CHROSOGRAPHS are now being made that are capable of measuring to the ten-thousandth part of a second.

BERLIN UNIVERSITY is the third largest in the world. Paris, with 9,215 students, and Vienna with 6,220, are larger.

WITH some 6,000 homicides in the United States, there were but 123 legal executions. Judge Lynch officiated at 195 more.

IN the United States one railroad passenger in every 2,800,000 is killed, but in France the ratio is only one to every 25,000,000.

TRUCKEE, Nev., had a shaving contest recently. The successful artist serped his man in forty-five seconds and no blood was shed.

It is said that Spurgeon died a comparatively poor man, notwithstanding the enormous profits gained from his sermons and books, which he soon got rid of by his numerous contributions to the poor.

IN South America there are giant grasshoppers with bodies 5 inches long and a wing-spread of 10 inches. Owing to the fact that they are not very numerous, these formidable insects do not do much damage.

The prince and princess of Wales have decided to erect a monument to the duke of Clarence in the chancel of Sandringham church, and the queen intends to place a statue of her grandson in the Prince Consort's mausoleum at Frogmore.

PROF. MASSO, the Italian scientist, in experimenting with the blood of eels has discovered, by injecting it under the skin of rabbits, frogs, mice, guinea pigs, etc., that it is a rank poison, being similar in action to venom of snakes of the viper kind.

The officers and sailors of the navy get $7,500,000, and the officers and soldiers of the army $10,000,000. Uncle Sam spends $150,000 for horses for his cavalry and artillery, and pays his retired army officers a million and a half of good round dollars.

JAPAN has now a school system somewhat similar to our own. Controlled by local authorities are more than 28,000 schools, of which 20,000 are elementary. The teachers number nearly 72,000, and the scholars 3,410,000, or nearly half the total population of school age. The total annual expense of the system is about $7,000,000.

The king of Siam has recently prescribed a rigorous test for those of his subjects who claim to be endowed with the mantle of prophecy. An enactment has now been made providing that no prophet shall be entitled to public confidence unless he has the gift of sitting unharmed in the midst of a sea-coal fire for the space of at least half an hour.

The French government will soon introduce a measure compelling foreign insurance companies to maintain in France, either in money or real estate, sufficient reserves as a guarantee for persons insured in France. Penalties will also be provided in the case of persons who sign policies dated abroad—that is to say, in some place beyond the jurisdiction of the French government.

No fewer than 12,000,000 acres of barren land have been made fruitful in the Sahara desert, an enterprise representing perhaps the most remarkable example of irrigation by means of artesian wells which can anywhere be found. Algeria owes to this method of cultivation that it is becoming a most important wine-producing country, as may be gauged from the fact that it sent to France in 1896 10,500,000 gallons.

It is stated that there are in France 45,000,000 hens, which at an average price of 2 francs 50 centimes per head, represent a value of 112,500,000 francs. One-fifth of the stock is annually consumed as food, and is sold for about 25 million francs. Two million cocks, worth 5,000,000 francs, are also sold as food. The number of laying hens is put down at 35,000,000, and the annual value of their eggs is 138,000,000 francs.

An experiment in telephony has been made in Melbourne. The postmaster-general of Victoria and South Australia, with the principal executive officers, succeeded in establishing conversation between Melbourne and Adelaide, a distance of 500 miles. The governments of the two colonies have erected a copper wire (No. 12, or rather more than 1/4 inch in thickness), which is to be used for a new quadruplex telegraph instrument, and it was determined to see what could be done with the telephone over the wire. For over an hour an animated conversation was carried on, and the chimes of the Adelaide post office clock were distinctly heard in Melbourne, and vice versa.

How many people who are fond of eggs and eat them daily, ever stop to think what a wonderful thing an egg is. It is one of the greatest wonders of nature. What part of the egg is the animal? The clear white part? No. The yolk? No, that is merely food. Break a raw egg, and beside the white and yolk what do you find? On the membrane which covers the yolk you will see a little whitish circle. That is the animal. When nature brings the young animal at an early period into the water, air or water it provides it with means to live. A young alligator, no larger than a tiny lizard, takes to the water the moment it creeps out of the shell, and begins to devour what it can. It needs no protector.

CONGRESS.

The Week's Proceedings Condensed For Convenience of the Reader.

AFTER minor business on the 25th the senate went into executive session. When the doors were opened several local bills passed and resolutions were offered by Mr. Stanford in respect to the late Senator Hearst. Eulogies were delivered and the senate adjourned until Monday.

When the house met there was only a small attendance. The silver fight of the day and night before had been too much for the members. After correcting and approving the Journal the house went into committee of the whole on the private calendar. When the committee rose the house adjourned.

THE senate was not in session on the 26th. The house met with a small attendance. One hundred and sixty-seven private pension bills were considered and passed, and at two o'clock resolutions of respect to the late Representative Spinola of New York were reported, eulogies delivered and the house adjourned.

IN the senate on the 27th a resolution by Mr. Morgan was agreed to calling on the president for the correspondence with Argentina on the subject of reciprocity. A bill allowing thirty days' leave of absence in the bureau of engraving was discussed, amended and recommitted. Several bridge bills passed and the senate adjourned. But little business was done in the house. Several communications were received, and a resolution by Mr. Dockery concerning information as to the capacity of the mints was adopted. The speaker stated that the committee on rules would bring in a rule to force a vote on the silver bill unless a majority of the democrats should sign a request that that subject be postponed until routine work of the house adjourned.

WHEN the senate met on the 29th Mr. Stewart (Nev.) gave notice that he would on Monday call up the senate free coinage bill. The resolution of Mr. Wolcott requesting the president to refrain from allotting lands to the Indians pending further legislation on the subject was agreed to. The senate then went into executive session and finally by a unanimous vote ratified the Behring sea treaty, and then adjourned.

When the house met the attendance was light, the silver excitement seemed to have subsided and the tariff debate was resumed, with but little interest manifested. Mr. Harter (O.) advocated the free wool bill; so did Mr. McCrary (Ky.) and Mr. Dalton (Ga.) spoke against it. The house passed the senate bill for part delivery at Des Moines, and the resignation of Mr. Mills (Tex.) was presented to the house.

THE feature of the proceedings of the senate on the 30th was the swearing in of Senator Mills of Texas. Many members of the house were present. The new senator's desk was handsomely decorated with bouquets. After being sworn in Senator Mills held quite a reception in the rear of the chamber. After the usual morning business Senator Stanford spoke in support of his bill to determine the value of a federal tender dollar. The army appropriation bill was then considered until adjournment.

The free wool bill was further debated in the house. J. D. Taylor (O.) speaking vigorously in opposition to the bill, who denounced it as a scheme of the cotton raisers of the south and the wool manufacturers of the north to enrich themselves at the expense of the nation. Mr. Butler (Ky.) spoke in favor of the bill. A resolution was adopted that general debate close on Saturday and that a vote be taken on Monday.

THE attendance in the senate was not large on the 31st. In reply to a question Mr. Sherman, chairman of the foreign relations committee, stated that work on the Nicaragua canal was progressing favorably under a private corporation chartered by congress, and that congress had done nothing to aid it. Mr. Morgan offered a series of resolutions instructing the committee on finance to inquire and report as to the effect of the act of 1890 on the price of silver bullion and requiring a prompt report. Mr. Sherman opposed the resolutions and Mr. Morgan said he wished senators to place themselves on record for or against the free coinage. The resolutions went over and the Indian appropriation bill was debated until adjournment.

IN the house Mr. Watson (Ga.) attempted to call up his anti-Pinkerton resolution, but failed to get recognition, and the house resumed debate on the free wool bill. Gov. McKinley of Ohio was on the floor and took much interest in the discussion. The debate continued until eight o'clock, when a recess was taken. But little was done at the evening session.

DISGRACEFUL CHURCH SCENE. It occurred in London, England.—The Poole Free Church was called upon to restore Order.

LONDON, March 29.—A disgraceful incident occurred last night in Trinity church, South End. A new rector, supported by the church officials, had discharged the curate, named Waller, but, regardless of his dismissal, the curate appeared in the church as usual yesterday and began a service, and the contending services roused the anger of the congregation.

The police were called on to remove Waller, but he fought so desperately he had to be thrown to the floor before he would submit. During the struggle a number of women and children fainted.

The curate was dragged by the police to the vestry from which he insisted on walking to the police station in clerical garb, being followed by a howling mob.

NEW YORK, March 31.—The report of the formation of an "umbrella trust" is confirmed by a Boston dispatch, which says: "A combination of umbrella and parasol manufacturers is pending." Mr. Bussey, of the Excelsior Umbrella Co., said "I don't care to say anything about the matter yet for the final arrangements have not yet been made. There have been several conferences in New York lately looking to a consolidation of the umbrella establishments of New York, Boston and Philadelphia, and a committee of eleven has been appointed to make the necessary arrangements. The committee will meet in New York some time during the present week, and until something has been decided it would be premature to say anything. The agreement contemplated will concentrate the trade and result in a considerable saving, simply in the matter of house rents."

LONDON, April 1.—A brief dispatch from Rangoon announces that three-quarters of Mandalay, capital of Burma, has already been destroyed, including the new telegraph offices and the old palace and that there had been great loss of life.
