for Paregoric, Drops, Soothing Syrups, and Castor Oil.
It is Pleasant. Its guarantee is thirty years' use by Millions of Mothers. Castoria destroys Worms and allays feverishness. Castoria prevents vomiting Sour Curd,

Castoria.

"Castoria is an excellent medicine for children.
Mothers have repeatedly told me of its good effect upon their children."
Dr. G. C. Osceola,
Lowell, Mass.

"Castoria is the best remedy for children of which I am acquainted. I hope the day is not far distant when mothers will consider the real interest of their children, and use Castoria instead of the various quack nostrums which are destroying their loved ones, by forcing opium, morphine, soothing syrup and other harmful agents down their throats, thereby sending them to premature graves."
Dr. J. F. Kitchener,
Oswego, Ark.

Castoria.

"Castoria is so well adapted to children that I recommend it as superior to any prescription known to me."
H. A. Archer, M. D.,
111 So. Oxford St., Brooklyn, N. Y.

"Our physicians in the children's department have spoken highly of their experience in their outside practice with Castoria, and although we only have among our medical supplies what is known as regular products, yet we are free to confess that the morals of Castoria has won us to look with favor upon it."

Adjourned until 9 a. m. July 16, 1891.

On the evening of July 15, Sherman Circle of the Ladies of the Grand Army of the Republic, and the relatives and friends of Mr. and Mrs. Patmor made a decent upon their residence surprising Mrs. Patmor on the occasion of her fiftieth birthday.
Mrs. Patmor is an excellent hostess and entertained the company with a kind and welcome word for each and all, and did not seem much discontented by being taken on surprise. Mr.
Patmor is one of the old settlers of Red Cloud, and is well and favorably known in this vicinity and made the company of thirty-five or forty feel at home.

Mrs. Patmor was the recipient of quite a number of presents as a token of the respect and esteem in which she is held by her many relatives and friends. Mrs. Balis, in behalf of the circle presented Mrs. Patmor with a bride pin, the emblem of the Ladies of the G. A. R. of which she (Mrs.
Patmor) is president, with a few appropriate remarks to which the lady responded in a way that left no doubt in the minds of any present of it being highly appreciated.

After partaking of a splendid repast and wishing the hostess many returns of her birthday the company returned home in time to intercept what might have been a congratulation by turning in the alarm of fire.

Rev. C. P. Evans of Bethany High-school, will hold services on Friday evening, July 24, and will remain over Sunday at the Christian church.

A Midnight Fire.

Early Thursday morning, about one o'clock, the alarm of fire was turned in from box four, caused by smoke issuing from R. A. Martin & Son's store in the Moon block. The department was on hand in a few seconds and with their usual perseverance had the flames under control, although it was very difficult to locate the fire at first. The origin of the fire is quite difficult to discover but it was undoubtedly the work of mice in getting hold of a box of matches that lay uncovered on the counter as there had been no fire in the store for a long time. The loss by fire and water will be quite severe, but the firm were fully insured in good companies.
The worst feature about the fire was the entire destruction of Mrs. S. R.
McBride's millinery store, which was located in the rear end of the store room. Her loss was about $800 and not a cent of insurance, but we are pleased to note that our citizens have liberally responded to an appeal for her benefit. Mrs. McBride could ill-afford to lose the amount. Mr.
Martin's loss is estimated at from $3,000 to $5,000.

Died.

1891, of heart disease, Mr. David C.
Myers, aged 88 years, 8 months and 13 days.

loosa, Iowa, in 1872, where he joined class of fifteen into the church. They came to Red Cloud seven years ago.

during that time he was baptized and became a member of the Christian

It was his last attendance at church but later received the communion and had of fellowship in his home. His severe sufferings are over, and he has entered into his rest. During his entire sickness his faithful wife cared for him day and night. No one could have done more. She, with their adopted daughter, Jennie, have the heart-felt sympathy and earnest prayers of God's people. Services were held in the Christian church, Tuesday morning, by O. H. Truman, assisted by Rev. E. J. Randall, and the remains were taken to Webb cemetery

JOHN R. DILLARD.

Sketch of the Life of a Well-Known Fayette County Man, Contributed by Dr. L. B. Todd.

Mrs. James DILLARD, on East Main street, received a telegram this morning, announcing the death of her brother-in-law, Dr. John Dillard, of this city. He died on Saturday, July 4, at Red Cloud, Nebraska, where he was visiting relatives and where he had gone after visiting various health resorts in different portions of California during the past winter and spring.

Dr. Dillard was the son of the celebrated Baptist minister, Rev. Dr. Ryland Dillard. He was born in this county, and was in the sixty-third year of his age at the time of his death.

After receiving an excellent primary education in his neighborhood schools he was graduated from the Baptist College of Georgetown, Kentucky.

He was an excellent classical scholar and well up in all branches of general history, which made him a most agreeable companion.

He received the degree of a doctor of medicine from the University of Louisville in 1852, and he was considered well prepared.

He served a year in the Louisville hospital under the distinguished surgeon, Doctor David W. Randall, who was one of his greatly admired teachers.

For many years he practiced his profession in this county, where he did an extensive and successful practice enjoying the esteem and confidence of the best people in the community.

Dr. Dillard was a man of fine practical sense. He was fond of reading, and devoted much of his spare time to flowers and bees, and became quite an authority on the cultivation of the latter.

He was of kind and genial disposition, greatly devoted to friends, of whom he had a great many, who in return were greatly attached to him, and who will bear with sincere regret his announcement of his death.

His family here shortly expect to learn the particulars of his death and make arrangements for his burial—Kentucky Leader.

tion.

On last Sunday afternoon THE baptismal affair at Inavale and after going for more than two miles in the country with eight or ten other buggy loads we decided to retrace our steps and turn our attention towards writing a story "On going to inspitime we'll take our water with us.

On Sunday night during the wind blew a hurricane and the brake got being set the car moved down grade without much trouble. It was a
