A Blessed Home.

[Written for THE CHIEF] I know the place, I've found the spot. Where happiness is found, Where racking hatred enters not, And pure delights abound. It is a dear and sacred place, Where lovers true may roam, Where transport gleams from every face—That hallowed spot is home. An amiable wife resides in that beloved abode, A tender husband there abides, To share such heavy load; There brothers live in unity, And sisters dwell in peace, And, as the happy years go by, Their joys and bliss increase. No sharp contentions e'er disturb Life's peaceful gentle flow; And passion meets a steady curb, Love burns with fervid glow; God's holy word—that safest guide—Leads them in sweet accord, And round that genial fire-side They bow before the Lord. God smiles upon, and e'er will shield, So blest a home as this, Where faithful bosoms humbly yield Their love to Him; And when life's sorrows are no more, And earthly joys are past, Upon a brighter, happier shore Their anchor shall be cast. I thank the Lord that I have found A happy home on earth, Where the kind virtues smile around My peaceful, cheerful hearth; And I will ever bless his name, For his divine behest, The offspring of a passionate, Ungovernable mind. O, for a home where love abounds In sweet simplicity, Where cheerful voices charm the ear, And kindred hearts agree! On such a home, and on such hearts, Where heavenly virtues grow, The Lord, who rules throughout the earth, His blessing will bestow. TANGLESHADE, NOV. 28, 1890. EDGAR THORNE.

Items of Interest. Al Galusha was in Minden this week. John Shirley has returned to Minden. Judge Gaslin was in the city this week. Frank Kuehn was in Hastings this week. John Yeiser of Omaha was in the city this week. Twenty-seven days more and Christmas will again be here. Several of the "Big Injun's" braves were on the streets this week. District court was in session this week with Judge Gaslin on the bench. Marshall Miller has been grading up the streets in good shape this week. Elmer Mouser of Bladen has rented the Becker farm near the fair ground. I. O. Martin, A. M. Walters, and other Blue Hill people were in Red Cloud this week. M. R. Bently and wife have arrived home from Omaha where they have been for two weeks. Frank Parker is home from the "wild and woolly west," looking as jovial and pleasant as ever. A number of our workmen went to Tennessee this week, to work on a government levee. A large number of our laboring men went to Hot Springs, Dakota, this week in search of work. The Kicapoo Indian Medicine Company have been doing a land office business in this city, during the last few days. Charley Watkins of the Hastings Republican was in the city this week. "Shorty" looks as natural as a roadside brick. Asa Reed, the youngest son of A. T. Reed and wife, died this week at Beatrice and was brought home for burial. The little fellow died very sudden. The Independents have served their notices of contest on Boyd and other newly elected state officials, and we may look for a huge time this winter in the legislative branch of our state government. Thanksgiving was duly observed in Red Cloud. The latest news from the east of war reports a heavy onslaught on Turkey. The Chief and its braves pushed bravely forward and did their part towards demolishing the enemy. R. K. Orford is now a full fledged American citizen having secured his last naturalization papers, and renounced his allegiance to Her Majesty Queen of Great Britain. We welcome him into full fellowship with Uncle Sam's big family. Just now our citizens, on the frontier, are considerably worried over a threatened Indian outbreak. It seems that the much abused red man has got his back up on the religious question, and wants to show how sincere he is by butchering the pale face. W. D. Heller of Blair has been chosen to succeed Mr. Cook of Red Cloud as pharmaceutical examiner for the state. Mr. Cook's term of office expires January 1.—Ee.

Who can ask for better weather than we are having. Mr. Vance lost a three year old colt last week. Invalve now affords a meat market. Mr. Hunter shipped two cars of hogs this week. Preaching next, Sunday at eleven o'clock. The Sunday school decided last Sunday to have a Christmas tree. Miss Mable Hunter took the train Tuesday for Missouri on a visit. Knight and a friend of his from Campbell and their best girls were in these parts Sunday. Election is over and the people's party has made a big sweep, now we can settle down to work again, and be ever ready to help any enterprise that is for the benefit of the masses. Winter wheat is looking first rate this fall, never better. The Pawnees seem very quiet, nothing going on, not even dancing. No corn to gather and the cattle have cut nearly all the stalks ready for spring. Mrs. Williams' daughter, Miss Hall, is in a critical condition, having three running sores on her limb, besides being a cripple. She certainly cannot live long. J. M. Brown, will now assume the office of justice, with F. L. Smith, constable, J. T. Stor as probate judge. Sid.

The Church of Christ. [Official publication] From Pentecost until now as measured by Jews and the apostles. BASIC PRINCIPLES. Church uniformity, Col. 3:15; 1st Cor. 4:17. Union with all Christians. In a Holy Whole Bodyhood, Eph. 4:12-16; Eph. 5:6-7. Christlike character. Measured test of fellowship, Math. 18:15-17. LARKIN STEVENS, Y. D. M., General Evangelist. CHURCH HOLINESS. We read in Exodus 40:9 of the anointing of the tabernacle and all the vessels with Holy Oil and it made the tabernacle holy. Then the washing, putting on the holy garments and anointing the priest followed, making a holy priest in a holy tabernacle. To this Paul seems to refer us in Ephesians 5:25-28. For the love Christ has for the church, he gave himself for it; that by the water of separation and the oil of the grace of election and selection, each institution ordinance office duty and department of its government the all within and without of it should be without spot of human authority without the wrinkles of aged creeds or anything of humanism. So the church should be holy and without blame in His sight; so it shall be glorious of Christ as the Divine Lawgiver; glorious church because so sacred, so holy, so heavenly, because it is the true tabernacle the Lord pitched and not of man. Heb. 8:2. Because the church is the greater and more perfect tabernacle Heb. 9:11. The old worldly tabernacle was taken away to establish the spiritual tabernacle of the church of the Pentecost. Heb. 10:9-30. The holiness of organization is again brought to view in his marriage to the Lamb. Rev. 19:7-8. Her readiness to be arrayed in the fine clean white clothing of her Pentecostal spouse. As she unites with Christ in the last passover supper so she then passes from the class of this stage of the development of the spirit of the manifested reign of Christ in the 1000 years of triumphant Christianity which is the Divine Kingdom of the millennium. For warnings against the danger see of will worship read Exodus 10:1-6. Of the danger of either or counter organization of rebellious character read Numbers 16:1-50, then read the doom of the counterfeited and apostate churches in Rev. 18 and 17th chapters. Church holiness is the opposite of imitable worship leaving our establishment and can not mean, especially, the counter organization of love, that they had chosen, counterfeited, and rejected the all that is true, the holiness of the

The financial world has been turned upside down during the past two weeks, and in the crash some of the greatest financial firms in England and the United States have suffered. The Baring Bros., supposed to be one of the richest banking firms in the world, failed the other day for $75,000,000, but the bank of England and the Rothschilds came to the help of the Barings and helped them through the difficulty. In New York and other financial centers in the east money was so scarce for a few days that as high as 180 per cent per annum was paid for temporary loans. Before the McKinley bill became a law the importers in the east bought more foreign goods than their trade demanded for two years to come, and as a consequence they had to strain their credit with the banks to pay for the goods and the duty. Before next spring these importers will be compelled to throw the surplus goods on the market, and after all it will turn out to be a benefit. Instead of robbing the consumers, as these importers intended, they will have to sell to realize the original cost, and goods will be even cheaper than they are now. Then the brokers got into a panic and were compelled to sell at any price to save themselves from total bankruptcy. It was a financial war among the capitalists in which the common people have no interest.

Says the Southern Medical World: "Mother's Friend" is growing in favor throughout the south and is highly recommended by physicians. We consider it indispensable to those who know they must pass through the ordeal of childbirth. Write Bradford Reg. Co., Atlanta Ga. for particulars. Sold by C. L. Cotting. Words of Cheer. CANNON, Oregon, Nov. 17, 1890. A. C. Hosmer, Editor Red Cloud Chief—Dear Sir—As my home was formerly in Webster County, I take an interest in reading the news from there. Am glad to get the paper, and turn to Garfield township for the news of home, but I like Oregon better than Nebraska as we have a very fine climate here. This has been a very fine fall, just enough rain to make it pleasant. I picked ripe strawberries from my vines 10 days ago. I have five acres of vines on my farm. Wishing you all success in that country I remain yours respectfully. FRED HAMPTON. Itch, mange, and scabies on human or animal cured in thirty minutes by Woolford's sanitary Lotion. This never fails, sold by L. E. Deyo druggist, Red Cloud. A Flour Case From Webster County. The case of the First National bank of Denver vs Henry C. Scott, sheriff of Webster County, was filed in the supreme court yesterday on error from that county. The case involves the lawful ownership of 1,200 bushels of flour and 250 bushels of wheat, formerly the property of the Red Cloud Milling company. The sheriff levied on attachment upon the flour to satisfy a claim of A. G. Scott & Son, grain dealers, for grain sold to the milling company. The goods were then repossessed by the owner in behalf of the Denver bank, which produced a bill of sale for them, giving no partial satisfaction, along with the remainder of the property of the company, an indebtedness of $2,000. In the lower court, the sheriff was awarded judgment and the Denver bank obtained a writ of habeas corpus.

EDITORIAL COMMENT.

There is more rejoicing in a country newspaper office over one letter that contains a little cash than over ninety and nine letters with census circulars and complimentary tickets to various exhibitions the editor has no notion of attending to. An observant exchange says that in so far as money matters are concerned it is cheaper for a man to take the home paper than it is to stop it, for nine men out of ten after ordering it stopped will in the course of a year wear out two dollars worth of shoe leather, trying to find a copy of the paper they ordered stopped. A traveling man just from California says that many people are preparing to return to the east in the spring. While they find wages high out there, living expenses make up for more than the few extra pennies received. California will have to rustle if her influx in population is equal to the efflux. In President Harrison's proclamation for Thanksgiving Day, for Thursday, the 27th of November. In it he said: "I commend to my fellow citizens the privilege of remembering the poor, the homeless and the sorrowful." We are glad the President remembered the "sorrowful," for just now that includes the whole Republican party, especially the defeated candidates. If Omaha can not run the politics of the state she is not happy. If the candidates on any ticket are from that hog-city, it is a dead sure thing that her people will sell out every other party to secure the election of the Omaha man. This fact was evidenced in the election of Boyd over Richards, and again in the case of Moshane and Church Howe. It is time that the city of Omaha be left out when the nominations are made.

The popular entertainment "Deestrick skule" will be presented at the opera house on Friday evening, December 5th. Everybody attend and have a good time. Tickets 25c, reserved seats 35c. For sale at Cotting's. When, from any cause, the digestive and secretory organs become disordered, they may be stimulated to healthy action by the use of Ayer's cathartic pills. These pills are prescribed by the best physicians, and are for sale at all the drug-stores. The use of Ayer's sarsaparilla purifies the blood, stimulates the secretions, and imparts new life and vigor to every function of the body. For nearly half a century, it has remained unrivaled as the best blood medicine ever discovered. Be convinced by a trial. The next legislature should without further waste of speech, after becoming fully organized, repeal the act giving the Ozarks of Grand Island one cent per pound bounty on their sugar. It looks to us like robbery. It is nothing more than a gigantic monopoly under the present circumstances. Ira Sleeper is home from the Hot Springs, S. D. where he has struck what we would call a gold mine if we had it. He reports that the Red Cloud people located there, are doing nicely and getting to the front. We are glad at all times to hear of our Red Cloud people meeting with prosperity.

Rev. E. J. Randall has secured the services of three prominent ministers to help in a series of revival meetings to take place in the near future. Please bear it in mind. LOCAL DRIFT.

Murdered in cold blood—Ben Turkey, G. Older got badly roasted yesterday. Turkey-trotting met with a check yesterday. A blessed vacation.—It will soon be time to pack ice. Judge Sheppard of Bloomington was in the city this week. Attorney Garlow of Grand Island, was in the city this week. O. B. Harvey has renewed his alliance to the Great Family Weekly. Thanks. Dr. Dillard has returned to Red Cloud after a visit in the east of several months. The chicken pie social given by the ladies of the Christian church was a success. Miss Genie McMillan leaves in a few days for Chicago where she has secured a position as clerk. L. H. Fort, cashier of the first National Bank, of this city was in Omaha the forepart of the week. We noticed the familiar countenance of E. A. Simon of Blue Hill, on our streets one day this week. S. W. Hull has added his name to the big book of the Great Family Weekly. Thanks. Morris Dickerson reports the largest turkey in the city. It weighed 33 pounds before it was bereft of this life. Oh, turkey!

Aug. Martin of Blue Hill, got judgment against the F. & M. bank for $50 and costs this week on the old Starke case. I. B. Hampton has purchased the Ira Sleeper engine and boiler and will transplant it in his cheese factory, we understand. Nothing adds so much to a person's appearance as a fine thick head of hair of even color, and to assure this use only Hall's hair restorer. Rev. E. J. Randall of Red Cloud, and Rev. Lenfest of Chester, were the guests of Judge John Reilly last evening, while on their way home from the Sunday school convention at Nelsoo—Superior Journal. Ed. Highland has been promoted from assistant superintendent of the Holyoke R. & M. line to that portion of the main line from Akron, Colorado, west. The Chief is always pleased to hear of the success of its old friend. Geo. Coon was so unfortunate on last Thursday, to lose 15 ricks of hay, which caught fire. It is a bad loss for our friend, but we opine that he will survive the misfortune as he is one of our most thrifty farmers.

CURRENT COMMENT.

The people of Red Cloud should do something towards making up a collection for the destitute people out in the frontier counties. There are many there who need aid, and that soon. Now is a good time to act. It is high time that the government take better care of the Indians. If they are in a bad mood it is because they are not treated as the treaty calls for. Give the Indian enough to eat and he will not be apt to molest your hair. The Omaha Bee man is a great fellow. In one column he enjoins the people of Omaha to be enterprising, and in the next paragraph he calls the boys thousands liars in a way that shows him to be an expert at classic epithets. The country is safe. The Nebraska National Guards have been ordered to hold themselves in readiness to go to the front in one day's notice to fight the Indians. The Indians would have a picnic with our state kid-gloved army. It would take some time however for the Indians to overtake them. The city council should have a board of health. It is time that the city council took some action in regard to the spreading of contagious diseases and especially diphtheria. While all have sympathy for the distressed occasioned by death from this disease, yet it is no more than right that other people should be protected as far as possible from it. As a matter of economy we believe the city council should dispense with city lights on moon light nights. We do not make this statement in spirit of prejudice, but because the people can not afford to pay for the luxury of having moon light there is no apparent need for them, and especially when there are numbers of people who need aid to keep them through the winter.

Our editorial friend of the Escalante Reporter, takes exception to a recent editorial in THE CHIEF in regard to some advice we gave to the republican party. We have no objection to his advice, but it is not in accordance with the facts. This paper does not cater to any one, but on the other hand feels at liberty, and has always done so, when consistent, given good advice to the republican party, (and by the way, that is the only true method to correct abuses that creep into the party) without fear or favor. A little chiding does not hurt the party, but does it good, and who can do it better than the republican press, and who is more justified in doing so than they. It does not follow that because a newspaper takes its own party to task, that it is trying to ingratiate itself into the good graces of its political enemy. A man who was so blinded to the mistakes of his own party that he could not see an error, and seeing it, failed to make proper mention, would be a bigot indeed. THE CHIEF is not of that stripe. It is republican, but when the republican party makes a mistake, we shall not fall for falter in drawing attention thereto, and that is what we call republicanism.
