Capital publishes the following: "The report of Mesers. Ewing, Campbell and Bruce, the commission that investigated the Pension Office, though closely guarded by Interior Department officials, is gradually becoming known. Printed copies of this report are now, and have been for some time, in the hands of all the members of the Cabinet. Commissioner Tanner has one, as also has Major Warner and Colonel Dudley. By degrees its contents are being divulged. It is known that the report takes up each re-rating case separately and each case is an exhibit in itself. Stress is laid upon the fact that Deputy Commissioner Hiram Smith, Jr., received over six thousand dollars as a re-rating. This action of his comes in for severe criticism in the report. Whether Mr. Smith has returned this money or not the report does not state. Mr. Smith receives his pension at the Topeka agency. Secretary Noble, in view of the report of the commission, has himself questioned Mr. Smith as to the facts attending the rerating. It is not known definitely whether Mr. Smith's certificate of re-rating is signed by himself as acting commissioner or by Commissioner Tanner. The papers in his case went through during Mr. Tanner's absence from the Pension Of-

The report also condemns Mr. Squires in round terms, especially for his action in making cases special. It states that Mr. Squires possessed the stamp of Mr. Tanner as Commissioner, and affixed it to papers without the Commissioner's knowledge. The number of such casesa very large number-is given, and Commissioner Tanner is criticised for his gross carelessness in thus intrusting his official prerogative to a mere private secretary, who violated the confidence reposed in him. The names of the Pension-Office officials who caused themselves to be re-rated form a conspicuous part of the report. Several were discharged at the time by Secretary Noble, and they now point to the fact that the one who received the largest amount of all-Deputy Commissioner Smith-is still in office.

Said a member of the board which made the investigation:

There was but one of two things for the President to do in view of our report, either to dismiss every one of us from the service as unworthy of belief. or else relieve Mr. Tanner from office."

The same member intimated that the chief culprits were still in position, but would soon follow Mr. Tanner into priwate life.

NEW YORK, Sept. 28 -A newspaper correspondent telegraphs: "A serious accident occurred on the New York Central road at 11:40 last night, two miles east of Palatine bride. The first section of the St. Louis express, which left New York at six o'clock had broken down, an accident having happened to the steam chest, when the second section, which was composed of eight vestibule sleeping coaches drawn by a sixty-ton engine and running at the rate of thirty miles an hour, dashed into it. The first section was drawn by Conductor at once ratified and confirmed on motion Weeks, had a baggage, express and mail cars and three coaches which were packed with people, one Wagner sleeper and two private coaches. The private car Kankakee telescoped the first vestibule sleeper for half its length. The only damage done to the day coaches was the crashing of the windows and putting out the lights. The first, third and fourth tracks were littered with wreckage.
