CHEYENNE PAPERS ARE BOYCOTTED.

The Reply of Gov. Barber to the Demand Made Upon Him-Friends of the Stockmen Are Busy-Affairs in a Disturbed Condition.

CHEYENNE, Wyo., April 30 .- Gov. Barber has made an extended reply to the demand of the sheriff of Johnson county for the prisoners of war. The executive says he has every reason to believe that the persons of the stockmen would be unsafe in the section from which they were brought under military protection after the failure of the expedition. The governor is very decided in his views, and claims that he is well advised. Deputy Sheriff Roles and his assistant, of Johnson county. declare that the fears of violence to the stockmen are groundless, and say they would ask for a continuance of military protection. The opinion here is that while the accused may be compelled to visit Johnson county, it will be some time before the trip is made, and every imaginable effort will be made to avoid it. The Buffalo resolutions surprised everybody, and enemies of the stockmen say this break is the only error of the rustlers and their friends. Gov. Barber is declared a traitor to his people. It is mentioned that "we view with suspicion citizens of Johnson county who patronize the two dailies that upheld the stock commission and denounced rustling."

The resolutions guarantee the conviction of stock thieves on prima facie evidence. Letters from secret agents and others indicate that the north is still in a greatly disturbed condition. A cry for vengeance fills the air. One other newspaper has been suppressed. This is the Sheridan Post, at the capital of the county adjoining Johnson. Its editors refused to publish resolutions similar to | THE GRANT MONUMENT AS ,IT WILL BE those adopted at Buffalo. A dozen men who signed the denunciation of the state authorities have written Gov. Barber that they were forced to fall in line. The mayor of Sheridan has a fight on his hands for refusing to sign.

It was Sheriff Angus who circulated the report that in Frank Canton's valise was found a list of seventy Johnson form near by accomodated 300 members county citizens marked for death. Before leaving McKinney Mr. Canton secured his property from the shoriff. A reporter saw this famous list. There Army of the Republic. Gov. Barber has his hands full, and the attorneys on both sides and friends of the stockmen are very busy. At the fort the prisoners when not engaged with visitors are passing the time pleasantly. They have baseball nines, boxing gloves, and a piano will be added to furniture. A wire message from linney says the wounded Texan in the hospital there is improving, but is not yet out of danger.

The following are the resolutions adopted by the settlers of Johnson

Resolved. That the action of Acting Governor Amos A Barber, in permitting an armed body of men to enter this state in violation of the constitution of Wyoming, preventing the use of the state militia by sheriffs of the several counties in violation of the statutes of Wyoming, in removing civil prisoners under the escort of the United States army without apparent cause from the scene of their crimes, brand him, the said Amos W. Barber, as a traitor to his people. Resolved. That we view with suspicion any citizen of Johnson county who continues to support the Cheyenne Sun and Cheyenne Tribune either by advertising in either or subscribing to

Resolved. That the continuance of range cattle business in Johnson county within legal lines is compatible with the best interest of the country, that the free range is open to all who lawfully desire to use it and that all cattle companies who desire to range their cattle on the beautiful ranges of our county will not only be tolerated but protected as long as they are willing to abide by the law of the land.

Resolved. That we detest stealing in every form and that we pledge ourselves now and hereafter to bring every thief to justice in our courts against whom prima facie evidence of guilt can be produced. Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions

President Harrison Lays the Corner Stone of the Grant Monument at New York-Chauneey M. Depew Orator of the Day. NEW YORK, April 28.-Shortly after 3 o'clock President Harrison, with a golden trowel and in the presence of a large concourse of people, laid the corner-stone of the Grant mausoleum, the preparations for the erection of which had taken seven years. Then Chauncey M. Depew delivered the Preparations for the ceremonies had been fully completed. The president and his eabinet, accompanied by their families, arrived last night at 9:30 o'clock and were driven to the Fifth Avenue hotel.

The entire city presented a scene of unusual excitement. The streets were thronged with people. Veterans in uniform and soldiers in brilliant garb were seen on all sides.

The presidential party were escorted from the hotel to Riverside cemetery by troop A, Capt. Charles G. Rowe com-

President Harrison then moved forward, was given a gold trowel by Superintendent of Buildings Brady and laid the corner stone, a massive block of Maine granite, so smooth and white that at a short distance it cannot be told from marble. It is six feet square and weighs just a little less than twelve tons.

THE NEW COUNTRY.

Thirty Thousand Settlers Reported to Be Upon the Cheyenne and Arapahoe Lauds.

GUTHRIE, Ok., April 28.—Gov. Seay yesterday returned from the Cheyenne and Arapahoe reservation, having spent a week in the saddle, and in that time witnessed a 4,000,000 acre tract of land change from a primeval wilderness to a farming community, thickly dotted with homes, and flanked by a half score of busy, growing towns. Nowhere else on earth has such a transformation taken place. Thirty thousand permanent residents are now building homes where a week ago was nothing but the Indian and the prairie dog. The governor is perfectly satisfied with the perfection of all arrangements of the opening, and is proud of the people of Oklahoma and the entire west, because of the great respect for law and order shown by all throughout the exciting scenes of the opening. Up to the time of his leaving the reservation yesterday he had been unable to learn of any trouble of any kind, and further reports received to-day make it absolutely certain that not a hostile shot was fired, nor a single man wounded or injured during or since the opening. Col. Wade, commanding at Fort Reno, telegraphed last night, that all reports of conflicts between soldiers and sooners, and between different parties of settlers, have been thoroughly investigated, and are absolutely without foundation. Reports from every county seat state that business is starting out nicely; that all is quiet, and there has been no trouble of any kind. All this shows that, contrary to the general belief in the east, the people of Oklahoma and the whole west are law-abiding.

A Battle With Tramps. COLUMBUS, Ind., April 28.—Yesterday morning as the Panhandle freight went south two negro tramps boarded a car and took refuge behind a coal oil tank. They were ordered off, but declined to go, and when the trainmen persisted the tramps used their revolvers, firing several times. The trainmen thereupon began closing in upon them from both front and rear and several shots were ex-

The Week's Proceedings Condensed For Convenience of the Reader. AFTER routine business in the senate on the 22d Mr. Hoar introduced a bill from the judiclary committee to amend the revised statutes authorizing the appeal to circuit courts in cases where persons convicted claimed to have acted under authority of any United States statute or of any foreign power. The urgency deficiency bill was further debated and passed. The Chinese bill was then considered until the close of the session.... The house further debated the report of the elections committee on the Noyes-Rockwell contested case from New York, the report being almost unanimous in favor of unseating Rockwell (dem.) and awarding the seat to Noyes, contesting republican. A vote was finally reached and the majority report was rejected and Rockwell declared entitled to retain his seat by 128 yeas to 106 nays. At the evening session pension bills were considered.

In the senate on the 23d Mr. Teller offered a resolution requesting the president to inform the senate what steps, if any, have been taken toward securing an international conference on free coinage of silver. The resolution was adopted, and the Chinese bill taken up and Mr. Teller addressed the senate in support of it. Pending further debate the senate adjourned.

.... In the house a conference was ordered on the District of Columbia bill and a motion to expunge from the Record certain unparliamentary remarks of Mr. Walker (Mass.) developed no quorum and the house adjourned.

THE senate on the 25th resumed consideration of the Chinese exclusion bill and the debate continued until & o'clock, when a vote was taken on the substitute to the house bill reported by the foreign relations committee and it was adopted by a vote of 43 to 14 and the bill as amended passed and a conference asked. The bill continues ten years all laws prohibiting Chinese coming to this country. All Chinese or descendants of Chinese illegally found in this country are to be returned to China or to the countries of which they are citizens .... When the house met the resolution (pending at adjornment Saturday) expunging certain re-marks of Mr. Walker (Mass.) from the record was taken up, the pending question being the motion of Mr. Reed (Me.) to table the resolution. No quorum appeared, as the republicans refrained from voting. The motion to table was finally rejected and in attempting to pass the resolution the quorum again disappeared by members declining to vote and the house adjourned.

AFTER routine business in the senate on the 26th Mr. Coke spoke in favor of free coinage. Mr. Morgan's resolution being before the senate. Mr. Daniel also spoke in favor of free silver. The army appropriation bill was then discussed. No action was reached. A communication was received from the president in response to Mr. Teller's resolution as to an international silver conference. The president stated that it would be incompatible with the public interest to furnish the information at present. It was ordered printed and laid on the table for debate .... After the passage of several private bills the house took up the regular order, the expunging from the Record of remarks not uttered but printed by Mr. Walker (Mass.), but the house went into committee on the consular and diplomatic bill. After consideration some time the committee rose, a conference was appointed on the Chinese bill and the house adjourned.

THE army appropriation bill was further considered in the senate on the 27th, and after a long speech by Senator Morgan the house proviso which prohits payment for the transportation of troops over any of the unbonded lines owned,or controlled by the Union Pacific railway was stricken out. The bill was then passed Adjourned ... When the house met the Walker expunging resolution still had the right of way, but by unanimous consent the house went into committee of the whole on the diplomatic bill, but the absence of a quorum soon became apparent and the house adjourned. (the Cheyenne and Arapahoe reservation) was taken up and Mr. Allison spoke against it. He wanted the whole matter recommitted. After considerable debate the matter went over and the senate adjourned until Monday....The house, after doing nothing for awhile, went into committee of the whole on the diplomatic bill but upon the first vote no quorum appeared and the house soon adjourned.

A REMARKABLE LETTER.

Prominent Professional Man's Extrac dinary Statement.

[N. Y. Sun.] To the Editor: Sin-As my name and face have appeared in your paper and the public prints lately, and as many of my professional brethren are wondering at it, I feel it only just that I should make an explanation. The statement published over my name was made ten years ago, after long and mature investigation, and I have never changed my mind as to the facts then stated. At that time I said, as a physician, that I believed Warner's Safe Cure was the best of all known preparations for the troubles it was advocated to cure, and I say so still. I know it is considered the proper thing for the medical profession to decry proprietary and other advertised articles; but why should they do so? As the late Dr. J. G. Holland, writing over his own name in Scribner's Monthly, said:

"It is a fact that many of the best proprietary medicines of the day are more successful than many physicians, and most of them were first discovered or used in actual medical practice; when, however, any person knowing their virtue and foreseeing their popularity secures and advertises them, in the opinion of the bigoted all virtne went out of them.'

Dr. Holland was an educated physician, an unprejudiced observer, and he spoke from a broad and unusual experience. Proprietary medicines should not be decried. The evidences of their value are overwhelming. I have seen patients recover from gravel, inflammation of the bladder and Bright's disease after using Warner's Safe Cure, even when all other treatment had failed. I make this frank and outspoken statement in the interests of humanity and because I know it to be true. I trust for the same reason you will give it to the public. Respectfully, R. A. GUNN. No. 124 West Forty-Seventh street, New

The leading article of the number (splendidly illustrated) is Adaline Fordham's stirring description of "A Mediæval Stronghold," the great French castle of Pierrefonds, which, dismantled by Richelieu, has been restored by the famous French architect, Viollet-le-Duc. Philip Hale's story, "A Grain of Sand," is one of the good things of the number. Miss Helen Gray Cone tells about "A Picture Book of 1789"-William Blake's home-made and hand-made "Songs of Innocence;" Alexander Black has a unique sleeping-car story, "Upper Nine;" M. B. Ryerson contributes a charming story of a little studio girl, "Phebe Stout-Sculptor." There is a bright story for Decoration Day, "Almost a Deserter," by Miriam Brastow, and a stirring ode for the same memorial occasion, addressed to American boys and girls-"Decoration Day," by Elbridge S.
