

Stop It by Voting the Straight Republican Ticket.

Think of the bitter, abusive political campaigns that are inaugurated regularly every two years, by which friendships are broken, truths betrayed and lives sacrificed. In the interest of safety, in the interest of peace, in the interest of harmony, in the interest of common sense, in the interest of this thing, stop it now.

And THE CHIEF hopes that the people will down the democratic ticket, and stop the infernal fighting that the big 8 hold-ers have been guilty of, year after year, causing discussion in the ranks of the party, and doing their utmost to create bad feeling and bad blood among our citizens. There could not have been any bad blood in this city, and things would have passed along quietly had the holders stayed by the reins as a ticket, as did the other faction one year ago. The big 8 are simply responsible for the strained condition of affairs in this city.

D. B. Heard 4th page.

Read the Red Cloud Republican with a great deal of allowance this week. Dock McKeedy the man who has almost ruined Red Cloud by his selfish and revengeful spirit, is the editor of that paper, and is backed by such men as Jim Hiner and J. A. Miller, the ex-c. counterpart of the so temptible Lookey, all of whom stop at nothing, and care but little for the town, just so they can carry their ends, therefore you can expect that our best citizens will be vilified and traduced in that disgruntled sheet this week, as it is on the eve of election. If you want the city to grow, wipe them out next Tuesday, and do it effectually, and the city will then prosper.

Rev. Hummel has claimed from the first that he made no pledges to the First National Bank.—Helmet.

McKeedy did not write the above for it is the truth, although it does not state all that Mr. Hummel claimed from the start. He claimed farther that he had made no pledges to any bank or any person connected with a bank. He was approached by a representation of one and only one bank. That was E. B. Smith one of the directors of the F. & N. bank of this city. Mr. Hummel stated to the gentleman that if he was elected their bank would be treated fairly, and the Chief believes that Mr. Smith himself would be satisfied with an equal division of the county funds. But McKeedy made him and the other officers believe that they could get the whole of the money by howling, "First National Bank ring," "boodlers," etc. Thereby getting away with their better judgment and causing them to forget two years ago when (as in this case with Mr. Hummel) they could find nothing against Mr. McNitt so raised this hue and cry.

This Dock McKeedy has a number of times boasted of buying a paper in Wisconsin and defeating an objectionable candidate and was foolish enough to think he could do the same thing in Webster county. McKeedy is not now, and it is fair to presume that his paper there was not profitable or he would have stayed there. Another strange coincidence. We understand he practiced law at one time and one party informs us that he practiced medicine for a while. Now mind you he came here practiced law for a while and loaned Mr. Haincom's money until Mr. H. was drawn into too many merry suits that he did not understand as he had loaned the money at 10 per cent. Now he is running a newspaper. Do you see. We would advise him to find a less intelligent class of people next time. Eh, Docky.

Look Here.

On and after the first day of November 1889, I will positively not sell goods on time, except on building contracts or on bankable notes.

A. MORHART.

To the Voters of Webster County.

Next Tuesday you will be called upon once more to say whether this gang of boodlers in Red Cloud are running the politics of this county or whether the people are. They have been diligent in circulating all kind of malicious stories in regard to Mr. Hummel, while Mr. Hummel and his friends of the straight republican ticket have been making a clean and manly fight and have not been disposed in anyway try to injure the personal, financial, or social standing of any of the opposing candidates. While the big 8 outfit led by such men as McKeedy, Joe Garber, Simons, Joe Warner, young Thornburg and Plumb, wagging behind have devoted their entire time in slandering in every way everyone opposed to Fessler for treasurer. They have succeeded in getting a few sore-heads outside of their own regular gang to assist them. But who are they. Look at the men in your own precinct who are opposing the straight republican ticket. Are they men whom you can believe, are they men whom you think are acting honestly themselves, are they men whom you think honestly believe the very stories they are telling you in regard to Gen. Hummel. There are some two or three of those men who went before the Republican county convention asking for favors, but the people saw fit to bestow them elsewhere. Then this big 8 outfit went to them and represented that they were sold out and they must help to defeat the ticket and thereby get revenge. (Joe Garber says revenge is sweet.) Of course the outfit then says, Hummel is the only man we can defeat and we will turn our whole attention to him. Any man who knows the outfit knows that this gang never attempted anything with an honest motive, and these are the fellows the people of this county have to fight at about every election. They have been snowed under the last few times they have attempted the regular bolt, and the Chief thinks this time will cover them beyond resurrection. Even a large portion of the democracy we are not fighting the battles of the big 8 and propose to have nothing to do with them or the fight.

CITY NEWS.

Go and see R. A. Handy. Glass and putty at Deyo's. The best corn husker's soap is sold by Deyo. Combs, tooth, nail and hair brushes at Deyo's. For silk and worsted underwear go to Berg & Galusha. Gulliford & Honeycutt will make loans on city property. Put some wedding cake in the pot and receive it. —D-d-ed to the Helmet editor. The district court, by order of Judge Gaslin, has been adjourned to November 18th 1889.

One must see the underwear before they can appreciate the low prices at which C. W. Hiner is selling it.

Don't fail while in town to drop in and see D. B. Heard. He makes prices on the 4th page which are certainly cheap.

It will pay you to visit D. B. Heard's cash hardware store. Prices have gone down 33 1/2 per cent since yesterday. This is a fact.

Dock McKeedy, Wright, Thornburg, Charley Outher, Jimous, et al have a supreme amount of gall to enter a republican cause after bolting the republican county ticket. That outfit should be asked to step down and out of the republican party.

Turn to the fourth page and you will see something that will interest you. D. B. Heard has resolved to close out at retail. This is certainly a great chance for the farmers of Webster and adjoining counties to lay in hardware at wonderfully low prices.

The republican outfit, headed by Dock McKeedy, prints the Helmet this week free and furnishes the paper, yet Plumb says he is not let up with them. Oh, no, they just own him body and breeches. For Plumb is in the soup and the prohibs will settle his hash for tying up with the big 8 or we mistake the signs of the times.

McKeedy says (through Plumb's quill) that the F. & N. bank is not putting up boodle to elect Fessler, which is a decided falsehood. They have not only put up boodle, but have agreed to pay Fessler 2 per cent interest on county deposits. The bank has made all kinds of propositions to people and have used money freely to buy votes for Fessler and have even held clubs over the heads of men to compel them to vote for Fessler. That's the kind of men they are, their statement is that they have not spent money to elect Fessler to the mercet bank.

Red Cloud, Nebraska.

R. A. Heard was nominated for treasurer on Wednesday evening. A. H. Kaley and C. F. Cather supervisors. A. West, Geo. Barber, C. Church and T. W. Hatfield justices. W. W. Gilbert, J. C. Warner, C. L. Wolfrey constables.

Plumb's 70 business men who are opposed to the straight republican ticket are complete a falsehood as could be possibly told by a man who should follow out the divine precept. "Thou shalt not lie." The facts are out of 45 firms in the city 75 of them will vote for Hummel and the republican ticket. Mr. Plumb, your falsehood to the contrary. You had better read your Dock McKeedy items over before you give them publication, we think, and make the necessary corrections.

Joe Warner is worrying (?) terribly about being on McNitt's bond and says he will give $500 to be released. A certain capitalist sent him word that he would take in a . . . assume his responsibility and obligate himself to pay $2 for very one that McNitt lost for the county, and the gentleman is able to it. Up to going to . . . however, Joe has not been able to raise the money we presume, as he has made no trader. We don't think the bond would be weakened if the county could allow Joe to withdraw entirely. We move his withdrawal.

LATER.—Since the above was put up, Joe comes out with an affidavit denying that anyone ever offered to release him. However Joe's affidavit don't amount to much more than his word, especially as it was voluntary and carries no weight. If the county wanted to collect it off of him it couldn't for reasons well known to Joe.

REMARKS.

While we were strolling up the creek the other day we noticed all the thrashing was done, and corn husking is the order of the day, the weather being fine for this time of year. Farmers are moving rapidly about. We visited Miss Fisher's school and found her in good spirits and the school splendidly conducted. We think she is a model teacher. We also saw a small herd of very fine hogs at Mr. Huffman's one of them being quite lame which he is certain some husters shot. He says if Bob and Charley and some more of the Red Cloud boys do not stop shooting around the inclosures on A. H. Kaley's place he will be compelled to put the law in force, that is what all the farmers say on the creek. As all have something to say in politics, I say old man what do you think of Hummel? Oh he is a good man, competent to fill the office. Yes I am a republican, always voted that ticket, but can't vote for Hummel for fear he will be in the little 8 ring. We ask all voters what we want into the convention for? To vote for the nominee. Then where do some of you stand to day? I'll tell you that you stand where the bushwhacker stood during the war a friend to neither side. If you want a good, clean, honest man in office don't vote for a democrat just to please the boodlers. George Hummel is a man that will not tie up with any bank or faction. B. B. HINCH.

CO-WITNES.

David Francis has purchased L. E. Wright's property north of Cowles. Grandma Best is quite sick. Mr. and Mrs. I. K. Terry arrived in Cowles on Monday last, to attend to the interests here. J. H. Peak is the proud father of a young daughter. J. H. Brown moved this week into his home on the hill west of town. E. C. Cottes went to Omaha on last Monday with hogs. Mrs. Spiber and her son of Ill. and her daughter, Mrs. Ison of the east part of this county, took possession of J. H. Brown's hotel this week.

The Congregational parsonage is being repaired and fitted up for Rev. Platt who who expects to occupy it in the near future.

AGRICULTURE.

Go to Wm Stingley's for a first class shave or hair cut. You will be treated nice and secure first class work.

Oh who buy good goods for little money, buy wisely. Follow out saying by buying at D. B. Heard's, Perkins' old stand.

W. L. Fortune. Is a good healthy, hearty skin. Few are aware of the short time it takes for a diseased liver to cause blotches on the face and a dark grumpy skin. One bottle of REGG'S BLOOD PURIFIER and BLOOD MAKER will restore this organ to its natural and healthy state, and cleanse the blood of all impurities. It is made with wonderful success. We guarantee every bottle. C. L. Cotting, Druggist.

We again ask our readers to excuse us for dabbling in politics so extensively, but THE CHIEF has not so to get the scalps of the boodlers and we shall have them dangling to our belt next Tuesday evening just after the polls are closed. Docky and his new hand's crew will then be in the soup dead as a mackerel.

A Good Cough Syrup.

There is nothing parents should be so careful about as selecting a cough syrup. Regg's Cherry Cough Syrup is no more than the cheap and inferior nostrums thrown on the market. The best is none to good, be sure and get REGG'S CHERRY COUGH SYRUP. We keep it on hand at all times. C. L. Cotting, Druggist.
