On motion C. Schenck was appointed justice of the peace in the first ward of Red Cloud city to fill vacancy.

On motion the claim of H. E. Sanford and J. H. Ross for $142.50 as claimed differences in the quality of stone used in the building of the county jail was rejected by the board by the following vote.

Yeas, Hummel, Dickinson, Kaley, Garber and Jones.

Nays, McCallum, Barcus, Groves, Laird, Martin, Thomas, Wilder, Coon, Wells and Cather.

The board now adjourned to meet November 13, 1889.

Red Cloud, Nov. 13, 1889.

Board again met as adjourned with seventeen members present.

On motion the county treasurer was instructed to pay over the advertising fees as they are collected to A. C. Hosmer, except the advertising fees on blocks 11, 12, 13, 14, 15 and 16 of Guide Rock village, which are to be withheld on account of an error in placing said blocks on the advertised list.

On motion the county treasurer was instructed to transfer the cash on hand in the sinking fund, funding bond fund, bridge judgment fund, court house fund, safe fund, bond fund, old poor fund, surplus bridge fund and special bridge fund, to the general fund of 1889.

On motion the county treasurer was instructed to make the following transfer from the old road fund: To road Dist. No. 12, $17.92 to balance an old overdraft in said district account; to road Dist. No. 41 $1.44 to balance an old overdraft in said district account; to road Dist. No. 42 $6.92 to balance an old overdraft in said district account; to the old road warrant account $9.56 to balance an old overdraft in said account; to the old surplus general fund account $16.35 to balance an old overdraft in said account; and then transfer the balance on hand of said old road fund to the general fund of 1889.

The resignation of F. A. Swezey as county judge of Webster county, Nebraska was presented to the board and accepted.

The board then proceeded to fill the vacancy caused by Judge Swezey's resignation, by appointing D. F. Trunkey county judge of Webster county, Nebraska by a unanimous vote.

The official bond of C. Schenck as justice of the peace to fill a vacancy in Red Cloud city, was presented to the board and approved.

The following resolutions were presented to the board.

"Whereas: It is the opinion of the board of county supervisors that township organization under the present system is cumbersome and too expensive to the tax payers of Webster county, and whereas we believe that the commissioner system is far less expensive to the people and a better mode of expediting business, with equal justice to all parts of the county.

Therefore be it resolved: That this board of county supervisors is willing and ready to consider all legally signed petitions as the statute requires for the purpose of ordering an election at the general election in the year 1890 for the return to the county commissioner system."

The foregoing resolutions were divided and voted upon separately.

The first resolution was lost by the following vote.

Yeas, McCallum, Dickinson, Kaley, Garber, Cather and Jones. 6.

Nays, Barcus, Groves, Laird, Martin, Thomas, Wilder, Coon, Hummel, Frame, Fish and Wells. 11.

The latter resolution was carried by the following vote.

Yeas, McCallum, Barcus, Groves, Laird, Thomas, Wilder, Coon, Hummel, Dickinson, Kaley, Garber, Fish, Wells, Cather and Jones. 15.

Nays, none.

Not voting, Martin, Frame. 2.

The official bond of D. F. Trunkey for county judge to fill vacancy was presented to the board and approved.

A motion to instruct the county treasurer to transfer $3,000, a part of the cash on hand of the bridge fund, and $1,200 a part of the cash on hand of the insane fund to the general fund of 1889, with which to pay all outstanding warrants against said fund and stop the interest thereon, was lost by the following vote: Yeas, Barcus, Groves, Laird, Martin, Hummel, Kaley, Wells and Cather. Nays, McCallum, Thomas, Wilder, Coon, Dickerson, Garber, Frame, Fish and Jones.

The county treasurer was instructed to transfer $100 from the insane fund to the jail fund of 1887 and the county clerk was instructed to draw a warrant for $100 payable to the Pauly Jail Co., on said fund, that being the balance of $10,000, the contract price of the jail.

The county treasurer was instructed to transfer all the cash on hand of the poor house fund to the general of 1889, the same to be returned to the poor house fund whenever wanted there.

T. G. Wilder was authorized to provide a home for the old man Roberts for the winter on as favorable terms as possible.

The county clerk was instructed to advertise for bids, jointly with the county clerk of Nuckolls county, for building three bridges on the east line of Oak Creek township between Webster and Nuckolls county.
