What is

CASTORIA

Castoria is Dr. Samuel Pitzer's prescription for Infants and Children. It contains neither Opium, Morphine nor other Narcotic substance. It is a harmless substitute for Paregoric, Drops, Soothing Syrup, and Castor Oil. It is Pleasant. Its guarantee is thirty years' use by Millions of Mothers. Castoria destroys Worms and allays Fevers. Castoria prevents vomiting Sour Curd, cures Diarrhoea, and Wind Colic. Castoria relieves teething troubles, cures Constipation and flatulency. Castoria assimilates the food, regulates the stomach and bowels, giving healthy and natural sleep. Castoria is the Children's Panacea—the Mother's Friend.

Castoria

"Castoria is an excellent medicine for children. Mothers have repeatedly told me of its good effect upon their children."
Dr. G. C. Osborne,
Lowell, Mass.

"Castoria is the best remedy for children of which I am acquainted. I hope the day is not far distant when mothers will remember that instead of the various quack nostrums which are destroying their loved ones, by giving opium, morphine, soothing syrup and other harmful agents down their throats, thereby sending them to premature graves."
Dr. J. F. Knapp,
Conroy, Ark.

Castoria

"Castoria is so well adapted to children that I recommend it as superior to any prescription known to me."
H. A. Archer, M. D.,
111 So. Oxford St., Brooklyn, N. Y.

"Our physicians in the children's department have spoken highly of their expertness in their outside practice with Castoria, and although we only have among our medical supplies what is known as regular Castoria, yet we are free to confess that the merits of Castoria has won us to look with favor upon it."
United Hospital and Dispensary,
Boston, Mass.

The Castoria Company, 71 Murray Street, New York City.

Obituary.

Mrs. Anna M. Nye was born at Belchertown, Mass., Oct. 15th 1840, passed away at her home in this city Aug. 1st, 1891.

Her life was one peculiarly sad and yet one of the brightest ever lived.

At the age of 14 she was united with the congregational church at Enfield, Mass. and from that time to the end when her health permitted, she was an active and earnest worker in the church.

In 1874 the husband and father was called, then the only son and only four months ago the daughter May, the memory of whose Christian life and triumphant death is still fresh in the hearts of all who knew her.

Four daughters are left, Mary, Mabel and Emma of this city and the wife of Rev. Geo. L. Dickenson of Whately, Mass., formerly of Alma in this State.

To give a fitting eulogy of such a life as hers is more than human weakness can do. As a mother she was all that a mother ever was or can be. No task was too hard, no sacrifice too great to make for those she loved better than life.

As a Christian she was a "living epistle" in whom the Christ-likeness was reflected so brightly and perfectly that to be with her and converse with her was to feel that a Divine benediction had fallen upon us.

For her to live was to live for Christ. Such a life's of infinite value to the world because it shows what Christianity can do for mankind. She taught us how a Christian lives even in great trials and in afflictions and she taught us how a Christian dies.

She has a favorite quotation which expresses beautifully her faith:

Build a little fence of trust around today, Fill it in with loving deeds, And therein stay, Look not through its sheltering bars upon tomorrow, God will help the bear what comes of joy or sorrow.

About three weeks ago she wrote a short sketch of her life and closed with the text "The Lord was her Rock, her Fortress and her Deliverer." Ps 18:2.

The funeral services were held at the congregational church by the pastor assisted by Rev. J. D. Patis of the Baptist church using the text quoted above.

The church was beautifully decorated with flowers placed by loving hands and her body laid away in the cemetery beneath a wreath of flowers she loved so well.

"There are three words that sweetly blend, That on the heart are grave, A precious seedling when they lead— They're Mother, Home and Heaven.

They twine a wreath of beautiful flowers, Which, placed at Henry's Urn, Will e'en the longest gloomiest hours, To poison sunlight turn.

If from our side the first has fled, And Hope be but a name, Let's strive the narrow path to tread, That we the end may reach."

W. C. T. U. Notes. The annual election of officers will take place on Thursday, Aug. 13th, at the Presbyterian church.

It is hoped that all the members will be present at that meeting. We would also be glad to welcome any new members.

Have you signed the "World's Petition?" If not, apply to some member of the W. C. T. U. Each one carries a copy of the petition and will be glad to obtain signers.

Mothers, send your children to the meeting of the Loyal Temperance Legion. We want a larger attendance. Every Thursday afternoon at the Presbyterian church at half past four.

We have been wondering what was the source of the great success of the Academy at Franklin and we have decided that it is due to:

1st. The culture, skill and Christian enthusiasm of the instructors, and the management.

The Campaign.

The political campaign is now about open in Webster county and other counties, and soon will be able to hear all sorts of huge stories about those men and women who dare to present their claims for public consideration. The facts are that every newspaper editor dreads the opening of a political campaign, for it is not a season of pleasure to him. If he fails to vigorously denounce every week the candidates of the opposing party as horse thieves and guilty of all the crimes of immortality in the calendar, some of the fellows in his own party think he is lacking in interest, and they are not slow to announce privately that the editor of the party organ has no snap about him. If they owned the paper, say these kickers, they would show up the fellows on the other side in their true light; and ten chances to one before election day these same kickers are privately working for the other fellows. Webster county has some of these kickers, and they are to be found in all parties. These are the fellows who make the county editor dread the opening of a political campaign.

But this year there is to be a change in the old order of things. The present denial campaign of 1892 is to be fought squarely on the tariff question. It is to be a campaign of education, and the party that produces the most truthful and convincing arguments will occupy the promised land of fat officers for the next four years. Bill McKinley's Bill is to be the great question of the hour. The democratic papers are already in the field with a literary bureau that is flourishing free trade buncombe to the country newspapers; and the republicans are going into the literary bureau business and furnish truths that will knock out the democratic sophistries.

What Ought to be Done? It takes the united effort of the whole county to make a successful fair. The farmer has a large part of it to do, for he must furnish the samples of wheat, oats, corn, vegetables, the big pumpkins, the horses, cattle, sheep and swine, and down to the barnyard rooster. It takes these to lay the foundation for a county fair, and every farmer should be represented by some thing from his fields or stock yards.

Webster county land is getting up in figures, and the owners of it should take pride in showing what the soil can raise. Let every farmer contribute a part and the fair will be an agricultural success.

The merchants of the town are interested in the fair, and they should see to it that the hall devoted to their interest is filled with a fine display.

The ladies ought to be interested in making a fine display of their handiwork in floral hall. We have in Red Cloud, a score or more ladies who are noted for artistic fancy work. They can do as much to help the fair as any class of people in the county.

The agricultural implement and wagon and carriage dealers are interested in making a grand display, for it will advertise their goods and bring them customers.

Indeed every man in the county is interested, and if all will do even a very small part we will have this year the grandest and best fair in the history of the county.

Will you do it? Can a leopard change his spots? Even if he could he would be a leopard still. So an old politician who finds it to his personal advantage to run off with some new political craze, is no better for the change. He is the same fellow, though his spots be changed. When the political fairy passes away, he will stop back again and still be the same as ever.

The chief thing that connects itself with such a man is the fact that he is not to be trusted.—Ex.

Democrats profess to believe that Boyd will be declared a citizen of the United States by the supreme court at Washington. Should the court so decide it would also recommend that our naturalization laws be repealed. If Boyd is a citizen of the United States Queen Victoria and Parnell are also.

THE TOWN. The famous Jack owned by Mr. Enigh has been moved from Richardson's barn to the Enigh ranch, near Cowles, where he will make the rest of the season. THOS. ENIGH.

J. L. Miller the harness man has a full line of rubber and leather belting.

Mr. F. C. Tuttle of Omaha, traveling for the Great Western S. & C. Co., was in the city Tuesday. He is an old acquaintance of Rev. Ely and at his request gave a short address to the Christian Endeavor Society at their business meeting Tuesday evening which was highly appreciated.

Republican Central Committee Meeting.

There will be a meeting of the republican central committee of Webster county, at the county court room in the Moon block, in Red Cloud, Saturday, Aug. 22, 1891, at 2 o'clock p. m. A full attendance is desired.

H. GILMAN, Chairman.
D. F. TRASKY, Sec'y.

Of Interest to Soldiers. Franklin, Neb., July 15, 1891.

To James A. Garfield Post No. 80, Dept. of Neb., G. A. R., Red Cloud, Neb.

Comrades: The trustees of Franklin Academy, desiring to extend the benefits of a thorough education as far as possible, and realizing that many a young person, owing to the hard times and the dearth of resources common to a new country, is wholly unable, unaided to secure the education which he desires, and desiring also to recognize the merit and do honor to the veteran soldiers of the Union Army, have decided to give free tuition for one year to the young man or young lady of your vicinity whom your post may recommend.

The only conditions are that the one recommended shall be worthy in character and ability and shall be in need of the aid. Preference will be given to the children of the old soldiers.

Yours Most Cordially,
ALEX. C. HART,
Prin. Acad. and Adjt. Post No. 136.

James A. Garfield post has accepted the above generous offer and appointed a committee to recommend to the post some suitable person on whom to bestow this favor. All applicants for this scholarship are requested to send in names at once to C. Sehenck, Post adjt., Red Cloud, Neb.

A brief statement of the facts on which the claim is based should accompany the application. All applications should be made before Aug. 17, as on that day they will be submitted to the post for approval or rejection.

G. W. KNIGHT,
Chairman of Committee.

He is a Candidate Too.

At the urgent request of his many political admirers and friends, J. C. Warner has consented to allow his name to appear before the people as a candidate for sheriff before the legislative convention at Cowles.

THE LEADER, while not attempting to draw upon his prospects or set forth his fitting qualities for the office of sheriff, may say that in the selection of him the choice might be worse. Mr. Warner has been a resident of Webster for nineteen years and in that time has officiated quite a good deal as deputy. He sided very materially in the election of Chris Fausler two years ago and consequently is personally known to almost every voter in the county, and in all fairness to him it cannot be gained that he was not what might be termed an efficient officer. While he is no friend of ours, either social or political, we desire to show that degree of courtesy to which every well calculated man or woman is entitled.—Blue Hill Leader.

Man born of woman, spanked by the hired nurse and jerked baldheaded by crinkled school masters, and attended with a varied and select assortment of troubles. He lingers on luxury's lap until his paternal ancestor fires him out to begin his battle with the world. He starts a newspaper, his friends promise to support him but in the hour of need he finds that promises, like three cent chimneys, are easily broken. If he don't pitch into the prohibitionists his "liberal" patrons cue him and if he does, his "high morality" friends stop the paper. If he refuses to be sociable with Tom, Jim and Jack they say he is stuck up, and if he makes intimate with everybody they say he is courting public favor. If he publishes all the news, science, statistics, foreign reports and business outlook, they say he is getting too frank. If he doesn't make a personal of everyone in town they feel slighted, and if he does he will finally run across some man who does not like to be personalized and get his head punched.

What is so provoking as to walk on a rickety sidewalk? How pleasant to turn up one end of a board and have your mother, wife, sister, or some other fellow's sister stumble and perhaps fall. It unjoins one with the world and bible teachings and perhaps unjoins his leg or neck. We have always considered it mighty lucky for Job and his reputation for equanimity that he didn't have to walk over several walks such as can be found in our own city of Red Cloud. Is there not some one running a risk besides the

PEDESTRIAN.

Will the tax payers still continue to do without a county poor house and allow the paupers to feed at the public crib on California fruits, or will they rigorously enter a protest? The majority of tax payers helping feed the paupers on that which they themselves cannot afford. Will this thing continue?—Blue Hill Leader.

INSANE.

We had a good rain Wednesday. Mrs. Turkington of Alma, is visiting her folks this week.

U. G. Knight, Luc Kenyon, Miss Maude Orchard and Miss Myrtle Sawyer went to Bloomington Tuesday.

Mr. McVey of Red Cloud, was in the Vale the fore part of the week. Willie Bennet started for Omaha Wednesday to work, his friends wish him success.

A number from here went to the picnic near Otto Wednesday.

Mr. Knight and wife and Mr. Wolcott and wife, went to Red Cloud Monday to attend the funeral of Mrs. Nye.

Miss May Hummel went to Red Cloud, Wednesday.

The War Cry.

EDITOR CHIEF: Since your last issue, we notice that the exponents of the independent party, have thrown out many glaring statements calculated to allure the unsophisticated into a belief that they are being sadly misled by the two old parties, and that a lack of sufficient national currency by the dominant party is the sole cause. Don't it make you tired? This everlasting harping of a set of men who have never done an honest day's work, talking about a man's poverty being caused by a lack of per capita. Better talk about giving the great hordes of agitators that have become a public nuisance six months rest, so that those men who have the wealth will again resume their courage and confidence in American enterprises, then talk about a man having his debts wiped out every seven years because he is too dishonest to pay them, or about $50 per capita, &c.

The hard times will continue just as long as men boast that they will cheat some one if they possibly can out of what they justly owe them. Such a spirit is calculated to discourage men of means from investing their spare cash and thereby giving the laboring man a chance to make a livelihood.

The sub-treasury and numerous other benevolent schemes of rotten-brained politicians are doing more harm to the vast hosts of American laborers than most anything known, as it causes them to become dissatisfied with their lot, thinking perhaps, from a latter day idea, that they could knock rich men down and help themselves to the contents of their coffers thinking they could amass wealth that way faster than by honest toil, as commanded by the Deity.

Now, the American workman let alone is all right, but when he is egged on by a lot of worthless agitators he sometimes becomes spoiled and wonders of after strange gods, only to find when too late that he has been traveling the wrong trail, and killing the goose that laid the golden egg. I tell you, Mr. Editor, that this socialistic idea is doing more harm to the people than can be summed up in hundreds of columns of THE CHIEF.

It is time that our honest, loyal and true American wage workers, and all, should put their feet on such wild and illusory fancies as are being constantly presented to them by men who have no other way of making their bread and butter than to tear assunder the peacefulness of our honest homes for the insane idea of a "sub-treasury scheme" or something as wholly unworthy of a moment's attention. Don't be fooled, Mr. Laborer, but stay by your employer, and by your daily labor in his behalf encourage him and his business, and save your money, and some day you will be better off, and much happier than if you followed in the footsteps of demagogues and agitators of the ten cent stripe. JUNO.

ABOUT THAT TIME! EDITOR CHIEF: While reading in this week's issue of The Nation, I was more amused than edified by the manner in which the editor of that paper speaks of the awarding of the delinquent tax list. It seems from his writings that he thinks the county printing is for the benefit of a party or rather for one individual of a party and that party is the Independent party and he the individual.

But what amuses me and puzzles me to understand is his statement that the vote of the supervisors on awarding the said contract, was a strictly party vote and his attempts to prove it by saying the Democrats, the Republicans and two or three Independents voted against the independent. How is that for a strict party vote?

Since the Independent party nor any individual or firm belonging to that party has a printing office or a dollar's worth of printing material, I do not see how the board of Supervisors could consistently have given the job to The Nation, and it looks like a rare exhibition of cheek—to say the least—to ask it and show a weakness and lack of good taste to howl about it. That is the way it looks to BARSO.

Attorney Chaffin, of Guide Rock, was in the city Monday and Tuesday of this week, seemingly in good health and with a contented look which would indicate that no complications politically or otherwise have any bearing upon his present or future course of a disturbing character. Mr. Chaffin as is his custom brings nothing but good reports from his town and vicinity.

We are struck with the thought that if everybody would stand squarely up for their own community in like manner we would have less graft, but enjoy greater prosperity.
