 At the independent convention on the 6th, McKeighan was nominated by acclamation for congress. It remains to be seen whether he will be elected or not.
 Guilford & Co., have reopened the meat market that was sold out last week. Mr. G. is an old and well-known citizen of Red Cloud and understands the business fully.
 Buy your flour at L. P. Albright's flour and feed store, on the corner of 4th Avenue and Webster street. His brands are the equal of any sold, and figures are as low. See him before you buy.
 Anderson Hedge and wife, were married 23 years April 20th, and the occasion was duly celebrated by them, their many friends gathering in on the occasion, and wishing them God speed in their journey through life.
 What Red Cloud should now do is to see that we have good roads leading to Red Cloud. This enterprise would mean thousands of dollars to Red Cloud in the course of a year. It is an important object that Red Cloud should keep in view.
 What are our people going to do about bridges? We need one across the river near the Red Cloud mills. This bridge should be built by Red Cloud's aid; then there ought to be one at Amboy. That bridge the county should build as it is a necessity.
 The Red Cloud creamery is now open for business, and we believe is a mighty good investment for the city. The butter made is of a fine quality and equal to any that we have seen if not superior. The firm should be fully encouraged by our citizens.
 Bro. Shields, of the Leader, with his usual determination to outdo all competitors, issued a 10,000 edition last week, booming Blue Hill, and surrounding country, and it was done well. In fifteen columns he told of the wonderful growth of his city and county, besides giving the business man a good send off. Shields is a rustler.
 Pardon another allusion to wire nails, but have any of our freetrade friends noticed that the Pittsburg quotation is now $1.65 per 100 pounds? The tariff on that quantity of nails amounts to $2. Why does not the manufacturer add the tariff to the price and sell the goods for $3.65? He could do it if the tariff were only a tax.
They May Be Indicted.
 It is the intention of the officials of the treasury department to attempt to secure indictments against officers of the defunct national banks in Broken Bow and Red Cloud for violations of the national banking laws. #### Congressional Talk.

(McCook Tribune.)
 Phelps county republicans have declared in favor of McPheesley for congress.
 Franklin county republicans are pushing the congressional candidacy of their favorite son, Colonel J. D. Gage.
 The first gun of the season for McKeighan was fired at Holdrege last Saturday when the independent county convention instructed its congressional delegates in favor of him.
 Lawyer McNeny, of Red Cloud, has caught the contagion and has developed a strong ambition to succeed Congressman McKeighan. He will go to McCook solidly supported by his own delegation.
 And still another county has been heard from. This time it is Nuckolls, and she is anxious to make O. E. Adams our next congressman. It is really surprising what a prolific crop of candidates is so suddenly springing up.
 Furnas county has no congressional candidate, and the delegates to the McCook convention will not be handicapped by resolutions or instructions. They will be perfectly free to support whom they conscientiously believe to be the most available man.—Oxford Standard.
 Col. C. W. Meeker, of Imperial, and C. E. Adams, of Superior, are both candidates for congress at present.
 Nuckolls county sends a delegation to McCook for C. E. Adams for congress.
 Every county in the fifth district has a candidate for republican congressional honors.
 Kearney county stands by her favorite son and sends several J. L. McPheesley men to the McCook convention.
 The Democrat still insists that John C. Allen, secretary of this great commonwealth, is the strongest candidate the republicans in the fifth district could nominate for congress.
 Webster county now has its own republican candidate for congress. The delegates will urge the nomination of Hon. James McNeny, as fine a young man as practices law in the Republican Valley, but after all only a small mouthful for Billy McKeighan. Just the same the McCook convention will be a corker.—Adams County Democrat.

LOCAL BREEZES.

It is well to look before you leap even in buying clothing, and it will certainly be of advantage to any one's pocket to look over the stock at the Golden Eagle. Wiener, the proprietor has had many years experience knows where to buy goods, and is always looking out to give his customers bargains, so that they will come back to trade.

For Cab to any Part of the City
 Leave orders with J. O. Lindley. I will fill your orders promptly, and give you good service.
 J. H. CLINE, Prop.
 The Morgan horse has long been noted as the road horse par excellence, and the localities where they are to be found are haunted by buyers of roadsters. The Morgan bred stallion, Black Hawk Chief 4, should sire a class of colts that will sell at remunerative prices. The attention of breeders is called to this horse. He can be seen at the stable of J. C. Holcomb north of Holland House.
