Vol. 18. No. 46.

HURRAH!

FOR THE

4TH OF JULY, Celebration RED CLOUD.

Let Every One Turn OUT AND Have a Glorious old 4th

Red Cloud

Is in the lead once more.

SHE HAS PROCURED THE

Nebraska

Inter-State

Which will be held in Red Cloud plumed itself incompicuously and those over her the abstract data of the September 15, 16, 17 and 18.

MEMORIAL SERMON

By Rev. J. D. Palis.

TEXT:-2d Timothy, 4:7.

"I have fought a good fight."

Brother Paul, thou has fought a good honor and glory. fight, and it shall be a memorial to thee through all coming eternities."

good fight for my flag.

our national sattors and soldiers, our he- avv can dim. roes, those who gallantly fought and glorrighteous honoring of noble patriotism.

have passed away are regarding it as diers on the altar of death in the four both right and just. And we are quite years of fighting. tial history shall illuminate its causes forth when we remember that it was and methods and aims, it will stand jus- patriotic fighting. Fatherland filled tified to all mankind as a righteous and and thrilled their hearts. They said:

Still, on an occasion such as this it is eminently appropriate to review the good fight?

do we wish in stirring your memories to awaken animosities over the past and gone. We come to the review, "With charity for all and malice towards none" to show if we can, that in the fight for the Union, the boys in blue made a good aimed at the institution of slavery as fostered fight, There are several aspects in by the South. which the war for the Union was a good

To turn one aspect sharply to view we character of the fighting was good.

Why, do we say when two men face manly art of self defense, as they call it, that is brutal? Or when the Indian tomahawks and scalps his enemy, that is savagery? And then when two armies meet and shoot each other to death that is glorious? Why, simply because you recognize the ethical element in fighting, you distinguish between good ence between savagery and civilization assault on Sumpter. in figthing. And you know that the quantity of the ethics you pack into a fight determines the quality and enhanc- ism arose and said with Rufus Choate "We es the merit of the fighting. Cromwell join ourselves with no party that does not carry and his Old Ironsides poised victory and the flag and keep step to the music of the

for the Union was a good fight. We with these signs following it, the fighting for the victory. To the noble mothers and the Union was a good fight. We the Union was good fighting.

Casar and Wellington and Napoleon and composed our armies. The Poet describes it well in saying. "No thought of flight

None of retreat, no unbecoming deed That argued fear, each one himself relied, As in his arm the moment tay

We might pause here and prove the fighting good by detail of campaigns and apostle Paul. They summarize his life as where to begin. As we contemplate the lawful right to do so and I have no inclination to do so. Those who nominated and elected a Christian soldier. In saying, "I have glory, its brightness is dazzling and we me, did so with the full knowledge that I had fought a good fight" he means that he are unable to select the peerless ray. We made this and many similar declarations and nation. The invincible safeguard of the Union has been loyal, devoted and aggressive in might speak of Antietam with its four had never recanted them. I now reiterate is an environment of righteousness. If we maintaining and advancing his Savior's miles of battle, and call it the Golgotha truth and kingdom.

these sentiments and in doing so, I only press on the public attention the most conclusive evidence of which the case is susceptible, that the conclusive evidence of which the case is susceptible, that the conclusive evidence of which the case is susceptible, that the conclusive evidence of which the case is susceptible, that the conclusive evidence of which the case is susceptible, that the conclusive evidence of which the case is susceptible, that the conclusive evidence of which the case is susceptible, that the conclusive evidence of which the case is susceptible, that the conclusive evidence of which the case is susceptible. "I have fought a good fight" is a su- tysberg the struggle reached its highest property, peace and security of no section are | ment for the people by the people," which perb summary of a life, and he who can point and that there broke the flery in anywise endangered by the now incoming ad shall remain on the earth until the last syllable truthfully say it pronounces on himself crest of the decisive battle, and that the imperial enconium of living. Pant Vickshurg struck the bloom that indicate that the war was not waged to abolish granite foundation of God's word. That is not the imperial enconium of living. Paul Vicksburg struck the blow that sent the slavery. To save the Union as it then existed a personal opinion it is the lesson of human has spoken justly of himself. This sum- confederacy reeling to its doomed des- was the first and prime and only design of history. The permanent things of all centuries mary bas no flavor of egotism. The truction. But comparisons are invidious. the war at its inauguration. The salvation of are the word of God and the cross of his Christ. magnificent life which stands behind it Every battle was pivotal and decisive the Union was the heart of the contention, and

We might make a further pause and do honor to the peerless number of lead-But next to the soldier of Christianity ers. We might lift up Grant, Sherman, fathers, A heritage which was born in rightful stands the soldier of nationality. It is Sheridan, Farragut, Porter and Terry to revolution and sealed in heroic blood, a heritage the some of glory to say "I have fought a your view, but that again would be ingood fight for the cross." But the next vidious. They are only a conspicuous thing in glory is to say. I have fought a few in a royal line of officers and privates who is always better to us than our fears and who are equally deserving. Each and all keeps step with mans' truest needs gave us one | For July 4th, 1891, at the celebration That is the purpose of this gathering have a peculiar splendor of their own, today. We are come to commemorate that none other in the resplendent gal-

But we must return to the splendor of ious died for flag and constitution and the fighting. One beam of its splendor country. If they fought a good fight, was that it was volunteer fighting. The then this occasion is significant. It is a Hessian and the conscript had a small beautiful expression of gratitude and a place in our armies. The Persian whip state, His mighty hand which hitherto had and its snapping lash were unnecessary guided the destinies of the nation, was there to Was their fight a good fight? I think to push the fighting of the boys in blue. there are none who seriously question In the recruiting and the fighting their that now. The war for the Union needs enthusiasm cried "Here am I, send me." no vindication, certainly not to those who That fact is illuminated when we recall witnessed and participated in its ongoing the truth that out of twenty-five millions history from the Northern side. And of population in the North 2,859,132 eneven those who were on the opposite listed in the four years of the war. And side in opinion or arms, now that the then how is the splendor enhanced when mists of political and sectional prejudice | we reflect sadly that we laid 289,736 sol-

sure that when the white light of impar- But the imperial splendors burst

"My native country thee, Land of the noble free, question "Was the war for the Union a battle and the struggle for victory were all in- dependence "that all men are born free and not so much with the view of imparting gratify dynastic ambition, to extend empire not legislated to death. It was dead, not as the and secure martial glory so common in the intention and aim of party policy, but because information, as to stir your memories old world, but of republican critizens self organ- it was an enormous sin in the sight of a just for our heroes brows are worthy. Nor the national domain bequethed to them by pose of the Influite when its crimes and crueltheir revolutionary fathers. In the better ties should be avenged, when the tears and sense, it was not an offensive war. It was sim- groams and prayers of its victims for liberty were ply defensive of the national territory and auth- to be answered. Then it died, but its taking of ority against secession and treason under the nctions of the constitution and the precedents of the nation. Some have assigned it other objects and affirmed it as aggressively say that in the war for the Union the was not aimed at its destruction. The war was which was designed at the beginning, the sai

The North could do no otherwise than Aght. and bad fighting. You know the differ- until the war challenge came by the wanton ment is established and assured to history.

ceased to be longer a virtue, Northern patriot-to our feet and a light to our path. We good fight in the causes for which it was and country thanks are due, and to the heroes, from the teachings of its history rather than of commemoration. It is their mon-hen our foe of kindred blood the central of the government did not "who ran away to live and fight another day" were a diss shadowy exception to states which entered the Union under the original compacts, but to restrict it to them.

it came into power. While slavery was recognized as a gross infringement of mans' natural "I have no purpose directly or indirectly to indescriptions of battles, only we know not states where it exists," "I believe I have no vindicates it from boastfulness and attests its truthfulness.

Livery Dattie was pivotal and decisive to save it it was without regard to other interthis hour any blessing so priceless as the common resolution, that we shall not have come to whether on the mountain top conspicu- great "Inion Letter" to Horace Greeley. He this memorial day only to declare our joye and Paul is worthy of this tribute. It is ous or in the valley obscure, on land or says, "My paramount object is to save the gratitude, nor only to cherish proud and tende the honor due him as a soldier of the water, from first Bull Run to the final Union and not either to save or destroy stay. memories, but also to piedge and con cross of Jesus Christ, and we sanction his Appointation was beneficent to the Union in the Superior of the Union his Appointation was beneficent to the Union in the Superior of the Union in claim, we echo the plaudit, saying, "Yes, and contributed to national victory and it by freeing all the slaves I would do it, and if liberty and our God will be bonored in the ob I could save it by freeing some and leaving servance of the day.

> The old Union was glorious and it was worth of liberty and history which were haloed with glory. The war was waged for that, but he more excellent than that, one that was purged of slavery and replete with freedom. Surely fighting to save the Union was a good fight. Then third, it was a good fight in its achieve-> was wiser than men knew. They realized more than they intended or expected, The Lord events and precipitated them to "consumation their country. Under his guidance the high aspirations and prophecies and axioms of the patriotic poet a statesman were all realized. He set the irre

"In the beauty of the tilles Christ was born across the sea, With a glory in his bosom that transfigured you and me As he died to make men boly." free, while God is marching on." And praise His holy name they did it. They crushed the acy and defeated its armed rebellion of traitors Then "that the nation could not exist half slave and half free was proven. Then Daniel Webster's saying "Liberty and Union, new and forever, one and inseparable" was realized. Then, the old and glorious "Declaration of It was a war measure for the preservation of the Emancipation is the brightest and rightes event of American history. For when slavery died, national consistency was vindicated and the golden gates of freedom were thrown wide open, and Liberty in the trinity of its perfect Crittenden resolutions. She offered every com- Lincoln's Ideal Union, as he proclaimed it at uggest, but the Southern Oligarchy was implac- nation having a new birth of freedom and a able and defeated all efforts for a peaceful ad- government of the people by the people for the ustment. And after all peaceful overtures people which shall not perish from the earth." were rejected by the South, even then patriot. The war secured that Union, for now as never sm sat in stience and waited with folded arms before, the perpetuity of the National govern Nowas never before, it is settled and deter Then, but not till then, did the war storm mined that the majority shall rule the nation, burst over the North. Then, when patience and now as never before, it is true that "The

O'er the land of the free And the home of the brave The battle has been fought and the victory And it was done, done in the wage of battle, and history, and it only remains to render tribute And that is the reason why our battle done bravely, honorably and gloriously. Surely to whom tribute is due. To God belongs thanks

That was its highest hope and intention when The suffrage is the rights, and a strange inconsistency with our look to it that "we have a fair ballet and a Declaration of national independence and a fair count a count and a ballot that will carry

GRAND CELEBRATION AT RED CLOUD

July 4, 1891.

PROGRAM. t Red Cloud.

Salute at sunrise 13 guns. Procession to grounds-Band, May or and city council, carriages wi speakers, citizens, calathumpians,

Music by band. Prayer-Chaplain Pulis. Music-Glee club. Address of welcome-J. S. Gilham

Music-Band. Reading of Declaration of Independnce-Rev. Ely.

Music-Glee club, Orator-Col. M. L. Wheat, Music-Band. Basket dinner.

Base ball game 1:30, prize $15. Hose race, $15 to 1st, 10 to 26 Il companies invited to compete. Slow mule race. Every man rides neighbors mule. Prize $5. Sports-Sack races, greased pole, greased pig, foot races, etc. Grand display of fireworks $500, PRESIDENT OF DAY, Marshal-G. H. Whitson, Master of ceremonies-J. L. Miller.

VICE PRESIDENTS. M. C. Fulton, Walnut creek. O. McCall, Line. Geo. Coop. Garfeld.

R. S. Proudfit, Guide Rock. Wm. Thompson, Beaver. C. W. Fuller, Pleasant Hill. G. E. Prentice, Inavale. Lonie Genereux, Catherton. Robt, Harris, Batin. Sebastin Wells, Elm Creek.

W. B. Guthrie, Stillwater. Al. Reiley, Oak creek. Sol. Mendlebaum, Potsdam. W. B. Householder, Glenwood, Xavier Demars, Harmony.

J. W. Wanlin, Red Cloud.

Committees appointed for earrying others in proportion. out program for July 4. On procession-H Cook, J Miller. On sports and amusements-Anson His by, Al Galusha, Geo Whitson, F

Hatch, C H Platt, Calathumpian procession - F Blakeslee, Will Yeiser, Will West. Country

boys invited. On Fireworks-G H Whitson, T C Hacker, L H Deyo, H Cook, On salute-Tom Hatfield, Shinkle

On reception-C F Cather, A Marsh, G W Barker. Among the many attractive fee-

Committee on privileges T Ward.

Preparations are being made to hold

J. PRANCIN, G. P. & T. A.

South Side. Mrs. Peter McNitt fell down the cllar stairs and injured herself quite Elmer Anderson was kicked by August Wobermien fell from the roof of his house a few days ago, and was seriously injured. at the river bridge last Tuesday. All tain quarters, as to the objects and report a good time.

man that is said to live in the vicinity gone so far as to say that it was not of Pickleville, was seen in the river recognized in Red Cloud, or by the with a cultivator, it is supposed he Grand Army, and never would be. imagined be could make his mark Sherman Circle is composed whooly better there, than in the field among of soldiers, mothers, wives, daughters ville is located, does the cars run ship, and many belong to it. The orclose to it, is there a high school ganization has disbursed thousands of there, has Quackenbush any conce dollars for the benefit of the old tion in this country, my father raised Army veterans and their dependent a squash once that I think he called ones throughout the country and has PECK'S GOOD SISTER.

Judson.

Plenty of rain, the ground is wetter than it has been for many years. Small grain has a good color.

Some people say there is lots o chints bugs in the small grain, bu they seem to be all old ones and we think the young ones will not do much damage while it is so wet and

We had a nice rain last Friday

Dr. Elliot is improving and think he will get well again, his legs are not swelled as much as they were.

Brother Hummel will preach at Ma Hope next Sunday at 11 o'clock a. m Every body should turn out and hea George preach. Sunday school at 10 o'clock a. m.

lightning two weeks ago, the only cou they had.

Mr. Ed Deboil had a cow killed by

K. of L and the Alliance are get ting very strong in Smith county.

Bees For Sale. Pure Italian bees for sale. Inquire of Geo. A. Latts, Cowles. 45-t

Dissolution Notice. dissolved by mutual consent. Frank Hatch withdrawing from the concern. The business will be conducted by debtedness of the firm and to whom all accounts are due. F. G. BLAKESLEE FRANK HATCH. May 22d, 1891.

F. G. Blakeslee who assumes all in-

GRAND ISLAND, NEB .- The Ox nard Beet Sugar Company are very boys, wages for men $1.25 to 1.50 per day according to their ability, the come. Mr. Connor here kindly sent you posters to that effect.

> Respectuily yours, OXNABD BEET SUGAR CO.

Bucklen's Arnicca Salve Sores, Tetter, Chapped hands, Chilblains, Corne, and all other Shin Eruptions. tures of the day will be the races at and positively cures piles, or no pay rethe fair grounds. Good horses from quired. It is guaranteed to give perfect abroad will be present to contest for conto per box. For sale by L. H. Deyo. 33

F. R. GUMP. Attorney And Counselor

At Law.

Will prtice in all courts. RED CLOUD, . . . NEDR.

Ma. Epiron:-There is a very The Red Cloud school had a picnic erroneous spinion entertained in ceraims of the organization of the ladies On last Tuesday evening, a young of the G. A. R. Circle. Some have and sisters, besides members of the Will some one tell me where Pickle Grand Army are eligable to member-

> The soldier, the widow and their orphans are the object of their special

Sherman Circle is a new organisation, but during its brief career it has contributed nineteen dollars for the alleviating of the suffering and needs in Red Cloud.

Now sisters and comrades there is work for all. The ladies of the Grand Army are not in opposition to any kindred organization, or are they clamoring for recognition by any one, but stand upon their own merits Whether as has been said, they coo not recognized in Red Cloud, the fact remains that they are a part of the same Grand Army that did service for their country in her time of need from '61 to '65 and have come to

White Penks and Dark Canan

Colorado is a land of sharp contro of brilliant lights, of letone chadows; a land where highle and depths make obvious the manufact of the word antithesie; a land where every most in mind The high, white minarets of the mountain, from whose slender pinnacles float the wind blown banners of the snow, appeal with silent eloquence to the lofty aspirations of the soul; the sombre Notice is hereby given that the chasma clift by Titan forces through frm of Blakesice & Hatch is this day granite-hearted hills, within whom depths lark shadows throng and twirling torrents dash, speak to the heart a language that thrills, inspires and awes. It does not follow that these glories of white peaks and these glooms of dark capone preclude the pleasant intervals, the sunny meadows or the secluded nooks wherein the tired mind or wearied body may find peaceful rest and refuge from turmoil and toil. To one making a journey in Colorado, New Mexico or Utah, or taking a transcontinenal tour from East to west, or vice versa, the Denver and much in need of help in the Sugar Rio Grande Radrond offers accommoda-Beet fields at present; we can find tions equal in elegance, convenience and employment for men, women and luxury to those with any other line with the added attractions of the unrivalled scenery along its line, abounding in a magnificent opulence of white peaks and dark canons. The month of Novem-We should be very much obliged ber, 1800, witnessed one of the most imif you would make this known in portent improvements in railroad faciliyour neighborhood, that there will be ties that has yet been made in Colorado plenty of work for three months to and the West. The completion of the standard guage of the Denver and Rio Grande Railroad from Denver, Colorado, over the mountains to Option, Utabl Thanking you before hand, we are, which five years ago was deemed as impossibility, is certainly a triumph of during and engineering skill. The new ing Tennessee Pass, threading the casess The Best Salve in the world for cuts, of Earle and Grand Rivers, giving a view of the Mount of the Holy Counecroute, taking its trains through Gleswood Springs and down the Great River to Grand Junction, theore to Halt Lake gradure of the Canon of the Great. The overland train is a model in every re cless couch everything is bright and of the "Source Line," - Stanley Wood in the "Geral Dericle."

