JUDSON. Snow all last week and the roads are very bad.

Some farmers have sowed thei mall grain while others have no commenced yet, and some have not got their corn out yet.

Cattle and hogs as a general thing are looking well considering the long hard winter they have had to pull through, and most of them without shelter of any kind to protect them, but we think the farmers have learned a lesson from this year's oxperience, so they will be better prepared in the iuture.

Glad to hear from Bro. Helvern in his new home in Arkansas, but we expect to see him back to "God's country" about the Fourth of July shaking with the ague. Wm. Schrull, Chas. Steffen, and Mrs.
