THE CHIEF has decided to reduce the size of the paper for a few weeks, until the money market becomes easier. In the meantime we shall charge only one one dollar per year.

There are some people too mean to live, and that class of people who make it a business to steal flowers and decorations from the graves in the cemetery ought to be severely dealt with if it is a shame and disgrace.

The heavy rains of the last few days filled up the excavations for the new jail. The stone, brick and iron are now on the grounds ready for use. Probably in the next 60 days we'll have a real new jail for people who don't behave.

The following are the names of the pupils in room No. 2, 1st ward, who have been neither absent nor tardy during the last school month: Vance Foe, Gertie Brown, Clara Able, Chas. Fort, Hervey Conover, Wilbur Drexler. BELLE SPANOGLE, Teacher.

In about thirteen days more will be decoration day. It is to be hoped that Red Cloud and the people of Webster and neighboring counties in Kansas will join with us, and properly observe the day set aside, for the purpose of doing honor to our dead heroes.

The amphitheater at the fair grounds is somewhat dislocated from its usual place, and is now strewn over various parts of the grounds. The wind storm of last week is what caused the rumpus, and it will cost the association quite a little money to replace it.

J. B. Maxon, superintendent of the Iowa "Q" Middle Division, 500 miles of road, who is largely interested in Webster county real estate, was in Red Cloud this week and paid THE CHIEF a friendly call. Mr. Maxon is one of the Pioneer "Q" superintendents, and we are pleased to note his success.

Charley Barber, who recently left this county for Greeley county Kan., has decided to return to Red Cloud. He reports to his father-in-law that it is almost necessary to get out a search warrant to find a spear of grass out among the sand hills. There are few better farming counties than Webster county.

John Tomlinson has reports from all over the state from various fire departments to the effect that the boys are coming to Red Cloud during the firemen's tournament. John is a rustler when he gets started, and with the aid of our fire boys and the state association, he will give Red Cloud a crowd that it has never seen before.

D. C. Smelser, one of the pioneers of Webster county, and a constant supporter of THE CHIEF for the last sixteen years, called and left with us a shiner for the coming year. Mr. Smelser is one of our staunchest supporters and has seen both Red Cloud and THE CHIEF grow up together. Thanks Mr. S. may you live to see the paper twice sweet sixteen.

Some smart Alec has suggested to the board of supervisors that they try to re-open the long-settled B. & M. back-tax business, that agitated the county years ago. It is our opinion that if the board go into that business it will be a great waste of money for no purpose, as they surely can gain nothing by re-opening the case except a stupendous law suit and a mess of attorney fees. The case has been settled satisfactory once, why not leave it alone?

Mr. Jos. Grandstaff, one of the most promising and enterprising farmers of Webster county, was in the city the other day, and while here, purchased of Uncle Peter Marsden two pure thorough-bred bulls. Mr. G. says that his cows are valuable stock and are making him ten cents per head daily. He sells the cream to the Blue Hill creamery and milks twenty-seven head every day, giving him the neat little sum of $18.90 per week. This gives a nice sum per week to Mr. Grandstaff, aggregating $85.60 per month. Who says a creamery would not be a fine investment for Red Cloud?

The Ladies' Gen. Com. will have a "strawberry" social, in the Y. M. C. A. rooms, Friday evening, May 24, '89.

On Monday evening Miss Loua Bellows, entertained her numerous friends at her residence on Walnut street, where the ever "progressive high five" was the attraction of the evening. All present enjoyed the evening immensely and tarried until a late hour. The following ladies and gentlemen were present:

Mollie Ferris, Ella Bennett, Mary Miner, Mabel McMillan, Lavilla Marsh, Rose Emigh, Pede Yeiser and Lillie Letson.

Harry Sowler, Will Letson, Ryland Yeiser, Dave Kaley, Pete Beachy, Bert Brewer, Mr. Stone, Fred. McKeedy and Tom Ferris.

Mary had a little lamb, its fleece was white as snow, it strayed away one summer day where lambs should never go. Then Mary sat her down, and tears streamed down her pretty eyes, she never found the lamb because she never advertised. And Mary had a brother John, who kept a village store, and he sat down and smoked a pipe and watched the open door. All the people passed along, but did not stop to buy, John sat still and smoked his pipe and blinked his sleepy eye. And so the sheriff closed him out, but still he lingered near, and Mary came to drop with him a sympathetic tear. "How is it sister that these other merchants here, sell all the goods and pay their bills and thrive from year to year?" Remembering now her own bad luck, the little maid replied: "Those other fellows got there because they advertise."—Ex.

Abraham Hays, druggist, Bellville, Ohio, affirms: "The best selling medicine I have ever handled in my 20 years' experience, is Electric Bitters." Thousands of others have added their testimony, so that the verdict is unanimous that Electric Bitters do cure all diseases of the Liver, Kidney or Blood. Only a half dollar a bottle at Henry Cook's Drug Store.

In the course of human events, it becomes necessary that the old shall again be smitten by loves-ly pranks. This is equally true in Red Cloud, as it is with a tearful eye and a sad and bleeding heart that the duty falls on our shoulders, to make the startling announcement that a nimble widower and a hustling widow with a twinkling eye have for some elapsed time been looking sweetly at each other. The aforesaid couple, we learn hail from the east.

Another wonderful discovery has been made and that too by a lady in this county. Disease fastened its clutches upon her and for seven years she withstood its severest tests but her vital organs were undermined and death seemed imminent. For three months she coughed incessantly and could not sleep. She bought of us a bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption and was so much relieved on taking first dose that she slept all night and with one bottle has been miraculously cured. Her name is Mrs. Luther Letz. Thus writes W. C. Hamrick & Co., of Shelby, N. C.—Get a free trial bottle at Henry Cook's Drug Store.

An Editor's Prayer.

I would flee from the city's rule and law, from its fashions and forms cut loose, and go where the strawberry grows on its straw, and gooseberry grows on its goose; where the catnip tree is climbed by the cat as she clutches for the guileless and unsuspecting rat on the rattan bush at play. I will watch at ease the saffron cow and the cowlet in their glee, as they leap in joy from bough to bough on top of a cowslip tree, and list while the partridge drums his drum and the woodchuck chucks his wood, and the dog devours his dogwood plum in primitive solitude. O, let me drink from the moss grown pump that was hewed from the pumpkin tree! Eat mush and milk from a rural stump, from form and fashion flee, new garnered mush from the mushroom vine and milk from the milkweed sweet; with luscious pineapples from the pine, such food as the gods might eat. And then to the white washed dairy I'll turn, where the dairy maid hastening hies, her ruddy and gold red butter to churn from the milk of her butter flies; and I'll rise at morn with the earliest bird, to the fragrant farm yard pass, and watch while the farmer turns his herd of grasshoppers out to grass.

A sleeper is one who sleeps. A sleeper is that in which the sleeper sleeps. A sleeper is that on which the sleeper runs while the sleeper sleeps. Therefore, while the sleeper sleeps in the sleeper, the sleeper carries the sleeper over the sleeper, under the sleeper until the sleeper which carries jump the sleeper and wakes the sleeper in the sleeper by striking the sleeper on the sleeper, and there is no longer any sleeper sleeping in the sleeper on the sleeper.—Ex.
