a piece of sister-in-law's house again became one wonder he lived at all." in the world-the poet was assured of as the result of managuvres, but by from in the ship?" at than left unnoticed. Was he one of in the park at a rather early hour, in a readily. them? He thought not; he felt cer- secluded by-way, when he suddenly toin he was not. But did he look encounterd the object of his dreams, centricities that he himself had almost lady, who gave him one of her sad litceased to think about them. He had the smiles, he perforce placked up heart | thought: "And mamma." resumed them in the folly of youth as a of grace and approached her. She reof his office as Vates. It was possible so maker of fact a manner that any enough, now he came to think of it, hopes he might have felt inclined to that the cloak, the sombrero, and the nurture were at once frozen. But men long hair had something to do with the of war sometimes charge strongholds prodigious roasting he had received at which are known to be impregnable, the hands of the reviewers, for he had and lovers are not always to be held been a familiar figure about town and back from a declaration by the cerin society, and was likely to be known | tainty that it must be fruitless. by sight to most of them. When he | There was no trace of the poverty shought of the sounding of the drums | which had first moved the poet's heart which had gone before the publication in the dress of the stately vet gentle of his poems he blushed all over. The creature who now walked beside him.

When he had made these changes he pleasing sense of pity. no badge of genius upon him.

spring, that the chance overhearing of | filment of his enterprise. num as to make him at last an excep- will do me the honor to listen.

If she had not been a married woman. I ing the book to seek for some cine to the valley and the shadows, and to be passing through the book to seek for some cine to the valley and the shadows, and to be passing through the book to seek for some cine to the valley and the shadows, and to be passing through the book to seek for some cine to the valley and the shadows, and to be passing through the book to seek for some cine to the valley and the shadows, and to be passing through the book to seek for some cine to the valley and the shadows.

and then to its early production. This announcement was at once a source of me.

magnificent snob his insolence had deservedly received. And apart from that-not to pretend disguise about a matter which must be tolerably plain by this time-Ronald Marsh had been and now he had been thinking of her harshly, Mr. Marsh." for months, while he labored at his stantly before his eyes. ever news of her private life had sult." reached him. Her record was blames "I do not understand," said the

A mild, sad-mannered lady, who acted | honoring yourself and me when as Mrs. Tregarthen's companion, and wore a readable proclamation of re- terrupted. duced circumstances, sat at a window

The poet had long since besought I have suspected you groundlessly." recognize him, and that he might edge of your late husband. But the poet shorn of his disorderly truth halo was a man disguised, and, thanks to the hostier's philosophy, he passed given you," he said, earnestly, baring without recognition.

went all the way.

she desired. Lorrimer and the playwright discussed them with her, and the poet kept very much in the back- I believe so." ground, thankful to be unobserved. He escaped at last with a feeling of much relief; but he was not nearly so afraid came more and more within thrown her. her influence, and fell more "Believe me," he said, when he saw worship genius, thought she discovered and forget ness-like, half friendly conferences bowed over it and left her. about it, and was so lured forward that, after hanging back with all his burnings, or jealousies, or troubles of a weman whose delight it was to know and neat, but his velvet clothes were there is but one thing that can by any sight mat. He will drink whisks and surged and he was too big for stretch of imagination be called a luxand such curious folk, and she pre- there, ferred a fashionable actress to any other lioness who roars. The Lady Churchill, and, being herself a charmtricity which prompted her to be a your name? in a philosophic and reflective tone, there's a sort as would sooner be guests one day by the recital of a scene other name. Phil? I can't hear you." stared at and laughed at than not from "As you like it." Miss Churchill "I don't think he knows the other one of thousands and tens of thousands we get, drink again to make him ler, said the other. "You shall have courteously but coolly. The hostess got better, but he doesn't seem to know wretched wives and innocent children peace, drak before a tight, dr took it ill that the actress should de- it." the window. It was sufficiently un- something more than she need have leaning back again. "No wonder!" the window. It was sufficiently unpleasant to have overheard this converdone for the rest of the evening, and "His poor little arm was broke, sir."

something more than she need have leaning back again. "No wonder!"

the window, It was sufficiently undersome than she need have leaning back again. "No wonder!"

the window, It was sufficiently undersome than she need have leaning back again. "No wonder!"

the window, It was sufficiently undersome than she need have leaning back again. "No wonder!"

the window, It was sufficiently undersome than she need have leaning back again. "No wonder!"

the window, It was sufficiently undersome than she need have leaning back again. "No wonder!"

the window, It was sufficiently undersome than she need have leaning back again. "No wonder!"

the window, It was sufficiently undersome than she need have leaning back again. "No wonder!"

the window, It was sufficiently undersome than she need have leaning back again. "No wonder!"

the window, It was sufficiently undersome the rest of the evening and the properties of the state of th like one of them? Did he commonly alone. He suffered a curious breastpass for one of them? He had grown pang and for a second or two stood ir- ship?" so accustomed to his own sartorial ec- resolute, but being perceived by the carryicg a hard-carned bit of wisdom There was always a touch of sadness in said in answer. her face when he saw it in repose, but

Mr. Ronald Marsh justified Wisdom this only made her rare smile the more of her latest birth by discarding the hat | charming, and it was never deep and cloak, and by having his hair cut. enough to awaken anything beyond a fearful of appearing before people who res, and the transition from any other Tribute Labor Pays to the Curset Burn Can acquire wealth - Tolono Basic. had known him in his old aspect; but | topic bade fair to be difficult and awk- Teame. he conquered these sensations in n fit- ward, but he continued to talk about. A gentleman picked up on one of tle while, and was content to go about | commonplace matters for a little while, the streets of Toledo the other day a | The sad Result of One Glass of Wine Just The an average Christian, and to carry and it was only when Mrs. Tregarthen soiled and worn grossry pass-book.

edy, and thought well of it. The practiced writer of melodrama had seen to the situations, and, though he had and though she thinks young men a the common everywhere none of those one to the Home, but that power is the common everywhere none of those one to the Home, but that power is the common everywhere none of those one to the Home, but that power is the common everywhere none of those one to the Home, but that power is the common everywhere none of those one to the Home, but that power is the common everywhere none of those one to the Home, but that power is the common everywhere none of those one to the Home, but that power is the common everywhere none of those one to the Home, but that power is the common everywhere none of those one to the Home, but that power is the common everywhere none of those one to the Home, but that power is the common everywhere none of those one to the Home, but that power is the common everywhere none of the common everywhere none of those one to the Home, but that power is the common everywhere none of the common everywhere none of by Miss Churchill was fame and glory actual knowledge of you, Miss Church. February 8. From the way the entries ministered a sudoritie, and put how to preenough in itself. To meet Miss ill," he began, "I have been learning run, we should be inclined to say they bed in a dark room. After sheeping is Churchill after his encounter with her to form an estimate of your character cover about two weeks purchases, about three hours, he awake, with a at Tregarthen was not a pleasant which has continually grown loftier. Here they are: thing. Looking back at that meeting, and now for months past I have had to Beer he felt that he had intruded himself im- admit to my own heart that admiration that pudently, and he remembered the and interest have ripened into love. Herries She stopped him there with a grave Tobacco.

dignity. . Pray forget that you have ever Beer. spoken so to me." He would have been Burter a more insolent wooer than Rouald Fig. falling more and more in love with the Marsh was disposed to be who had not Struck actress since the hour when he had dis- found himself arrested by this comcovered her poverty, and he was by mand. It left him without a single ray Rasins this time farther gone than any man of hope, and he saw as much at once, " can be with safety. He had admired They paced side by side for a few mo- Herray her, and had then had to pity her pro- ments in silence, and then she spoke Peer foundly, and then to admire her anew, again: "I did not mean to answer you "I know that," he answered, coming | 100 comedy, with her voice constantly in to a stand-till. his cars and her form and face con- "But," she said, pausing also, "I owe you an apology for an unintentional He had listened anxiously to what- decoit or you owe one to me for an in-again, but he did not see his way to I was first known upon the stage," she an avoidance of the engagement, pursued, with a tone of suppressed 52 are for whisky, beer and "drinks" William John Smith, "merchant in langer; "but I can searcely believe that William John Smith, "merchant in anger; "but I can scarcely believe that murder," and Lerrimer were at the you were unaware of my real name, or total amount of pareluses is $10.60. Some and with his old asserted in house before him, and Mrs. Tregarthen that you did not know enough of my but of this $4.35 is for these informal sits and reads to me in the exemptor. sat talking with them when he arrived, history to be sure that you were dis-"Dishonor my viff and you!" he in-

"Dishonor yourself and me," she repeated. "I shall be glad to know that Lorrimer not to remind the actress of "I had known," said Marsh, conhis former meeting with her. There fasedly, "that you had borne another was just a chance that she might not name. I had even some slight knowl-

escape the consequences of their last "My late husband!" There was meeting. If he had only known what look of sudden terror in her face, for it the meeting had led to on her side he | crossed her mind that Arthur and she would never have had the courage to were so far apart that he might have face her at all. Now, Mrs. Tregarthen died and she have been left in ignorwould almost beyond a doubt have lance. The poet would have been a recognized the picturesque young man dull dog indeed if the emphasis with who had helped to work such mischief, which she spoke and the fear he rend if she had seen him in his old guise. In her face had not guided him to the his head before her. "Forgive use any The actress suggested the alterations | pain I may cause you now. Mr. Tregarthen is alive?" "Yes," she said, faintly, "I pray so,

"Forgive me any pain I may have

Marsh offered her his arm with a respeci so obvious and profound that she availed herself of its support with noto face Miss Churchill a second time. hesitation, and they walked on together During the rehearsal of the accepted for a little until she had meevered from comedy he met her frequently, and so the tremer into which her fear had and more in love with her this, "that if I had known I could She on her side was prepossessed with never have spoken as I did. Rely upon the poet, and treated him kindly. He my most profound and respectful symwas a gentleman, and cultured; he pathy. There is nothing in this world never pestered her with flatteries; and to winch you may not command me, she, who had a native inclination to Forgive me the pain I have caused you, a touch of that rare quality in him. So "Let us say good-morrorg now, Mr. the poet was admitted to a sort of in- Marsh," she said, withdrawing her timaey, and, being busy upon a second | hand from his arm, and then extending comedy, was allowed certain half busi- it toward him. He took it is his own, CHAPTER X. Tregarthen's housekeeper brought in flour. Compare $2.35 spent in No hoste, or ex, or sharp, or any might, he surrendered suddenly and the child a second time, in accordance drankenness with an expenditure of other living angual on the face of the with her master's orders. She had $3.26 for flour in the same time! Look parth will drink a drop of water or any "The Lady Marguerite Capucine was done what she could to make him smart over the rest of the list of purchases: other listid smless thirty. Not so

"Bring him here," said Tregarthen, cents' worth at a time, probably to intoxicating until he becomes whereat who was stronger than he had been on render the bread and oleomargarine drank." He will "take a frink" Marguerite had found her way to Miss the previous day, though his eyes were hurter polatable to the little child! the doesn't want it, as a "complete still hollow, and his unshaven face Bet why comment longer on this to a friend, when invited thus ing woman (apart from the one eccen- looked somewhat ghastly. "What is pexy! The bare facts are enough for he will drink again, "of source."

"He has been ill?" said Tregarthen, mon instance of a man up

"And where were you going to?" "London."

"And who was with you on the "Avah," said Phil, with a small fist

"It is a curious thing, sir," said the once asked for his mother."

toving kindly with the child's hair.

TO BE CONTINUED.

TEMPERANCE.

A TELL-TALE PASS-BOOK.

Miss Churchill read the poetical com- long since have divined Ronald Marsh's moral it teaches that he handed it to hard-working woman.

chosen to be modest about his part of mighty nuisance, she has a fair idea of given by grocers to customers to whom langs to the superintendent the work, he had enriched its dialogue the number of her own admirers. But they give eredit, settlements being "Will you ask him?" and motive, until the poet's simile of apart from the fact that Mrs. Tregar- made every pay-day. The ensumer "Greight to the house and go that Mrs. Tregarthe work, the rickety child and the then was married, and had buried her brings it with hom when he buys any boy, said the superintendent, to a year beautiful woman was very fairly de- whole heart in the past, she was by thing, the grocer enters the purchase I presented the case. "I'll gave how a set scriptive of the changes he had wrought nature unobservant in this particular, in the book and also on his own good room and keep him as long as to in it for the better. But there were It crossed her mind that the poet might ledger, and the pass-book is returned you think best; and if you had a still things which the stage instinct of be displeased with something she had to the custody of the buyer, it serving woman needs coal, or food, or more a the the actress rejected, and news came to done in respect to his comedy-his as his memorandum, and preventing to pay her reat. I'll help her the poet that Lorrimer and Miss manner seemed to be speak displeasura disputes on settlement. The one in I found him on the verge of de-Churchill desired to meet him and his -and she answered, with a propitiatory question affords strong r internal proof fremens, trembling like an aspend of of of the enormous tribute that labor pays, and in that condition in which a person, gad moval of certain blemishes in the piece, Certainly. Mr. Marsh. I shall to the damnable rum power than any craves for something to charge to and listen to anything you have to say to words that we can write. We copy for the support and control of a in "From the earliest moment of my book, the latest page bearing date of stitution, gave him a warm but and sample of the whole book. Any four thite; we go out together to leave . pages, taken at random, would show He seems to feel safe only while he is to be he was President. With such facts should try be reach, - Parland doz.

Are Larri Complete 1 CARLET W. Ch. to commerce. 22 Whisley os Butter .12 1 drink in Turbuccon. Ju Willsky m Butter It I work form.

That the owner of this book is poor, is evident from the character and the for nearly three years, when I needed in the rienths of Democrats to arraigh Government can withhold from the small quantity of his purchases. As a summons from Mrs. L. to come to Bepublican party as a friend or ad- Senate paper that are on file in the small quantity of his purchases. As a summons from Mrs L. forome. direcs in the back, of regetables pur One of his former companions and per chased, we infer that he raised his own, snaded him to take tea with him. just which were probably stored in the cal- to show that the latter is tained to I ar, and afforded part of the subsist hardness, and finally induced him to I ence of his family. If they are any drink a gla s of wine, merely for all meat except the herrings mentioned, it was probably bought elsewhere. But ofor he was a soler man now, an leaving these stems out of the question, could take a glass without injury what a picture of poor fare and pinched. The result of this was to wake up the housekeeping do these entries show! old appetite. He drank again to That there is at feast one child in the again, and went home to he mother to family is probable from the it an, "doll, taxicated. Despairing now of his about seven cents." What chance has that to resist temptation, be procured some poor starveling hitis one, think you, landamum, and lying down on a bed of to grow to perfect manhood or weman- the rooms where his mother was bood, with sound body, with full playsi- work, unperceived by her, drank the ral powers, and education enough to person. So long a time had elapsed battle with the world on terms of equality with the children of men who are tion and could precure physicians, that free from the domination of the ac- the seison and passed into the circula corsed drink habit? None. It is see tion, and could neither be removed tor of the worst of the manumbered was neutralized. He seem after deal. that follow the drink habit, that the To grow into a strong adult, capable of bearing life's burders, a child must nection norther any thing more affecting have plenty of good, sourishing food, than the melancholy experience of the must be warmly clad, trust be well mother when compelled to realize that ern civilization, an education is as remitting toil and struggles with 900 necessary a preparation for the life erry, endured for the sake of that son, the children of drunkers parents very his own set and fill a drunk and signate." rarely have strong, well-balanced We plty him, but the man that minds; they inherit the enfeelded brain tempted him what shall we say of tries to cover, this man guzzled $1.55 thomponon. in beer, $2.05 in whisky, and 75 cents in rum and "drinks." In the same time, he and his family purchased $3.26 any thinking man. He can till out the in is offered to him by a lady. trouble to all the intellectual people 'Phil," said the boy, looking shyly pandul picture without aid. He can again and again as toust after toust she could lay her hands on), had at up at him, and dropping his eyes again. imagine the bare confortless home, offered at a public di mer. He are first secured the actress' liking and re- '-What else?' asked Tregarthen. He the pareworn wife, the ill-fed child, the drink to concellate a friend, will drink gard. A little coolness sprang up be- leaned forward from his heaped-up pil- goarsely-clad, blisted husband and to gaige political favor, will drink tween them, however, on the ground lows and fondled the child's head with father. Unfortunately, such cases are keep out the cold, and figure to that Lady Marguerite had asked Miss his thin hand. The boy murmored all too common. Any one familiar out the heat, and again schen took it ill that this request should be name, sir," said the housekeeper, of men going surely down to poverty, drink before breakfast and after made to her, and excused herself "I've asked him lots of times since he misery and death, dragging their to give him an appetie, drink to along with them. It is only the corn ward oil sickness, drain because the

pable rum traffic that can stand for a mneral. He will atrak when the pain animening insolence, but it would not of the places in which he could rely "Poor fellow!" said Tregarisen. moment in the sight of such a showing of death take hold of him. drick be dismissed. The hostler's philoso- uson a meeting with the actress; and "Come and sit on the bedside. Pail, -one which is simply representative view of a dread starnity, and in phy, as it applied to a class at large, now he began to manœuvre for a pri- and let us have a talk together. Help of uncounted others in all the cities and a return of the care valley. Yes. was sound. There were many people vate interview. One day it came, not him up, nurse. Where did you come towns of our land? Whit is there so will drink his was life away. sacred in rum that it must be allowed habits of drinking-unn not property it - who would much rather be laughed pure accident. The poet was strolling | Bombay," said the child, quite to continue its bellish work of making called beach, but infernal, for the men insensible to the needs of wife and neabeast on earth that could be undchildren, delikerately aretalizing and he thus disgressed and killed - N. ruining themselves day by day, steach- Ladependent. ly sinking deeper into the horrid pit which shall sooner or later engulf The New York Tribmig in smake them? What is there in this damna- of the death of John B. Cough, thus at either eye. Then, as by an after ble business that right should be al- dicates the "drink evil;" "Whom lowed to follow it? The rum-seller is riously studies any of the problem the first begtenant of the devil. He the time is speedily confronted nort of badge and proclamation -a sign | ceived him cordially enough, but with | housekeeper, whispering. "The child's | daily and hourly tempts men to barrier | drink evil. It swallows the saving been crying many a time for Ayah - their sonis for runs. He tempts them operatives. It furnishes the fo who ever she may be-but he never to exchange their manhood for the distion for a political corruption a rect and most hopeless form of shivery, threaters disaster to the state. "Is the ship's name known?" Tre- He casts over them a spell more terri- counteracts the bloom of the church garthen asked, his wasted hand still ble than that of Circe; for she only It buffus philantrephy. It reinfo surmed men into beasts, but rum turns socialism and the commune. It keeps "She was the Isle of Elba, sir," re- them into denses. Under its malign lowest classes brutal and danger of them into denses. Under its malign lowest classes brutal and danger of them into denses. Under its malign lowest classes brutal and danger of the President. The right of them into denses. Under its malign lowest classes brutal and danger of the President. The right of them into denses. Should a new transponded the housekeeper, "from Bom- in fluence, a unit is duty, a husband's and these next in order Phillistine and these next in order Phillistine and these next in order Phillistine and the second of the president. sponded the housekeeper, "from Bom- influence, a usen's duty, a husband's and those next in order Phillistine a bay to Liverpool. A hundred souls love, a father's care, are all swallowed aboard, sir," she added, lowering her up in a sessething, burning, God-active depression. Tregarthen boked at the cursed thirs. To satisfy that red-hot and as of instinct, it acts and resembled meaningly and then from her child meaningly, and then from beat blast from hell, when he feels it, a man against the progress of humanity, eve with a glance of inquiry to the bouse- will leave his wife to starve and his where making heavier the burdet hostler's philosophy sank deep, and the and but little sign in her aspect of the with a glance of inquiry to the bounder will leave his wife to starve and his where making heavier the burder poet departed from that wayside inn sorrows he knew her to have suffered. keep at . "Not another creature, "she children to perish. And the rum-seller cares not, so song as his victim has more our sponsive the mass s w distillery poison which he sells. He has already mortgaged his soul to the the devil a thousand fold, and the rule ry. want and suffering that his accorded felt absurdly ashamed of himself, and it was not easy to plunge in medias The Proof D Farnishes of the Enormous trade causes affects him not, if only he

"for Old Acquaintance's Sake." Such great events from little causes made up his desperate mind to the fulman. The cover is so dilapidated that sound men, and have come to ask if a hostler's speech made a tender, life- "Before we part, Miss Churchill," the name of the owner can not be you will take my poor son here, and long friendship possible for our poet, he said, "I have something to say to made out, else it would have been re- do something for him. Don't refuse and thereby so purified him and lifted you-something I must say, if only you turned to him. The finder, on examin- me, for I seem to be passing through and with a tragedy behind her, she might his ownership, was so struck with the forsaken. The speaker was an aged, literally the last four pages of the stronger nature. I took him to the inwo on his knees to allow him "just one god to steady his nerves and to take off on with; only one glass, and then be vould die go to sleep, and would love me as long as as he lived," protesting he "should the if he didn't have it." I r fused, but $ 163 gave him strong coffee and some light vo food, and finally got him into bed, at when, after sleeping more than fachours, his rest broken with convulsive starts, he awoke somewhat refreshed. and submitted to my control his a child. I talked with him, took long andkwith him in the open country (in his W by strength and appetite returned, and he are consented textry him menin, saying the wwhen sober, he was the last was to men be ever oursloved." He was then able to return home. At the could be more, both of us. My son is hims ore are no entries, save at one of two jumediately, for George was during. assumintance's sake, nothing more

Could imagnistion concerns a more curse falls heavily upon the children. sometempicture than is here presented in the bardest lines of maked fact of eared for physically; and in our most all maternal anxieties, long years of me buttle as a strong, healthy body. And | had resulted as rearing hims to die by him? Secrety firs too many men like In the two weeks we judge these en- him. - Fiv. Elizak Kellogy, in You'll a

What Man Will Do.

ury jelly and that purchased a few drink been not drink wine or any thing the money to say the brewery slop and regeteration is being attempted."

MORAL PARTY.

State Democracy Forgets to Blaging Speech of an lows total of an e a Few Monopolists. om the President recently widows a asions:

at Postmaster-General and shington's Birthday. They a the other. wible to follow the speeches orators in detail, but a few gest themselves as more the rest. It seemed to be opinion that the Republican was the representative and agent cope; dy and corporations - an trumpling it under foot. To day the cod by the virtuous representatives ati-r topoly and popular rights. this connection it did not seem to or to them that the Democratic y is to Explorensity a party of corthe, did not recollect Scott, the soft main monopolist; Brown and puitt, of Georgia, the railroad mo-lists: Vanderbilt and his one hun-I an I fifty thousand dollar check alcontrol of this country with the the influence of the New York ton absolutely defeated. These are now toncours and I say that the gauniet was there (atral r ad, which helped to carry N. d Yo k for Cleveland, Jay Gould's tribute as to both campaign funds the enthusiastic congratulations profound obligations to par every the Pr sident; the Standard Oil mooly, which, with the aid of oil and die, seat Payne to the Senate; the adar ! Oil Senator's son-in-law, forght for the South as well as the Sort they, occupying a place in the Cab- that my friend dat not due bland me date i fear that Coukling may here together the men who stood in a h h m in the Broadway railroad thina that those who cast that segalited and als associate in the Cabinet, are under as professed a moral and the Cabinet, are under as professed a moral and the Cabinet are under as professed a moral and the Cabinet are under as professed a moral and the Cabinet are under as professed a moral and the Cabinet are under as professed as a cabinet and the Cabinet are under as professed as a cabinet and the Cabinet are under as professed as a cabinet are under a cabinet are in ey i at that keeps the President total with you gettlemen and receive be been head over ears in corporathe I resident in the matter of noming touch me showing. I have not resident tions Forkes, the president of the large has come when sex were leage, & Burlington Company, who of campaign, and Potter, the general hagi r. who informed the President shirt was waved. put him into office. Last. t by no means least, not one of the taker remembered that Cleveland | ports is the men who are he got these, which are matters of common Truncs. to torier , before them, it does not lie | per If the executive branch of the bert's r suggests, of the appoint per if Spark als allowed to continue and to condomn the Dolpitin, the discoveries. A mone City down w. odghe Conkling, had to accept her on in the contract. It was also the pinien of Mr. Steams that Civilalthog and that the President was & apostle, notwithstanding that Mr. pringer was of opinion, that the parts rould not be satisfied until every Resouse he was a Republican, and notwiths anding that he was followed by stoven on, who has chopped off the thad of ten thousand postmusters and satil at work with hiseeaseless; clatand idea of Civil-bervice rform -Street Tribure.

SERVANT OF KINE

Before the United States Senate. We hope that the wrate will stand from in its de ermination to disclose to Mr. Chover Clevelanuthis realistatus in the telicial rester of this Government. There is absedant oxidence that Mr. Cles sland stands in conspicators need if it formation covering that point, and to to tire ecentry will be priod that he his espacity as President of the Est of Stars. Mr (flevelant has up- of the Scruter- He says until Months h Pr-leral offices beretofure held by sponsible to the Senate and the publicars, not for political reasons will not store that body and in july the himself i mists burfer serious ment on his actions. Burfare entire ment on his actions. Burfare entire tion did actions the fresident action did actions the action and the service of the Federal Gozments except by the expiration of do un fer the constitution made inthe -tigma of dishonor, the mark of not can to see how have it and and the fallness in public trust. Now it - Charge falor (some out des the Semble in its expacity as a or mest of the Enited States, and says own equatitutional prerogatives nation of the Broadway street Beerly shall not be sacrificed to make but be short working to seem the control of this and other prediction in a distribution of this and other prediction in a seem of the sacrification and franchises in New York City. It is and begus cry of Civil-Service re-C Prout; said in 1835, and Mr. Educed in boying through the Board of an other power to remove Federal Breadway said. It is common to the at "the power to remove Federal Breadway mad. It is common townto Bria's without cause is neither in talk that the Secretary of the Navy A creat in the Executive Department, went to the President when the drag ir casted by the constitution in that disclosures of Attories-General Garpartment, nor legitimately by prece- land's connection with the Parallies. Cougress of 1879 was intended to be lished in Democrafic nescapapers, and In I was restricted to the removal of ergod that Mr. Grand's resignation I afaithful dishonest and incompetent be demended. It is a matter of current Scials, and did not embrace the in- rumor also that Mr. Whitness threat 4-criminate removal of those who, on ened to resign from the Cabinet if Mr. Distry predilections, might become ob- of a social rather than political nature predict that the representatives of the name of the Attorney-General is bloom copie in the United States Senate, will Sed, it is generally conceded that trach him that fact in very pereraptory would be most disestrons to the Arte

SOLDIERS' WIDOWS

Certain Negative Vote. State Democratic Club of Extracts are given below for the rated Washington's birth- In espeech of David B. Hendere of enquet. There were not lows spon the bill reported from the to bright lights present. Appropriations Committee to because

Take the control on the bill to the second of the total rote in the negative was on the total rote in the negative was on the limit total rote in the negative was on the limit in the second of the limit in the South were at the more motoria. four than pointly recess to more a -- an executioner of cross-roads authority on any great question. were the most conspicu-statives of Democracy in both sites of the tour question, I was in to say of the general occae speeches had nothing to farasa Settlern authority, for the that a man who would note a month a all and at the same time make his leading of ciatory of the Republicans in this Courses to restore to every ad and apologetic for the and position Fits John Foster, tensor authority anywhere in the cooff T eignificant votes and a great recent learned from it. In the labe company party that waved the enumgement and The new that would ever again a charge, after that simple court must I want all members on the flow to or all an almost solid yets against the lowdown in that vote I arraign no gentleman on this floor for his Tote but I say there have seed on of this give by that before thee is under desperour flags were unfurled and we more Southward? Wastt something we pro-offer and descret when we turned our location booms and faced toward dought For his feet as much as I do to keep a real my own head, and new that we can a REPUBLICAN ITEMS.

uself was a corporation lawyer bes Clerk Dalton that the Ohio Legisla are

It was also the general opinion of books and all other sources of informais tri ; of eminent reformers that the | tion be closed? This will never do. if dian service had been purged of Res | the President must draw a line of him blican corruption, but no mention draw it at nostal-card. Communication ent of Gorman's line-worker, Morris his present acheme the housed penyaged tomes as indian Inspector, or that the United States night as well give chad been convicted of bailot-box up, for they will less more their all the affin f and falsifying returns and stealings, with interest on the amounts id berg barred out of business ex- The policy of mining all the benest tang a for dishorest practices. It land applicants in the country no acas also their opinion that the pary count of suspicious against other men. d been reformed, but they thegot to is a Sparks discovery, and it is ever spar ention that after packing a political with a good many other Democratic Dir The talk about scrilling the Page Electric scandal by inducing theread can's she faifilled every specifics to give up his stock is all necessare What he ought to give up in set his stock but his office. The view or worthlessness of his shares discount touch the heart of the motter a all in is simply scandbloom that a man who accepted a dormion of stock is any company having a public pharacter should occupy uplace in the Counct of the United States. In fact a men inperblic life has no business to account gifts of any kind . Coviral Lader.

Des A party hopefeedy stouded against itself, notherne which owner to delight in ombarrassing the recention brough of the Government a very possible occasion, a Secrete & where Democratic numbers the President was never confidence look for lay a secport, a Cubires the members of while view each other with empories these are among the fores of Mr. Care and a first year in solding. Who is to stone at With one record Democracy over the The Provident simulf; he is not by sympathy with the majorate of the enfts; he ile merged heref its wisten; he does not understand it and in dans it sure to. N. E. Tribung. per President Coreland sessagete the Senate is simply a notify at a midhe will no reweaply with the decard to bd several thousand Democrate meant to be a Bessive that the is course which Mr. Whitney is namber, far-And in this determination my Senate mished the rappey that Income Sharps The recognition of the powerby wie Telaphone entirprise were pub-Mr. Cleveland is not king here. He involved in a scandal which hide fall to the servant of the people. And 'we doubly discount that with which the Lashica and in extremely mort order. | intration. Washington Cor. Phil Deligit Tribune.

Another Scandal