Castoria.

"Castoria is an excellent medicine for children. Mothers have repeatedly told me of its good effect upon their children."

Dr. G. C. Osborn,
Lowell, Mass.

"Castoria is the best remedy for children of which I am acquainted. I hope the day is not far distant when mothers will consider the real interest of their children, and use Castoria instead of the various quack nostrums which are destroying their loved ones, by forcing opium, morphine, soothing syrup and other hurtful agents down their throats, thereby sending them to premature graves."

Dr. J. F. Richardson,
Quincy, Ark.

Castoria.

"Castoria is so well adapted to children that I recommend it as superior to any preparation known to me."

Dr. A. A. Andrews, M. D.,
111 So. Oxford St., Brooklyn, N. Y.

"Our physicians in the children's department have spoken highly of their experience in their outside practice with Castoria, and although we only have among our medical supplies what is known as regular products, yet we are free to confess that the merits of Castoria has won us to look with favor upon it."

EDITORIAL DRIFT.

The Italian government has become some what riled over the treatment that some of her bloodthirsty villains received at New Orleans the other day and has recalled Baron Fava, her accredited minister to this country. This has been construed as a declaration of war, by some on the part of the Italian government. THE CHIEF, while it has not it's usual war paint on, hopes that Uncle Sam will give them something to declam war for, and if they become to haughty, administer to them a sound spanking, such as they need and won't forget soon. To our notion the Celestial is a far more desirable citizen than the bloodthirsty Italian. Let King Humbert call home his minister if he wants to and if that isn't enough, let him pay the passage of the rest of his citizens now sojourning in this country. We don't need them. There are many good Italians, but the bad ones we have no use for. People who come to America to live should be Americans from preference, or otherwise let them stay in their own country. Our navy may be poor, but when a foreign foe strikes at us, it will find five or six million soldiers ready for duty on short notice, and between the navy and army guess we can take care of ourselves for awhile, anyway.

The state legislature in a fit of economy cut down the bills of the various newspapers in the state which published the amendments advertisements last fall. The legislative body is a great one. They have put in 60 days in Lincoln, at $5 per day, and yet have not accomplished as much legislation for the benefit of the state as a half dozen good men could have done, still they strike the newspaper office when they feel economical, and at the same time they have been spending the people's money and doing but little for them that is of any benefit. The printer's bill were all legal and should be paid dollar for dollar. The idea of everybody being dishonest except the fellow that is drawing a high salary, and sailing under some high-sounding party name for effect only, is preposterous. The idea of paying a legislator $300 for doing comparatively nothing is all wrong, that is on the same hypothesis that the newspaper bills were wrong. The bills were earned according to law, and ought to be paid in full or returned for correction. We don't like demagoguery from any source.

Rosewater of the Bee, gave his readers a column the other day as his opinion on the Boyd case. We have always believed that the crafty Edward sold the republican party out in Omaha, and by a kiss betrayed the party into the hands of democracy, hence his efforts to prove Mr. Boyd's election. The facts are that Boyd has no more right to be governor of Nebraska than any other foreign citizen, court or no court, and Rosewater knows it.

His Eminence, Cardinal Gibbons, discusses in a masterly article, in the North American Review for April, the Subject of "Wealth and its Obligation." His paper is the first of a series on that subject, to be followed by contributions from the Rt. Rev. Bishop Potter, of New York, Hon. Edward J. Phelps, late Minister to the Court of St. James, the Rt. Hon. Joseph Chamberlain, M. P. and others.

Boyd is still governor, and the government at Lincoln still lives, and we shall always think if he is declared governor finally by the supreme court, that he was not legally elected thereto, and if legally elected thereto, that he was not a citizen of these United States when elected according to law.

Miss Zoe Gayton has just completed her trip across the continent on foot for a wager of $12,000. It took her 215 days. And still people will say women have no pluck, but then many a poor tramp prize has gone over the distance and all he got for it was all the tarantular juice he could swallow and scarcely enough to eat.

Before another issue of the Great Family Weekly is printed, our citizens will have tried the effect of voting by the Australian ballot system. We believe that it will be a good scheme.

'Possum Supper

Saturday evening the landlord gave to the business men of Red Cloud a genuine 'possum supper, which was attended by about thirty-five of Red Cloud's business men. At 9 o'clock we were ushered into the commodious B. & M. dining hall and were pleasantly seated to the following elaborate courses.

Oyster Soup. Special dressing.
Cream salad. Lobster salad.
Chicken salad.
Cold beef. Coffee. Cold ham with lemon.
Ice cream. Cake. Oranges. Bananas.
etc. etc.

After partaking heartily of the good things that the host and his attentive attendants provided, Mr. Wiener, toast waiter, called for toasts which were suitably responded to by the following gentlemen: M. R. Bently, Henry Cook, T. J. Ward, H. C. Scott, G. W. Whitson, A. Higby, B. McNeny, Ed Smith, H. L. Hopkins. The party then broke up after wishing many returns of such occasions, and at eleven o'clock all were on their way home.

Each and all congratulating mine host Cranse for the able and successful O'Possum.

ED ORDER COMMITTEE.

On next Tuesday, will be city election. There are two tickets in the field both headed by old and respected citizens of Red Cloud, either one of which will make a good mayor if elected. THE CHIEF being a republican paper, believes that it is the duty of republicans to stay by the republican ticket and elect it. We have no fight to make, and what we can do and say will be done for the ticket of our choice; i. e. the republican ticket. The ticket all through, is a good, clear ticket and the outcome of careful deliberate action on the part of the republican convention. There is no necessity of factional fighting or feuds, go vote as you feel is right, and in so doing we believe you will vote the republican ticket.

The sad intelligence reached this city on last Friday, that Florence Rickards, about eight years of age, eldest daughter of J. N. Rickards, had suddenly departed this life with that dreaded disease, diphtheria. This is a doubly sad blow to Mr. Rickards, who only one year ago was called upon to bury his beloved wife, and now the little girl. The sympathy of his many friends in Red Cloud go out to him in his hour of grief. It is a terrible blow and one who know the pangs of sorrow that such an affliction casts upon one, who have never been called to bury their loved ones. THE CHIEF extends its heartfelt sympathy to Mr. Rickards on this occasion.

A. Piekens & Son., of Hastings, whose local advertisements appear elsewhere in THE CHIEF, will have a grand spring opening April 6 and 7, in military, where there will be shown an elegant line of Parisian hats, etc. This will be a grand affair and our citizens are invited to call and see them at their headquarters in Hastings.

Garfield W. R. C. No. 14, will hold memorial services in honor of the late General W. T. Sherman and admiral D. D. Porter on Saturday, April 4th, from two to three o'clock p. m. in K. of P. hall over Red Cloud National Bank. Comrades of the G. A. R. and ex-soldiers of V. are invited to be present. Services to be given promptly at two o'clock.

Our friend, Aaron Conover, the handsome B. & M. station agent, and his newly wedded bride, have arrived in the city, and are domiciled in Mr. Conover's residence on South Seward street. THE CHIEF is pleased to note their arrival, and extends its hearty congratulations to the newly wedded couple.

Dr. Damerell will go to Lincoln in a few days on business.

The following resolutions among others were adopted:

Resolved, that we deem it the imperative duty of each member of the W. C. T. U. to use their influence in the circulation of temperance papers such as the Union Signal, Union Worker, New Republic, Lincoln Daily Call, The Voice and Lever, besides our local temperance papers, and against every paper carrying in its columns an advertisement for, or using its influence for the traffic.

Resolved, that we extend our heartfelt thanks and appreciation to the reception committee of the Red Cloud W. C. T. U. to the citizens who do so generously open their doors for our entertainment, and to the managers of the street railway for favors all to our honored State President, Mrs. M. A. A Sudden Death.

Ralph Judd, oldest son of M. C. Judd, of this city, died very suddenly this week, after an illness of less than 48 hours. He had been quite well up to Tuesday noon, when he went home with an ear ache. A physician was called but no help could be administered to relieve his suffering, and soon he grew delirious and never regained consciousness, and passed away in great agony. Ralph was about nineteen years old and was well known in Red Cloud, having lived here many years. His funeral took place this morning at his father's residence, and the body was buried in Martin's cemetery in Garfield township. His friends and parents have the sympathy of the community in their bereavement.

Some fifteen or twenty days ago, two boys of Osborne county, Kansas, named respectively Elliot and Dawley, left their homes in that place, taking two ponies and started for Columbus, Nebraska. Their parents, who are quite well-to-do soon followed in search of them and came to Red Cloud, where they lost track of the wayward children, but they concluded to hire a rig of Frank Kucha, and after being gone ten days found the boys at Columbus and returned with them. In the meantime the boys sold their ponies for a little of nothing and took the cars for Columbus, and when they stepped off of the train they landed in the arms of their parents. The lads have probably learned a lesson that they will not soon forget.

The Temple of Fame.

The entertainment under the above name and given by the ladies of the Congregational church, at the opera house, Thursday evening, April 2, was a grand success in every particular and highly appreciated by the audience. The various parts were carried out to perfection and deserve more than passing comment but owing to the lateness of the hour, and so close to time of going to press we are unable to give more than a brief notice. In part we will mention that Mrs. Partington and Ike brought down the house in their comical monologues, also Topsy kept the house in an uproar. Josiah Allen's Wife and Bridget O'Flanagan did themselves all over with glory. Miriam by Addie Reigle and six little maids was highly appreciated. Joe Warren and Clarence Winters as pages could not be excelled. Miss Mabel Martin was the Goddess and did her part splendidly. The costumes were all made up in an appropriate manner and the singing was delightful. In fact it was a complete success, and each character fully delineated. The orchestra composed of Miss Campbell's class of boys furnished some excellent music. We give below a complete program as rendered on the occasion.
