M. W. Dickerson has one of the finest equipped commission houses we have ever observed. Dick is one of those fellows that will always do business if there is any to be done.

Jack Miller, that ingenious prince of sore-head botlers is traveling over the county with the democratic candidates trying to elect them to office. Poor Jake is in the soup.

The soiree musicale the first of a series of entertainments to be given by the Congressional League held at C. W. Kaley's residence and was a first class affair. We have heard it spoken of very highly.

Talking with a prominent Superior gentleman the other day he informed us that it was more than likely that the road from Salem to this city would be built. Hope so. Red Cloud is the best business center in the state for her size.

We are sorry to learn that the little girl, baby about six weeks of age, of Mr. and Mrs. P. W. Mo., died on the 20th of lung fever. THE CHIEF along with their many friends, extend its heart felt sympathies to the bereaved parents.

The voters of Webster county are warned to keep shy of the leading outfit of Dickery and company who are using their best endeavors to defeat the republican nominees by making a tie up with the F. & M. bank if they will sign his bond, if he is elected.

If the B. & M. folks want to do the nice thing by Red Cloud they should appoint Aaron Conover agent. He is a smart, nice fellow to put up with and the F. & M. ought to give him the name and reward him for his institutions to duty and business. THE CHIEF would be pleased to hear of his appointment.

Mr. D. in the Helmet, puts us in mind of the republican in our times, who went into the temple and trampled his maker that he was better than other people. Such a fellow as 'D.' is very silly and foolish and his name, at every body knows that George Munroe is beyond reproach as a gentleman and christian.

McKeely, the villain of good citizens, and the prince of botling outfits, has the supreme of leading to say that the First National Bank is the only one meeting for the county funds, which is a beautiful care-based one at that. He is turning heaven and earth to elect Foster the democratic nominee and that he, McKeely, is assisting that faction in the fight. We do not believe that the voters will consent to such baseless insinuations as McKeely writes.

A meeting will be held in the Y. M. C. A. building Tuesday evening to discuss the delegates who attend the state convention at Omaha. We do not expect to have a very large meeting, but we predict that this one will eclipse all previous affairs of the kind in the state. The speakers who address the gathering are Mr. D. in the Helmet, and Mr. D. in the Helmet. We can't afford to miss the privilege of hearing them in the hall. The Y. M. C. A. orchestra will furnish the music.

The voters of Webster county should look out for the big S and their botling outfit, or they are liable to get a hot time. The big S is a party who is trying to get the county funds, and his henchmen are peddling all kinds of untruths over the county on the various points of business. We do not want to be waded for the people to take their stories with a grain of salt. In these some cheap only want to get hold of the county funds for the purpose of associating, and have made a tie up with Foster for this purpose.

Anything for Boodle.

There is one paper in the county and only one so far as we have heard, that has freshly placed itself on the market for the purpose of getting to take up the side which would pay the most money. No less than three of the anti-bowler men were approached on the subject, but refusing to "come down" the paper in question may be expected to stand for the "straight ticket." The influence of a paper which thus lays its conscience on the altar of mammon is not worth much and if the bootlers paid much of a price they made a poor bargain. - Helmer.

You, bet you, Plumb, and that is about the boat you are in just now. Having gone into the big S boodle outfit yourself, displays great gall in calling another fellow a viper for trying to fall in with the same chaps. Consistency thou hast certainly faded from Plumb's phiz.

EDITOR CHIEF:—If you think the few words which I have to say are worth a space in your columns you may then publish the same, as the political trickery which as a general rule effects cities and especially the wards in large cities seems to have emigrated to Webster county, and especially Red Cloud. I, as a straight republican rise and protest against such fraud, and more so against some few so called republicans who are so vindictive because they can not rule that they propose to ruin. In the first place was not the republican convention at Red Cloud conducted on square, honorable, and upright principles was not the 104 delegates who represented the republican party of Webster county at that convention, honest reliable men and men of true principles? Did not these same delegates to the best of their judgment and belief nominate to the several officers those in their belief who were best qualified and to the general interests of the county at large. Then why should a few sore-heads who cannot be king over all the survey, be tolerated in circulating the blasphemous lies broadcast over the county with the malicious intent of injuring the straight ticket as nominated and if possible defeat the same or that portion of it which does not happen to meet with their personal approval. Such men I say should be read out of the republican party at the very next convention and it is my opinion that the delegates from this precinct will be so instructed to assist in doing it. If 104 delegates as the representative of the republican party don't know who will serve to the best interests of the county, then I say that we had better do away with the present system of conventions and let the half dozen principals in the botling faction do the business instead of the majority. In conclusion I will say that every delegate at the late county convention should take the work in his own hand and see that every true republican is at the polls on the 5th day of November, and that he votes the straight ticket as nominated at the convention. The ticket is a straight republican and is composed of farmers who are the peers of those who wish their defeat. Hoping to see a splendid majority for the ticket and that tricksters have migrated to more seductive climes, I remain as ever, A TRUE BLUE REPUBLICAN.

Another wonderful discovery has been made and that too by a lady in this county. Disease fastened its clutches upon her and for seven years she withstood its severest tests but her vital organs were undermined and death seemed imminent. For three months she coughed incessantly and could not sleep. She bought of us a bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption and was so much relieved on taking first dose that she slept all night and with one bottle has been miraculously cured. Her name is Mrs. Luther Lutz. Thus writes W. C. Hamrick & Co. of Shelby, N. C. —Get a free trial bottle at Henry Cook's Drug Store.
