The Chinese Can Sing. An impressive scene recently was presented at the Congregational church of the Chinese Mission in that city. A by the Chinese. The singing, especially of solos and hymns, was a surprise, as it was generally supposed that the Chinese were destitute of capacity in that direction and incapable of appre-ciating harmony, judging by what travelers in China tell us and of the barbarous exhibitions given in this country by untaught immigrants. One soloist particularly carried the audience by storm and elicited applause that was with difficulty checked. - Scientific
