

THE RED CLOUD CHIEF

FRIDAY, JUNE 18, 1886.

WE are contemplating offering a premium for the biggest liar in town. It might be a money-making scheme for those who haven't any particular calling to practice a little.—Blue Hill Winner.

Don't do it, dear brother! or you may have a bigger job paying out premiums than you anticipated. Competition would run high, and the fellows that would claim the prize would be legion, we are afraid, in Blue Hill.

First Day—Three minute trot for purse of $75. 2:30 trot for purse of $100. Running race, quarter mile and repeat, purse $40.

Second Day—2:45 trot, purse $100 County trot, purse $50. Running race half mile and repeat, purse $60.

Third Day—Three-year-old trot, purse $75. Free for all trot, purse $200 Novelty running race—first to quarter post $10; first to half post, $15.

The prices of admission to the ground are—single admission 25 cents, children from 8 to 15 years old, fifteen cents; single horse, 25 cents; double rig, 50 cents.

NEPTUNUS—One of the prominent social events of the season took place at Riverton, on Thursday, June 17. It was the occasion of the marriage celebration of our young and estimable friend, George Young, brother of John Young of this city, who was joined in the holy bonds of matrimony to Mrs. Nellie Outson, one of Riverton's charming young ladies. Mr. Young is well known both in Riverton and this city, as is his bride, and Tim Citer takes great pleasure in congratulating the happy couple on the event, and we hope that their joys and pleasures may be many. They will settle in Red Cloud for the future, where George will resume his position in Athow & Young's dry goods house.

F. C. WINTON, well known to our Red Cloud people, a resident here for many years, but lately of Riverton, has closed out his store there at a loss, purchased W. D. Forrester's store in this city, and will in the future run that business, along with a first-class stock of hardware. Mr. Winton is a thorough business man and understands the wants of the trade in both lines that he will deal in, and Tim Citer notes his change of base with pleasure. He will occupy Forrester's old stand until the new bank block is put up, when he will move into one of the rooms. The Chief welcomes Mr. Winton and family to Red Cloud again, and wishes him prosperity and success. See his new advertisement on the first page of to-day's Chief.

If President Cleveland complied with all requests for a look of his hair his head would be as bare as a billiard ball in less than a week. One lady from Indianapolis has written that she is poor, and asks the president to instruct his barber to forward to her all the hair cut from the executive heads. She proposes to make this hair into Cleveland charms and sell them to gentlemen to wear on their watch chains. Another person in Richmond, Va., wants the hair to stuff a pin cushion made of silk, taken from an old United States flag.—Ex.

If Grover will forward us a tuft of his hirsute appendages by mail post-paid, we will see that it is properly utilized, the rats are terrible thick in some portions of Nebraska.

There is certainly no sense in the indiscriminate way of laying sidewalks, as has been the custom in this city. It seems to us that a sidewalk should at least jibe once in awhile, and not be laid down like the weavings of a snake. Especially is this the case with the walk oneward street from Division street to G. N. McDaniel's residence. The walk does not match in any one instance, but runs all over the prairie. This is not the only case in the city either. For that matter there's hardly a walk that is laid down right. It seems to us that all walks should be put down under the supervision of the street commissioner, marshal or some one, and not allowed to be laid helter-skelter all over the streets. It should be the business of the council to see that the walks are laid right and we hope that they will attend to it.

Quarterly meeting at Plainview Saturday evening, June 19, and Sunday the 20th. E. E. Allen presiding. Mr. Haller received severe injuries from a vicious horse last week. Mr. Cook, brother of Mrs. J. L. Frame, was visiting in this part last week. He is pleased with our country. Mr. Brown and wife of Bloomington were visiting at John McCallum's and Thomas Mather's last week. Dr. Wakeman is kept going day and night. Oscar Jeffrey has gone to seek a home in the far west. Britton, Cure and O'Connor have returned from Kansas. Editor.

The Nebraska state board of agriculture have a scholarship in the New York veterinary college which will be donated to some enterprising individual resident of Nebraska who wishes to enter this field. Applications with recommendations will be received at this office until July 1st next. ROBERT FURNAS, Secretary, Brownville, Neb.

COWLES.

The weather of the past week has been extremely hot until the rain of Tuesday morning which revived drooping vegetation and gladdened the hearts of the tillers of the soil.

G. T. Clark is building an addition to his house.

E. L. Pratt packed his trunk and boarded the train last Tuesday, bound for the Rockies to spend the summer.

C. C. Bennett is off again on business this time to Mt. Pleasant, Iowa.

L. C. Gilbert started on Tuesday for Richmond, N. Y., his former home. He expects to return soon and bring his family with him to make this their future home.

J. L. Snodgrass is putting the finishing touches on the Cowles bank building this week.

The editor of the Cowles Herald made a short visit to Guide Rock, the first of the week.

The rink will be open for skating on Monday, July 5 during the day, and for a dance at night.

Wm. Lavery is about to open a meat market in Cowles. Success to him. C. W. Fuller has removed his family to his summer residence adjoining town. Windfall occupies the building vacated by Mr. Fuller.

Two large boys of our town met in the street one day this week and undertook to settle a difficulty by trying to exterminate each other. A peace officer arrived on the scene in time to prevent bloodshed and the loss of hair.

The Congregational church is this week being seated with chairs, and will be dedicated on Sunday, June 26. A cordial invitation is extended to all to be present.

Jasper Berry took the train for Colorado Wednesday morning, "going to look around a little." L. H.

A nice rain on last Monday night, good, but not enough.

Robert Hicks, who started for Texas in a schooner some time past is now on his way back. It is too dry down there for him.

Small grain was hurt very much by the dry weather.

Mr. Holsworth says that if there had come a rain two or three weeks ago he would have had another 1000 boxes of strawberries. As it is now he can not supply the demand for his best of strawberries.

Corn was looking quite bad before the rain on Monday evening.

D. E. Tennant has moved into his house, which he is painting now.

Uncle Geo. Winton has repaired and otherwise fixed up his barn which was unroofed by the wind storm some time ago, so that he has a nice barn now.

D. M. Platt is buying up young cattle now to feed for fall shipping. Farmers would do well to see him before selling elsewhere.

Mrs. Dickson and Mrs. Claypool have been on the sick list, but are improving now.

Ed. McCune has purchased a brand new top buggy for his wife to ride in. Sleeper and Sons were the makers.

Bob Harris has a new windmill. An "Industria" mill shows that its owner is an industrious man.

I wish that the editor of THE CHIEF would go and interview the weather prophet and see when we are going to have another rain, as my watery abode is becoming so small that the sun beats down mercilessly upon the head of Very warm weather at present. Amboy is crying for a store. Hay at the union depot, Amboy. Polly Brothers are on a trip west looking up some business matters. M. L. Chase spent Tuesday in Franklin.

Constantly emigrants are calling for things that a store could supply were there one here. Cannot someone come and help us out in this? Mr. J. Stickle, one of Amboy's young millers, contemplates leaving this week for his home in Hiawatha, Kan. Mrs. Goodwin, grandmother to Mrs. S. Simon, is visiting at this place. Miss Wright Sundayed at her home near Cowles.

Friends of Geo. Gray spent Sunday enjoying the cool shade trees of Amboy. You ask who was in Mr. B's strawberry patch. Enquire of the postmaster and assistant. CHATTERBOX.

Uncle J. Leah Rinker is again visiting friends on Walnut Creek. Mr. A. Pierstoff's nephew from Lohlf Creek, has been visiting him.

While Mr. Wm. Beedy was away peddling washing machines, which he makes, the news came to his family that his father, who lives near Smith Center, had suddenly died. His brother George started with his wife and three children to the funeral, and while crossing the creek at a place supposed to be safe they were all capsized. Mr. Beedy secured his sister-in-law and the older children, but the baby floated away and could not be found until it was drowned. They arrived at their journey's end with the dead child just as the people were returning home from the burial.

Mrs. Mark Noble is very sick. Messrs. David and Oliver Noble received a pair of dried sea-horses from their cousin who lives near the Atlantic coast, in New Jersey. They are quite a novelty. BETA.

I am prepared to furnish door plates which for durability, cheapness, beauty of design and finish, cannot be excelled. Samples on exhibition at the office of THE CHIEF. Your patronage respectfully solicited. C. E. Wood, Jr.

Wanted at B & M. Eating house, experienced dining room girls. No others need apply.

Strawberry Festival

The people of Cowles and vicinity.

gave a strawberry and ice cream festival Thursday evening June 10, for the benefit of the Union Sunday School. As the evening was fullest and the hall was crowded to its pleasant capacity, all did ample justice to the bountiful repast set before them. It was thought that the total receipts could be somewhat increased by the arrangement for two tables, and the leaders of each striving to see which could secure the greater number to eat their table. Accordingly, table No. 1 was superintended by Mrs. Chance, assisted by Mrs. Elson and Mrs. Fox, and table No. 2 was superintended by Mrs. Bazick, assisted by Mrs. Fuller and Mrs. Snodgrass. Both tables were a credit to the place and it is hard to say which deserves the most praise. Some thought that table No. 2 was a little the most showy, and it certainly was a marvel of neatness and beauty, but as table No. 1 received a little the most cash, we do not feel like expressing our opinion as to the superior merits of either table over the other. The ladies of table No. 1 wish to express their thanks to all who helped in the enterprise, and especially to Mrs. Gilford for the use of dishes and beautiful bouquets; to Peck & Latta for ice dishes; to Mrs. Ward for bouquets; to Mr. and Mrs. Livingston for use of hall and general help; and to the young ladies who helped arrange and wait upon the table. The ladies of table No. 2 wish to express their sincere thanks to all who rendered assistance, and especially the young waiters, Misses Mable Wright, Nettie Payden, Rosa Middleton and Dora Ward for the neatness and dispatch with which they discharged their work. We are pleased to record that the young folks of Cowles had altogether too much respect for themselves and the Sabbath School cause to engage in dancing after the festival as was thought by some they would. The receipts of the evening were $32.81, which will be spent in purchasing a Sunday School library. J. M. C.
