

ROYAL BAKING POWDER Absolutely Pure.

This powder never sours. Made of pure strength and it is stronger than the ordinary kind and cannot be sold in competition with the adulterated low test short weight ones. ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO. 100 Wall Street, N. Y. City.

FARM LOANS.

I have the agency for ten different loan companies, and can give you the benefit of any of their peculiar plans of making farm loans. Therefore I can make a farm loan quicker and at lower rates than any other agent in Webster county. I make option loans or straight loans for 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, or 7 years. Also on first class city property. Compare my terms before placing your farm loan, and save money and regrets. G. W. BANKER. Rear Red Cloud Nat'l Bank.

Go and see R. A. Handy. Glass and putty at Deyo's.

The best corn husker's soap is sold by Deyo.

Best gloves and largest variety at Berg & Galusha.

Benj. VanDyke of Iowa was here week visiting his nephew.

Hard coal at cost at R. A. Handy's.

Money will not buy enough votes to defeat Hummel although it has bought Mrs. Ducker, mother of J. J. Ducker, and her daughter have returned to Illinois.

It would not be a bad idea to have the name of 6th Avenue changed to church street.

Remember Berg & Galusha are the only merchants that sell the "Patent Shoulder" suits.

Mrs. F. W. Weaver, daughter of Wm. VanDyke has returned to her home at Danbury, Neb.

50 cts buys a suit of underwear or $3.50 buys a finer suit than any one else sells. BERG & GALUSHA.

The cold chilly blasts of winter are upon us, and old Boreas seems to be getting ready to give the people a "cold shake" this winter.

Come to D. B. Heard's for cutlery. Eighty patterns of pocket knives to select from and twenty patterns of table cutlery all at Chicago cost.

Mrs. A. C. Hosmer, and daughter Ethel, wife and daughter of THE CHIEF have departed for Illinois where they go for a few weeks visit to friends.

George Ducker, our Kansas friend, has been in the city this week. By the way Mr. Ducker has recently joined the immortal band of Benedictis. We extend congratulations.

Mr. A. K. Goudy, the present superintendent of the public schools, is doing splendid work for our schools and under his efficient management, and with an able corps of assistants, the schools will make good progress.

We understand that Plumb admits that he is to be, or has been rewarded for his sell out to the big S. For shame Plumb. Come be a man, and try to get above the founder of the Helmet. It isn't too late to redeem yourself.

Persons buying clothing are always in fear of being taken in, but when they can deal with an honorable house like the Golden Eagle has proven in the last six years this fear vanishes. C. Wiener has always made good anything that is not satisfactory. Goods are sold by him on their merits.

Plumb says that John McMillin's testimony was "willing testimony" that he was promised nothing. We fear Mr. Plumb that that is another lie that you will have to answer for. John McMillin stated to the editor of THE CHIEF in the presence of witnesses that "if the election went right, he would be rewarded." How about that assertion. Mr. Plumb, is that willing testimony or is it purchased?

For correct fitting clothing go to Berg & Galusha.

Look at those fur trimmed overcoats at Berg & Galusha's.

Furniture of all kinds cheaper than ever at F. V. Taylor's.

All goods are sold at the New York Store at the lowest cash prices.

A fine line of jeans, cassimeres and fannels at the New York Store.

Berg & Galusha don't let prices stand in the way of a sale, small profits suits them.

$2.00 buys an overcoat of Berg & Galusha's that other people imagine they are getting bargains in at $3.50.

Remember we sell a melton overcoat for $15.00 that other people ask $20.00 for.

BERG & GALUSHA.

The Golden Eagle as usual has a large stock of gloves and mittens. Buying all kinds of goods in large quantities enables him to buy and sell cheap.

You can't miss it if you buy a pocket knife at Cottings. He has nothing but new good and his prices suit these close times.

Tommy Fisher is boiling mad. Some skunk of a fellow stole the bridle off of his horse on Sunday in daylight. Tom says he will get even with the fellow if it takes a year.

The Prohibs over the county are kicking Plumb pretty hard for falling a victim to Dock McKeeby's duplicity. A man who will betray his friends in the hands of the Philistines is no man at all.

We will give Mr. Plumb $50 for every chattel mortgage that he can find on the records or elsewhere against this office and held by the First National bank. For shame Plumb, when you have to lie to carry a point.

A director says the F. & M. bank won't sign Fassler's bond unless he will agree to put the money in their bank. Fassler has evidently tied up with the big S. This is a sad commentary on the democratic nominee.

Just step into J. J. Ducker's store and see the crowd in there buying dry goods, cloaks, etc. and note the pleased look on their faces as they go out of the store with big packages under their arms and you will no longer wonder why John is so popular.

Mr. Joseph Cowgill father of J. E. Cowgill aged seventy five years, had a very sudden stroke of paralysis on Friday last, from which he never recovered and which caused his death last Tuesday. He was buried on Wednesday. The friends have the sympathy of the community in their affliction.

Plumb, in a hired reply for McKeeby, in regard to the congressional proxy in the Chief of last week says that Burden was indignant. We don't think he was, or could be half as indignant for the double proxy, as he should have been when money was offered, or paid for the proxy by Dock McKeeby's hireling, Wright Thornburg. The same outfit offered fifty dollars for another proxy to the same convention.

That pompous, egotistical, self aggrandized, small calibred individual, known as Windy Plumb, who has recently sold out his principle to the big S, says "he has no fight against the republican party." It would appear not, from the way he tucks Geo. Hummel, a temperance man, for a man who makes no pretensions. No, Plumb your brains are too low down to be of much use to you in fighting for or against any party.

THE CHIEF is given up pretty much this week to a showing up the boodler bolters who are trying to defeat the regular republican ticket by attempting to elect a democratic ticket. The people will hardly endorse such actions. Mr. Hummel is well qualified to fill the office, is an old settler, and if elected will go into the office unpledged to any bank or faction. A more honest and honorable man never lived than George Hummel, republican candidate for county treasurer.

Speaking of the McMillin affidavit, in which we stated that John McMillin received money for his affidavit, Mr. Plumb, (McMillin's illustrious step-father) says: "The statement is but a sample of the efforts to defend the bank outfit which holds a mortgage on a man's soul as long as it holds a mortgage on his property." That is probably the reason, Plumb, that you turned over to the big S. You know that the Red Cloud National bank holds a chattel mortgage on the Helmet. You evidently speak from experience.

If the F. & M. bank is not in the fight for Fassler why are democratic expenses held there, and why are its friends doing all they can to bolt the regular ticket and elect Fassler? We think we can answer the question, which is simply the fact that by so doing they expect to get hold of the county funds. The bolting outfit are all patrons of the F. & M. bank without an exception, and still that prince of usurers, McKeeby says they are not in the fight. O no, its very plain that Simons, Jake Miller, Funk's brother-in-law, and Dock McKeeby are running over the county for their health. They are trying to defeat the ticket and in order to do it are lying about it.

The following important correspondence annexed hereto between J. S. White of Blue Hill and Geo. W. Hummel, republican candidate for treasurer, we clip from the Blue Hill Times of Friday, and for the benefit of the people, give it publication in THE CHIEF:

A Square Deal from an Honest Man.
BLUE HILL, Oct. 24, '86.
EDITOR TIMES.—

Dear Sir—At the risk of incurring displeasure in some quarters by publishing what perhaps should be regarded as private correspondence, I enclose you the following letter which speak for themselves.
Very truly,
J. S. WHITE.
Member Central Committee.

BLUE HILL, Oct. 21, 1889.
G. W. HUMMEL, Esq.
Red Cloud, Neb.

DEAR SIR—I just returned on Sunday last from a visit to Illinois which explains my absence from the meeting of the county central committee, and glad to inform you that the disposition here on the part of republicans is to stand by the whole ticket. Some of our democratic friends are circulating the old story about your being tied up with the First National Bank of Red Cloud and the First National Bank of Blue Hill etc, but without any effect that I can see. Your republican friends here, think they are justified in saying that this story is without any foundation. Are they not right in this? Think you will have no reason to complain of us making the inquiry especially in this present.

J. S. WHITE.
Member Central Committee.

RED CLOUD, Oct. 23, 1889.

MY DEAR WHITE—Yours of the 20th just at hand. I need not say how heartily I appreciate the work, which I hear from other sources besides your letter, you and your friends are doing in my behalf. You are quite right in saying to your friends in Blue Hill that I am in no manner pledged to either the First National Bank or to any other bank in this city or county. My enemies have seen fit here and there to question my competency for the office. If elected however, I think I shall not only demonstrate my competency but also my ability to fill without any assistance, the office of treasurer of this county. I have to say here and now that neither the First National Bank nor any of its officers nor anybody authorized to speak for it has ever mentioned the subject of the county deposits to me nor to any one for me, nor have I ever pledged myself nor have I any understanding directly or indirectly with that bank or any of its officers or anybody acting for it, or any other bank or any of its officers as to where the county deposits shall be placed. I do not propose that anybody or any institution shall dictate to me how and in what manner I shall fill the office if elected. Returning my hearty thanks to you and your friends for your confidence in and kindness to me. I remain,
Truly Yours,
G. W. HUMMEL.

If, as brother Plumb says, the signature "S. D." is not necessarily private we call on him to give the name of the writer. We certainly do not believe that any christian, moral man, not deficient in intellect, will deliberately advance the doctrine that good people should stay out of politics, and turn over all departments of county, state and national government to those who make no pretensions to religion or morality. That article of his brands him either as a fool or snide chistian, and if he is really the kind of a man the Helmet describes him he should first see himself for libel for writing it and then prosecute Plumb for giving it publicity.—Blue Hill Times Winner.

Look at that natural wool underwear at Berg & Galusha's

Overcoats cheaper at Berg & Galusha's than any where in the city.

The New York Store is headquarters for the the best makes of boots and shoes.

Farmers when you come to town take a little time and examine Berg & Galusha's prices.

Deyo is selling albums 20 per cent cheaper now than you can buy them for during holidays.

Deyo takes subscriptions for any paper or magazine published and saves you expense of sending.

Don't spend a dollar for anything in the clothing line until you examine prices and qualities at Berg & Galusha's.

Our universal low prices are what catch the large buyers from outer towns. The last ten weeks they have been quite numerous with us.

BERG & GALUSHA.

The new Christian Church will be a credit to the organization by which it is being erected. There is certainly one thing about Red Cloud that can not be said of many cities of her size, viz: that she has more churches than majorities of three times her size.

What will you do with all the clothing, etc., is asked every season of C. Wiener, but when one sees that the piles of goods are way down at the end of the season we do not wonder what induces the Golden Eagle to lay in such heavy stocks. People appreciate big stocks and much more the low prices that are always given by C. Wiener.

RAILROAD NEWS.

Low Joints and High Centers.

(BY EDW. F. HONEYCUTT.)

We rode out of McCook last Sunday morning on the "Flyer" pulled by engine No. 2 with W. D. Burdette at the throttle. He had a train of nine vestibule coaches, and the way he got them over the road truly merits the name of "Flyer" for the train. From Holdrege to Hastings was made at the rate of a mile per minute, and when we went through Junction it took two persons to see us, one to say "there she comes" and another to say "where she goes." If you want to make a quick and comfortable trip from Denver to Chicago, ride over the Burlington.

J. H. Daggart called at our office Tuesday and spent an hour socially. Mr. Daggart is a Red Cloud boy. Just two years ago Tuesday he commenced railroading for the B. & M. and he has attained to the position of conductor. This is evidence that he is a rustler and that the B. & M. appreciate a man if he attends to business.

What might have been a very serious accident occurred as No. 130 was coming in from the west last Friday evening. Between Oxford and Ordway the train broke the rear brakeman not knowing what had happened got out and commenced setting brakes. When he came to the end of the detached part he had it under control and it was moving very slow. Thinking he was going to land safely on the other car he gave a jump for it, but he was surprised beyond measure when he struck the track just ahead of the detached part of the train. He came out with only a few slight bruises, a result of a leap in the dark.

Come in boys and tell us what you know. If someone gets his finger where a linker pin should be, and it is more or less mashed we want to know it. Then there is no one who will sympathize with him like a newspaper reporter will. If the Old Man puts you in the "sweat box" let some of the other boys tell it. If some of the boys goes visiting for a few days, or if one of the engineers make a fine run and covers himself with glory let us know it, so we can tell his friends of it. We are here to give the railroad news. Call at our office and get acquainted.

McKeeby makes the assertion in his organ "that the conservative business men of Red cloud are opposed to the methods the republicans use in selecting the candidates for county offices." That is a very sagacious statement on behalf of our Quindine friend. The statement is a barefaced falsehood of McKeeby's own hatching. There are not to exceed a half dozen firms in the city who kick on the ticket, and they are of McKeeby's ilk viz: bolters and democrats. As to the democrats THE CHIEF has no kick but for a presumed republican to sell his political honor for a "mess of pottage" we have no regard for him whatever, and that is what the big S are doing. Only trying friends, to get even by defeating one of Webster county's best citizens viz: George Hummel, who is positively not a tool for any bank or faction but an honorable, upright, fair minded gentleman, and if elected will deposit the funds equally and honorably no matter how many lies the big S tell on him. These are the unvarnished facts in the case.

Dastardly Work.

Some man or men too mean to draw an honest breath, in order to vent their spite on Capt. Munsell, threw poke root in his horses manger and poisoned them so badly that one died and the other made unfit for future work. The value of the team was something like $400 and Mr. Munsell had refused that amount several times for the team. A man who will do such dirty work should be classed with the lowest type of manhood, and if caught should pay the severest penalty that the statute persecutes.
