The deputy sheriffs were soon in readiness to receive the attack. The men were divided into three parties, Capt. Laner having charge of the party which was placed behind the big gates of the barn and stable inclosure. As the rioters passed the company's store, they made an attack upon it and raided it as far as they could in a brief time, breaking the windows and doing other damage. They then marched to the barn inclosure and attempted to break down the gates. They succeeded in doing this and as they entered Capt. Lauer called out to them to halt or he would fire upon them. Their answer was to fire a rattling velley in the direction of the deputies. None of the deputies were seriously hurt.
