The many friends of our townsman, I. S. Beal will be pained to learn that he is again suffering from his old malady, and was on Sunday evening last taken to Lincoln for treatment. For some time past his family and Deyo's celebrated sticky fly paper friends noticed that his mind was again becoming unbalanced, and Thursday night last while on the street he became so violent that it was found necessary to place him in close confinement, and as his condition did not improve, but grew worse, he was removed to Lincoln as above stated. The Chibr extends sympathy to Mr. Beal and family in their sore affliction.
