D. M. HUNTER, Editor.

Teacher's brigad Arbor Day reports will be found in this column this week. Many of the reports deserve being published in full. The teachers of our county are doing honest, faithful work and deserve to be recognized by the public as a great factor in the perpetuity and the advancement of our civilization.

Dist. No. 1: We spent the afternoon planting 24 trees.—Lewis W. Smith, Jessie Arnold, Teachers.

Dist. No. 5: We spent the entire afternoon in planting trees, shrubs and flowers.—Mac Hobart, Teacher.

Dist. No. 17: We set out forty popular and fifteen box elder trees and had a short literary program.—J. M. Richardson, Teacher.

Dist. No. 20: In the afternoon we made a walk in front of the schoolhouse and planted three trees on either side of it. We planted some rose bushes and other small shrubs, and had some literary exercises.—Nora McCall, Teacher.

Dist. No. 23: We had singing, speaking, etc., appropriate to the day. We also planted trees and flowers.—Lottie Fay, Teacher.

Dist. No. 27: In the afternoon we had a short literary program, after which we set out eight trees and some rose bushes besides several bunches of striped grass and flags.—Mabel Truman, Teacher.

Dist. No. 29: We had some literary exercises but did not plant any trees because they are talking of building a new school house and do not know where they will build it.—Allie D. Helton, Teacher.

Dist. No. 32:—As our school yard is not fenced, we could not plant any trees, they would only be destroyed in winter. We spent the afternoon in literary exercises and talks about Arbor Day: Some of the scholars planted trees at home after school.—Lottie King, Teacher.

Dist. No. 35: We observed the day here by a short program and setting out trees.—Carrie Hill, Teacher.

Dist. No. 37: The afternoon was spent in literary work and in planting twenty-six trees, boxelder, plum, and ash. The scholars seemed to enjoy the work, and it was a general success.—Mrs. Jennie Hall, Teacher.

Dist. No. 40: Arbor Day was observed by planting nineteen trees and by following the program given in the N. W. Jour. of Ed. with exercises added to it from the Popular Educator.—Laura McBride, Teacher.

Dist. No. 41: We planted ten trees.—M. M. Million, Teacher.

Dist. No. 58: The school observed Arbor Day by planting twelve trees in the morning, and by having appropriate exercises, recitations, readings, etc., in the afternoon.—Lulu Barber, Teacher.

Dist. No. 59: We planted four trees could plant no more for want of space. A short literary program was carried out. The pupils planted one tree in honor of the present teacher and one in honor of last year's teacher.—N. E. Bottom, Teacher.

Dist. No. 60: As the ground had not been ploughed it was difficult to set out many large trees. We planted twenty-five trees and a great variety of flowering shrubs.—Laura Laird, Teacher.

Dist. No. 62: We planted thirty-three trees, naming them after prominent men of the U. S. With each tree, the pupil who planted it buried a bottle, sealed, containing his name. We buried all our names under one tree that we named J. Sterling Morton. The board and many patrons were present. We had literary exercises also.—Maude Orshard, Teacher.

Dist. No. 66: My school planted twenty-nine trees and one rose. Each class is to have charge of the trees that they planted. We had a short literary program.—Lizzie Marker, Teacher.

Dist. No. 76: After literary exercises, we marched out of the school room in five divisions of five pupils each, singing "Arbor Day March." Each division planted a tree and the leader named it. We closed by singing "America."

Dist. No. 77: After planting many trees, shrubs, and flowers, we had "Arbor Day" exercises consisting of appropriate songs and recitations.—Bessie Laird, Teacher.

Dist. No. 78: Two schools: As the school house is surrounded by trees, we planted only a few shrubs, and had speaking by each one of the pupils.—Lona Bailey, Teacher.

The pupils were interested in the exercises of the day. We planted twenty-two trees and had literary exercises.—B. E. Pope, Teacher.

Dist. No. 80: We planted fourteen forest and four fruit trees, and spent the remainder of the afternoon in recitations and songs.—Minta Cling, Teacher.

Dist. No. 56: We used the program given in North Western Jour. of Ed. and a good time was enjoyed by all. For State tree the oak received a majority of seventeen.

Among the trees planted was one cherry tree which the pupils named George's Little Cherry Tree. One of the pupils says that he is going to make a little basket to tie to the tree.—Addie F. Hayes, Teacher.

The teachers' meeting at Bladen, Apr. 23d, was well attended, well conducted, and interesting.

Purify Your Blood. The importance of keeping the blood in a pure condition is universally known, and yet there are very few people who have perfectly pure blood. The taint of scrofula, skin rashes, or other foul humor is hereditarily transmitted for generations, causing untold suffering, and so also accumulates poison and germs of disease from the air we breathe, the food we eat, or the water we drink. There is nothing more conclusively proven than the positive power of Hood's Sarsaparilla over all diseases of the blood. This medicine, when faithfully tried, does expel every trace of scrofula or salt rheum, removes the taint which causes catarrh, neutralizes the acidity and cures rheumatism, drives out the germs of malaria, blood poisoning, etc. It also vitalizes and enriches the blood, thus overcoming that tired feeling, and building up the whole system. Thousands testify to the superiority of Hood's Sarsaparilla as a blood purifier. Full information and statements of cures sent free.

He who Wants Health Wants Everything!

There are millions of persons in this country who suffer from chronic diseases or an affliction which incapacitates them from business, and frequently makes life a burden, many of whom would place themselves under different treatment if they were acquainted with the fact that a new treatment was in reach of them. Remedial agents for many of those ills we have endeavored to secure. Of such we offer to the afflicted one, on a business like basis, the management of which we trust will be tempered by a moral and philanthropic principle.

We practice the Brinkerhoff treatment of all forms of RECTAL DISEASES. We personally owe a debt of gratitude to the father and founder of this system and not to publish to the world such knowledge, would be to do mankind an injustice. This is the remedy that thousands bless, and one that I have secured at great expense, tried and tested before offering it to you for your consideration and investigation. Descriptive pamphlets sent free on application. Office consultation free. Names of parties who have been cured cheerfully given on application.
