D. M. HUNTER, Editor.

Arbor Day was recognized in many schools. It was the only nice day last week, seeming to be specially favored for the good work to which it had been set apart.

Only one Arbor Day report will be given this week. Next week, all other reports will be given attention in the Educational Column, as some have not yet been received.

ARBOR DAY AT COWLES.

The children obedient to the request of their teacher, began gathering early on the bright morning of April 22d, each bringing a tree which he had carefully selected to be planted upon the school ground.

The planting began at 8 o'clock and continued until ten a. m. when it was found that 36 trees had been planted by teacher and pupils.

The regular school work was then taken up and continued till noon.

An intermission of two hours was then given during which the children were permitted to go into a large field near the school house and gather flowers. They went running, leaping, playing, full of childish glee, until their faces were all aglow with the healthful exercise and each little hand was filled with Nature's early emblems of love and purity.

The children were then formed in line, and, after various exercises and evolutions in company drill, were marched to the school house joyfully singing as they went.

School was then taken up. After hearing all the reading classes, the literary exercises were then taken up which lasted till four o'clock.

The teacher then called upon the pupils to make nominations or selections of trees to be voted upon for a state tree. Six varieties were chosen and voted upon three times by the children with about the same result each time; the Box Elder receiving 25 majority.

The teacher and pupils thinking it would be well to choose a fruit tree to be planted in the school yard, the children were permitted to choose six varieties to be voted for as state tree. The cherry tree received 25 majority.

The teacher then gave a short talk upon the history and importance of Arbor Day, after which the children went to their homes, feeling that it had been a day of pleasure and profit.

JOSEPH DRESSBACH, Teacher.
Miss Jessie Laird taught the fall and winter term in Dist. No. 77, and commenced teaching a spring term of two months April 11th in the same district.

A few years ago sod houses and dugouts were used as school houses. They served their purpose under the circumstances at that time. Frame, brick and stone houses have taken their place, showing an advance in the improvement and the development of the country.

Districts which have their school houses permanently located should take another step forward and put a neat fence about the school grounds. Hitching posts should be set outside of the fence. A gateway should be so arranged that no one could either ride or drive into the yard.

A good time to make arrangements for fencing the grounds would be at next annual school meeting.

About the first question that will be asked is will it pay?

If you wished to buy a farm, in which district would you rather buy one? in a district in which the school house was in good repair, with a neat fence about the grounds, and trees and shrubbery growing thereon, or in one in which the want of public enterprise was manifested by the sorry appearance of the school house and surroundings, other things being equal?

Notice to Non-Resident Defendants.

A. A. Adams, Jr. plaintiff.
vs
Wm. O. Cox, Rebecca Cox, Grace Sides, S. J. Whitten and The Bank of Bladen defendants in the district court of Webster county, Nebraska.

To William O. Cox, Rebecca Cox and Grace Sides, you are hereby notified that there is now on file in the office of the clerk of the court of Webster county, Nebraska, a petition of the plaintiff against you, impleaded with the other defendants named in the title of said cause, praying that the court may find the amount due the plaintiff upon one real estate mortgage note for the sum of $500, secured by mortgage made by Abigail Confield, Cox under the name of A. D. Cox, upon the following described real estate situated in the county of Webster and state of Nebraska, to-wit: The undivided one-half interest of the south-west quarter of section four (4), township four (4), range eleven (11), west of the 6th p. m., in Webster county, Neb., that a decree be entered by the court in said cause, reclosing said mortgage against you and your co-defendants; that the above described property be sold under said decree; that the proceeds of such sale be applied toward the payment of the amount due the plaintiff upon said note with interest and the costs of foreclosure, and that your right, title, lien or interest in or to or claimed by you, or either of you, in any of your co-defendants, in the above premises be adjudged to be junior and inferior to the plaintiff's mortgage on the same.

You are notified by further notice that you are required to answer said petition of the plaintiff on or before the 30th day of May, 1892, and that if you fail to answer the same on or before said day, the facts and allegations contained in said petition will be taken as true and judgment and decree rendered as therein prayed for.

High-bred Stallion
The high bred Morgan stallion, Black Hawk Chief 4th, will make the season at the stable of J. C. Holcomb on Elm street, rear of Holland house. He is a very stylish, showy horse, and carries more Morgan blood than any horse in the state. Bred to good horses, raise good colts and no longer complain of low price.

PEDIGREE: Black Hawk chief 4 was bred by B. S. Hitchcock of Valais, Minn., sire Yearly's Black Hawk chief 3 by Black Hawk chief 2 bred by Judge Bass of Sibley, Vermont, his mother Black Hawk by Sirrah's Morgan by Justin Morgan, the founder of the Morgan family. 1st dam Lady messenger; 2d by Young sambletonian; 3d dam by Bishop sambletonian; 4th dam the Prout mare by Gifford Morgan by Woodbury's morgan by Justin morgan. It will be seen that Black Hawk chief 4th traces back to Justin morgan on the sire side twice as the Prout mare does also, and carried the sambletonian blood represented by Bishop's sambletonian and young sambletonian Terms on application at above stable.
